THE HEAVENLY DOXOLOGY.

BY REV. SIDNEY DYER.

"After these things I heard a great voice of much peop! in heaven, saying, Alleluia | Salvation, and glory, and honor, and power, unto the Lord our God."-Rev. xix. 1.

A saintly choir, with rapt emotion, Before the great white Throne are bowed : Their hymns smell up as surging ocean preaks on the shore deep-voiced and loud ; "All worthy is the LAMB, once lowly, To be exalted evermore, The Lord our God, whom we adore, Almighty, gracious, holy, holy !" That song, my soul, repeat again, And shout it forth while life is given ; Let hill and vale prolong the strain, And waft the chorus up to heaven !

Arrayed in shining ranks of glory The victor host in heaven appears, To chant the ever wondrous story, All free from sorrow, pain, and tears, How they came up from tribulation, Immortal, washed from every stain, To praise the LAMB, who once was slain, And slain to purchase their salvation ! Awake, awake, each heart and tongue ! The blissful strains of love repeat, As, vieing with the white-robed throng, We sing the song, long, loud, and sweet !

O blessed land where eyes are tearless, All hunger, pain, and sin unknown; Where streams of joy are pure and peerless In endless life before the Throne! Where Jesus reigns, once meek and lowly-O may I there before him stand, In robes blood-washed, with harp in hand, To sing with angels, Holy, holy ! Awake my soul ! awake my lyre ! And louder, sweeter notes prolong, Till bowing with the heavenly choir, My lips repeat no other song!

STORIES AND ILLUSTRATIONS OF TH TEN COMMANDMENTS. THE NINTH COMMANDMENT. THOU shalt not bear false witness against

This Commandment teaches you not only to put a high value on a good reputation, and to maintain and promote truth between man and man in the common concerns of life, but especially when called to SECURED TO THE HUMAN RACE bear witness under oath before a magistrate or in a court of justice. It is enough to make us blush for our race to see a person called to idstify before a court, when a number of respectable men will follow and say they would not believe him if under oath. Another and a very common way of bearing false witness against our neighbor is, by expressing a rash, censorious judgment of their character and conduct. Many take this way of seeking revenge for real or supposed injuries. Some people hardly speak a good word of others in their absence, without implying by some significant wink or nod that they know a great deal not favorable to them. This is the very spirit of the evil one, and all such characters should be driven out of respectable society.

You may tell a lie to another's injury without speak ing a word. I will illustrate this by an anecdote. A number of boys had assembled one beautiful summe. morning at the school-house, to play an hour befor school began. Two roads crossed each other at the place. The physician of the neighborhood passed along one of the roads soon after they had assembled, and the boys saw which way he went. In a littl time a man came riding in great haste, and asked th boys if they had seen the doctor go along. A boy said, "Yes." "Which way did he go ?" The boy pointed his finger to the wrong road, as a trick. The man started at full speed and rode several miles, but found no doctor. When he reached home again, hill little son, one of their schoolmates, was dead. He ha got a fish bone in his throat while eating his break) fast. The physician arrived at last, and took out th bone; but it was too late. He said if he had been there thirty minutes sooner, he could have saved that boy's life. The next day the minister stated at hill funeral, that he was killed by a lie which another boy told with his finger.

On another occasion, an old man came to a cree! that was frozen over, and asked a boy who was skall ting along the shore if the ice was strong enough t bear him over. The boy nodded his head. The ol man went on, broke through, and was drowned. That boy drowned the old man by the nod of his head. SI you see, dear children, that you can lie with a motio. of the hand or the head, as well as with the tongue It is no uncommon thing to hear great liars callin for curses on their heads if what they say is not true A few years ago, a woman who lived in a small tow in England, purchased a bedstead for thirteen shillings. She handed the salesman a one pound note, and he gave her the change due her. A short tim afterwards she returned to the shop, and asserted per

CAUTION! CAUTION! CAUTION! THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to caution the public against spurious imitatious of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale. It will be found invaluable for the following domestic purposes, viz. :- It washes all fine things, such as Muslin Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c,; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as it immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, dissolving a teaspnonful of the Crystal in a quarter of pint of water ; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and anlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eatng it by mistake, will not be injured. If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful hange upon Washing Days. It saves your time-saves our clothes-saves your money; and it does not injure the most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed ; for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improves them -- by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flannels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery on a Washing Day, with PICKSTONE'S Cleansing Crystal.

DEAR CHILDREN-Perhaps no command in the whole decalogue is oftener broken than this. Go. says we have all gone astray from the womb, "speaking lies;" and for us to point out the various way of communicating falsehood would be as difficult a te number the hairs of our head. And yet God ha pronounced the most dreadful doom on those that as guilty of this sin : " All liars shall have their portion in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone." We might suppose this awful declaration would b sufficient to prevent any one from telling lies. If ou rulers were to pass a law that every boy and girl that told a lie should be cast into a great furnace of fire dead. would they not all stop lying at once? And why i it that they will not stop when the great God has declared that all liars shall be cast into a lake of fire ! Nothing is here said as to great lies or small lies. All liars incur the penalty of death ; yet lying, like ever, other sin, may be greatly aggravated by circumstan. ces. We will now try to describe a few of the differ. ent classes of liars.

they have done or seen, that never took place, such as this : A boy or girl runs home in great haste, an I knew how wicked it was to tell a lie, but one si tells about having seen a dozen men killed in th leads to another. On going into my father's room, street; when the fact was that some one had got rul saw he was in great pain, and I felt very sorry I had over and a little hurt, and no one was killed. THE ROYAL INSURANCE COMPANY, 92 Lombard-street, London, and Royal Insurance buildings, Liverpool

Chairman of the London Board .- SAMUEL BAKER, Esq. Chairman in Liverpool.-CHARLES TURNER, Esq. The Royal Insurance Company is one of the largest offices in the kingdom

At the Annual Meeting held in August 1859, the following highly satisfactory results were shown :--FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The most gratifying proof of the expansion of the business is exhibited in the one following fact-that the increase alone of the last three years exceeds the entire business of some of the existing and of many of the recently defunct re insurance companies of this kingdom.

The Premiums for the year 1855 being.....£130,060 While the Premiums for the year 1558 are 196,148 Showing an actual increase of 66,088 or upwards of 50 per cent. in three years. The recent returns of duty made by Government for this ter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more than aining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years. Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an dvance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Company, while all the others respectively fall far short of the moiety of its advance.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The amount of new Life Premiums received this year is by far the largest received in any similar period since the cement of the business, and must far exceed the average of amount received by the most successful offices in the kingdom. The number of policies issued in the year was 832, the sum assured £387,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,354 3s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension of business during the last ten years. as if you made a thousand dollars by each one of in all I say." them.

The habit of lying destroys character; and what are boys or girls worth without character ? They are like a counterfeit note or a pewter coin. They may pass for a little while, but it will not be long before they will be so thoroughly marked that no one will trust in any thing they say. Who would employ such a boy in his store, or trust him to do any business for him? No one of any respectability. You had better die in honest poverty than live with such a name.

This is a desperately wicked kind of lying. Let all It was a law among the Scythians that the main such remember the noble conduct of George Washing, who told a lie in connection with an oath was to los t ton after he had cut into his father's choice cherry (his head, because such an offence was adapted to tak) tree. When all the servants were called up to see it away all truth and mutual confidence among men. any one knew who cut the tree, the noble George The apostle James says, "The tongue is a fire, said, "Father, I cannot tell a lie. It was I that cut | world of iniquity : it defileth the whole body, and the tree." There was the man shadowed forth in the setteth on fire the course of nature ; and it is set of boy. No wonder the father forgave him. Who fire of hell. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed,

Hardly any thing so much distresses the heart of and hath been tamed, of mankind ; but the tongui a Christian father or mother as to see their children | can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly denying everything they do that is wrong, and poison." This is an honest, truthful description of n trying to lay the blame on some one else. It shows | lying tongue. This is God's description of it, and the such a deep-seated depravity, that the heart sickens place for the punishment of it is a lake of fire and I think I can almost hear some of my little reader Some tell lies for gain. The boy who goes along saying, "O God, forgive me for the many lies I hav the street selling newspapers, and crics, "Another told, and I will never tell any more. I will alway battle !" when there is none, tells a lie for very small speak the truth, let it cost me what it may. I will profit, if any. The boy who says he paid five cents never slander any one behind his back, nor say any for a marble, when he paid but three, in order to in- thing about others to injure them. When I relat duce another boy to pay him five, tells a lie for two anything I have seen or heard, I will not add one iot cents. You may call this cheap lying, but it will be to it, in word or manner; and I will strive to for very dear in the end. These petty lies, unless repen- and maintain a character for truth and veracity, ted of and forsaken, will as certainly destroy the soul that everybody that knows will have full confidence

> DO NOT TELL A LIE. Ob, Henry, do not tell a lie, 'Tis a mean thing to do, A noble boy would rather die Than say what is not true. No person trusts a lying youth ; If once you have deceived, When, afterwards, you speak the truth, You will not be believed. Ask for the Holy Spirit's aid. God loves to help the weak; He will not let you be afraid The honest truth to speak.
