FREDERICTON, July 9, 1866.

At four o'clock His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor came to the Council Chamber, and being seated on the Throne, commanded the attendance of the House of Assembly; who being come His Excellency was pleased to close the Session with the following Speech.

Mr. President, and Honorable Gentlemen of Legislative Council,

Mr Speaker, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly.

I have learnt with much satisfaction, that the opinion so strongly expressed by Her Majesty's Government as to the expediency of a closer union between the British Noath American Provinces, has now received the concurrence of both Branches of the Provincial Legislature.

It is my intention, in accordance with the wishes of the House of Assembly, shortly to appoint Delegates who, in conjunction with the Delegates from the other Provinces of British America, will arrange with Her Majesty's Government the details of an Act which, as requested by the Address of the Legislative Council to Her Majesty the Queen, adopted in April last, will be introduced into the Imperial Parliament for the purpose of effecting the desired Union.

In the Bill to which I have just assented, suspending in certain cases the operation of the Habeas Corpus Act, I recognize a proof of your watchful care for the tranquility of the Province. The mischievous designs of the Fenian conspirators have, it is true, been frustrated; but it will, I fear, be necessary for some time to come, to exercise a careful vigilance entirely to prevent the revival of their projects.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

I thank you for the readiness and unanimity with which you have provided for the exigencies of the Public Service.

Mr. President and hon. Gentlemen of the Legislative Council:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly:

The Queen has been graciously pleased to confide to me the discharge of important duties in another part of Her Majesty's Domains; and in now taking leave of you, on your return to your respective Counties, I do so for the last time.

I cannot quit, without regret, a Province to which I have become sincerely attached, and while I mark with deep interest the progress of the new nation of which New Brunswick will form no unimportant part, I shall ever watch with special concern the future fortunes of this portion of British America.

That it may continue to be happy and prosperous is my earnest prayer.

The Royal Gazette of yesterday contained the following appointments:

Governor in Council.

Mr. Wm. Rannie has been reinstated in his situation on the Railway. The following is the Provincial Secretary's letter:—

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Fredericton, July 7, 1866.

SIR—I am directed to inform you that the Report of the Committee appointed to investigate the reported deficiency of Railway cordwood, having been under consideration of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council, and approved, it has been ordered that you be restored to your former standing as Trackmaster and Wood Inspector on the Railway.

Mr. Lawrence, Railway Chairman, has received the necessary instructions accordingly.

I have the honor to be, &c., &c.,

(Signed) S. L. TILLEY.

To Mr. Wm. Rannie, St. John.

On Tuesday a number of citizens were at the Barracks to see the "Trooping of the Colors," a ceremony not often witnessed in St. John. This was followed by a review of the troops in garrison, after which the men amused themselves at various games, races, feats of strength, speed, &c. The day, hot as it was, passed very agreeably. The officers of the 15th entertained a large party at luncheon.—Freeman.

DROWNED.—On Monday night, between 11 and 12 o'clock, a man named Murphy, who came out as a stow-away on board the ship "Constitution," was accidentally drowned in the harbour by falling out of the small boat while conveying the crew of said ship on board. He was only a few minutes in the water, but life was extinct before the body was recovered.—News.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—About one o'clock on Saturday last, at Fredericton, a young lad, about 16 years of age, son of Prof. Hinds, was drowned while bathing at the flats below the city. It is a most dangerous vicinity, and has already been the scene of many similar occurrences; it abounds with deep holes and a springy bottom, and it is supposed young Hinds must have been seized with cramps, which frequently occurs where the temperature suddenly varies from tepid to cold water. The body was recovered after it had lain in the water about fifteen minutes, and every restoration was attempted, but in vain. Professor Hinds is absent from home.—Ib.

THE NEW CANADIAN TARIFF.—The Montreal Gazette, commenting upon the new action of a number of the Montreal merchants and manufacturers, says: "At the meeting of merchants at the Corn Exchange a want of unanimity was observable. The dry goods and hardware importing merchants were satisfied with the new tariff measure, and the division which took place upon the resolutions offered was not a division of merchants generally; it was dry goods and hardware merchants on the one side, and general merchants on the other. The hardware merchants regarded the abolition of the duties on articles in the ten per cent. list as highly beneficial to their trade—that such articles comprise a large amount of their importations, and the regulation would enable them to offer inducements to buyers in the Western United States to draw their supplies from this market in preference to the New York market. They saw no benefit to them by postponing the measure. They would have as much stock in January as at present, and the duties on hardware articles are generally paid as they arrive. The dry goods merchants held similar views, and it was evident that discussions could not harmonize the variety of opinions entertained. On that account it was deemed by those who had called the meeting the wisest plan to avoid discussion, and obtain a vote requesting the Government to postpone action upon the proposed tariff measure until after the Confederation of the Provinces.

There was not much disposition evinced at the meeting, by those opposed to the Government, to seize upon the occasion to reflect upon the Administration. On the contrary, the first attempt at a political demonstration was put down immediately. Both this meeting and the one held in the Mechanics' Hall were composed of friends of the Government, and also of some, perhaps, who would prefer to see other gentlemen in power, but no political bias was attempted to be given to either meeting; and it was considered by a large majority of those composing both meetings, without regard to political distinction, as unfortunate that such material changes in this and the sister Provinces. There was a serious earnestness of expression in the meeting of manufacturers, and those interested in that line of business, which bore evidence that they, at least, believed that the new tariff measure would be the ruin of their interests. They were not desirous that the Government should be harassed in the introduction of its tariff measures; but they asserted there were provisions in the proposed measure not only fatal to their interests, but which would be found detrimental to the general prosperity and permanent welfare of the Province. They believed that Canada, if exclusively agricultural, would be dependant on a foreign demand for a market for her products; but with manufacturing interests there would be a general developement of her resources—she would have a home market, and be self-supporting to a great extent. They regarded a moderetely protective tariff as essential to the early commercial and manufacturing stages of a country, and that the fact that absolute free trade may at some future time be advantageous does not prove its present necessity.

The Canadians have expended the past year, in the management of their government, $12,100,000, of which amount $270,000 was applied to the reduction of the public debt. The trade of the province has increased $18,000,000 during the year. The Finance Minister estimates that the revenue will fall off $1,000,000, in consequence of the abrogation of the Reciprocity Treaty. In order to be prepared to meet any future Fenian attacks, $1,500,000 is appropriate for the ensuing year, for the perfecting of the militia system.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

ARRIVAL OF THE "SAXONIA."

FIGHTING HAS COMMENCED AT LAST!

NEW YORK, July 9.

The steamer Saxonia with dates to the 27th ult., arrived.

The laying of the Atlantic Cable would commence on the 30th June.

In the House of Lords on the 25th, Lord Russell announced that in consequence of the late hostile vote in the House of Commons the Ministry had tendered their resignation; but the Queen wanted them to reconsider their determination. They awaited the result of an interview with the Queen, which would take place on the 25th, before declaring a definite resolution.

A military revolt took place at Madrid and Barcelona, and was suppressed.

Seven hundred of the insurgents who took refuge in France were disarmed and conveyed to Crete. One hundred were killed and wounded in Madrid. Tranquility prevails.

The Italian army crossed the Mincia without meeting any opposition from the Austrians. It then pushed on toward Perepura, but was repulsed by a short cannonade from the forts and strongholds.

The Italian army was encountered in great force by the Austrians in the vicinity of Verona. A great battle commenced. The Austrians repulsed both wings of the Italian army. The fight was still going on.

The Prussians had advanced into upper Silesia and Bohemia. They easily repulsed the Austrian hussars, owing to the effective power of the needle gun.

Prince Charles' army met with no resistance in crossing the Bohemian frontier.

The Prussians are arming Coblentz and Shrenhistain against the Southern Germans.

On Sunday an engagement between the Austrians and Italians near Verona, lasted all day, and ended in the complete defeat of the Italians, who were commanded by the King. Both armies fought most bravely. The Italians were repulsed at all points after a severe and bloody struggle. The Italians recrossed the Mincio on Sunday evening.

Prince Amodeus was wounded.

The Austrians then took Custozza by assault.

The Austrians occupy Bormis, in Lombardy. Nothing is known of Benedeck's movement.

The Prussians attacked Aswincin in Galatia, but were beaten off with loss by the Austrians.

Garibaldi intends marching through Tyrol direct to Munich.

A later telegram asserts that the Hanoverian army is still completely surrounded. The King of Hanover demanded twenty-four hours for deliberation on the conditions upon which his army is to capitulate. The demand has been granted. The King expects to receive assistance from the Bavarian army.

A Florence despatch of the 25th says that the papers there assert that the want of success in the first battle is but a new motive for redoubled energy and perseverance. The country has full confidence in the army, and the war against Austria will be continued until the complete liberation of Venetia has been accomplished.

An official despatch dated Bresia, evening of 25th, says: "To-day in engagement between the Italian Volunteers and the Austrians, between the bridge of Coffaro and Londzone, the latter were repulsed, leaving several killed and wounded.

The Prussians were repulsed near Shalitz when the cavalry took part in the action at six o'clock this evening. Prussians are beaten and are in full retreat, leaving their dead and wounded on the field.

BERLIN, June 27, Evening.—The engagement which took place yesterday at Paeloc, to the East of Tuman, was of a very spirited character, and lasted until midnight; the troops engaged were the Prussian division under Gen. Vanhorn, and the Prussian brigade under Gen. Patzchample. The Prussians lost a Colonel, Lieut. Colonel and Captain. The Prussian Chamber will probably be convoked for the 18th o July.

FLORENCE, 26.—At the battle of Custozza the Austrian forces numbered 60,000. The first army corps reserve on the heights to the left of Valeggio held in check the overwhelming number of Austrians before which Gen. Crane had been forced to retire. Bixio's division and cavalry line protected the retreat o the army which was effected in good order. The Peameli division took in prisoners an entire battalion of Austrian chasseurs. The Italian cavalry had several engagements with the Austrians, who suffered heavy losses, and the 3rd army corps took abou 1000 prisoners. The Italian losses are great, bu those of the enemy are believed to be still more considerable. The Italian cavalry did not abandon thei position until after the enemy had received reinforcements. Toward nightfall both the Italians and Austrians retired from their respective positions.

NEW YORK, July 9.

Steamer Cuba, from Havana, brings intelligence of a revolt in Cuba.

About the 29th ult., information was sent by civil and military authorities of Porto Principe to the Capt. General at Havana, that in that place, as well as the neighbourhood, a spirit of revolt had been observed for some time past, and treasonable language was used openly in the public places. The authorities at Havana, however, paid no heed to the warning until news came that a portion of the population had broken out in open revolt and declared for the independence of Cuba, and separation from the Spanish government.

On the 1st inst., a military force, consisting of five companies, stationed at Port Principe, was sent against the insurgents to bring them to order. A fight ensued in which a Colonel was killed and three officers mortally wounded.

Three Companies of the Spanish soldiers went over to the Insurgents. The latter thus reinforced and numbering 7,000 men, proceeded to the mountain region.

The moment this news was known at Havana, three steamers were dispatched with troops to the place of revolt; but before they were fairly on their way, which was on the 30th, the stirring intelligence arrived that four steamers, with 2,000 troops on board, had made their appearance near Necevitas, bearing the Chilian flag and effected a landing in the vicinity.

All the discontented thereupon proceeded to the place of rendesvouz, and it was believed the revolt had ramifications throughout the whole Island.

Among those who left Porto Principe were about 1,000 negroes who, it is asserted, were armed by their owners to join the Insurgents.

The whole affair was looked upon as a general revolution of the natives to free themselves from Spanish rule. Gold 152.

NEW YORK, July 11.

A Vera Cruz letter of June 25th says Gen. Viguaria has taken Tehuacan by storm.

Toluca, only forty miles from the city of Mexico, is in peril of capture by the Liberals.

Mipotolpran is to be soon vacated by the French garrison who are to be sent to reinforce Tampico, the latter being threatened by the Republicans.

At Tepasco the Liberals had disabled a French gunboat which was attempting to go up the river from Frontera.

The Times has a despatch stating that a Baltimore house of the highest respectability is stated to have received by the steamer Cuba, semi-official communications, denying the news of an insurrection at Puerto Principe, and treating the affair as substantially a canard.

The news of the uprising of the blacks, as well as the arrival of the Chilian fleet with 2,000 men, is also pronounced false by the same party, who attributes the rumor to a gathering of a few hundred Cubans upon one of the Squares of Puerto Principe, for the purpose of protesting against the present Cabinet, and associating themselves in feeling with the Revolutionists of Spain.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is a letter written by the Rev. C. Z. Weiser, to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburg, Penn.:—

A BENEFACTRESS.

Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, colicking, and teething siege. We confirm every word set orth in the Prospectus. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. Away with your "Cordial," "Paragoric," "Drops," "Laudanum," and every other "Narcotic," by which the babe is drugged into stupidity, and rendered dull and idiotic for life.

We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power, we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour of the Infant Race.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES advertised in another column, are highly recommended for public speakers and others, for the relief of colds and to clear the voice. Their efficacy is strongly attested by congressmen, clergymen, and singers, who use them. Among the certificates to their merits we observe letters from Henry Ward Beecher, N. P. Willis, E. H. Chapin, and others of eminence.—N. Y. Evening Post.

JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT, is no quack preparation, but one meeting the approbation of the medical profession, the most eminent of whom bear willing testimony to its wonderful efficacy.

To give strength and tone to the digestive organs, take Parson's Purgative Pills occasionally. They do not make the weak weaker, but give strength and elasticity to the system.

CAIRD'S Celebrated Patent Corn and Bunion Plaster.—"Many thousands of bona fide successful cures have at length fairly established the unrivalled virtue of this famous Plaster, being in simple truth what is here stated, viz., a certain remedy, speedy and safe, and giving rise to no trouble or inconvenience. By its use instantaneous and perfect ease is obtained; from its extraordinary virtue of destroying the sensibility of the Corn and Bunion (even whilst undergoing pressure), and producing a complete removal of all Callosities, whether Corns, Bunions, Enlarged Great Toe Joints, Warts, or excrescences of any kind. It entirely differs in its mode of action from any other Solvent or Plaster, as by its marvellous chemical virtue it at once removes all pain, and causes the Corn to become dead and detached from the surrounding flesh, thus performing a painless and radical cure."
