TAKE WARNING! "The poor wretch appeared considerably excited. and while the executioners were making their arrangeme, and take warning !"

Look on me -on the scaffold high! Here by the hangman's rope to die! Oh! be warned by my dismal fate; Shun strong drink, ere it be too late-Look on me and take warning!

Look on me while the doleful bell Harshly clanks through each dreary cell; Shuddering captives are waiting there, Weep they now for my soul a prayer. Look on me and take warning!

Look on me, and while looking, pray For the living man who must die to day; Sea and land, and the ambient skies Are passing away from before mine eyes. Look on me and take warning!

Look on me. I was once a child, The one fond hope of a mother mild. Mother! father! ab! where are ye, While dies your son on the gallows tree? Look on me and take warning!

Look on me, and a moment think Of all the woes of accursed drink, Ye who gravely in polpits stand; A sword, a sword destroyeth the land, Look on me and take warning!

Sound the trumpet both loud and clear; Warn the people both far and near. Care ye more for each preious soul, And less, far less, for the flowing bowl. Look on me and take warning!

Look on me! Ah! look on me! Behold the rope and the fatal tree, The ghastly coffin and yawning grave; And think on those whom ye yet may save. Look on me and take warning!

Lo, our brother must hang on high ! Drink-destroyed must our brother die! Toll the bell for the soul now fled, Our brother is "hanged by the neck and dead." Look on him and take warning !

" 'My friends, we have to earn our bread in the sweat of our brow, and it is a matter of much thankfolloess to the Lord that we have the health, the skill, and the opportunity of doing it. Every good gift cometh down from the Father of Lights, and surely the least we can do is to thank Him for His mercy. ments, he called out loudly, "Look on me-look on The tongue is nobly employed when giving thanks to the ever-blessed God. It is then the glory of man, as the Psamlist calls it; but when the same tongue uses profane language, it is a shame and a disgrace. Thus St. James puts it, 'Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, who are mide after the similitude of God. Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter? Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? Either a vine, figs? So can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.' I am sure your own good sense sees the utter inconsistercy and sin of pretending to bless God, while we curse our fellow-men. Besides, the habit of swearing is foolish, needless, hurtful, disgusting, degrading, odious, ruinous, Imagine a man suddenly killed, by what we call accident, with an oath upon his lips. Is he fit to enter heaven that moment, and unite in the praises of redeeming love? I leave you to answer the question. It makes my soul shudder to hear men, who might be fellow-helpers to each other in all that is pure and good and ennobling, vehemently calling down the most appalling curses on each other's heads. Is it right, is it of good report; will it bear looking back opon from the eternal state? I leave you to answer this question also. I think, moreover, of the evil inheritance a swearing father leaves to his children. They copy his conduct, they use his language, they curse each other! It is fearful, awful, distressing! Good friends! for the sake of Jesus, who died to save you, if any of you have failen into this woeful habit, give it up from this hour. My valued neighbor and Christian brother, your employer, anxious to promote your best interests, puts this weighty matter before you, through my lips. You are to build a house for the worship of the Holy One, and the proclamation of that precious Gospel, without which the world would be a terrible place; let not the awful word 'damnation' be heard where the glorious word 'salvation' is about to be sounded for years and generations to come. You have heard me patiently; you understand me thoroughly; will you take my friendly and brotherly advice ?""

JAMES WILLIAMS. East side Simonds' Street, Portland CAUTION! CAUTION! CAUTION THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND! CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to caution the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale It will be found invaluable for the following domestic surposes, viz.:-It washes all fine things, such as Muslin Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c,; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as t immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, by dissolving a teasphonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and dums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eating it by mistake, will not be injured

It you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time-saves your clothes-saves your money; and it does not injure the most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Lineus, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed; for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improves hem--by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flannels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery on a Washing Day, with Pickstonn's Cleansing Crystal.
