AS THY DAYS.

Trembling pilgrim! lone and weary, Trav'ling toward the better land, Though thy path, at times, seems dreary, Thou hast still a guiding hand,

Still believing, look above thee; Trusting, though thou canst not see; There's a voice that says, "I love thee-'As thy days, thy strength shall be.'"

Far above the clouds that gather, Liveth One, a friend indeed, Pitying like a tender father, And remembering all thy need. All His words abide forever, And His grace is rich and free: Trembling pilgrim! doubt Him never-"As thy days, thy strength shall be."

Father, Friend, and Elder Brother, These are names He deigns to wear; Under Heaven, there is no other Love, which can with His compare. Pilgrim! weary, yet believing, Here is rest and peace for thee-

All His promises receiving, " As thy days, thy strength shall be."

BUILDING FOR ETERNITY.

A pleasant group of children were gathered in the play-ground one bright Saturday in May. School was over for the week, lessons were all recited, and for home. The play was over, and, weary, with down to rest beneath the old elm-tree that stood in out the sound of merry voices?

"Have you seen Mr. White's new house?" said a great deal of good. - Exchange. Frank Leslie to William Green, who stood beside him. "Oh! yes; is it not handsome? so large; and then such beautiful trees all around it! I think it the finest house in the village."

"How I would like to build a house for myself!" exclaimed James Norton, one of the older boys.

"Oh! it should be a great deal handsomer than

Mr. White's. I would have it all of stone, with I was that little boy grown into a young man, and handsome carving in front, a wide hall running I still call to mind the pleasure I felt at being so well through it, and a conservatory at the end, filled with remembered; and surely, my dear children, if so trimost beautiful flowers. Then I would have a garden; fling an act of attention can make so lasting an ima pond filled with gold-fish; and summer houses with pression on your friends, it is well for you to study grape-vines running over them."

A THOUGHTFUL LOVE. "Bring me in a basket of chips, Bertie," said Mrs.

Bertie took the basket to the shed; and, as he sat down, he looked very mischievous. Presently he laid some shingles across the top of the basket, and commenced piling the chips over them. Just then, Mary, his little sister, ran out to help him.

"Why, Bertie! what are you doing so for?" "It is only for fun; you keep still, and not be a little tell-tale," replied Bertie. "Don't you tell mother, I'll pile it all up high, and she will think there is a heaping basketfui."

"I would not do so, Bertie. Ma is tired, I know by her looks; and I heard her say her feet pained her. Let us tip it all over, and carry in enough to last till night."

Mrs. Sanford was a poor widow, who, by her utmost efforts, could not support herself and three children; but she had kind friends who lent her a hand, and, so far, she had kept her little flock together. Mary was the youngest, and the quickest to see when mamma was tired.

One afternoon, as Mrs. Sanford sat mending, Mary came softly into the room. A look of womanly responsibility shaded her usually sunny face; and, coming close to her mother, she said, "Mamma, I've been thinking I ought to be of some use to you."

Your little hands and feet are very useful." JAMES WILLIAMS, East side Simonds' Street, Portland CAUTION! CAUTION! THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to caution the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmles compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale.

It will be found invaluable for the following domestic purposes, viz.:—It washes all fine things, such as Muslin ice, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c,; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head by dissolving a teaspnonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eatng it by mistake, will not be injured.

If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time—saves your clothes -- saves your money; and it does not injure he most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed; for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improves them--by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flan-nels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery on a Washing Day, with Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal. Read what Dr. Read says: — Windson, April 16, 1866. MESSRS, ROGERS & Co. : Gents. :- In reference to the case of Epithelioma of the Lip, in which I used your Ointment, I beg to say that the patient entirely recovered, and has continued well ever since. I have also used the Medicine in some cases of obstinate Skin Diseases, with much benefit. I believe it to The Subscribers have received the greater portion be a valuable remedy in many otherwise intractable cases.

> AND STILL THEY COME! STORMONT, Guysboro', April 17, 1866;

MESSRS. ROGERS & Co. : Gents:-Your Medicine has made another wonderful cure. Thomas Cooper, Esq., of Lachabor Lake (storekeeper), got some for his wife, who had been afflicted with Scrofula for seven years, and nothing she got from the doctors did her any good. Mr. Cooper says her face was in. a dreadful state with running sores, but is now well. As he expressed it, "It made a total cure of her."
