The Committee of the Mechanics' Institute, co-operating with the St. John County Agricultural Society, have called a public meeting for next Tuesday evening, in connexion with the Provincial Exhibition.

CHEESE FACTORY.—We are pleased to learn that arrangements have been made for the establishment of a Cheese Factory in Sussex at an early day. Several substantial farmers, and some others, including a grocery firm in St. John, are included in this very laudable enterprize. The work of providing the necessary buildings and apparatus will be proceeded with at once, and it is expected that the establishment will be in a position to operate in a very short time.—News.

UNITED STATES PUBLIC DEBT.—By Mr. McCullough's monthly statement, it appears that on the 1st of March $1,464,855,191 was the sum of our debt bearing coin interest; $787,028,880 is the total of debt with interest in currency, and $424,126,582 the total of debt bearing no interest. The whole amount of our debt is $2,690,587,289, and the cash in Treasury, $159,823,329. Comparing his present figures with his previous monthly statement, we find that the amount of debt, less cash in the Treasury, is about $12,000,000 less than last month.—Tribune.

The Governor of Illinois has signed the bill making eight hours a legal days's work in the State, in absence of contracts to the contrary. It goes into effect immediately. The same State has now a law authorizing the jury which convicts a culprit of felonious homicide, whether the penalty shall be death, imprisonment for life, or imprisonment for a term of years.

The steamer Great Republic, which is receiving the finishing touches at Pittsburg, is said to be the largest boat ever constructed on the Western waters. Her dimensions are: Length of keel, 335 feet; on deck, 352 feet; breadth of beam, 51 feet; over all, 97 feet; depth of hold, 9 feet clear. She is designed for the St. Louis and New Orleans trade.

The funeral of Artemas Ward (Charles F. Browne) took place in Southampton, England, March 9th. His remains were buried in Kensal Green, and were followed to the grave by a great number of literary gentlemen and friends, including many Americans. The U. S. Legation was represented by Mr. Moran, Secretary to Minister Adams.

RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION IN POLAND.—All the intelligence that reaches us from the Kingdom of Poland concurs in stating that, since the rupture of diplomatic relations between Rome and St. Petersburg, and the denunciation of the Concordat which subsisted between Russia and the Holy See, the Catholic clergy of that country are in an extremely difficult position. There is no longer any question of the free exercise of Catholic worship; and the assertion may be made without exaggeration that, from the bishop down to the country cure, the entire clergy is placed under the surveillance of the most intermeddling police in Europe. The schismatic clergy, with which the Russian Government has infested the country, cannot endure that sermons should be preached in the Catholic churches while they are entirely forbidden to the Russo-Greek Church. In every discourse from the pulpit the Muscovite clergy and the police scent out political allusions, and threaten the preaches with prison in Siberia. Whoever knows how profoundly the Catholic faith is rooted in the hearts of the Polish people will easily understand how greatly the system of violence has excited public opinion against the Government in the kingdom of Poland.—Augsburg Gazette.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

DEBATE ON CONFEDERATION BILL IN HOUSE OF LORDS.—Lord Carnarvon, who introduced the Bill, spoke at some length explaining the leading features of the measure, and pointing out the good to result from its adoption. The noble Lord was followed by Lord Normanby, Lord Russell, Lord Monck, and Lord Lyveden, and at the conclusion of their speeches the bill received a second reading. We quote from a condensed report of Lord Carnarvon's speech, the following:

"The delegates having themselves suggested Canada as the name for the new Confederation, her Majesty had given her assent to that designation being adopted by it. The plan, as at present carried out, did not include Prince Edward Island, British Columbia, Newfoundland, or Vancouver's Island; but it was to be hoped that in time those colonies would join the Confederation now being established. Lord Carnarvon said he would have been pleased to have seen a legislative union adopted by all the provinces; but there were conflicting views of particular interests and other causes which prevented such an union at the present moment. Dealing with the charge made against Canada, of setting up a protectionist policy against the free trade policy of the other provinces, he contended that free trade views had of late made great progress in the former colony, and the fact of entering into Confederation with her sister colonies would tend to promote the growth of that principle. He denied that Nova Scotia was opposed to the federation, although a certain portion of her population might be indisposed toward the measure, but the people of Canada and of New Brunswick were heartily favorable. Instancing the opposition that had been made to the union of England with Scotland, which feeling had soon disappeared under the influence of common interests and common sympathies, he urged that even were there any considerable amount of opposition to the proposed confederation it would be but temporary, and would be followed by that contented acquiescence which had followed the establishment of Great Britain. In conclusion Lord Carnarvon pointed out that this bill, which based representation upon population, would remove the complaints and put an end to the jealousies that existed between Upper and Lower Canada at present, and that it would materially strengthen each and all the provinces in defence against invasion. He regarded the future of the federation as one of great and happy promise, and he believed that in passing this bill they would be laying the foundation of a great State, worthy to take its place by the side of one of the greatest nations of the world—the United States.

Lord Normanby was the next speaker. He dealt principally with the military feature of the question. We clip the following:—

It was no longer in the power of this country to bear the almost exclusive burden of defending those colonies, but their inhabitants had showed the greatest willingness to bear their share of the duty. In Nova Scotia in 1858 there were but some 60 volunteer artillery, but in 1863 there were nearly 35,000 men regularly drilled, and last year that number had increased to 50,000. He regretted the opposition that had been manifested in that colony to the proposed confederation, but he attributed it rather to a peculiar course of agitation than to the real feelings of the inhabitants. He believed that the real interests of all the provinces were identical, and that those of Nova Scotia would in no degree be injured by this measure.

Lord Russell was disposed to regard the measure as a wise one, that would facilitate commercial relations between the British American Provinces and the United States, and would greatly increase the defensive powers of the former should an emergency arise.

ACCOUCHEMENT OF THE PRINCESS OF WALES.—This event is announced in a supplement to the London Gazette in the following terms:—"Marlborough House, Feb. 20.—This morning, at half-past six o'clock, her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales was safely delivered of a princess. The confinement, which was most favourable, was not in any way affected by the rheumatism from which the princess is suffering. His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was present. The Secretary of State for the Home Department arrived at Malborough House shortly after. This happy event was make known by the firing of the Park and Tower guns."—The Lancet says: From the knowledge of the condition of the Princess of Wales no small anxiety has been felt by the public at her reported illness. It seems that her Royal Highness was seized on Thursday, the 14th inst., with the usual premonitory symptoms of acute rheumatism. Dr. Arthur Farre saw her on that day, and as she was somewhat worse on Friday, Dr. Sieveking joined him in attendance, the advantage of Dr. Jenner's experience being also subsequently obtained. The Princess suffered considerable pain, and the fever ran high. For some time great distress was caused by the disease fixing itself with intensity in one of the principal joints, from which it afterwards shifted to another. Happily, there is no reason, we hear, to feel apprehensions of any mischief from internal complication—a point which, in acute rheumatism, is of course a first consideration. It seemed quite possible at one time that the compulsory quiet which the attack caused might have been sufficient to delay the date of the Princess's confinement beyond what has happened on each previous occasion. The high febrile action, however, doubtless, served to precipitate an event which was not in the ordinary course of things, expected for another month. Although, we believe, the speedy confinement of the princess was not anticipated by those immediately about her, Dr. Farre went down on Tuesday evening last to Malborough house prepared to stay, feeling that there was sufficient uncertainty to render such a course desirable. The step was justified by the occurrence of the event which took the country somewhat by surprise, on Wednesday morning, the 13th. It was not till six o'clock that Dr. Farre was summoned to her Royal Highness's room, and she was delivered, after a somewhat rapid but quite natural labour, of a female child at half-past six a.m. Her Royal Highness has progressed very favourably since, and is now in a fair way to make a good recovery. It is quite probable that the confinement may have the effect of curtailing the duration of an attack which is frequently as wearisome in its length as it is painful and distressing to the patient. We may note here that it is very rare to see such a complication as parturition during the course of rheumatic fever.

MARRIAGE OF THE HON. JOHN A. MACDONALD.—Our readers will find in the usually interesting portion of our paper devoted to that kind of intelligence, an announcement of the marriage of the Hon. John A. Macdonald, to Miss Susan Agnes Bernard. From our private letters we learn that the ceremony was performed at St. George's Hanover Square, by his Lordship, the Most Rev. the Bishop of Montreal and Metropolitan, by special dispensation of the Archbishop of Canterbury. There were present: Lord, Lady, and the Honorable Misses Monck; Lieut Col. the Hon. R. and Mrs. Monck; the Hon. Auberon Herbert; Sir Henry and Lady Harnage; Sir Charles and Lady Cuyler; Sir Richard and Lady Mayne; Sir Joshua and Lady Rowe; the Lord Bishop of Montreal and Metropolitan: His Excellency Governor Hincks, C. B.; the Honorables G. E. Cartier, W. MacDougall, T. D'Arcy McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Howland, and H. L. Langevin; The Honorables, Mr. and Mrs. Tupper, Mr. and Miss Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie, McCully, Johnson, Henry, Wilmot, Fisher, Tilley, and Mitchell, from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick; Montague Bernard, Esq., D.C.L.; Messrs. E. R. Bernard, Fearon, Chapman, Lt. Colonel Mayne, Captain Mayne, R.N., and Mrs. Mayne, J. H. Daley, Esq.—in all 80 guests.

The bridesmaids were: Miss Mayne, Miss MacDougall, Miss Tupper, Miss Archibald; and the groomsman: D. Bruce Gardyne, Esq.

The Bride, our correspondent tells us, looked her best; and the ceremony was performed in a very impressive manner. She was given away by her brother Col. Bernard—her mother and several relatives in England being present.

After the wedding ceremony, the party partook of breakfast at the Westminster Palace Hotel. This, we are told, was very brilliant.

The health of the Bride and Bridegroom, the only toast drank, was proposed by Lieut. Governor, the Hon. Francis Hincks, C. B., in a neat and appropriate speech. The Hon. John A. Macdonald responded in his most felicitous manner. He stated that his public mission in London was in favour of union, and that, as a conscientious man, he felt bound to carry out his own theory,—at which there was merriment.

The breakfast party broke up at about two o'clock, and the happy couple left by the three o'clock train for Oxford, where it was their intention to spend a few days.

The bride received very valuable and elegant presents as well from her English connections as the colonists in London.—Montreal Gazette.

LONDON, March 5.—It is reported from Ireland to-day that tranquility has been restored throughout the Province of Leinster, and that there has been no recent disturbance in the County of Kerry, the scene of the abortive outbreak of last month. James Stephens is reported to be still in Paris.

DUBLIN, March 6.—A despatch from Waterford states that the Galley Mountains, on the borders of Tipperary and Cork Counties, are swarming with Fenians, and it is feared an attack will be made upon the Town of Tipperary, the inhabitants of which are disaffected and strongly disposed to help them.

Official despatches from Ireland say that loads of arms have been discovered and seized by the military and this fact seems to confirm the reports that the rising of the Irish failed to be general.

Despatches from Dublin state that small bands of Fenians are patroling the Counties of Cork, Waterford, Tipperary and Limerick, pressing the people into their ranks, and committing robberies everywhere. The taverns in the City of Cork are to be closed every evening at dusk.

Cyrus W. Field has consummated the purpose on which he chiefly came hither some weeks since by contracting for a cable to be laid from Placentia, Newfoundland, to Cape Breton.

LONDON, March 7.—Despatches received during the day from Dublin and Cork, give the following particulars of the last outbreak in Ireland:—

The fight took place on Tuesday night at Falaght, about eight miles from Dublin, between the armed police and a large body of Fenians. One of the latter was killed and five wounded. The police captured 80 persons and six loads of ammunition. Up to dark to-day over 200 persons had been brought into Dublin. The main body of the Fenians engaged in the fight retreated to the hills north of Dublin, with Lord Strathnoim, the commander of the British forces in Ireland, in vigorous pursuit.

The police station at Kilmallock, 19 miles south of Limerick in the County of Munster, was attacked by 200 Fenians, who were repulsed, leaving 30 of their number dead upon the ground, and losing 14 prisoners.

The barracks of the police at Dramore, County Down in the north, had been fired by an incendiary and totally destroyed.

The manager of the Union Bank, and a mounted police messenger have been shot in Dramore.

Reports from Dublin state that the various bands of Fenians appear to be well supplied with rations, and they seem to have risen suddenly in all parts of the Island. They attacked the coast guard stationed at Killelgah in the County Clare, and took away their arms.

DUBLIN, March 10.—The band of Fenians previously reported to have taken possession of the Barracks at Kilteen, in Kildare, have been dispersed by the troops.

The insurgents made an attack on the Barracks at Mount Mellik, at foot Slievebloom Mountains and were repulsed. Two of the attacking party were shot.

The rebels are said to have assembled to the number of 3,000 in the neighborhood of Abelo Abbeylair, in Queen's County. Troops have been sent out to disperse them.

The existence of a Fenian Council has been discovered, and its members have been arrested by the Police.

James Burke, one of the Fenian leaders in the South, has been captured at Tipperary.

PARIS, March 10.—The Moniteur states that by this time all the French troops must have left Mexico, and that the departure of the Emperor Maximilian, from Vera Cruz, was to have taken place on the 8th of March.

MADRID, March 10.—A Royal proclamation announces the termination of martial law in Spain.

LONDON, March 11.—The Princess Alexandria is reported very ill this morning.

Ireland is quiet. The Government, however, is organizing its forces into six flying columns, for the pursuit of scattered bands of Fenians, and for active service, in case the necessity should arise.

The band of Fenians which were recently encamped on the Galtee mountains has vanished, leaving no trace of their whereabouts.

The Government has offered a reward for the apprehension of Dance, one of the Fenian leaders.

Mr Walpole, the Secretary of State for the Home Department, announced in the House of Commons this evening that the news from Ireland was good. Mr. Walpole also stated that the Government will not proclaim martial law in Ireland, but will try Feinians by a special commission.

The subsidy to the Canadian Railway is to be proposed in Parliament this week.

All accounts from the scene of disturbances in Ireland represent that matters have become quiet, and order reigns once more.

There have been no fresh conflicts between the armed Police and the Fenian bands, who are fleeting to the mountains and hiding from pursuit of the Military.

Artemus Ward has directed in his will that his property shall go after the death of his mother toward the erection of an Asylum for Printers.

FLORENCE, March 11.—The elections for members of the Italian Parliament have generally resulted in favor of the Government, which carries a majority of the electoral districts.

DUBLIN, March 12.—Arrest of Fenians are being made in all parts of the country, and large quantities of arms have been seized by the police.

A despatch from Cork states that a detachment has been sent in pursuit of a large number of insurgents, who reported to have gathered in the vicinity of Mallow Junction, an important Railway centre in the County of Cork.

VIENNA, March 13—Despatches have been received here which states, that the Viceroy of Egypt withholds the tribute which the Sublime Porte of Turkey levied on the people of that country to meet the expense of crushing the insurrection in Candia.

LONDON, March 12.—The Anglo-American Telegraph Company and the original Atlantic Telegraph Company held a meeting in this City yesterday to consider the proposed reduction of tolls upon business transmitted over the Cable. Quiet unexpectedly to the general public, the motion for a reduction failed, in consequence of the refusal of the Atlantic Company to assent thereto.

UNITED PROVINCIAL COMMERCIAL COLLEGE,

Will open, after February 18, 1867, in RITCHIE'S BUILDING.

DESIGNED to Educate Young Men for Business Life. Branches taught in a practical manner by efficient Teachers and Lecturers. Book-keeping by single and Double Entry, and adapted to General Mercantile Business, Manufacturing, Mining, Milling, Forwarding and Commission Business, Foreign Exchange, Steamboating, Railroading and Banking, Business Penmanship, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law, Business Letter Writing and Spelling, &c.

In the Upper Provinces a systematical Business Education is deemed as essential as any other professional education, giving, as it does, the young men an honorable business standing, with a remuneration which he could not otherwise command.

The system is conducted on actual business principles, each student being supplied with cash and merchandise to the amount of one thousand dollars, with which he trades with the Merchants' Emporium College Bank, and also his fellow students. It is surprising how much is mastered in a few months.

The room will be well furnished with desks, book-cases, Merchants' Emporium, Bank, and all other improvements for the well being of the student. Business Forms, Commercial Problems, in short, every difficulty met in Mercantile Life will be fully explained on the Blackboard. Our College has been successful for years in the West, and we can point to our students throughout the country doing well.

Life Scholarships will be issued after the 14th Feb., 1867, at $35 for full course, a discount of 10 per cent. will be allowed till the 1st of March, 1867, in order that we may have a large Class at once.

Terms payable in advance.

Hours from 9 to 12 A. M., from 2 to 4 P. M., and from 7 to 9 in the evening.

For Circular containing full information, call at the College office, or address (enclosed stamp),

SELEE'S HAIR LIFE

RICHLY merits the high praise the people of the Provinces now award it. It has proved superior to all other Hair preparations for restoring Grey Hair to its original colour. It is, also, a splendid Hair Dressing, cleaning the Head so perfectly from Dandruff, Scurf, &c.

It invariably stops the Hair from falling off, and is, decidedly, a Hair Restorer.

The money will be refunded in all cases where a thorough trial of two bottles fails to give entire satisfaction.

Sold by Druggists and other Dealers.
