She knew before-hand what she was to get as compensation.

Wenier Abendpost says that previous to battle of 31, Austrian Government already requested Emperor of French to bring out armistic between Austria and Italy in order to render it possible for Austrian troops in Italy to join army of the North.

Emperor of French will meet the wishes of Austrian Government and desirous to see peace once more established in Europe, even went further, and without being directly or indirectly requested to do so by Austrian Cabinet also offered good offices to effect armistice between Austria and Prussia. This loyal offer of French Emperor was accepted by Austrian Government.

Times 7th, says there is too much reason to fear that hostilities will be renewed—both threaten war. If so, Austria will be unable to withdraw any considerable number of troops from Venetia, and unless sheltered by Ægis, France may soon be compelled to hear terms of peace dictated by Prussia in her own Capital.

Times remarks next questions are whether Emperor Napoleon will tender back good offices by threat of armed interference, and whether, in any event, he will be content with part stakeholder, or will act upon principles apparently foreshawdowed in letter to M. Drouyn DeL'Huys. Does he regard himself as simple trustee of Venetia for Italy, or will he make his own terms before transferring it. Will he submit to witness aggrandizement of Prussia in Northern Europe, without demanding any fresh rectification on the Eastern frontier of France, or will he invite the Great Powers to aid him in the new partition of the Continent, based on the rights of nationalities and national boundaries. It is difficult to believe if either Italy or Prussia will ultimately repel pacific overtures, Emperor Napoleon especially, if they should be supported by England. Sooner or later therefore without sacrificing a single soldier, or imposing the slightest burden on France, French Emperor will probably find himself again real arbiter of Europe. It is a position which lofty ambition disdain to abuse.

Daily News compares cession of Venetia to France as the act of a debtor who makes away with his property on the eve of bankruptcy. There is want of frankness about the conduct of Austrian Government fitted to exasperate Prussia. If Austria wants army corps in Italy near Vienna, in order to make better terms, Prussia cannot be expected to aid her in setting them at liberty. No doubt the refusal of the French mediator would be a very serious event, but it would not be safe to conclude too abruptly that powerful word Napoleon will instantly restore peace to Europe.

The Post thinks least Prussia can ask with Vienna lying open to her victorious march is "Cite Possitis." This implies acknowledgment of her absolute possession Elbe duchies free towns Electoral Hesse and other small Duchies kingdoms Saxony and Hanover and province of Bohemia. They may choose dictate peace at Vienna rather than at Pardubitz to agree to Congress. Post thinks should Congress meet Paris England will be represented by Lord Clarendon, and probable that French Government will propose general disarmament.

THE WAR.—Intelligence from Venetian frontier states, Austrians strengthening forces at Rovigo.

A despatch on the 5th from Italian head-quarters says, considering it expedient to deprive the Austrians Fete Dupont at Bargofore, on the right bank of the Po., have commenced operations for an attack.

At the request of Lord Derby, Russell moved an adjournment till the 9th.

In the House of Commons, Gladstone in reply to enquiry, explained the position of the Government towards the Bank of England, and stated that the Bank acted entirely on its own responsibility in the matter of rate, discount, &c., the Government having no control in the matter.

Col. Vivian gave notice of enquiry as to the successes of the Prussian needle-gun, and it is the intention of the Government as to supplying British forces with breech-loaders.

LATEST VIA QUEENSTOWN.—8th.—Paris Temps announces that Prussia and Italy accepted armistice on the following conditions:—Prussian to retain present positions; troops to be supported by countries occupied; Austria not to increase her armies in the field; Italy to occupy one fortress in quadrilateral.

Italy in reply demanded occupation two fortresses in quadrilateral.

At present thought not unlikely that Prussia would dictate terms at Vienna.

EPITHELIOMA, OR CANCER OF THE LIP,
Cured by Rogers & Co.'s Medicines!
Read what Dr. Read says:—
WINDSOR, April 16, 1866.

MESSRS. ROGERS & Co.:

Gents.:—In reference to the case of Epithelioma of the Lip, in which I used your Ointment, I beg to say that the patient entirely recovered, and has continued well ever since. I have also used the Medicine in some cases of obstinate Skin Diseases, with much benefit. I believe it to be a valuable remedy in many otherwise intractable cases.
H. H. READ, M. D.

AND STILL THEY COME!
STORMONT, Guysboro', April 17, 1866.

MESSRS. ROGERS & Co.:

Gents:—Your Medicine has made another wonderful cure. Thomas Cooper, Esq., of Lachabor Lake (storekeeper), got some for his wife, who had been afflicted with Scrofula for seven years, and nothing she got from the doctors did her any good. Mr. Cooper says her face was in a dreadful state with running sores, but is now well. As he expressed it, "It made a total cure of her."

Yours truly, S. F. MILWARD, J. P.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.

A Slight Cold, Cough, Hoarseness, or Sore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a Cough or Slight Cold in its first stage, that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.

Brown's Bronchial Troches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Hacking Cough in Consumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief.

Public Speakers and Singers, will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, at 25 cents per box.
