Poetry.

"They that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars forever and ever." (Dan. xii. 8.)

WEARIED and worn with earthly cares, I yielded to the strong man armed, the giant keeping his palace repose.

And soon before my raptured sight a glorious vision coming forth-he was too strong. And then we got

I thought, whilst slumbering on my couch in mid- ing his armor from him wherein he trusted, and divinight's solemn gloom,

I heard an angel's silvery voice, and radiance filled twenty-eight years old, you shall be redeemed yet by my room.

A gentle touch awakened me, a gentle whisper said "Arise, O sleeper ! follow me," and through the air passionately in earnest about these poor fellows, and way streamed. Still on we went: my soul was wrapt in silent ecstasy I wondered what the end would be, what next should meet mine eve. I knew not how we journeyed through the pathless fields of light,

When suddenly a change was wrought, and I was clothed in white;

We stood before a city's walls, most glorious to behold;

We passed through streets of glistening pearl; o'er streets of purest gold.

It needed not the sun by day, nor silver moon by night;

The glory of the Lord was there, the Lamb himself its light.

Bright angels paced the shining streets, sweet music down between them, and I took her hand, and I said, Let me speakto you as a father.' I took her hand, filled the air,

And white-robed saints, with glittering crowns, from and I said, 'I wonder whether his neglect of you, and his scorn of you, has crushed all the love that every clime were there

And some that I had loved on earth stood with them you once had for him out of your heart ;' and when I went on thus speaking, she sprang to her feet and round the throne :

"All worthy is the Lamb," they sang, "the glory clasped him in her arms and covered him over with kisses, as if there was not a man on earth worth lookhis alone !"

But fairer far than all beside, I saw my Saviour's ing at besides her own husband; and then I asked her, there was a little bit of craft about this, "Be face, And as I gazed he smiled on me with wondrous love good enough to let me have the children in." The eldest little chap came in, and I took the little fellow and grace.

Lowly I bowed before his throne, o'erjoyed that I at on my knee, and he looked at me with comical gravity, and I began to talk to the father through the Had gained the object of my hopes-that earth at child. "Oh," I said, "when thou growest up to be

CAUTION! CAUTION! CAUTION THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to cauion the public against spurious imitations of his highly lebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmles ompound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which vashes every thing, and has rapid sale. It will be found invaluable for the following domestic rposes, viz .: - It washes all fine things, such as Muslin, Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c,; cleaning Sponges combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as mmediately removes all condensed perspiration from he skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, by dissolving a teaspnonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water ; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a umbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and nlike other preparations, at the same time preserves fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eating it by mistake, will not be injured.

Also, for Farmers-Vetches, Potato Peas, Clover Seed, If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no please the most fastidious. white and red, Field Tarnip Seeds.
