Doctor," said the officer in the boat "we can make room for you." "I will not peril the wounded men," was his reply. He remained behind and sank with the ship-a loss much deplored by all the officers and men. He is the only officer known to be lost. When Mr. Fulham, reached the Kearsage he had his sword by his side, and let it fall into the water, lest he should have to surrender it. He went on board the Kearsarge, and was asked by Captain Winslow if he had come to surrender the ship. He said he had no such orders, but was sent to ask for assistance, as they were sinking fast. The Kearsage then ceased firing, and lowered her boats, while Mr. Fulham returned towards the Alabama, which sank ere he reached her.

A. W. BRADFORD, Governor of Maryland. Secretary Stanton telegraphs to General Dix:

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, JULY 9. To Major General Dix : An official report from Major Gen. Wallace, just received, states that a battle took place between the forces under his command and the rebel forces at Monocacy to-day, commencing at 9 o'clock a.m., and continuing until 5 p.m. That our forces were at length overpowered by the superior numbers of the enemy, and were forced to retreat in disorder. He reports that Col. Seward, of the N. Y. heavy artillery, was wounded and taken prisoner, and that Brig.

Gen. Tyler was also taken prisoner. That the enemy's forces number at least 20,000, and that our troops behaved well, but suffered severe loss. He is retreating on Baltimore. (Signed) EDWIN M. STANTON. Secretary of War.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude: palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will no try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS, which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required. They purify, strengthen, and invigorate. They create a healthy appetite.

They are an antidote to change of water and diet. They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours. They strengthen the system and enliven the mind. They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers. They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach. They cure Dyspepsia and Constipution. They cure Diarrhea, Cholera, and Cholera Morbus. They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and ar exhausted nature's great restorer.
