Muller the supposed murderer of Mr. Briggs in the railway carriage in England, and to whose case we referred two weeks since, was arrested at New York on the arrival of the ship in which he was passenger. It is said that the ship and hat of the mur-derer man were found in Muller's trunk. No doubt seems to exist of his guilt. He will be taken back to England and tried. His arrest is a remarkable verification of the adage "Murder will out," as well as an illustration of detective diligence.

Lecture at the Institute.—Lieut. A. Dever is expected to deliver a lecture on the "Mechanics" Institute on the evening of Sept. 5th, having reference to the present American contest as seen from an English standpoint. The lecturer having been for some time an eye witness to the military life of a colony of Irish volunteers in the country, feels a desire, having returned to his native city, to express his opinions freely to his fellow citizens on some of the grave questions involved in this fearful struggle. Those opinions, we doubt not, will be expressed temperately, and in a style that can give no cause of offence to any one. The proceeds of the lecture, beyond meeting necessary expenses, will go to the Orphan Asylum. We bespeak for him a crowded house and a patient hearing.

Harvesting is being proceeded with throughout the country, in good season, and the grain is in the best condition to follow from the golden fields. Oats and many places unusually heavy; corn promises to give a large crop; barley looks finely, and we learn is excellent, as is also the rye, white wheat, we judge, is above the average.

Potatoes and other roots are growing beautifully, and will, we are assured, be a fine crop, and the potatoes, notwithstanding the fears which are being promised to be of an excellent quality, and to give a notable yield. The lightness of the hay crop may not, therefore, be so seriously felt as was anticipated.

We understand that it is the intention of the F. C.
Church, in the next week, to hold, shortly, a Tea Meeting, having for its object the repairing of their chapel here.—Ed.

HORRIBLE AFFAIR.—At Tusket, on Monday night, two men, named John H. Hamilton and Benson, got into a quarrel, which resulted in Hamilton drawing his knife and stabbing his opponent in the abdomen, inflicting a fearful wound. Benson lingered till Tuesday night, when he expired. Hamilton made his escape, and constables are in pursuit. Neither of the men had resided long in this County. We understand Benson came from New Brunswick, and Hamilton from the United States. The latter is in the Federal Army. The left hand of the latter is from the wrist.—Yarmouth Herald.

THE MURDERER HICKS.—Yesterday His Honor Judge Ritchie signed the warrant for the execution of Hicks the murderer of Hill, the same to come off on Friday, the 10th inst. Numerous petitions, signed by over 2,000 persons, have been presented to the Lieutenant Governor, asking for a commutation of his sentence to imprisonment for life, but no great hopes are entertained of the request being granted.
Hicks, inflicting his victim in his prison on Monday last, and came away with a very small margin, he ought not to be deprived of his life—not that we doubt he had shot poor Hill, but we feel satisfied, from a study of the lad's physiognomy, that he does not clearly comprehend the difference between right and wrong. In fact, nobody but a fool would expect what he did to him; and, now that we can see, that he stands almost on the brink of the grave, nobody but one who was unwary of his responsibility to God and his fellow men would exhibit so little feeling as he shows. His speech, when he was brought to the block, was incoherent, and he seemed to be in a state of mind, and in addition to hereditary vice, the poor creature was doomed to grow up untrained and comparatively uncared for with no one to warn him against the consequences of crime, or even to tell him what constituted crime.

Since his incarceration, but especially since sentence was passed, he has had crowds of visitors, and has seemed anxious to converse. For one in his situation he is unusually cheerful, and even laughs when he is called to laugh. He speaks of his awful deed of which he is about to pay the penalty, and, of course, lays all the blame on his uncle Tingley. Of late the gaoler, Mr. Tait, has very kindly given him lessons in the rudimentary branches of education, and he has been perfecting himself in the study of the English language. He is a very intelligent man, as is familiarly called, has made considerable progress in his studies, showing that his thoughts are not wholly fixed upon that boresome to which he is fast hastening, and from which "no traveller returns." He has more than 10 days to live, and he will be reading, writing and arithmetic will be of little service to him, unless the Lieutenant Governor should deem it advisable to extend to him the privilege of study, and to allow him to continue his studies until he is fit to be a free man.

The Richmond Whig of August 18th, declares that the Southern people are profoundly interested in the result of the Chicago nomination, or rather of the Presidential election. It says:
"A mighty responsibility rests upon the Convention shortly to assemble at Chicago, to nominate a candidate for President against Lincoln. Entitled results depend upon the action of the body. Never before had a more political assembly such interests committed to its charge. Either Abraham Lincoln or the nominee of that Convention will be elected President of the United States for four years from the 4th of March next. Within that period, which will occur which will shape the destiny of this continent.
If Lincoln be continued in power, the war will be indefinitely prolonged. If he be defeated, the war may be brought to a speedy, honorable and satisfactory close. The party which is in the saddle, is the very doubtful whether we should have peace. The present war causes a disbursement of a thousand millions a year. We doubt very much whether there is any party in Yankeeedom possessing virtue enough to resist the temptation of prolonging the war, and the successful party must forego all hopes of doing so, if it put an end to the war.

Some disturbances occurred at Cork. Mob paraded Slight rioting occurred at Dundalk and Newry.

brings intelligence that the French and reactionary forces have advanced from San Luis Potosi, and now occupy Saltillo, only 63 miles from Monterrey, the seat

President Juarez's family have arrived in New Orleans. News from the Shenandoah Valley is conflicting.
Reports of Early's retreat are not confirmed; he is reported in force near Bunker Hill. Sheridan occupies Smithfield.

Skirmishing takes place daily.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF REV. J. L. PHILLIPS.
We have received from New York a few Photographs of the Rev. J. L. Phillips, Missionary to India.
They are large size, on cardboard about 9x12 inches, and are intended for framing. They are executed by the very best artists of New York, and are a perfect likeness of Brother P. They are for sale, price 75 cents each. We have also a few small Photographs, Album size, of Bro. P. taken by Mr. Tuck, of Fredericktown. They are also an excellent likeness, and are sold at 25 cents each. Persons wishing to obtain one or both of these pictures can do so by forwarding us the price named. The proceeds of sales, after paying cost, will be handed over to the FOREIGN MIS-SIONARY SOCIETY.

WE shall publish a second letter on our visit to Grand Manan next week.
