THE VICTIM.

"The end thereof is Death." I saw him at the festal board. His bearing proud and high, Health glow'd upon his manly cheek, And pleasure in his eye, He stood among the revellers, With one consent their chief, With wine and song and merriment. Dispelling care and grief. I saw him in the banquet hall, His lofty step and air, Wrought direful havoc 'mong the hearts Of maidens young and fair ; And all who heard his gentle voice. And saw his winning smile, Knew well that in his open heart There lurk'd no secret guile. And who can know the joy that filled The widowed mother's breast, As on her sleeping son she gazed, While on his couch of rest; It were no sin to worship him-The doting parent said, So like is he to him I loved. Who now is with the dead. But, oh, what changes time doth work In everything of earth, We see its wanton ravages, Commencing with our birth ; Death and decay are written On every human brow, And these we lov'd in early youth. O say, where are they now ? Years pass'd, and with them boyhood too-Stern manhood came at length, But he that noble, high soul'd youth, Had thrown away his strength ; His earthly hopes had perished, His early friends were gone, In deep and loathsome drunkenness.

His life was passing on. And where was she who bore him ? That marble slab will tell, How of a broken heart she died, When he, her first born fell ; The angry winds are sweeping o'er Her grave below the hill, Her cottage home is desolate, All there is hush'd and still. Time roll'd along, again I stood, A brother, at his side, With horrid blasphemy he curs'd

Very fervent prayer followed.

There is a great danger of making children feel that religion is a system of "must nots." It is very right to tell children that they "must not" quarrel everything to themselves, must never be glad to bring others into disgrace, must never tell tales of each other's faults; but we might draw a bright and pleasing picture of the pleasures of being kind, of the happiness of making another happy, or of being of use to a little brother, sister, or playfellow. When we take that view of the subject, little drooping heads ones are fixed, and next Sabbath the little ones think of his father, he felt disconsolate, and, as he had

THE WISH GRANTED.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory soul. Oh! said he, I have the blessing. I am happy for ever. Amen. MATT. vi., 13. "Willie, I wish some king would take me to his palace, and make me his little daughter; then I could have everything that I want."

"Then you wouldn't have your father and your mother, little sister," said brother Will, who was fourteen. Mary was only ten.

"Oh ! yes, he must take papa and mamma, too, and then papa needn't go to his office any more, he would be so rich, and mamma could be all the time with me; she wouldn't have a thing to do."

"I'm quite sure, Mary, that if mamma were a queen, she wouldn't be idle. But suppose you had your wish, mamma might die, or you might be taken sick, and then you wouldn't be as happy as you are now. Or, you might die-the king couldn't keep you alive -and then what good would his wealth do you ?"

"Oh, dear! I didn't think of all those sad things ; but, I wish there was a king who had power, as well as wealth, and who would love me well enough to take me for his child."

"Dear little sister, you have got your wish! There is just such a King. He has more power than all the other kings united, and more wealth, and more love, too, and he is waiting now to take you for his child. I didn't think much about him, though dear was I so happy as I have been since. Dear Mary, papa and mamma are his children ; now, will you not be his child, too ?"

remembered the closed eyes of the lost darling, and while of buyers to gather it. the once rosy cheeks, pale as the white flowers scattered over them, as he lay in his coffin bed.

"Darling sister, the baby's body only sleeps until the resurrection morning, but his spirit dwells with the great King, in his glorious palace above. There will our dear father and mother go in a few years, and there may you and I dwell forever, with King Jesus. Death will never take Charlie from us there. Ah! Mary, God is indeed powerful, and good as powerful, and when he doesn't give us just those things for which we ask, it is because good as it may appear to us, it would not be good for our souls to have His expenses would be them. And, when trials come upon us, it is to make us draw near to God, and walk with him, that we may be fit to live with him forever in heaven. God gives to all his children as much of earthly good as is safe for them to have. If you and I could have everything that we think good, I'm afraid that we should gather so many things around us, that we should quite shut God out. Dear Mary, would you that any king but God should have the power ?"

"No, oh ! no, brother Willie,"-and Mary, clasping her hands and bending her knees, said reverentially, And Willie said, "Amen."

he wanted prayer to be offered for his poor mother, that she might become converted, and also for all the family, that all might become the children of God, and all be prepared to meet, an unbroken family, in heav- CHEESE.-10 boxes Cheese, extra good. He hoped he had passed from death unto life, It was, indeed, a great change.

He spoke of the satisfaction which beamed into his now .- New York paper.

THY WILL BE DONE. My life a plan of God, Conceived and mapped by Thee; Then let my glory be To work out joyfully The parts of it I see.

Oh ! guide me hour by hour ! My will I would resign; Let all Thy will be mine, And help me, line by line, To trace the plan Divine.

Alas; too long I toiled, Unhelped, unblessed, alone, On projects of my own. The crops that thus were sown Have to the winds been blown.

Thank God that I have failed Wherever I was wrong ! In Thee I would be strong, To Thee I would belong, From Thee derive my song.

I have made enquiries into these matters, and would say for the information of those concerned, that whilst at the present time it will doubtless pay to "Dear Willie, I know that God is powerful, and grow a small quantity of flax for domestic use, we God is good, too, but he did let our dear baby die, may reasonably expect a ready market, if a sufficient and"-and Mary burst into a flood of tears, as she quantity of the flax is grown to make it worth the

SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases. From Emery Edes, a well known merchant of Oxford, Main "I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcerv Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robert Stratton, Bristol, England, "I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure, until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months.

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well known and much esteemed lady, of Dennisville, Cape May Co., N. J. "My daughter has suffered for a year past with a serofu-ous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely known Gage, Murray & Co., manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

" I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse, until it disfigured my atures, and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could, of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPA-RILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and, without a doubt, owe it to your SARSAPARILLA.

Erysipelas-General Debility-Purify the Blood. From Dr. Robert Sawin, Houston-st., New York. "DR. AYER-I seldom fail to remove Eruptions and Scrofulous Scres by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipe-las with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSA-PARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the profession as well as to the people

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Wakeman, Ohio. "For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The alcers were so bad that the cords be-came visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Purliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for afflicted.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esg., the able editor of the Tunkhan-nock Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other reme dies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the estering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's cyclashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die." Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

From Dr. Hiram Sloat, of St. Louis, Missouri. "I find your SARSAPABILLA a more effectual remedy for
