"I WAS FOUND OF THEM THAT SOUGH ME NOT."

Long years the Master waited, One human heart to win-The Almighty stood repeating His prayer, "O, let me in !" He stood beside the doorway, With patient, pleading voice, But that home was overflowing With its own created joys. Home voices made sweet music, So sweet, he scarcely heard The pleading low and earnest Of Christ, the Incarnate Lord, And though other guests might enter, This One stood evermore Unheeded, yet unwearied, Waiting beside the door. The angels paused to ponder This mystery of love; For they knew His faintest whisper All heaven and hell could move. Will He turn away heart-wounded-The garden gate stands wide ; There are homes where He is welcome, Where grief and pain abide. One heart is interceding-"Hast thou no other way To overcome the hardness Of the heart that says Thee nay ?" The Lord puts forth His power, Till now in pity hid, And enters by the doorway, Not waiting to be bid ; He lays His hand upon him; The pulse of life beats low ; And silent in the chamber The mourners come and go. One name alone, he nameth In uttermost distress; The saving One he calleth In weary helplessness. The faint voice whispers "Jesus," He comes in wondrous grace, And the shadow of His beauty Falls on his dying face. When earth's-loved sounds are quiet, The Lord comes very near And speaks of peace and pardon,

Lest the weary one should fear. He lights the dreary valley With hopes unknown before, Then lays him in His bosom, And pain and death are o'er. She who hath pleaded for him. Though she never thought of this, Said, "The Lord had heard my weeping, And the hand that smites is His." She kissed the pallid beauty Of her beloved's face, And thought, "So look the angels If they sleep in the heavenly place. He has won to his rest forever, And left me mourning here ; But my Maker is my Husband, My lone heart may not fear. 'Tis Himself, Himself hath done it, And my lips shall not complain ; Though some music may be silenced. I have caught a thrilling strain. 'Tis the voice of the Saviour singing Over the woo'd and won, As He rests in His love and triumphs In the midst of the heavenly throne. Though the things of earth are shadowed, And the very sun shines dim ; My Lord is the Light of Heaven, M. M. And I will look to Him."

I'm obliged to take you from school for awhile, because I cannot pay the bills. You may try, my boy." Fred was very impatient to be off at once, lest some one else should have procured the place before him. He made himself very neat, brushed his clothes, and blacked his shoes as brightly as possible. Then, eating his dinner, he hurried back to the store,

The paper was still in the window, and with a great fluttering at his heart, Fred walked into the fine store.

"I'm afraid," said the gentleman, "that you are too small."

"I'm twelve years old, sir," said Fred, standing very erect, "and I could try." The gentleman smiled, and said, "I should like to have you, my boy, if you were only a little stouter. I don't think that you would be able to take home large bundles like that; would you ?"

"I could try, sir; mother says we ought never to give up."

"You are the right kind of a boy, my son. I'll give you a trial-you may come in the morning." Fred was almost breathless with delight; he ran home as fast as his feet could carry him, to tell his mother of his success. "Mother," he said, "I'm glad I got that lesson; because now, whenever I feel like giving up, I think of it; and I say to myself, I won't give up yet. I'll try again. I mean to be a rich man some day, so as to take care of you." "Go on, my dear boy," his mother said, " persevere, but don't forget that it is God who giveth us the power to do. Ask him to keep you from temptation and sin, and to help you to overcome the difficulties that may come in your way."

Fred determined to follow his mother's advice; and he entered upon his duties resolving to do his best, and never to give up, if he could help it. He got very tired at first, running here and there with heavy bundles; but then he said to himself, "I learned that hard lesson, and if I go on trying, I shall get a better place by-and-bye." Thus he comforted himself one hot summer day, as he carried along several bundles strapped together, and slung across his shoulder. He stopped for a moment to rest on the steps of a fine house, for he was very warm and tired; and while he was wiping the perspiration from his brow, the door was opened, and Mr. C .----, the proprietor of the store he was in, came out. "Ah, Fred, is that you ?" he said, "you look tired.

Fred thought for a moment before he answered. For would it be brave or manly to say he was tired ? "'Tis very warm, sir," he said, with a slight shake of his head.

One Hundred Dollars expended for other Medicines, or Medical attendance. The moment Radway's Ready Relief is applied externally-or taken internally, according to directions-pain, from whatever cause, ceases to exist. ASIATIC CHOLERA. 1849.

1849. In 1849 Radway's Ready Relief cured over 10,000 per-sons, seized with Asiatic Cholora, and by its timely use as a preventive, saved over one million of lives.

YELLOW FEVER. 1856 In 1856 Radway's Ready Relief cured thousands of perons seized with Yellow Fever. As a preventive of this terrible disease, Dr. Frederick B. Page, of Mississippi, urged its use to the medical boards of the Southern States, in the world.

DURING THE WAR More lives were saved by the use of Radway's Beady Re-lief than from the best efforts of the medical staff. We have hundreds of letters proving this fact. We have the evidence to prove that in cases where men, by exposure to malarious swamps, bottom lands, rice fields, etc., used Radway's Ready Relief, invariably escaped sickness; those who did not, were seized with Dysentery, Swamp Fevers, Billious Fevers, Diarrhœa, Cholera, Rheumatism, &c., and those only who, when thus seized, used the Ready Relief, entirely recovered.

ITS UNIVERSAL USE.

It cures the worst diseases incidental to all climates. It. has been tested in Asia, Africa, South America, Europe, East and West Indies, and cured the worst forms of Cholera, Dysentery, Fluxes, Fevers, Yellow Fever, Swamp Marsh, Ship and other Fevers-and never failed in protecting persons who used it as a preventive against attacks.

WHY NOT? If Radway's Ready Relief possesses such remarkable disinfecting, neutralising, strengthening, aperient, suodo-rific, anodyne, and other properties, as to cure the worst forms of disease as they exist, in the most sickly climates of the world, and where the poisonous malaria is so thick that you may almost "cut it with a knife," why not cure, with the great ease it does, all sorts of fevers of the milder type, in our own climate? Diarrhœa. Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Billious Fever, Influenza, &c., are but the milder and weaker forms of the more terrible diseases. If i cures the worst forms as they exist in the most sickly cli-The Subscribers have received the greater portion mates, it will readily cure the less as they prevail amongs

For two whole years Fred remained errand-boy in Mr. C---'s handsome store. His motto has always been, Never give up ! Temptations and difficulties had frequently come in his way, but he had not forgotten the hard lesson, and his mother's daily admonition, " Trust in God, my son, and never give up trying to do right." His wages had from time to time been increased, and now he was really able to do something to help bis mother.

washes every thing, and has rapid sale. It will be found invaluable for the following domestic purposes, viz.:—It washes all fine things, such as Muslin Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c,; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as it immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, by dissolving a teaspnonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eating it by mistake, will not be injured. If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time-saves your clothes-saves your money; and it does not injure the most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed; for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improves them -- by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flannels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery on a Washing Day, with PICKSTONE'S Cleansing Crystal.
