For the Religious Intelligencer. SABBATH.

Precious Sabbath day, of blessings. Gliding down the track of Time, Comes with heavenly treasures laden, Treasures from another clime.

This, the day of all the seven, Fills our souls with joy and peace, Peace which smiles with heavenly brightness, And above will never cease.

There the angel host adoring Bow enraptured at the throne, Hymning songs of loudest praises. Songs to earthly tongues unknown.

Soon those songs, enraptured swelling, With the heavenly choir will sing. Praise shall ring through heavenly arches, Praise to Christ our Heavenly King.

We will praise him for salvation, For his wondrous work of love, For his tender watchful spirit, For our happy homes above. W. F. EATON. BEAUFORT, S. C., August 26th, 1864.

A TALK ABOUT MARRIAGE. BY T. S. ARTHUR.

Two maidens, in youthful bloom and beauty, sat come, and so do her part ?' earnestly talking. Their thought was reaching away into the future; their theme was marriage. * I like him well enough,' said one of them ' but-She paused, the objection unspoken. 'What is the impediment, Alice ?' 'His income is too small.' 'What is it ?' 'Eight hundred dollars a-year.' 'You might live on that.'

'Live! Bah! What kind of living ?' "Not in princely style, I will admit.

we cannot think of letting ourselves down to the level and condition of virtuous, intelligent young men, who, in daily, useful work are earning a fair independence ! We are so superior that we must have husbands able to support us in luxurious idleness or we must have none ! - We are willing to pass the man to whom love would unite us in the tenderest bonds, because his income is small, and marry for position one from whom the soul turns with instinctive aversion. Can we wonder that so many are unhappy ?'

'But eight hundred dollars, Fanny! How is it possible for a married couple to live in any decent style in this city on eight hundred dollars a-year?' 'They may live in very comfortable style, if the wife is willing to perform her part.'

"What do you mean by her part, Fanny ?" 'We will take it for granted, that she is no better than her husband. That having brought him no fortune beyond her own dear self, she cannot claim superior privileges."

' Well ?'

'He has to work through all the day.' ' Well ?'

'Under that equitable rule is she exempt ?' 'No. She must do her part, of course, if there is anything to do with. She must keep his house if he can afford a house. But if he have only eight hundred dollars a-year ! Why rent alone would consume half, or more than half of that. They would have no house-keeping in that case. They must board.' 'And the wife sit in idleness all the day long ?'

"She would have nothing to do." "Could she not teach? Or, by aid of a sewingmachine, earn a few dollars every week ? or engage in some other useful work that would yield an in-

'And live in unwomanly dependence on our parents and relatives. No, Alice ; there is a false sentiment prevailing on this subject, and as I think and talk, I see more and more clearly. Our parents have been weak in their love for us; and society, as con- willing to submit to such arbitrary rule, I have decided to stituted, has given us a wrong estimate of things. We should have been required to do useful work in the household from the beginning, and should have "Not scarcely in plebeian, Fanny. THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to cauon the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which hes every thing, and has rapid sale

It will be found invaluable for the following domestic purposes, viz. :-- It washes all fine things, such as Muslin, Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c.; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head by dissolving a teasphonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water ; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eating it by mistake, will not be injured.

If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which, has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time-saves your clothes-saves your money; and it does not injur most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed; for Laces, and tine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improves m-by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flannels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery on a Washing Day, with Picksrose's Cleansing Crystal.
