Gold 150. is hardly consistent with the exercise of that sagacity necessary to the wise discharge of political duty. The fact is, the Toryism of which these young noblemen are a type is as different as possible from the progressive Conservatism represented by Sir Robert Peel, or that accommodating expediency in which Mr. Disraeli delights. It is contemptuous of popular opinion, it is cynical in its temper and arrogant in its tone, it has no sympathy with any of the movements of modern thought,--its one idea is that of blind resistance to innovation of every kind, it is violent in its reactionary tendencies, and is only hindered by its want of power from seeking to curtail the liberty we at present enjoy. Lord Stanley, indeed, has not been supposed to share in this spirit, but the course which he has taken during the present Session, has served to shake the confidence hitherto cherished in his superiority to the prejudices of his party. In short, a Government which has come into power in virtue mainly of the frantic denunciations of the people by Mr. Robert Lowe, and whose supporters celebrated their victory by the unseemly shouting and yelling which disgraced the House of Commons on the night when classes of the country, and their position is rendered still more significant by the feeling shown by them and their organs in the press in reference to the popular demonstrations of the last fortnight.

(NAIRD'S Celebrated Patent Corn and Bunion / Plaster .-- " Many thousands of bona fide successful cures have at length fairly established the unrivalled virtue of this famous Plaster, being in simple truth what is here stated, viz., a certain remedy, speedy and safe, and giving rise to no trouble or inconvenience. By its use instantaneous and perfect ease is obtained ; from its extraordinary virtue of destroying the sensibility of the Corn and Bunion (even whilst undergoing pressure), and producing a complete removal of all Callosities, whether Corns, Bunions, Enlarged Great Toe Joints, Warts, or execrescences of any kind. It entirely differs in its mode of action from any other Solvent or Plaster, as by its marvellous chemical virtue it at once removes all pain, and causes the Corn to become dead and detached from the surrounding flesh, thus performing a painless and radical cure."
