The Nova Scotia Executive have escaped great peril and disgrace, and their case should be a warning to New Brunswick.

Imports from the Lower Provinces to Boston in 1866, two and a half million dollars.

The general imports of Boston for the year ending June 30, 1865, according to official accounts, were twenty-five millions, and the exports twenty-one.

The traffic receipts on the Nova Scotia Railway, December, 1865, amounted to $169,959.81.

By the Jara, from Liverpool, 18th inst., we learn that a violent snow storm prostrated the wires between Liverpool and London.

The Emperor, it is said, does not think the moment has arrived to do so.

The following melancholy accidents have been communicated to the Woodstock Acadia from Grand Falls:—

With Mr. Larlee we are personally acquainted; he is a very worthy man, and we sincerely hope he may recover from his injuries.

The "ZEPHYRUS" CASE.—Execution of the Cook Downey.—Downey, the negro cook, who murdered the Captain of the Zephyr, suffered the extreme penalty in the Halifax Jail on Wednesday morning.
