LINES:

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO MRS. DANIEL LOCKHART, OF CORNWALLIS, N. S., ON THE DEATH OF HER HUSBAND.

Hark! the wintry wind is wailing
 Sadly round thy home, for there,
In the arms of Death reposing,
 Sleeps thy loved one free from care.
Long thy aching heart has watched him
 Slowly sinking to the tomb,
And through all his pains the angels
 Long have wished to take him home.

Now he's gone and left behind him
 Father, mother, sisters, dear—
Brothers who in sorrow mourn him,—
 For him shed the bitter tear.
And thou, Mary, art a widow
 With thy orphan children, two,
Now the widow's God is thy God,
 And His promises are true.

He has said, "Blest are the mourners
 For they shall be comforted,"
Therefore mourn not for thy husband
 Though he sleep with early dead.
Ah, how vain these words are proving
 To relieve thy bursting heart!
We will point thee to thy Saviour,
 He can healing balm impart.

Thou canst look upon thy darling,
 See him shrouded cold and pale;
Thou canst ne'er forget those features,
 Though thy heart shall cease to wail.
On the morrow they will bear him
 To the quiet grave-yard, where
Thou hast brother, sister, sleeping,
 But their forms alone are there!

Thy dear husband's gone to join them,
 They are all with sweet accord
Bowing round the dazzling white throne,
 Singing praises to the Lord.
Oh, what glory beams around them!
 Hear their notes of victory sound
Through the royal arch of heaven,
 As they now their rest have found!

Then let not thy tears continue,
 For thy loss is his great gain;
He has gone to join the ransomed,
 And be free from sin and pain.
Parents, mourn not for your first-born;
 Well we know 'tis hard to part,
And we well know with what anguish
 This sad loss has filled your heart.

But in all thy hours of sorrow,
 Let this sweet thought comfort thee;
He has gone where there's no sickness,
 And where Jesus he shall see.
Brothers, sisters, stay your sorrow,
 Think on what your brother's gained!
Now no more he feels the suff'ring
 That so oft your hearts have pained.

He has gone, and now he calls you
 To the happier realms above;
Oh, may all our hearts be fitted
 To enjoy with him God's love,
In that home where there's no sickness,
 Where no clouds of sorrow fall,
But where God doth reign supremely,
 And where Christ is all in all.

A FRIEND.

THE GENEROUS SON REWARDED.

The employment of Napoleon's confidential secretaries was, of all kinds of slavery, the least supportable. Day and night it was necessary to be on the spot. Sleep, meals, health, fatigue, nothing was regarded. A minute's absence would have been a crime. Friends, pleasures, public amusements, promenades, rest, all must be given up. The Baron de Maineval and the Baron Fain knew this by hard experience; but at the same time they enjoyed his boundless confidence, the most implicit reliance on their discretion, and a truly royal liberality; they both deserved that confidence. One day, at two o'clock, the Emperor went out to hunt. "He will probably, as usual, be absent four hours," Maineval calculates. It is his father's birthday; he may surely venture to leave the palace for a short time. He has bought a little villa, and is desirous to present it to his beloved father, and to give him the title deeds.

He sets out; the whole family is collected; he is warmly greeted—they see him so seldom. The present is given; the joy increases; dinner is ready, and he is pressed to stop: he refuses. "The Emperor may return and ask for me." "Oh, he won't be angry; you are never away." The entreaties redouble; at last he yields, and time flies swiftly when we are surrounded by those we love. In the meantime the Emperor returns, even sooner than usual.

He enters his cabinet. "Maineval! let him be called." They seek in vain. Napoleon grows impatient. "Well, Maineval!" They fear to tell him that he is absent, but at last it is impossible to conceal it. At length Maineval returns. "The Emperor has inquired for you; he is angry." "All is lost," said Maineval to himself. He makes up his mind, however, and presents himself; his reception was terrible. "Where do you come from. Go about your business," exclaimed Napoleon; "I do not want men who neglect their duty." Maineval, agitated, retires; he did not sleep all night; he saw his prospects cut off, his services useless, his fortune ruined; it was a dreadful night. Day at length came; he reflected. "He did not give me a formal dismission." He dressed himself, and at the usual hour went to the Emperor's cabinet. Some minutes after Napoleon enters, looks at him without speaking, writes a note, rises, and walks about. Maineval continues the task he has in hand without lifting up his eyes. Napoleon, with his hands behind his back, stops before him, and abruptly asks, "What ails you? Are you ill?" "No sire," timidly replies Maineval, rising up to answer. "Sit down; you are ill; I don't like people to tell me falsehoods; I insist on knowing." "Sire, the fear of having forfeited the kindness of your Majesty deprived me of sleep." "Where were you, then, yesterday?" Maineval told him the motive of his absence. "I though this little property would gratify my Father." And where did you get the money to buy this house?" "Sire, I had saved out of the salary your Majesty is good enough to assign me." Napoleon, after having looked at him steadily for a few minutes, said, "Take a slip of paper, and write, 'The treasurer of my civil list will pay the bearer the sum of 80,000 francs!'" "There, put that in your pocket, and now let us set about our regular business."

"GRANDPA, DO YOU PRAY?"

Ann, a sunny-faced child of six years, sat in her little chair, with her doll carelessly lying in her lap, and her large blue eyes fixed on the floor, as if her thoughts were far away; then suddenly rising, and heeding not her fallen doll, she ran to her mother, saying, 'Does grandpa pray?' Her mother asked her why she asked that question. She said, 'Because I've been there nights and mornings, and watched, and I never heard him pray. I'll go and ask him?'

Her grandfather was a peacable, honest, and industrious man, who had experienced a great deal of worldly sorrow, and, not knowing how to cast his burden on the Lord, had sometimes drank to excess, as he said, 'to drown trouble.' He had become a cripple, and was obliged to use crutches. He lived very near Ann's father, and she beguiled him of many a weary hour by her artless prattle, and he was never more happy than when telling a story or doing something to please 'little pet,' as he called her. Taking her sun-bonnet in her hand, but forgetting to put it upon her head, she ran and found him sitting under a tree in his garden, leaning upon one of his crutches. His eyes were fixed upon the scene before him, but his mind was wandering in the sorrowful past, among blighted hopes and ruined prospects, when he was startled from his reverie by the earnest voice of Ann, saying, 'Grandpa, do you pray?'

She sat down beside him, and a long conversation ensued known only to themselves and God.

The next morning he read a chapter in his long-neglected Bible, and offered the prayer of the penitent, and never afterwards deserted the family altar which he then erected. He became a devoted reader of God's Word, and found a solace for his earthly afflictions in the hopes of a blessed immortality.—Tract Journal.

HOW TO PREVENT A DIVORCE.

When the senior Jonathan Trumbull was Governor of Connecticut, a gentleman called at his house requesting to see His Excellency in private. Accordingly he was shown into his sanctum sanctorum; and the Governor came forward to meet Squire W., saying, 'Good morning, sir; I am glad to see you.' Squire W. returned the salutation, adding as he did so, 'I have called upon a very unpleasant errand sir, and want your advice. My wife and I do not live happily together, and I am thinking of getting a divorce. What do you advise sir?'

The Governor sat a few moments in deep thought; then turning to Squire W., said: 'How did you treat Mrs. W. when you were courting her? and how did you feel towards her at the time of your marriage?' Squire W. replied, 'I treated her as kindly as I could, for I loved her dearly at that time.' 'Well, sir,' said the Governor, 'go home and court her now just as you did then, and love her as when you married her. Do this in the fear of God for one year, and then tell me the result.' The Governor then said, 'Let us pray.' They bowed in prayer and separated. When a year had passed away, Squire W. called again to see the Governor, and grasping his hand, said: "I have called, sir, to thank you for the good advice you gave me, and to tell you that my wife and I are as happy as when first we were married. I cannot be grateful enough for your good counsel.' 'I am glad to hear it, Mr. W., and hope that you will continue to court your wife as long as you live.' The result was that Squire W. and his wife lived happily together to the end of their married life. Let those who are thinking of separation in these days go and do likewise.

"Little acts of kindness,
 Little deeds of love,
Make this world an Eden,
 Like to that above."

A SECRET FOR MOTHERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashton, with their numerous family of sons and daughters, came to the Lord's table an unbroken circle. I never witnessed the blessed sight without asking myself, 'What secret influence has been owned of God by these precious results?' One day I said to the youngest daughter, a child of twelve years, 'Do you ever forget Jesus?'

'O, no,' she replied, 'we can none of us at home ever forget him, for mother talks to us of Jesus every day. He is ever with us.'

O mothers! take to your hearts the precious secret of that family's bliss. The mother, ever abiding in Jesus, made his name a household word, his presence ever acknowledged, ever felt.

'She speaks to us of Jesus every day!' Mother, is it true of you? Do your lips and life daily, hourly, breathe the knowledge and love of Jesus into the hearts of the little ones at your knee? Is Jesus a name which your baby often hears, and early lisps. Trust not that formal counsels, invitations and prayers will be owned and blessed of God in the salvation of your children. The ever-abiding, ever-pleading, outbreathing, outspeaking love of Jesus, alone shall prevail. Giving yourself, and your little ones, unto God to be saved by the blood of Jesus alone, according to his everlasting covenant to you and to your children, trust him unwaveringly to keep his word. So shall you be sustained in your work of Christian nurture, not alone by hope and faith, but by the blessed assurance that God will make your labors effectual unto salvation, by his converting and saving grace.—Congregationalist.

TEACHING CHILDREN TO PRAY.

It is said of that good old man, John Quincy Adams, that he never went to his rest at night until he had repeated the simple prayer learned in childhood—the familiar 'Now I lay me down to sleep.'

Is there not something inexpressibly touching in the thought that these words, breathed from the rosy lips of infancy, went with him away down through old age into the dark valley of death? Some people object to teaching children forms of prayer, lest the act become only a form. But did not Christ teach us to say, 'Our Father?'

Do you not remember those still evening hours far back in your childhood, when your mother first taught you to say those words? Can you forget the solemn hush that fell on everything as she knelt with you and commended you to the care of the blessed Father?

She is dead now; but ever as the night falls you think of her, and the little sister she left in your care—how it fell to you to hear the little one repeat the same old words in the dim twilight, and how at last, when she had learned to love the Saviour who watches over the little children, he called her suddenly, one day, to go up where they sing the new song.

Oh, teach the children, the little children, to pray.

Years of sin may come, but the memory of those early prayers may yet soften the heart and prepare the way for better things. Or, never neglected, this habit may grow with their growth, strengthen with their strength, become a strong shield against the temptations of life, and through faith at last free immortal souls from earthly sin. So, let us teach the children, the little children to pray.—Boston Recorder.

CHRIST'S SYMPATHY.

While the storm was fiercely blowing:
While the sea was wildly flowing—
Angry wind and angry billow
Only rocked the Saviour's pillow,
 Jesus slept.

But when sudden grief was rending
Human hearts in sorrow bending—
When he saw the sisters weeping
Where their brother's form was sleeping,
 "Jesus wept."

CAUTION! CAUTION! CAUTION!

THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to caution the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale.

It will be found invaluable for the following domestic purposes, viz.:—It washes all fine things, such as Muslin, Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c.; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as it immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, by dissolving a teaspoonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eating it by mistake, will not be injured.

If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time—saves your clothes—saves your money; and it does not injure the most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed; for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improves them—by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flannels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery on a Washing Day, with PICKSTONE'S Cleansing Crystal.

The New York Tribune says, "the reason why Drake's Plantation Bitters are so universally used, and have such an immense sale is, that they are always made up to the original standard, of highly invigorating material and of pure quality, although the prices have so largely advanced," &c.

The Tribune just hits the nail on the head. The Plantation Bitters are not only made of pure material, but the people are told what it is. The Recipe is published around each Bottle, and the bottles are not reduced in size. At least twenty imitations and counterfeits have sprung up. They impose upon the people once and that's the last of them.

The Plantation Bitters are now used in all the Government Hospitals, are recommended by the best physicians, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. Facts are stubborn things.

NEW BEDFORD, MASS., Nov. 24, 1863.

DEAR SIR—I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating cramps on my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicine failed to relieve me. Some friends in New York who were using Plantation Bitters, prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine glassful after dinner. Feeling better by degrees in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel like another being. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters. Respectfully, JUDITH RUSSELL."

If the ladies but knew what thousands of them are constantly relating to us, we candidly believe one half of the weakness, prostration and distress experienced by them would vanish. James Marsh, Esq., of 158 West 14th St., N. Y., says, "he has three children, the first two are weak and puny, his wife having been unable to nurse or attend them, but that she has taken Plantation Bitters for the last two years, and has a child now eighteen months old which she has nursed and reared herself, and both are hearty saucy and well, The article is invaluable to mothers," &c

Such evidence might be continued for a volume. The best evidence is to try them. They speak for themselves. Persons of sedentary habits, troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, diabetes, &c, will find speedy relief through these Bitters.

Every bottle for exportation and sale out of the United States, has a metal cap and green label around the neck.

Beware of refilled bottles. See that the cap has not been mutilated. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is an imposter. We sell it only in bottles.

Sold by principal dealers throughout the habitable globe.

CITY OF GLASGOW
LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF GLASGOW.
Incorporated by Act of Parliament.

GOVERNOR—The Right Honorable the Earl of Glasgow.

Subscribed Capital	£600,000

Annual Revenue	103,000
Existing Assurances	2,700,000

WALTER BUCHANAN, of Shandon, Esq., M. P., Chairman.
W. F. BIRKMYRE, Esq., Manager and Actuary.

VARIOUS MODES OF ASSURING.
Half Premium System, without debt or interest.
Endowment Assurances.
Partnership Assurances.
Short Term Assurances.

THE "City of Glasgow Life Assurance Company" was established in 1838, by special Act of Parliament. It has now been conducted with much success for 25 years, which is attributable not only to the perfect security which it affords for the due fulfilment of every contract, but likewise to the Company's extensive and influential connexions and to the liberality of its dealings.

The Premiums are equitably graduated. The Profits are distributed with a due regard to the claims of all classes of Policy-holders.

The last declaration of Bonus was made 20th January, 1864, which is the close of the Company's financial year, when a Bonus at the rate of one and a half per cent. on the sums assured was declared for the past year. In place of the surplus being annually divided, the profits will in future be ascertained and allocated quinquennially. Policies participate from the date of their issue, but the Bonuses do not vest until they have been five years in existence. Rates of Assurance and all other information may be learned from the Agent, WILLIAM MACKAY,

THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY, 92 Lombard-street, London, and Royal Insurance buildings, Liverpool.
Chairman of the London Board.—SAMUEL BAKER, Esq.
Chairman in Liverpool.—CHARLES TURNER, Esq.

The Royal Insurance Company is one of the largest Offices in the kingdom.

At the Annual Meeting held in August 1859, the following highly satisfactory results were shown:—

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The most gratifying proof of the expansion of the business is exhibited in the one following fact—that the increase alone of the last three years exceeds the entire business of some of the existing and of many of the recently defunct fire insurance companies of this kingdom.

The Premiums for the year 1855 being	£130,060
While the Premiums for the year 1858 are	196,148
Showing an actual increase of	66,088

or upwards of 50 per cent. in three years.

The recent returns of duty made by Government for this latter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more than maintaining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years. Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an advance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Company, while all the others respectively fall far short of the moiety of its advance.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The amount of new Life Premiums received this year is by far the largest received in any similar period since the commencement of the business, and must far exceed the average of amount received by the most successful offices in the kingdom. The number of policies issued in the year was 832, the sum assured £387,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,354 3s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension of business during the last ten years. Thus:—

Years.	No. of Policies.	Sums Assured.	New Premiums.
1848	98	£48,764 17 0	£1,380 9 1
1850	190	95,650 9 11	2,627 4 7
1852	422	181,504 10 6	5,828 5 10
1854	408	161,848 13 4	4,694 16 0
1856	703	297,560 16 8	8,850 3 11
1858	832	387,752 6 8	12,354 3 4

The remarkable increase in the business of the last four years is mainly consequent upon the large bonus declared in 1855, which amounted to no less than £2 per cent. per annum on the sums assured, and averaged 80 per cent. upon the premiums paid.

A HINT TO THE WORTHY CITIZENS OF NEW BRUNSWICK—BE WARNED IN TIME!

ALL parties purchasing my Pills and Ointment for their several complaints, are respectfully warned against purchasing either Pills or Ointment purporting to be my preparations, that have a United States Stamp around the Boxes or Pots. There is no Treaty between the people of the States and the Home Government, therefore an American Stamp does not protect my preparations. There are no stamps upon my Canadian style of Pills or Ointment coming from the United States. I rely only for protection on the water mark in the book of directions around each Pot or Box. Before you purchase them, see that there are no U. S. Stamps upon the Box of Pills or Ointment. Purchase none that have United States stamps on.

The Science of Health.
EVERY MAN HIS OWN PHYSICIAN.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS
AND HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

DISORDERS OF THE STOMACH, LIVER, AND BOWELS.

The Stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system—abused or debilitated by excess—indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints and unrefreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, &c. The Bowels sympathise by Costiveness, Diarrhœa and Dyseetery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the liver, lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

ERYSIPELAS AND SALT RHEUM
Are two of the most common and virulent disorders prevalent on this continent; to these the Ointment is especially antagonistic—its modus operandi is first to eradicate the vermin and then complete the cure.

BAD LEGS, OLD SORES, AND ULCERS.
Cases of many years standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

ERUPTIONS ON THE SKIN,
Arising from a bad state of the blood or chronic diseases are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface regained by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet appliances in its power to dispel rashes and other disfigurements of the face.

PILES AND FISTULA.
Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emolient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Rheumatism,	Sore Heads,
Burns,	Ringworm,	Sore Throats,
Chapped Hands,	Salt Rheum,	Sores of all kinds,
Chilblains,	Scalds,	Sprains,
Fistula,	Skin Diseases,	Stiff Joints,
Gout,	Swelled Glands,	Tetter,
Lumbago,	Sore Legs,	Ulcers,
Mercurial Eruptions,	Sore Breasts,	Wounds of all kinds.
Piles,

☞ CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the Manufactories of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the United States and the civilized world, in pots and boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each pot and box.

☞ If the reader of this Advertisement cannot get a box of Pills or Ointment from the Drug Store in his place, let him write to me, enclosing the amount, and I will mail a box free of expense. Many dealers will not keep my medicines on hand, because they cannot make as much profit as on other persons' make.

Dealers in my well known medicines can have Show Cards, Circulars, &c., sent Free of Expense, by addressing THOS. Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, N. Y. June 1
