A IIYMN OF TRUST.

Leave God to order all thy ways, And hope in him whate'er betide; Thou'lt find him in the evil days An all-sufficient Strength and Guide. Who trusts in God's unchanging love, Builds on the rock that naught can move.

What can these anxious cares avail, These never ceasing moans and sighs ? What can it help us to bewail Each painful moment as it flies ? Our cross and trials do but press The heavier for our bitterness.

Only your restless heart keep still, And wait in cheerful hope, content To take whate'er his gracious will, His all-discerning love has sent; Nor doubt our inmost wants are known To him who chose us for his own.

He knows when joyful hours are best, He sends them as he sees it meet ; When thou hast borne its fiery test, And now art freed from all deceit, He comes to thee all unaware, And makes thee own his loving care.

Nor in the heat of pain and strife, Think God hath cast thee off unheard ; Nor that the man whose prosperous life Thou enviest is of him preferred ; Times passes, and much change doth bring, And sets a bound to everything.

All are alike before his face ; 'Tis easy to our God Most High To make the rich man poor and base, To give the poor man wealth and joy. True wonders still of him are wrought, Who setteth up and brings to naught.

Sing, pray, and swerve not from his ways, But do thine own part faithfully ; Trust his rich promises of grace, So shall it be fulfilled in thee ; God never yet forsook at need. The soul that trusted him indeed. -From the German.

The celebrated Judge Hale of England said he never laid any plan on the Sabbath-day to promote his worldly interest, but God blasted it. I read this saying of his when I was a little boy, and have never forgotten it; and so far as I have been able to judge from my own experience, it has been true in my case as well as his. When I was boy, I would steal away sometimes to fish, or trap partridges on Sunday, but I never found the pleasure in it that I had anticipated. All the time I thought I could hear God calling from heaven, "Remember the Sabbath-day to keep it holy;" and I often wondered if God was not still standing on mount Sinai repeating the law.

This Commandment tells us very plainly what we may do on the Sabbath-day, and what we may not do We are to spend the whole day in God's service ; resting from our weekly business and amusements, reading his word and other good books, singing his praises, praying to him, going to church to hear the gospel preached, or to Sunday-school to learn his will, and in all we do serving and honoring God. We may dress ourselves in our best clothes, and eat our food as on other days; but we should never make it a feast-day. We are to do no work except what necessity and mercy require. Surely this gives us plenty to do for one seventh part of our time.

But the things we are forbidden to do are very numerous. We are not to spend the day in idleness ; not to laugh and jest as on other days ; not to read idle tales or story books, or go to visit as on other days. You are not to associate with your playmates, to engage in the amusements that are lawful on other days; nor to gaze about in the church or Sabbathschool, and take more notice of what other people wear and do, than of what the preacher or your teacher says. Always try to remember the words of Hagar, "Thou God seest me."

A little boy was once playing marbles before the door on the Sabbath ; and his mother, who feared the remarks of her neighbors more than breaking God's law, told her son, if he must play marbles on Sunday, to go to the garden where no one could see him. Said he to his mother, "Is not God in the garden ?" I know there are a great many boys and girls, who when they get out of sight of their parents and teachers, forget that God is in the garden, and in the lanes and alleys, and everywhere else.

I know a little girl that asked her mother once why God made Sunday so much longer than any SECURED TO THE HUMAN RACE BUSINESS CLOTHING, other day of the week ; and when she was told that it was no longer, she said it seemed as long as two days. Now that girl did not love God, or she would have thought the Lord's day was a very happy and a very short day, If we loved the house of God as David did when he said, " A day in thy courts is better than a

REMEMBER the Sabbath-day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work ; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God : in it thou shalt not do any work, thon, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates : for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

God made it very clear to the Jews that he meant the ill-success of the Great Eastern, which was what he said. May God keep my little readers from disregarded. But by putting the first man to death | breaking this Commandment. that broke the law, all the rest were warned, and the law was observed. I have no doubt, if Moses were here to enquire of the Lord now, and some boy was brought before him that had been caught playing marbles, or flying kites, or fishing, or playing in the street, that the Lord would say it was a greater sin to do these things I have named, and many other things that both boys and girls do now, than it then was to gather sticks for a fire. The man that was punished by stoning, it may be was a very bad man, who did not care for God nor his law, and was not afraid he should be punished. But you must remember he was a poor bondman, that had been emancipated only a little while before; while you, my dear children, have all the light he had, and, in addition, all the increased light of three thousand years since. To break the Sabbath is a far greater sin now than then, although our nation does not punish it as the Jews then did." I believe this is one of the great sins of the age in which we live. Triding with holy time leads to tritling with God's holy name, with his word, his ordinances, and everything whereby God makes himself known; and I have no doubt many are cursed of God for this sin, as the Jews were in their going out and their coming in, in their basket and in their store.

Lord of the worlds above, How plesant and how fair The dwellings of thy love, Thine earthly temples are ! To thine abode My heart aspires, With warm desires To see my God ! Oh happy souls, that pray Where God appoints to hear ! Oh happy men, that pay Their constant service there ! They praise thee still ; And happy they That love the way To Zion's hill! They go from strength to strength, Through this dark vale of tears. Till each arrives at length. Till each in heaven appears : O glorious seat, When God our King Shall thither bring Our willing feet! Chairman in Liverpool .- CHARLES TURNER, Esq. The Royal Insurance Company is one of the largest

Offices in the kingdom. At the Annual Meeting held in August 1859, the following highly satisfactory results were shown :---

FIRE DEPARTMENT. The most gratifying proof of the expansion of the busi-ness is exhibited in the one following fact—that the increase alone of the last three years exceeds the entire business of are insurance companies of this kingdom. The Premiums for the year 1855 being......£180,060 While the Premiums for the year 1558 are .... 196,148 Showing an actual increase of ...... 66,088 or upwards of 50 per cent. in three years.

The recent returns of duty made by Government for this latter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more than maintaining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years. Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an advance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Com-nany, while all the others respectively for the former of the company, while all the others respectively fall far short of the moiety of its advance

LIFE DEPARTMENT. The amount of new Life Premiums received this year is by far the largest received in any similar period since the commencement of the business, and must far exceed the average of amount received by the most successful offices in the kingdom. The number of policies issued in the year was 832, the sum assured £387,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,854 8s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension of business during the last ten years. Thus :-Years. No. of Policies. Sums Assured. New Premiums £48,764 17 0 95,650 9 11 1848 1850 ··· 98 .. 190 £1,380 9 2,627 4 5,828 5 ... 181,504 10 6 1852 .. 422 1854 4.08 161,848 18 4 4,694 16 ... 1856 .. 708 297,560 16 8 8,850 8 1 887,752 6 8 1858 12,354 3 4 The remarkable ncrease in the business of the last four years is mainly consequent upon the large bonus declared in 1855, which amounted to no less than £2 per cent. per annum on the sums assured, and averaged 80 per cent. upon PERCY M. DOVE, Manager and Actuary. JOHN M. JOHNSTON, Secretary to the London Board. A Slight Cold, Cough, Hoarseness, or Sare Threat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a fough or Slight Cald in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.

Brown's Branchial Draches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Caughs, Calds, Branchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Hacking Cough in Kansumption, and numerous affections of the Threat, giving immediate relief.

Public Speakers and Singers, will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice.
