GREAT OR GOOD.

"Oh, how I wish I were a man! What wondrous things I'd do ! I'd write such books that all the world Would read them through and through." The fire flashed from his eyes as if He thought it hard to wait ; His mother whispered, "First be good, Then, if you will, be great."

The boy sprang from his mother's side With footstep light and gay; But dreams of fame were with him still Amid his childish play. Years passed away, and he had grown At length to man's estate ; Alas ! he cared not to be good, But only to be great.

He wrote; men read; the world around Was ringing with his name; His early dreams had never reached To such a height of fame. Yet would be sigh as if within His beart felt desolate,

As if it were a weary thing To walk amongst the great.

"Ye humble ones," he cried, " who tread The path of duty well,

The peace of mind I may not find

Stoops down with you to dwell.

I would that I had lived like you,

Content in low estate, Oh, could I have my life again,

I would be good, not great."

What should he do? What would he do if he "When will the ship 'Julia' return ?" could ? He hardly knew. He had some fine ideas "In three years." of the sea. He sang of it as " the bold, the grand, "What a voyage! In three years the boy will be the ever free." He fancied that he should like to ride a man, and have forgotten us all. "Where can he be?" responds the mother. "Have you called him ?" she inquires.

The barn, the woods, echo back his name in vain. He will never hear himself called by a father's lips again. And this is the last time the father will speak his name without a tear, or groan, or inward sigh. The breakfast is eaten in silence. Then his father, forgetting his work, walks the room and says :

" It is so strange about George ! He never did so before." But he does not breathe his dreadful fears. No. If-if it is so, let the truth be broken slowly as may be to the gentle-hearted mother.

The mother goes quietly and alone to her poor boy's deserted room. If she had suspected anything before, she knows all now. God help her ! Such faintness, such sickness of soul, can come to us but a few times ere we die. God be thanked for this! Death itself is nothing to the dying still in life.

George's room is but little changed. It was always neat and orderly, and is so now. Heleft it so on purpose, thinking of his mother. But some things are gone-his best clothes, his portemonnaie, his little writing-case, a book or two are missed. Is his Bible gone ? Thank God !-- it is. Oh, there is some consolation-a little softening of the anguish in this ! The mother prays:

"God of the Bible ! God of the wanderer ! bless my boy ! Save him ! O, save him ! For the sake of the beloved Son of Mary, hear a mother !"

The mother's face tells the father all. "God help me !" he exclaimed. "Was I severe

CITY OF GLASGOW LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF GLASGOW. Incorporated by Act of Parliament. GOVERNOR-The Right Honorable the Earl of Glasgow Subscribed Capital..... £600,000 480,000 Accamulated Fund ..... Annual Revenue 2,700,000 ther patrona VARIOUS MODES OF ASSURING. Half Premium System, without debt or interest. Endowment Assurances. Partnership Assurances. Short Term Assurances. THE "City of Glasgow Life Assurance Company" was established in 1838, by special Act of Parliament. It has now been conducted with much success for 25 years, which is attributable not only to the perfect security which it affords for the due fulfilment of every contract, but likewise to the Company's extensive and influential connexions and to the liberality of its dealings. The Premiums are equitably graduated. The Profits are distributed with a due regard to the claims of all classes of Policy-holders. The last declaration of Bonus was made 20th January, 1864, which is the close of the Company's financial year, when a Bonus at the rate of one and a half per cent. on the sums assured was declared for the past year. In place of the surplus being annually divided, the profits will in future be ascertained and allocated guinguennially. licies participate from the date o their issue, but the Bo nuses do not vest until they have been five years in existence. THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY, 92 Lombard-street, London, and Royal Insurance buildngs, Liverpool.

The most gratifying proof of the expansion of the business is exhibited in the one following fact-that the increase alone of the last three years exceeds the entire business of some of the existing and of many of the recently defunct fire insurance companies of this kingdom. The Premiums for the year 1855 being ..... £130,060

While the Premiums for the year 1558 are .... 196,148 Showing an actual increase of ...... 66,088 or upwards of 50 per cent. in three years.

The recent returns of duty made by Government for this latter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more than maintaining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years. Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an advance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Company, while all the others respectively fall far short of the noiety of its advance.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The amount of new Life Premiums received this year is by far the largest received in any similar period since the commencement of the business, and must far exceed the average of amount received by the most successful office in the kingdom. The number of policies issued in the year was 832, the sum assured £387,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,854 3s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension of business during the last ten years. Thus :-Years. No. of Policies. Sums Assured. New Premiums. £48,764 17 0 £1,880 9 1 .. 2,627 4 190 95,650 9 11

Who cherishes, who blesses him?

Poor George ! He has made up his mind. His mother must bear it, for he must goaway. He would not stop to deliberate again. He had done it once, and to no purpose; he had delayed only to lose time. That should be his last night at home. He would go at the first dawn of the morning.

He played with his little sister, and smiled at her so tenderly that she pulled down his head to kiss him, and told him she never knew he loved her so much before. George did not know it either. He had no idea she was so dear to him. O, how much he would do for her in the bright days to come ! He would bring her rare shells and birds, and beautiful things. Silks and pearls should yet be her's. He would make her delighted and happy.

He looked at his mother, at her sweet face and turned away. He dared not trust himself to look at her, or be with her now. Another instant might unnerve him. He hastened to his room. Half-way up the stairs, he called out a faint "good-night ?"

And was this all the leave-taking for those who loved him better than life ? Would he go on the dangerous, treacherous sea-on the dangerous, treacherous sea of life, without his father's tender blessing, his mother's farewell kiss? "Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child," so saith the Bible George slept little that night. He was awake before the dawo, dressed, and, with bundle in hand, had left his home forever. How strange ! how foolish ! how I cannot tell. I know that my mother talked to me mad! He did not look back till he came to the turn more as a companion than a child. AUTION! -- CAUTION! CAUTION! THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND L CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to cauion the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale.

It will be found invaluable for the following domestic purposes, viz. :- It washes all fine things, such as Muslin, Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c,; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as t immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, by dissolving a teaspnonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water ; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Our Goods are bought at the manufacturers, and will be Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eating it by mistake, will not be injured.

If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time-saves your clothes-saves your money; and it does not injure the most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improves them -- by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flannels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery on a Washing Day, with PICESTONE'S Cleansing Crystal.
