THE RELIGIOUS INELLIGENCER.

It has been said by a few unfortunate mortals who have triven in vain to gain position of honor and distinction, that they were not sufficiently appreciated. While such may sometimes be the case, it is generally to be observed that true deserving worth is cordially accepted and honored, whether applied to religion, politics, the arts, or invention. Next to religion, invention or discovery has the highest sition, for it wields a mighty influence; through its channels nations have overleaped, as by magic, the bounds of separation, and, united by electric wires, can converse ogether at momentary will. indeed, the diversified efforts of man's genius in these respects are a source of admiration and gratitude to the whole human race. In medicine, science has revealed dur affairs of Italy, and denounced the sending of the ex-4. ### BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

LONDON, Nov. 20th .- Friday while the steamship Bontondina, which plies between Liverpool and Greece carrying the British mails, was leaving her wharf at about noon, an accident occurred which resulted in a fearful loss of life. One of the boilers of the steamer exploded with a loud report that was distinctively felt throughout the whole city of Liververpool. Thirty persons were killed outright and many others were injured. The steamship was entirely destroyed.

Intelligence at Alexandra of Nov. 18th from the camp at Zoulla, dated Nov. 2nd, announces that the advanced Brigade of the British Abyssinian expedition arrived at Zoulla, Oct. 21st, all well. Abyssinians from the neighborhood were flocking to the camp in search of employment. The latest dates from the captives were of Oct. 6th.

whatever occurred. The demonstration, though con- siderable in numbers, did not equal the one made in Cork to-day. Cork, Dec. 1.— A great demonstration of sympa- thy for the three Fenians executed at Manchester was made here to-day. The ceremonies were similar to those which took place on Sunday last in London. The funeral procession was very long and imposing; it was headed by a catafalque trimmed with green and black, and drawn by six horses. This was fol- lowed by nearly 20,000 persons, most of whom wore green emblems, shroud and crape. Over 1,500 wo- men took part in the procession, and several priests were observed marching in the ranks. Good order prevailed throughout the day.
