NEW YORK, Sept. 20. - Special dispatches from Richmond may be accounted for by the rebels withdrawing their stores from the line of the Tennessee Raitroad and scattering them South through North Carolina toward Atlanta, Ga. This is caused by the capture of East Tennessee by Gen. Burnside.

Advices from the Army of the Potomac state that the rebels appear in increased force along the line of the Rapidan, as though determined to resist its crossing by our troops, but showing no disposition to cross themselves. A small number of prisoners have been brought in, including a rebel captain. They report that Lee is in command. It is not believed a battle is imminent.

THE TRIBUNE FOR 1864. PROSPECTUS.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, first issued March 10, 1841, has to-day a larger aggregate circulation than any other newspaper published in America, or (we believe) in the world. Compelled a year since to increase the price of its several issues, or submit to magnitude of its circulation, it has probably since parted with some patrons to whom its remarkable eapness was a controlling recommendation; but it has, nevertheless, more than Two Hundred Thousand subscribers and regular purchasers-an excess of at least Fifty Thousand over those of any rival. And this unprecedented currency it has achieved by very liberal expenditures in procuring early and authentic intelligence, by the fearless expression of convictions, by the free employment of ability and industry wherement of our enterprise, and by unshrinking fidelity
