...$1.50 ATMENT IN ALL CASES IN ADVANCE. Any person sending us Ten Sulscribers, with the money-FIFTERN DOLLARS-we will send them one copy extra for heir trouble. For Twenty Subscribers, two copies extra and for every additional ten, a copy.

ALL Larrans roz ca, either on business connected with this Paper or otherwise, should hereafter be directed to ws at Fredericton.

SPECIAL NOTICE. ture, be strictly adhered to. To Our Post Office address is Rev. E. McLgoo, Frede-

Beligious Intelligencer.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 2, 1863.

I EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Yarmouth, N. S., Sept. 23, 1863. Our brief correspondence of last week was written from Beaver River, distance about twelve miles from Cogswell and his people, to occupy the Baptist Intelligencer. We trust our present visit will result paper an account of the meeting. church during the Sabbath, appointments were an- in a considerable addition to our subscription list. nounced for brother Hartley to preach in the Free The brethren in Nova Scotia will now understand Baptist church in the morning, and in the Baptist in | that our columns are open for communications from the evening. Ourselves to preach in the Baptist in them on all matters connected with the prosperity the morning, and in the other in the evening. Bro- of the churches and denomination; and we invite inther Noble preached in the Free Baptist church at 3 telligence of revivals, or any other matters, religious P. M., which was the only service held at that hour. or secular, which may possess interest. The day was rainy, with a high wind, and very un-

Weston, not being present, in consequence of illness, the scattered cause at Beaver River, and extend to the election of another became necessary. In our other places. On Monday evening brother Hartley Conferences in New Brunswick the Chairman is al- preached a convicting sermon to a large addience, ways selected from among the ministers; here it is The subject was the necessity of immediate religion. different, laymen generally fill that office. The On Tuesday evening we preached to an overflowing session being opened by singing and prayer, the follhouse, on the necessity of preparing the way of the lowing brethren were elected officers of the Confer- Lord, by removing the obstacles that hinder revival. ence for the ensuing year-N. Churchill, Esq., Chair- Both of these meetings were of great power. Many man, J. Durkie, Esq., Assistant Chairman, brother J. cried aloud for mercy, and several wanderers were Porter, Secretary, and brother G. Perry, Assistant restored. Although the services were protracted to Secretary. Brother Churchiil, in taking the Chair, a very late hour before being closed, many persons made some very appropriate remarks, and tendered lingered, and lingered, after the Benediction was prosome excellent advice. The rules for the government nonnced, as though they could not leave the place of the Conference, and the regulation of debates, were unblessed. The prayers of penitent souls were heard read, after which some visiting brethren were admitt- that night from different places where they had ed. Elder C. McMullin, of our N. B. Conference, sought private retreats to pour out their hearts to who has been in this Province for a few weeks, was God. Brother Hartley remains to labour in the work present, and admitted as a member. The doings of until Saturday. Our appointments at Carleton, Kempt, the Quarterly Meetings were next read and approved. and other places, where we wish to look after the in-The constitution and order of the Conference here is terests of our paper, have called us away. We shall quite different from ours. The Conference here is meet again at Tusket on Saturday, and remain there composed of Elders, Deacons, and Delegates, sent by over the Sabbath. A new place of worship is to be the Churches. The Quarterly Meetings are adjourned opened there. To God be the glory for his mercy vouch-Conferences, and embrace all the Churches, so that safed to us thus far during our visit to this province. a Quarterly Meeting may sometimes have the full In a subsequent letter we shall refer to some divisions strength of the denomination. All business, how- and distractions which sadly weaken the Free Baptist ever, transacted in a Quarterly Meeting, must always interest here, and which never should have existed. receive the approval of the Annual Conference, in September 24th.—Last evening we attended a Misorder to be valid. But little business was transact sionary meeting in this town, held in the Baptist ted during the morning session beyond organizing, church. The object was to raise funds to sustain the how God is working among us. Not long ago a the appointment of committees, &c. The Afternoon mission to the Acadia French. A Baptist Mission to Roman Catholic, who had resisted all the efforts I Session, for reporting the Churches, commenced at that part of the population in Nova Scotia has been had made at different times to convert him from the 2 F. M. This was a public meeting, and was largely in existence for about eleven years. A Mr. Chute errors of Rome, fell from his horse in the midst of our attended. The whole number of Churches in the was the first missionary, but his health failed, and a could not live much longer. Though the priest was Denomination in this Province, is twenty-one, with Mr. Normandee, a convert under the French Mission | not very far off, to my great surprise and joy he called an aggregate membership, as reported, of 1980. The in Canada, has since been labouring. He was present for me. "Father Chiniquy," said he on my arrival, largest membership reported by any one church was and gave an account of the habits of the people so-260. There are five churches in Cornwallis and vici- cially and religiously, and of the progress of the enough to understand that there is only one name to nity, among which the labors of Brother Noble are mission. But little has yet been accomplished, but be invoked to be saved,—the blessed name of Jesus! divided. Elder Knowles has the pastoral care of seed is being sown, and the foundation being laid, I know it is to Jesus we must go to be forgiven. I three; Elder Sullivan of three; Elder Weston three; which it is hoped will result in the regeneration of have called you here to know from you if I cannot Elder Stokes one, and Elder Swim one. This leaves the Acadian French physically and spiritually from as my only Mediator and Saviour?" five without pastoral care. Those brethren, however, their degraded and priest-ridden condition. who have charge of other churches, occasionally visit We have not yet had an opportunity of viewing ment, filled me with the hope that the dear Saviour the destitute, ones and preach among them. There the town of Yarmouth much. No Free Baptist are two or three ministers, besides those named, but Church exists here. We learn that a number of ble errors of the Church of Rome is to teach that from age and ill health they do not labor constantly. persons who are members of churches in the country | Jesus is angry against the sinners, that He is reject-A large and interesting church and congregation here, and some warm friends to our cause, beside, ing their prayers on account of their sins, and that, to exists at Port Medway, on the shore between this and that it is in contemplation to "arise and build" appears Him and bring His mercy upon us, we must and Halifax. They have two large places of worship, a good place of worship. It is much needed, and the one is new, and, we are told, is a fine building; it churches in the country should aid in this work. No In a word, the great iniquity of the Church of Rome was built principally through the liberality and zeal denomination will exert any great influence in any is to have forgotten the Jesus of the gospel, who is of Deacon Eldred Cahoon and a few others. This country, unless it strikes its roots into the cities and the only true friend of sinners, as He is their only place is entirely unsupplied, and is represented as an towns. In those places are usually the head quarters interesting and promising field of labour for any Free of wealth and intelligence, both of which are of the Jesus, who must be appeared in His wrath by the Christian Baptist minister, belonging to either Pro- utmost importance in sustaining the cause of Christ | Virgin Mary or some other saints. But the best way vince, possessing piety, intelligence, and talent equal when leavened with piety. Yarmouth is a much to know what your Church teaches about Jesus and to the requirements of the place. At Harmony, also, larger town than we expected, and we are told it poswhere our late esteemed brother Thorp labored and sesses a large amount of wea.th. May Yarmouth be- with the sick man, read him the fifteenth chapter of died, no minister is located at present. The name of come as distinguished for piety and zeal for God, as St. Luke, and left, in order to let him alone with the brother Thorp, we are told, is held in affectionate relit is for its noble ships and commercial enterprise. pricat, to whom he had sent a call. membrance there; he was much beloved for his amiable and exemplary deportment as a christian, and his faithful labours as a minister. His memory is blessed. The additions to the denomination during the year were 119; the largest addition in any one church favorable for the services, but, notwithstanding, large church and community where it was held, promises congregations were in attendance through the day. at the time we now write, the most precious and Indications of good were apparent, and subsequent blessed results. The work of revival has evidently results have not disappointed the expectations. commenced with much power, and with the con-The former Chairman of Conference, brother W. ance of proper labour, we have no doubt will restore

LETTER FROM BROTHER A. TAYLOR.

Andover, Sept. 28, 1863. was 27: this was at Scott's Bay, where brother Noble my labours, I have to inform you that I spent some labours a part of his time. At Camberry Head, days in the Parish of Kant after the close of the where brother Sullivan labours a portion of his time, District Meeting. In Middle Kent the place where twenty-four had been added. Brother Knowles gave the District Meeting was held, the prospect for a time tions; and he expended a great deal of eloquence in point of death. The statement was been added. a most interesting account of a revival of religion at was apparently very good, and we thought we should proving that "the Virgin Mary, being a woman and such rare popular elequence. This mould, these priority that the Virgin Mary, being a woman and such rare popular elequence. This mould, these proving that "the Virgin Mary, being a woman and such rare popular elequence. This mould, these proving that "the Virgin Mary, being a woman and such rare popular elequence. This mould, these proving that "the Virgin Mary, being a woman and such rare popular elequence." a place called Wood's Harbour. The cause for a see some revival; but like many other appearances long time had been in a scattered condition, and had they proved fallacious, and the mercy cloud passed by Mary being a woman, it was more easy for poor a faithful man, is not known beyond his parish! An, of Col. Cole, and the members of the hand, also of the hand been abandoned by public laborers as hopeless; but for the present. In the 2d church in Kent (Fitzherone sister resided there whose faith failed not; she bert's neighbourhood) I laboured some days. This maintained a prayer meeting for years, sometimes church had been in a very low scattered state for only two or three beside herself attending. But some time. A few brethren had tried to uphold the own experience. She must then be more naturally always on the Lord's day, when her health would worship of God; but after a good deal of consulta- inclined to be compassionate to our mercies than God, permit, she went to the place of worship, would sing tion on the subject, we came to the conclusion that a hymn, read a portion of God's word, and pray. the church had lost its visibility, and ought to be re- be able to refuse her request." The time at last came to favor Zion, a glorious work organized. Accordingly, on Thursday the 24th inst., of grace followed, some most unlikely cases of con- the Rev. J. T. Parsons, S. R. Curry, and the writer, version took place, and a great temperance reform with brethren J. Hartt and J. Jones, met with the followed. Several vessels sail from Wood's Harbour people, and after a number had spoken, we proceeded on fishing voyages to the Banks of Newfoundland; to organize a church of Christ in the usual manner. | want you again." while there, it has become customary, when possible, A very good season was enjoyed in the services, and to be near each other on the Sabbath, to assemble on although the church is small, yet we trust it will in. sick Roman Catholic friend. "Ab, Mr. Chiniquy," lates the following passages from a Tamil book, the board of one vessel, and hold a prayer meeting. A crease in numbers, and be filled with the Holy Ghost. new thing has thus resulted from the revival at We also had a few meetings with the 1st church in somebody in heaven who is more tender, and com- "I yearn for him. Oh ye Sun and Moon, tell me Wood's Harbour -- a prayer meeting on the Banks of Kent (Holmes' Settlement), and saw a very good pros- passionate, and merciful to poor sinners than Jesus, who set you in your unvarying course of day and Newfoundland! As a general thing, the cause among | pect for a revival; a number confessed their wanderthe churches here is low, and previous to the Conferlings, and some twelve or fourteen sinners desired an ence much discouragement was felt. We think, interest in the prayers of the people. Could we only true friend, my infinitely merciful and sufficient. Clouds, which come and drop in thirsty places your however, the Annual Session just closed has relieved have stopped longer, no doubt we should have seen advocate. I know and I feel that nobody on earth genial rain, think and speak. Can you tell me the many minds of their despondency, and given a new more done; but was glad to see and feel what we did, or in heaven can love me, and be so merciful to me as way in which my divine Master pours down, as freely and promised to see them again if the Lord will. my Jesus, who has shed His last drop of blood for as ye do, his copious showers of grass? Oh thou The Charlottetown papers report that potatoes and leading Marine Insurance Companies in London rests of the denomination were discussed and reported that God heard prayer; and in the afternoon, in com- before I die come often, day and night, to speak to forth thy vast bonds? Tell me, too, ye forest birds upon. These reports, we presume, will be published pany with Bro, G. T. Hartley, we rode to the Camp- me of nothing but of my dear and beloved Saviour with variegated wings, have ye ever gazed upon and pleased to learn that Messrs, Barnes & Co., of Pri in the Minutes of Conference. The cause here has bell Settlement (Tobique River), and preached to an Jesus." had most painful and severe trials to endure, which interesting congregation in the evening. The next which he was uttering these words. It was visible have nearly disheartened many of the burden-bearers day, Sabbath, preached three times; had the help of that Jesus had come to visit that new Zaccheus in in Israel. The darkest hours, it is believed, have now | brother Hartley through the day, and certainly he | His mercy; that He had converted the soul; that He Parties wishing to pay money in Saint John for the passed, the severest storm nearly or quite subsided, done efficient service. On Monday morning brother had made peace with His prodigal son; that He was carrying on His shoulders His stray sheep. What Intelligencer, can do so at the Bookstore of Mesers. Basses & and with patience, union, and devotion on the part of we were hearing with our ears and seeing with our montane Bishops of France a greatly needed lesson. the leaders in the denomination, the Free Christian preach again. On Tuesday brother J. T. Parsons eyes was surely the work of our merciful Jesus; and The Archbishops of Cambrai, Tours, and Rennes, Baptist interest in this Province will arise, spread, and came to my aid, and in the evening he preached an what a marvellous work it was! be strengthened beyond anything formerly enjoyed appropriate sermon on prayer; the next day we had what He had done; and after the prayer, standing the elections—a pamphlet signed by them all, and by it. The Afternoon Session on Tuesday was pub- a social meeting, and a good meeting it was: in the by his bed, I began to read the fifteenth chapter of telling the people which way to vote. They assumed, Our terms of Asvance Parsant will in every case in fullic, and occupied in hearing reports on the Sabbath, evening brother Parsons preached again. Subject, John. When I came to the words, "Ye are my in fact, the power of a Synod, and this in temporal Sabbath Schools, Temperance, and Tobacco using, Christian Heroism. The next day went to Three friends," torrents of tears began to flow from his eyes; matters. They are accordingly informed by an Imwith several addresses on each. This was a long and Brooks, held a meeting at the house of brother Wm. and with his hands stretched as if he were pressing perial decree of August 16, drawn up in the form interesting meeting. The object was to diffuse light Margison, when brother P. preached. Subject, The and beaming with joy, he was exclaiming, "He is mental maxim of the public law of France that the and instruction on all these subjects. The Temper- Unsearchable Riches of Christ: a good season was my friend; He is my friend; He is the friend of such Head of the Church and the Church itself have not ance cause was represented as progressing in this enjoyed, and a number came forward for prayers. an ungrateful sinner as I am; how can we love and received any power except upon spiritual matters," County. Our denomination as such, is pledged to The two following days we had meetings below, and bless Him enough?" County. Our denomination as such, is pledged to the two tollowing days we nad meetings below, and total abstinence principles. The closing business the writer tried to preach. On Saturday afternoon we his tears, and to unite my humble blessing to Jesus all Europe for that outspoken reminder of a truth too session of the Conference was held on Wednesday had a Conference meeting; a good season was enjoyed, with his seraphic and burning expressions of love often forgotten even in Protestant lands. The Times morning. Brother Hartley nor ourselves were pre- and one spoke for the first time, and told us she and joy. sent only just at its close, but we learn that the ut- desired an interest in our prayers. On Sabbath 20, During the six days of his sickness, he would difficulty in this country in understanding the reasons most harmony prevailed, and all matters discussed the day was rainy: brother Parsons preached morn-speaking to him of the love and the mercies of Jesus sympathies will be with the Emperor in such a policy. made for the ordination of brother Jacob Porter, who The next morning we bid the people on the Tobique of the gospel. the town of Yarmooth, where we now write. The tion will likely take place at the next Quarterly Meet that seed was sown in this visit that will eventually a few moments the dear Saviour will come and take part of the French superior clergy, and will force passed along. When the procession arrived in the passed along. visited the N. B. Conference in July last, His ordina- River farewell, and returned to Perth. We hope When I saw that his last hour was very near, I ing, in November. Elder Knowles was appointed spring up and produce an abundant harvest; and you with Him in His glory.' to attend, closed to-day at the former place. Our Delegate to the General Conference in New Brun- although we did not see much immediate fruits, yet Then he made an effort to lift up his hands, as if Tather than of the Pope, in all matters which concern present letter will be confined to matters connected swick, to be held in Fredericton next year. Brother we think our labour was not in vain: indeed could be were to press his dear Saviour on his bosom; his any other than purely religious interests. This is with the Conference. The business sessions com- Sullivan, his substitute, in case of failure. The next we have tarried a few weeks longer, there can be no superparticul harvings and four his line and surely obviously a step of precisely the same character as conclusion, I wish to say a word more about the soul into Thy hands." Then his head fell gently on ment for preaching had been made previous to our We had no little pleasure and gratification in hear. Tobique River country. The more I see of this restanding, was not known; a small congregation, stowed upon the Religious Intellgencer, and a resohowever, assembled, to whom Bro. Hartley preached lution was unanimously passed making it henceforth day to be the greatest grain-bearing country in these whom I was visiting almost every day, was visited the power of the Church, and it is an extremely bold Bayard and Thomson) appeared for the prison preached; subject, Revival of God's work. An invilabours as an editor, in hearing many express the hope the Lord will meet with us there; from which into the many express the hope the Lord will meet with us there; from which into the many express the hope the Lord will meet with us there; from which into the many of the grand of the many of the grand of the many of the grand of tation having been kindly extended by the Kev. Mr. benefit they have derived in perusing the pages of the place I expect, brother Parsons will write to your The priest works to her a

Yours, in the Gospel, A. TAYLOR.

PIC-NIC, OROMOCTO. Mr. EDITOR-May I ask for a small space in the several addresses; after which they dispersed in dif- iny Savour and my God?" ferent parts of the ground to participale in the vari- muttered a few words, which could not be understood, ous amusements of the day. First, an archery prize and in haste left the house. was earnestly contested for by the ladies, and won by Miss Elizabeth Smith. The skill displayed by the ladies in archery was very considerable, but we

MARY, OR JESUS.

states the following interesting facts :--

"I do not want to change my religion; I am a Roman Catholic, you know; but I have heard you often remain a Roman Catholic, and keep that faith in Jesus

That unexpected question, in such a solemn mowas casting down a merciful eye upon him. I go to the saints, and particularly to the blessed Virgin Saviour. In the place of Jesus, the sinner's friend the Virgin Mary is to invite your priest to come here,

When the priest arrived the sick man told him-"Mr. Curate, I have called you to know exactly what we have to believe about the worship and the confidence we must have in the blessed Virgin Mary, You know I have always refused to join the Protes-BROTHER McLEOD-In continuing the journal of tants. I was born, and I want to die, a Roman them. Catholic. I have put the same question to Mr. Chini-

Christ, who is her dutiful and obedient son, will not him for his charity in visiting him and explaining so death .- The Methodist. clearly the doctrines of his Church, and told him, "I

A couple of hours after, I want again to visit my well as Christian nations, that yearn after God, transsaid he, as soon as he saw me, "in the Church of product of a Hundu mind, one hundred and twenty They say it is not to Jesus we must go directly, but night? Do you know his glory? Oh thou blowing mond street, owned by Mr. Charles Dickson, was ed to carry out the work, and have commenced to Mary. I cannot bear that any more. I know, and I wind, by whose power dost thou whirl through the partially destroyed by fire, early on Sunday morning. | manufacture of the cable. They not only under feel in my heart, that Jesus is my only Saviour, my realms of space? Speak thou to me or him. Oh ye

And no tongue can tell you the fervour of mind with where? If ye have, commune with me about him." an Almanac for 1864, at an early day. This were satisfactorily decided. Arrangements were ing and afternoon, and the writer in the evening for poor sinners or reading some of the Divine pages If it is thoroughly enforced it will put the Roman menced on Monday, a. m., and were conducted with general Conference in Nova Scotia to be held in Barmenced on Monday, a. m., and were conducted with general Conference in Nova Scotia to be held in Barmenced on Monday, a. m., and were conducted with general Conference in Nova Scotia to be held in Barmenced on Monday, a. m., and were conducted with general Conference in Nova Scotia to be held in Barmenced on Monday, a. m., and were conducted with growing throughout the assertion at the commencement of our Reforproffered the words, "Oh, dear Jesus, receive my mation of the King's supremacy. It is true that we the word of life. The Social Conference in connect the organ of the Free Christian Baptist body in Nova parts, and we would certainly advise our young men only two days ago by the priest. That woman had step on the part of the Emperor. He is supported, The case excited considerable interest, and results. tion with the Annual Meeting was held on Saturday, Scotia, the same as in New Brunswick. The excluthat are thinking of settling themselves to go to been educated in the Roman Catholic religion, of the case excited considerable in the man being discharged. The woman please at 2 P. M. A large congregation was present, and an sion from its pages of everything of a sectarian and Tobique River, get a farm, and help to develop the ber, till God, in His great mercy, four years ago, made ber, till God, in His great mercy, four ye excellent season was enjoyed. A large number took partisan character met with universal approbation, country. We expect, if the Lord will, to leave to me the instrument to bring her to the knowledge of irreconcileable differences between Protestants and more for stealing from Madame Ellen Phelan of a part in the meeting. In the evening brother Knowles and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting, and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting, and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting, and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting, and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting, and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting, and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting, and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting, and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting, and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting, and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting and we have not been a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting and a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting and a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting and a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting and a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting and a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting and a little cheered, in our arduous morrow to attend the 2d District Meeting and a little cheered, and a little cheered and a l > necessity of making her peace with the Church of of public and private life by the narrow principles of Lawrence, (widow), Major Thomas E. Jones, Rome, and confessing all her sins to him, if she wished an ecclesiastical corporation. Our readers, perhaps, John Sulis and Mr. Charles S. Fisher-in all to be saved. She listened to his words with every | would find it difficult to imagine the enormous pow- years! Stolen property belonging to two of possible attention, without interrupting him in any er which such an organization as the Roman Catho- families was found in her possession and identification way; and as soon as he had done speaking, she lie Church brings to bear on public and private life. It appears that, in every instance, this women be answered him, -"Sir, your words are very fine and It is a condition of things which they can hardly into the houses that she robbed. On one occasion columns of your paper to speak of a pic-nic. The still much better than yours; they go more directly self asserting irresponsible authority to enforce a set means was enabled to remove the inside faster eloquent, but the words of my dear Saviour Jesus are | conjecture. A closely jointed iron power acts with | she cut a pane of glass with a diamond, and by Free Baptist Sabbath School of the South Branch, to the heart, and to do a great deal more good to my of laws independent of all the interests of nations or open the windows and ransack rooms, drawers, Oromocto, held its first pic-nic on Tuesday last, soul. Would you be so kind as open this book of the individuals. It cuts down all thought and all Among the articles found in her possession o'clock, A. M., between two and three hundred were the confession of all the sins of my life, which would the restriction of a military regime, it is something oil, perfumery, towels, boots and shoes, slipp assembled. After partaking of the tempting delicable a very long affair; how is it now that you cannot to be free from ecclesiastical shackles." cies prepared by the ladies, the crowd listened to spare a few minutes to give me some of the words of This unexpected question stupified the priest; he

THE TOMB OF WHITEFIELD.

The Prince of Wales took off his bat at the grave do not remember the number of points made by the of Washington. Napoleon lingered thoughtfully and the Temperance body, sat down to supper. The phywinner. A number of other prizes were given ; the reverently at the tomb of Frederick the Great. An names of the winners we do not remember, except Mr. mind when in the presence of the last earthly re-Samuel Gardner, who won the race prize. The day mains of those who wielded a controlling influence passed in a most pleasant and agreeable manner, and upon their times. One desires to see the living man Band of the 15th Regiment were present, and their New Brunswick on behalf of the Lower Provinces, certainly reflected much credit on the committee, who who is shaping the thought, moulding the character did everything in their power to make it a day of in- look with his own eyes upon the actual form under which power manifests itself. This may be hero | chairman it would be difficult to find. He was firm | of the Government of New Brunswick .- Globe This Sabbath School, by the way, is in a very worship. But it is not a weakness in our nature, and yet conciliatory, and most happy in all his reflourishing condition. Through the entiring labors only as our nature needs for its growth and gratifiof its superintendant, Mr. Thomas E. Smith, who has of those forces which we know to be at work. So Worship the Mayor being called on, returned thanks been instant in season and out of season, it has when we gaze upon the dust of the mighty, the mind for the warm compliments which had been paid to arisen to be second to very few country Sabbath is aided by the sight in realizing the acts recorded in him as a friend of the Temperance cause. He stated history The very conteast between past strength and present weakness sets the imagination vividly to work; the near contact with the last and the all of ally a Temperance organization, he did not require to the earthly quickens the intellect in the conception join any other in order to illustrate his principles as In a letter to the Edinburgh Witness newspaper, of those mental attributes with which the visible a friend of the cause. The Rev. Dr. Hurn, G. W. P. the Rev. C. Chiniquy, the eminent converted priest, frailty has been associated. What we have known made a most excellent speech, containing many inhitherto only by reading, at such a time becomes to | teresting historic facts. It ought to have been listenus present and actual.

Such were the thoughts excited in us by a recent | TARY got as good a hearing as he could desire, and he visit to the tomb of Whitefield. A call of a few hours | spoke right to the point. He regarded the confede-Newburyport, Mass., with no design of sight-seeing, | ration of the Temperance body, stretching over and ed us to inquire for the church where his remains | uniting the whole continent as unique; he claimed are deposited. The sexton conducted us into the that in the educational benefits conferred on its memvault which is beneath the pulpit at the rear of the | vers; in the number of sons, husbands, fathers, reshurch. Mingled feelings were excited as the rays | cued from destruction; in the fraternal spirit it of the lamp rendered visible the open coffin, the bare | diffused, it had performed a great and good work, and | bones, and the decaying mould of the great, good, justified its existence to the world. He said he had and eloquent man. The coffiin is of plain, massive, solid wood, apparently oak, and is yet very sound. It rests upon the coffin of a Mr. Prince, a blind reacher, and one of the first pastors of the church | more obscure members. His prayer was that the the skull, the bones of the arms, the back bone, and | blessing of God might ever rest upon them. He the ribs are in good preservation. One of the bones, | urged on all present the claims of the cause in a most of the arm lies crosswise near the region of the breast, effective speech. Mr. WEDDERBURN represented the where it was laid after it was returned from England. St. John Divisions, and though following Mr. Tilley, The little box in which it was transported lies upon | made a fine impression. His speech was eloquent large size, nor of unusually full development in the | charmed life, it bore a charmed name : every heart rontal regions. But as our hand was placed upon responded to the allusion, and many an eye was suffut, we were stirred at the recollection of the lofty, sed with tears. A similar effect was produced by the fiery thoughts which were there conceived. As we homely heart-reaching address of Mr. M'Morris, who Mr. McGee and Mr. Morris pointed out that the peered into the vacant eye-sockets, imagination filled | is evidently a good man and true. In earnest lanthem again with those wondrous luminous balls which | guage, he pleaded for a City Reformatory for the rolled and flashed with electrical power over gazing erring youth of the city. He was proud of the Temmultitudes. We saw the mouth again in its place, so full, firm, and well defined, and fancied we could hear the words of superhuman energy which poured | hold the place assigned to him in the Temperance organ- goods at this port, for the fortnight ending yester forth an irresistible stream of holy, fervid eloquence. | ization, that of Patron of Grand Section of Cadets, than | were 150 tons Birch, 1,094 tons Pine, and 10,211 Those arm bones were again clothed with sinews and that held by Mr. Tilley. Mr. Evgagar represented the superficial feet of deals, in 18 vessels of 12,691 flesh, and raised aloft were themselves instinct with | Portland Division in a neat speech, and claimed much | They were sent as follows :- To Liverpool 10 the meaning and purpose of the glowing soul which | credit for its effective character. Mr. Cusmiso, formerly | sels, 9,000 tons burthen, with 150 tons Birch, guided them, and converted their tremulous wavy a Maine Temperance man, was proud of his State in | tons Pine and 6,961,000 superficial feet of Deals lines into an inspiration. We were down in the connection with the Temperance cause. He recipro- London, 1 vessel of 1443 tons, with 1265,000 fee gloomy cell, with the bones and dust, but concep- cated the friendly international sentiments of the deals; to Irish ports 6 vessels of 1996 tons but tion was up stairs, stretching forward and gazing at | Chairman and others. Mr. Skisnes responded to | with 1,78,000 feet of deals; to other ports I vess the pulpit. In it stood the living man, his whole | the sentiment of "The Ladies," and it is needless to | 252 tons burthen with 227,000 feet of deals. the Gospel. Baptized with an unction from the Mr. S. K. Fostes, Lieutenant Colonel of Artillery, January and the present time, 120,381,000 feet det Holy One, invested with a supernatural presence, he | and also a member of the Temperance order, compared | 9680 tons Pine, and 5166 tons Birch, in 208 ship argued, persuaded, wept, expostulated, until the great | the objects of both organizations. They were both | 148,047 tons burthen; against 102,982,000 feet acts of eternity were as real to the people as though | defensive, and both intended to be directed against | 14,106 tons Pine, and 4,041 tons Birch, in 185 ver they had already entered upon the experience of enemies, whether domestic or foreign. The "old of 128,416 tons burthen; in the same period of 18

quy, but I prefer to be taught by you in such a grave touch, was all that remained of the greatest preacher to the g The priest praised him much for his good disposi- of modern times. Indeed it is doubtful if any times, Mr. Robert Saiter, of Carleton, an honored friend of There have been sent to Liverpool so far this year. mother, she must surely have a more tender and repulsive bones are all. No difference between these logs of manifest regret. The chairman in his con- same period of 1861. compassionate heart than Jesus, who is a man! and those of the blind preacher whose history, though | cluding remarks spoke in complimentary terms of the | There were in port, Tuesday, 22 ships of 16.8 sinners to move her heart with tears and the speciacie this is not all. The great preacher is living on. His of their miseries. Besides that, said the priest, Jesus | career and influence illustrate the power of unwritten | the city band; he also acknowledged the indebted- 4 in 1842 .- Evening Globe. is God, and infinitely above us, whereas Mary is a truth to survive him who utters it, and to exist always | ness of the meeting to the several speakers. He procreature like us, who knows all our infirmities by her and everywhere. The fame of Whitefield, and his posed to bring the proceedings to a close, the band usefulness, accumulate with the progress and increase playing the National Anthem, the assembly gi of the Gospel with every year. The victories he ving three cheers for the Queen, and singing the and will plead our cause with such earnestness, that achieved over self and over others are reproducing themselves in ever extending triumphs. To-day the | celebration was agreeable, harmonious, and effecreverence for his character, the estimate of his labors, live. The sick man listened to the instruction of his the interest felt in everything pertaining to his history, priest with the greatest attention and respect, thanked is as pervasive and profound as at the day of his want to take a little rest, I will send for you should I Rev. Dr. Scudder, missionary in India, in proof that there are hearts the world over, in heathen as spoken to him who is my lover, who dwelleth every. William Street, have made preparations for iss

THE FRENCH EMPEROR AND THE FRENCH CHURCH.

and the Bishops of Metz, Nantes, Orleans, and remarks upon the subject:—" We sholl have no different bodies of Cadets of Temperance were regal Catholic Church in France in pretty much the same have gone much further, and our union of Church ROBBERY CASE. -The case of Daniel Hurley and State involves the refusal even of any spiritual his wife, formerly a Miss Driscoll, charged w power to an authority independent of the Sovereign. breaking into and robbing houses, was taken But the one, perhaps, more or less involves the other. yesterday morning at the Police Court. Chr. No greater or more direct blow could be struck at Doherty, Esq., and Mr. J. Daly (on behalf of Mess cising in the name of spiritual authority a temporal persons: Miss Mary A. Canby, Mrs. Amelia Distr The priest spoke to her a considerable time on the lordship, and overriding all the rights and interests Mrs. Chas. Brown, Miss Mary Hamilton, Mrs. Electrical Chas. Brown, Mrs. Electrical Cha The grounds chosen for the occasion was a lovely gospel, and give me a few of the saving words of my national growth to fit its own Procrustean dimensions, the following: Gold pencil cases, gold chains, spot on the farm of Capt. John T. Bailey, lying on The poor priest was thunderstruck by the simple hard ecclesiastical vestments. It will be observed gloves, parasols, feathers, portmonies, purses, was thunderstruck by the simple hard ecclesiastical vestments. and cramps the free bodies of men and nations in its rings; money in notes, gold, and silver; brace the bank of the river. Great elms and giant oaks answer of this simple-minded woman. After a few that the Emperor strikes no blow at the ordinary silk lace, stockings, socks, gold breast pins, cast their agreeable shade over the ground, and close moments of hesitation, he replied, "I am in a hurry; work of the parish priests. This decree is only directed against the independent action of the higher | pantelets, snuff boxes, cords and tassels, side com-"But, sir," answered the sick woman, "you have Roman Catholic clergy, and we heartily wish it chemises, stays, skirts, skirt fasteners, dress The day appointed proved fair, and at eleven just assured me that you had plenty of time to hear success. If France must remain for a time under muslin, soap, ribbons, jackets, collars, aprous, and at eleven put assured me that you had plenty of time to hear success.

(From the Colonial Presbyterian of Thursday.) The twenty-first Anniversary of the organization of the Sons of TEMPERANCE was celebrated in a very spirited manner in this City on Tuesday evening. The meeting was held in the Long Room of the Custom House Buildings, and we should suppose that between 400 and 500 ladies and gentlemen, chiefly of sical part of the entertainment was respectably got up, upon the whole. The robust appearance, excellent health, spirits and appetite of the guests, were subject of general remark. The City Band and the performances were a source of the greatest pleasure to survey the Intercolonial Railway route; and the the company. Mr. O. D. WETMORE, Past Grand that Government is willing to take Mr. Sanford Fler Worthy Patriarch, presided, and a more efficient ing or will offer a third party for the considerate marks, introduction of speakers, &c. &c. Grace was that having been early trained in a religious decomied to with greater attention. The PROVINCIAL SECREnever yet met men whom he respected more than the had all the force of a treaty, or quasi treaty, founders and friends of the Order in New York and elsewhere, including many earnest workers among its other contracting parties. He was infor and judicious, and some of his hits capital, as when The cranium can hardly be regarded as of very he said of the Victoria Division, if it did not bear a perance Cadets, and he declared that were he fit to vinces." A vote of $10,000 was agreed to .- W ill the office of Provincial Secretary, he would rather | The Wood Thade,-The total clearances of we rson transformed by the grandeur of the themes of | say that it received ample justice at his hands. loyalist" feeling found an expression in the remarks | and 148,989,000 feet of deals, 24,109 tons Pine Yet here before us, just here to the eye, to the of Mr. Foster. The chairman, in the course of the 9,284 tons Birch in 319 vessels of 194,441 tons is of Col. Cole, and the members of the band, also of 1862 -of which 10 are loading for Liverpool, again Doxology, which was accordingly done. The whole

THE NEWS.

OOTOBER 2, 1863.

We regret to hear that the potatoe crop has been almost destroyed by the disease in this section of the Province. In Nova Scotia the crop is destroyed in ome sections, while it has escaped in others.

The late heavy rains flooded the low lands on the to make the cable, but also to successfully Kennebeccasis, and carried off a large quantity of

The next business session was held on Tuesday Fast day, Sept. 12, we spent with the church in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in my sens. To Himalone I want to be saved. Please, incomprehensible sky, canst their describes in the least affected with the discase.

ANOTHER NEW BRUNSWICK ALMANAC. - W. have every facility for the publication of a work w will do credit to them as printers, while adding as er to the number of those cheap and useful he books which almost every individual is obli The Emperor of the French has read the Ultra- consult more or less frequently .- Telegraph.

Sir Da

worthy o

presented

thirty-eig

bellished,

The cost

the 7th i

Lord Joh

the freed

together

lows:-

freedom

I have c

tribute o

citizens,

recreatio

be reme

(Cheers.

increasin

dustry

these evi

happy is pent' a

invigorat

plation c

In refert

to prom

exertion been ha those el most in

for the

Corn La

in whic

the rep

troduci

poratio

ancient

adapt n

in harn

proud o

of expe

taken i politica

observ

Secreta

to pres cheers.

minist

and ur

line of

Ameri

parties

(Hear,

vour t

may such a

engage

our pe

are in

to pa

have

in ed

ming

great

such a pla

and a

play

three and

trus

hou

cert

at th

"Sir a

The Temperance procession on Tuesday, is the described by the News: - "At 3 o'clock, P. M., a cession comprising the members of the Nati Grand and Subordinate Divisions of the Sons of The perance, and of the different Sections of Cadet all about 400, left the Sons of Temperance | King-street, and marched through the principal street of the City and Portland, with banners floating go on the breeze. The splendid Band of H. M. Regiment marched at the head of the procession the City Band occupied a position at the head of junior branch of the Order. The regalia worn by members of the National Division was dark blue. vet trimmed with gold lace; by the members of Grand Division crimson velvet trimmed with gold and the members of the Subordinate Divisions, of a similar description. Among the member the National Division, we noticed the Hon. Tilley, who is a P. M. W. P. of the Order in No. America. W. Wedderburn and D. S. Perkins, Es passed along. When the procession arrived in from the Temperance Hall it was formed into a square and three cheers were given for the 21st Anniversal of the Order, three for Col. Cole, and three tin three for the Queen, after which the assemblaged hankerchiefs, night caps, hair nets, hair puffs, lamps, phials, sponge, looking glass, cotton reberlin wool, satin, insertion, cloth mantles, and many other things as we have now enumerated. Great praise is due to the Chief of Police and men for the tact exhibited in watching the Hule

The Annual Show of the St. John Agriculturals ciety will be held on the 15th October.

for four days after receiving an inkling of their culbility, and for their final arrest and the punish of the offender .- Morning Telegraph.

We were told to-day that the Nova Scotia Govern ment d clined to accept the Engineer nominated

Last week the hull, engines, and the portion cargo then on board the stranded steamer Pasto was sold at public auction in Halifax, for $2500.

The subject of the Intercolonial Railway has age been brought before the Canadian Parliament. liscussion arose on the vote granting an amount route. Mr. McGee enuca ared, without success, obtain an avowal of policy from the Government whether they adhered to the poncy of the old Govern ment, and the basis agreed upon for vie apportions of the expenditure, or had adopted some new bar A correspondent of the Montreal Gazette was: " Holton repeated several times that he underse, that basis of negotiation had entirely broken and the Government was free to begin again ab in Mr. McGee contended on t'e contrary that the la was adopted with all the formalities of an order Council, and could only be abrogated in a like for manner. It had been communicated to the Provin and Imperial Governments, and made the basis that no such notice had been given. Minihad no answer for this but the declarthat they would go on with the survey, and themselves free after that to take such further sh in the matter as if previous negotiations had taken place. But the debate strayed away from ! neidental issue to the main question-whether it expedient to build the road at all. On this p nowever, Messrs, McGee, Morris, Cartier, Macdon and others spoke warmly in favor of the projudice against the road arose from the ignoran Western members with respect to the maritime

The total shipments from this port, between

BRITISH AND FOREICN.

The English Government has decided not to per the vessels of war now nearly completed at Liver to leave, without a full explanation is given by builders of their destination. The decision has great satisfaction in the Northern States.

It is again asserted in the most positive man that the Archduke Maximilian will accept Mexican throne.

Queen Victoria has returned to England from Arrangements have been made to secure the lay of the Atlantic Telegraph Cable between Ireland Newfoundland during the summer of 1864. Me An unoccupied house on the North side of Rich- Glass, Elliott & Co., as already stated, have confi thus showing implicit confidence in the success of undertaking. That this confidence is also sh