... NOTICES. ante'ligancer is published weekly, at the Messrs. Bannes & Co., St. John, N. B. TERMS-$2.00 per arnum.

PAYMENT IN ALL CASES IN ADVANCE. Joseph McLeod, ..... Editor. REV. G. A. HARTLEY, EDITORIAL CONTRIBUTOR, over the Remittances may be sent to, either Messrs. BARNES & Co., St. John, N. B., or to the Editor, at Fredericton.

Religious Intelligencer.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., JULY 12, 1867.

"JESUS WEPT."

we read of His mourning; of being a man of sor- tional Society. Who will go and do likewise? rows, but seldom of His weeping; but we are told, on this occasion, that "Jesus wept."

the holy but devoted place.

of quite a different nature.

ed; anxiously had those sisters looked for the arri- luck of their own making. val of their Master.

but he came not, and the brother died.

those disconsolate sisters; alone, parents gone, as we shop, with the hammer or pen, no matter what, then I people were very much encouraged. The people in to assist at the foneral, for Lazarus was taken to the 'Young New Brunswick" expects to be a great man, | deal of time in aiding them in this matter; and as I grave and buried.

been here, my brother had not died. What strong day will come sometime, and at length he awakes preciate the principle of driving ahead, and going of the zebra's skin, all patches and stripes. I said, then gave her to understand Lazarus should rise nearer nothing than the grave." When we blunder one drive them, and when they did not have that, this body there was a man with a musket and baythough he were dead, yet shall he live." She replied, tribute it to the "force of circumstances." Yonder may soon understand that pushing ahead always ac-"Yea Lord; I believe thou art the Christ, the son goes a poor, drunken loafer, who has sent his wife complishes something. of God." Jesus asked for the grave of his friend. - broken-hearted to the grave, and thrust his child- I then returned to Perth, collected the most of was right. In that wise and sensible country, in-His heart was now deeply moved. "Jesus wept." ren upon the tender mercies of a community, who what had been pledged to our mission fund in that stead of shutting up their criminals in prison, where He well knew that Lazarus would rise again; but never forget to remind them that their father is a place, and tarried over the Sabbath, and spent the they feed and house them, and keep them warm and it unmanly to weep, even when their nearest friends need to bear all the burden imposed upon you by Collected this month $42,50, the most of which are taken from their embrace; but we cannot approve vain, erring, lazy humanity. others by lingering disease. Can we say weep not? rest."

Tears are not always a sign of grief; there are weep with those that weep.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

the brethren took part, and spoke of their hopes for believe that my labour has not been in vain in the idols. New Brunswick is following with marked step charge him with drunkenness and lying, and one of time and eternity; of their joys and their sorrows. Lord.

when the General Conference was regularly orga- lowing, it became apparent that I must spend the funeral oration, and the political outs chanted a get remittances from home and pay their passage. nized; after prayer, and the Secretary calling the day in Woodstock with our respected Bro. Noble, requiem in honor of the departed, and their return The unity of the colonly has already been broken churches. Brethren Marsh and Downey from this 'then retraced my steps up river to the church in Peel, Province were with them and did them much ser- but the weather was exceedingly rainy, so that the privilege? who would not like to entertain the Son idly wishes "he were a boy again," with the experi- it may not be lost. of God? How apt we are, however, to forget His ence of a man, thinking he would better play his part ! After the funeral, I returned to Andover, and busied sleeves up, instead of waiting for something to turn and met with the people there. Certainly this was a We sometimes think we should love to weep with up, and then work with a will on the farm, in the i good meeting. God was truly in our midst, and His touched with a deep feeling of compassion, He was drunken loafer. Ask him how he became the worthnot ashamed to mingle His tears with the mourning less nuisance he is? and, in a drunken stutter, he tells to go to G. Conference. Expect to attend a baptism the prison every morning with a soldier at their head sisters and their friends on this solemn occasion. you -" circumstances over which I had no control." next Sabbath in the place where I reside, if the Lord and another at their tail, and march them to the Weep? Yes; who would forbear? Some think Oh, Procrastination, what a broad, strong back you will.

LIFE IS WHAT WE MAKE IT.

of such stoic principles; we must weep over the Ah, life is is what we make it. Not but that there grave of our departed. Unmanly to weep? it is un- is a providence that leads and guides-not but that Andover, Victoria County, June 25, 1867. human not to weep; Jesus our Master was moved to there is an unseen hand that guides the most trivial tears when an acquaintance was in the grave. Shall affairs of life-but that Providence leads and guides ' poor humanity refrain when called to part with those us onward and upward, and the unseen hand directs we love? During the past few months how many us to a land of purity; and he who will may drink MR. EDITOR-The question of prohibiting the imfamilies have been clad in mourning; death has done of the waters of life and reach that land "where the portation and sale of intoxicating drinks in the State its work, sometimes without a moment's warning, *t wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at of Maine, has agitated the public mind since 1853-

HOME MISSION REPORT.

Let it be our aim so to live and so to labour for the present, and will complete eight months of mis- stition and immerality. In verification of this, Maine pected to attend the restoration of the Jews to their on the business of Conference, up to the time of our have been enabled by His grace to do as much as I and welcomed by the ballot box, 19,500 year and 600 ties - one of six per As announced, the Elders' Conference was held of His moral vineyard. This up-river country is spoken to every State in the Union, to every parish are waiting in England for the means of getting back during Friday, 5th inst. The utmost harmony pre- no easy place to labour in, although our brethren and and province in the New Canadian Dominion; yes, to Maine. From conversations with some of those vailed throughout. In the evening, by the solicita. friends have received me kindly, and have done all to the world, that the flag of prohibition should who have returned we gather the general drift of the tion of the brethren, we preached to a large and at- they could to assist and carry forward the objects of proudly wave in every progressive and Christian story of their grievances. They claim that Mr. tentive audience. We hope the Word preached may the mission. I am pleased to record that God has country. The will of the people fixes the power of blessed me with very good health for the eight law. Thus, it is that Major can now promptly At ten o'clock on Saturday, the General Confer- months, and however little I may have done, and carry out her Anti-Bacchus Reform Bill. The great that he undertook it for the sake of the money, and poll half so many votes as he. Mr. Mitchell is also, The fire in Newcastle, on Thursday afternoon, was ence met, and spent two hours in social conference; however much I may regret it, one thing is certain, Temperance army is leading in the van, and the adin which many of the Elders present and several of I have worked very hard, and have the satisfaction to herents of the drinking usages are yielding up their debts he has contracted at Jeffa and vicinity. They called home to rest with Jesus, and two had spent | the Gospel field. Oh, how many changes have come | over every section of the Province.

was 550; they having in all, under the union, 28 | working state of the church in Woodstock. It reflects | rubicon is crossed. "The die is cast." Your strength To show the need of ministerial aid among them, membership, that their present position and future election, men who will guard your sacred interests, Bro. Porter said, "we have only one man among 13 prospects are as bright and as hopeful as they are. I and award to you a probibitory law-a triumph !vice; Bro. Downey alone baptized nearly 300. Bro- people from a distance were unable to attend; but ther Sullivan, also, from the sister Province, made a we held some meetings there that were not altogether few but very appropriate remarks. After some re- in vain. Leaving an appointment to be with them in marks by a number of the elders, and the announce- a few weeks, I passed on up river as far as Andover, ment for Sabbath preaching by the Chairman, the with the intention of going up the Tobique river, if meeting adjourned to meet again on Monday morning, possible, as far as Riley Brook, but I had not been in Andover long before a messenger came after me to beside a man whose absence from our public meet-There was preaching at some five or six places return to the Presquile (Tracy's Mills) to attend the ings and public work I very much regret -- a man during the Sabbath. The sermons were timely and funeral of our brother in Christ, Junathan Tracy, worthy of all honour from society, a most useful and impressive; and we do hope, that the great God, who had died in the triumphs of faith. Bro. Tracy | Christian minister 1 refer to the Rev. Bishop Fort. When I sat down, the Bishop said, "So you Though short, yet it is a very expressive text. We whom we serve, will give, from this sowing of the was a good man; was a very kind husband and inoften read of the Saviour praying. "The mountain seed, the word of God, an abundant harvest. We dulgent father. He made some pretensions to reli- I said, "Yes, ever since I came to Edinburgh and and the midnight air give token of the Saviour's pray- have just time to add that on Monday morning, Bro. G. gion a number of years ago, but was only baptized a saw the vast extent to which education was wanting er." While the whole human family was hushed in R. Boyer, of Victoria Corner, Carleton, who gave the few years since by Elder Parsons in a revival that among the lowest classes, the lapsed classes, the sleep, God, the father, heard the prayer of his son. General Conference last year $1000, sent another | was enjoyed in that church; he maintained a stead-Again, in that trying hour, when the sins of a world $1000 in gold, to the Conference this year, with di- fast profession of his faith, and died rejoicing in ducements held out to them to send their children to lay upon Him, while in the garden, and His disciples rections that it should be invested in good securities. Christ his Saviour. The funeral was an interesting school. I am thoroughly satisfied that no educationasleep, He was found in an agony of prayer. Not the interest therefrom to be equally divided yearly, one; the day was fine; the congregation very large al system will reach the very lowest classes—the unfrequently, either, do we find Him fasting; and between the Foreign Mission Society, and the Educa- and solemn. I improved the occasion in addressing think you? "O," said the bishop, I am quite of the the people from Matt. xxv. 23: "Well done good and same opinion," "Then," I said, "why don't you faithful servant," &c. It was a good day indeed, and stand up and say it?" "The people would think me I trust some seed was sown that will hereafter bear mad," he said. (A laugh.) So many people then On another occasion, as He beheld the Holy City, Ah if we could only impress this great truth upon fruit. While going to attend this funeral, I saw an favour of a compulsory system of education. But I and when He thought of all its advantages and pri- the minds of boys - yes, boys who expect to be rich, old man hard at work, planting potatoes, with his rejoice to see that the cause is making way every vileges, and the many promises God had given to it, happy and prosperous some day, there wouldn't be head bare in the hot sun. I stopped, and accosted day; among our countrymen, among our legislators, His great heart was moved to tears. We read that, so many wasted lives as there are, and there would him with the question, "Respected sir, how old art among our statesmen and public men, a compulsory He beheld the city, and wept over it; powerful must be more men who would be useful in society, instead thou?" He answered, "Eighty-eight years last have been his emotions; strong the love he bore for of useless. But, to the young, the spring-time of life Christmas." Said T, in astonishment, "Are you in four classes. Class first includes those who are was pledged before. Yours in Christ,

For the Religious Intelligencer.

EASTPORT, ME., June 26, 1867. when the first prohibitory law was enacted by the we cannot. As we look around and see the garb of "Only sowing his wild oats!" How lightly this is State Legislature and sanctioned by the Executive. mourning, we reflect that the outward sign is no in- said of a young man just commencing a career of In 1856 the State was convulsed with a general elecdex to the heart; it may, or may not, tell of inward dissipation. Ah, if they only considered what a tion, the devotees of Bacchus were elected and the grief and sorrow. The mourner can say with Mar- fearfully abundant harvest they reap who sow wild law repealed. In 1858, at the general election for tha, yes Lord, my friend shall rise again. This hope oats, would it be regarded so lightly? A harvest of assemblymen, the country returned a majority in O, thrice happy, the person who mourns not as those kind friends will never let you quite forget. C. hibitory, which will be law until July 1st, 1867. The letter concerning it which we publish to-day The various temperance organizations, aided by the with interest. The colony that went to Jaffa last fall eral Conference; but this will be my last report for reform-sweeping away the old land-marks of super- - to get to Palestine and share in the prosperity exis: regret that I have done so little in so good a cause 1st, 1867, shall be imprisoned thirty days for the people of little means, and, after they had paid their as is the cause of God, which certainly deserves to first offence, 60 days for the second, and three months passage, bought their house lots, and prepared their have for His precious cause, in this up-river section hays. Thus Maine, by her temperance prowess, has have already left Jaffa for the United States. Some blessed me with very good health for the eight law. Thus it is that Maine can now promptly has not made enough out of the enterprise to show ernment we believe no man could be found who would ing the recent destructive fire of Thursday last; in the path to a successful prohibitory triumph. the men who have returned briefly and emphatically look for the time to come when there will be a strong van, and, no doubt, was the result of intemperance, God blessed the meeting to the good of those present, I have was on her statute book in 1856, prohibiting charges the leader with the most refined villary of and healthy opposition, if not a successful one, and as the woman was lying in the house in a state of inand many were led to rejoice in the hope of eternal spent a few days in moving my family to Monticello, the importation and sale of spirituous liquors. The Maine, where they now reside, and where my post- Governor passed its sentence of death, the prelates vested, and they assert many others will leave the At 12 the meeting adjourned, to meet again at 2, office address is for the present. The Sabbath following and the General Conference was regularly orgation, and the political outs chanted a get remittances from home and pay their passage.

The total addition in that body during the year, be at rest forever. We were pleased to see the good lize. Temperance men, the field is yours. The great credit on the pastor, as well as decision in the is fully competent to place in power at the coming

> DR. GUTHRIE ON COMPULSORY EDUCATION IN BRITAIN.

At a sale of ladies' work for the benefit of the ragged of compulsory education, said : I remember when I first enunciated in the music-hall, a system of compulsory education, I was sitting system of education is gaining more and more favour. You will observe that society may be divided into seems rather as a grand holiday, than a preparatory your 89th year, and so hale, so active, and smart, as willing and able to educate their children; class But the circumstance under our consideration is period, in which to lay the foundation for a useful you appear to be?" "Yes," he replied; "I am second, those who are able but not willing; class life, and so they wait for something to "turn up," nearly as nimble as a boy." "But you must be third, those who are willing but not able; and class He that was so poor that he had not where to lay some favorable circumstance that will wast them on near to the day of your death; are you prepared for in reference to the first class, those who are willing fourth, those who are neither willing nor able. Now, his head, had for some time made his home with an to prosperity without any special effort on their part. that event?" "I fear not," said he. "Years ago I and able, the act of Parliament that says every child humble family in Bethany: three in number, a And so, while they wait, time glides on, never hurry- fought for King George; but I never fought for King within the shores of Great Britain shall be educated, brother and two devoted and loving sisters. The in- ing at the entreaties of the impatient youth who Jesus." Certainly it was interesting to see so old a every parent, if able, shall be compelled to educate men for the year; $500 for pensions of widows and dren, we shall be happy to do it. Then in regard to ditional funds being collected. teachings; does He not tell us, "Inasmuch as ye in the drama of life. Ah, this waiting for something imposed in looking after the matters connected with those who are able but not willing, down comes your Towards the close of the meeting a resolution was Telegraph. have done it unto one of the least of these my breth- to turn up don't pay. While we write, weary, hope- lour Mission. I could not have many meetings in compulsion on them. What right has any man in moved appropriating the sum of $200 for the year to less eyes are peering out from prison windows; and the week, as the people were very busily engaged in this country to rear his children to be a nuisance and the Rector of Saint George's Church, Carleton, which, Notwithstanding this family was beloved of the men, with all that is good and manly long since getting their seed into the ground; but we did what a danger to the community? The thing is perfectly fter some discussion, was negatived by a large mamonstrous, that a man should earn wages, and yet | ority. Lord, yet affliction and sorrow visited it; hence, af- trampled out by sin and vice. Those have been just we could, and on Sabbath day attended meeting in neglect to feed and clothe and educate his children, A Committee was appointed to confer with the lighthouses, and marine hospitals, besides controlling own glory, as He did in this case. It was a critical was a workshop-not a play-house-they have railed pears to be doing very well. I hope it may prove a to do?"-Do! I would arrest the man's wages. If not merely at King's College (now the University) filled my appointment there, and a very good season | take them and feed them for him, not at my own ex-When young men, with keen bright intellects, and was enjoyed. Met with the church in their Confer- pense, not at the expense of any ragged school Lazarus was sick unto death; no human aid could strong arms, shall wipe out from their vocabulary all ence, and was with them on Sabbath morning; and himself. (Applause.) I say it would be much better reach his case; the only remaining hope was Jesus; such words as "luck" and turn their in the afternoon went to the mouth of the Shiktahawk, for him if he had 15s. taken out of his 25s. He would in the following terms:drink less, and his children would be fed and clothed. (Applause.) But what if he won't give it? I'll tell ou what I saw at Berne, in Switzerland, some time igo. I was looking in at the bears, which are the don't read of them; the only brother now removed it won't take so long to hunt up the right men for Peel are determined to do something towards re- insignia of Berne-there are some three or four of by death. Sad, sad indeed is their condition. The the right places as it does now, whether they are pairing their meeting house, and if they succeed it will them in a pit, and I was amusing myself seeing the Jews, are kind; they come to offer consolation, and wanted at Ottawa, in the desk, or the editorial chair. be a step in the right direction. I have spent a good gambols of the bears, when I heard behind me, as it were, the tramp of a regiment of soldiers. On lookog back I saw what surprised me beyond measure. some day, but "time enough" yet he thinks, so he leave them now, I hope they may not slack their I saw a body of fifty or sixty men, all dressed in a The Saviour now arrives, but apparently too late. lets the moments steal away while he drifts on with- hand, but drive and go forward. That is one trouble uniform nor being the blue or green Mark the expression of the sister, Lord, if thou hadst out any definite object in view, only he expects his with our up river churches—they do not seem to ap- or yellow of the soldiers of the continent, or the scarfaith these words convey, and how expressive. Jesus from his dream to find that "time has brought him forward. They have been always used to have some "What on earth is this?" Moreover at the head of again, and remarked that, " He that believeth in me, or fail in any of the acts in the drama of life, we at they would stand still or go backwards. I hope they onet, and at the tail there was a man with a musket and bayonet to prog them on if they would not go in

> in the course of less than perhaps a quarter of a century this country will declare by its voice and the voice of Parliament, and carry it out by the power of its machinery, that no child within the shores of Britain shall be allowed to grow up without a good, other countries. - London Weekly Review.

AMERICAN COLONY IN PALESTINE. The Boston Journal gives the latest and apparenty most authentic intelligence about the unfortunate useful education, and that the country will take care to carry that into effect, as they do in Germany and the right direction. Oh, I said, this will be compulsory education, and on making enquiries I found I fields where they work the whole day long, and main-would not work to feed and clothe and educate his children, let the country find a way of compelling him to do it. And there is no prospect on the dis-

roll of ordained ministers, licentiates, and delegates, and the church under his care. And certainly it to the ship of state. A permissive bill is now on the have come home to Englishmen and other foreigners least. by appointing Elder Perry, Chairman, and Elder was a good day to us—spent in the right place, I be- statute book, which provides that any township, resident at Jaffa, and those who have returned feel soon in one mass of flame. Every exertion was made Hartley, Cor. Secretary; after which the latter read lieve, and one that will not be forgotten for some parish, or county, without any appeal to the Legis- confident that the agricultural operations of the bination of Anti-ism with that of Fenianism, which, by the fire department and the people generally; all time to come. It is some years since we had the lature, can adopt a probabitory law. Albert County colony will not prove very successful for the present As this report will be published, we will only re- privilege of spending a Sabbath with Brother Noble, and Grand Manan have, under these provisions, at ten bushels per acre, one fourth of which is to be mark that, on the whole, it was very encouraging; except it might have been at some of our large an- adopted prohibition, and with success. The march paid to the owners of the land for rent, and one-lifth 588 persons had professed faith in Christ, and been | nual gatherings; but the occasion was different on of intellect and moral reform in New Brunswick of which is to be given as tribute to the Turkish baptized during the year; 5 meeting houses have this day, and the worship carried us back to our boy- warrants that the time is nearing when the banner government. After making these deductions and rebeen erected, 4 brethren ordained, two had been hood days, when we first commenced to labour in of freedom from the bonds of intoxication, will wave placing the two bushels per acre used as seed, there will evidently not be a large surplus. The soil there their labors in connection with our Free Baptist over us in these twenty-eight years that have flown by The Sons of Temperance are rapidly filling up for many centuries without the application of any deed, no party in these Provinces can hope to pros- Several houses north of Water street, and two back were reported as doing well, and the cause generally prospering.

The missionary societies and are buried in the past! Dear friends have departed, and loved ones have gone from our side; we have passed the meridian of our days; our hair is proposed at Adam's house as his guest and took but his opposition than he could in any way give were from the falling cinders. The Mechanics' Institute has always given more strength to his opposition than he could in any way give were from the same cause, and it was only by manning that their provess is being realized for the emancipation. brethren in Nova Scotia. The missionary societies and are buried in the past! Dear friends have depar- their ranks-advancing as an invincible phalanx. fertilizer. The opponents of Adams complain of Mr. Elder Porter, who is a delegate from the Free bleached by care and our cheeks are wrinkled by sor- of the inebriate. The Ministerial Alliance Associa- whom he was introduced by Adams himself, and who he to attempt their support. Mr. Howe, who is a re-Baptist Conference in N. S., made a most favorable row, and we shall soon pass away to be here no more. tion is working a reform in the minds of many in markably clever man, has, however, destroyed his fell, that prevented a general conflagration of the report of the cause in that Province; and we can but But our moral strength is unimpaired; the fire yet exorable drunkards. This grand Temperance trio lem are said to have done all in their no ver to assist influence, very materially, by the inconsistency of his town. report of the cause in that Province; and we can but regret that it was not written, so that our readers burns in our eyes; we love religion as much as ever, has the power, and will accomplish more for the political career. We can but regret this; for, we Dwelling house occupied by Mrs. Sullivan; dwelling fence of Adams' conduct, and attributing to him the pices at Indian River, a long statement in his defence, views of each can be shown to be best suited to its school in Edinburgh, the iter. Dr. Guthrie, speaking signed by thirty-two male members of the colony at wants and conditions. This may be said to be look-Jaffa. They maintain that everything is going on well, and that temporal riches and spiritual glory are ing far into the future, as but little prospect now exsure to reward them if they remain at Jaffa. They lists of such an opposition. denounce the conduct of those who have come home | Mr. McDonald, who is acknowledged leader of the in the strongest terms, as well as the course that has new Government, is known as a shrewd and talented been taken by our consuls there, and letters from Adams himself in the same paper are filled with politician; and the men whom he has selected to rong language upon these same points. energy. Well supplied with all these things, five or ment of this new, but growing country. ten years of patient laboring and waiting would bring some measure of succees. But the class of people that went to Jeffa with Mr. Adams can live in Maine | Royal Gazette Extra :auch easier and better than in Palestine, and if they His Excellency the Right Honorable Viscount d Turks since the creation of the world."

THE DIOCESAN CHURCH SOCIETY, of New Brunswick, at its recent anniversary in Fredericton, accordig to the Journal, made the following appropria-

About $20,500 was granted for salaries of clergyference drawn is, that the parents were dead. Jesus, wishes he were a man that he might enter upon the man so quick, so well, and so active; but it was sad are already educating their children, they are willing Bishop for Missionary purposes; $40 in aid of Church graph from Fredericton last evening that it was ruoften weary, and doubtless hungry, came hither to the stage of life an actor—not a looker on; never to see one so old, a neglecter of the great salvation. In regard to the second—and this School at Campobello; $400 for salaries of Secretary mored there that Hon. Mr. McAdam had been aprest. Happy family; who does not envy them their halting at the entreaties of the gray-haired man who I tried to preach Christ to him on the road, and hope is a small number indeed who are willing but not pointed Chief Commissioner of Public Works, in the able, let the public do the work for them, for if par- $80 for a lay reader in the parish of Douglas, the room of Senator McClelan, who resigned; that Hon. ents are willing and not able to educate their chil- last grant being made conditionally on sufficient ad- Mr. Tilley had placed his resignation of the office of fliction is not an evidence of God's displeasure, for it like you, young man, and have made the same sad the morning in the meeting-house in Perth, and in and shall be allowed to spend his wages on drink, to Bishop as to the hest means of securing the services is the common lot of both saint and sinner; yet, He mistake you are making; they waited for something the afternoon at the school-house in Andover. At. send his children to an early grave, to bring them up of a Travelling Missionary for the Diocese, and the Provinces, and receiving Government subsidies, and will overrule it for our good, and for advancing his "to turn up," and when they found that the world tended the Sabbath school in Andover also, which ap- dangerous to society. People say, "What are you authorize the establishment of Divinity Scholarships aged in protecting the shore and inland fisheries. moment, Jesus had not arrived as soon as was expect- at their "bad luck," when their "bad luck," was decided success, Returned again to Peel, and ful- a man won't educate and feed his children, I would as heretofore, but also at other collegiate institutions. It is said that the firm of E. D. Jewett & Co., St.

> Romeward.—The Bishop of Salisbury, in a recent this spring. charge, advocated the doctrine of Transubstantiation

I have recalled to your minds that the effect of without opposition. your blessing the elements is that they become a real resence of the Lord's Body and Blood in the Sacrament. . . I assert that the Apostles and those who have received the commission from for Ottawa. them, have ministrations entrusted to them through Mr. Thompson, of Grand Falls, having resigned which the bread and wine become at Holy Commu- the office of High Sheriff of the County of Victoria, nion the Body and Blood of Christ, and the Church Abram L. Coombs, Esq., has been appointed in his presents before the throne of grace that which is pre- place. sent-viz., Christ's Body and Blood in the Sacra-

A colonial Bishop—the Bishop of Dunedin—at a drowned at that place on Tuesday. comfortable at an enormous expense to the country, tain themselves. So I would say, to every man who

tant horizon that I rejoice more in than in this, that Witness.

THE NEWS and THE PRESS

JULY 12, 1867.

affairs for such a length of time, continuously, and and cross-fire of a determined opposition ; and now, Ellis and Coburn, and Mr. F. Pedolin. f it were necessary to test the feeling of the entire Province on his acceptance of office in the new Gov- Gleaner furnishes the following information respectthey might then be found on the opposition benches. | toxication, and the room on fire around her. Opposition will necessarily arise; but we believe the . From this house it soon communicated to the adtroduce many new and progressive measures which brick building on the corner, owned by Hop, Edward will be completed in the course of a few years at Williston, would escape, but the intense heat melted no doubt, will meet with overwhelming defeat. With | worked energetically, but the long drought had such men as Messrs. Howe and Anglin, gentlemen parched everything to tinder, the flames despite who may be said to be representative characters in most determined and continuous efforts, that the the lower Provinces as leaders of the opposition the buildings on the opposite side of the streets, facing was originally very fertile, but it has been cultivated a nature that no confidence can be placed in it; inother injury than having the fronts much scorched, could have the satisfsction of reading it. We shall and our faith looks forward to a brighter day, when elevation of our common humanity in New Bruns- yet been much real suffering from destitution. The long admired Mr. Howe's ability and tact, and we are house owned by the Harkin's estate, occupied by Mrour labours shall be done, and we shall fly away and | wick than our most sanguine anticipations can rea- natives and the Turkish officials and the English con- even indebted to him for some of our ideas and im- McKirnan; dwelling house owned and occupied by uls are described as having been uniformly kind and pressions on the Union of British America. We oliging, and to have each and all done everything in should ask for no better evidence of Mr. Howe's utter heir power to dissuade any of the colonists from re- failure than to know that he is now strongly support-On the other hand, we have received a letter from ed by the Freeman. No doubt, the time will come person who represents himself as an English when a healthy and vigorous opposition will arise : raveller and a member of the British Parliament one that will be formed of Anti-ism, and all other from London, giving a long and circumstantial de- "isms;" but, like the political parties in England, best and purest of motives. We also find in the | will represent the views of the two leading parties, paper, which is still published under Adams's aus- each claiming to best govern the country, as the share in the toils of office are among the most talented From the multiplicity of statements made about of the united Provinces. We have reason therefore the colony, and from what we have learned of Mr. to look forward with confidence, by the blessing of vious residence in Springfield, we conclude that he Heaven, for the success and prosperity of this our was hardly the right man to plant a successful colony common country. We hope that in secret the hearts n Palestine, and that his followers were not the of all who wish for peace and prosperity to follow this proper persons to participate in such a work. A union, will be lifted to the source of all good, that colony might be made to succeed at Jassa, but those wisdom and discretion may be given to those who and no small stock of intelligence, industry, and have assumed so great a responsibility as the govern-

The following Proclamation appears in a

nust emigrate they had still hetter keep within the Monck, Governor General of the Dominion of Canada, broad domain of the United States. With our mil- having been pleased to constitute and appoint me to ons upon millions of virgin acres waiting to reward be Lieutenant Governor of this Province of New gricultural labor with the richest returns, there is Brunswick, the Administration of the Government certainly no sense in going to Asia to starve on the of which I have this day assumed, I do therefore and that has been lazily cultivated by Jews, Arabs publish this Proclamamation, of which all persons concerned are required to take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Fredericton, the fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and in the thirty-first year of Her Majesty's reign. HASTINGS DOYLE.

By His Excellency's Command,

Provincial Secretary in the hands of General Doyle .-

The Minister of Marine and Fsheries, for the Dominion, has charge of the gunboats, Provincial steamboats, revenue vessels, fisheries-protection vessels, the movements of the steamboats plying between the

John, have had 25 millions of pine, 9 millions spruce, and 10,000 tons of birch, go down the river St. John

The Journal learns that Hor. C. Fisher is likely to be sent to the House of Commons by York County The Eastern Advocate reports John Wallace, Esq., and Mr. H. J. Stevens as Albert County candidates

A son of Mr. William Grieves, of Fredericton, was recent confirmation in London, acting for the Bishop St. John, N. B., RACE BOATS IN ENGLAND. - The of London, told the young people about to be con- London Times has the following: "A crew of five firmed, "that as surely as the Holy Ghost descended men, under the direction of Mr. J. A. Harding from upon the Apostles it would now descend upon them, New Brunswick, and bringing with them two handwhether they willed it or no, and asked them to think, some four-oared rowing galleys, arrived at Southbefore they received that gift, whether they were pre- ampton on Thursday evening, in the steamer Atlanpared to become the recipients of so great and un- tic, from New York, with the intention of contesting peakable a blessing." He then laid his hands upon in the forthcoming international regatta at Paris. The them, and said, "You have now received the gift of boats are named respectively New Brunswick No 1 which I spoke to you just before. You have received and No. 2, the latter being a new and, as yet, untried all that will help you on the road to salvation, or, in boat, 34 feet long, with a flat bottom; the former, other words, God has done his part and has given which is a narrower boat, 36 ft. long, and has scarceyou all that is required to enable you to obtain salva- ly any keel, has raced on several occasions, and in ion. The question you have to consider now that most cases come off the winner. This enterprising you have received the unspeakable gift, all you re- party travelled by steamship from New Brunswick to pired to take you to heaven, is, how are you to live | Portland, and thence to New York, a distance of between 600 and 700 miles, before they commenced the Surely it is time for such heresy to be rebuked and Atlantic voyage. They are all in good spirits, and driven out of the bosom of the Protestant Church .- | say that if they do not succeed in winning anything they will have plenty of fun to compensate them for their long journey. The two boats were inspected during yesterday by hundreds of visitors in the baggage warehouse in the docks, and it is the intention of the party to remain about a fortnight at Southampton, during which time they will exercise themselves occasionally on the waters of the estuary, before going over to Paris."

The union of British America is now a subject of The Farmer of Fredericton informs that an imporhistory. No longer are we left to doubt or fear about tant surgical operation was performed by Dr. Dow. its accomplishment. On the first of July it was an- was a young man, about 17 years of age, named nounced to the world, that the Dominion of Canada Benjamin Jerry, of Tobique. His mother states that was a fixed fact, with the understanding that the when he was about six months old, a small warty British Government will protect her and assist in spot appeared on the skin just above the hip joint, such matters as might require a helping hand. The that subsequently a second one, similar to the first, buoys us up; the thought that we shall meet them blighted hopes, of keen bitter remorse for the sins favor of Prohibition, who at once placed on the and occasioned so many conflicting and contradictory four Provinces, thus joined under one Gavernment, commenced to show itself immediately alongside, and, again in a world of joy and happiness is consoling. and follies of the past which faithful memory and Statute Book the Neil Dow Amendment, verily pro- statements as the Maine colony at Jaffa, Palestine. have made selection of the men who compose its first from time to time was followed by others, until an im-Government; and such of them as are not in the Se-Dow calls a "cluster of Polypi Tumors." These tumors nate, will apply to the people for election in the House number between four and five hundred, varying in moral and reform power of the State, have failed to numbered one hundred and fifty-four persons, and of Commons at Ottawa. At what time the elections size from a pea to a goose egg. About two years ago, tears of sympathy, and even tears of joy; but let REV. G. A. HARTLEY, Corresponding Secretary of Home carry out the law ad literatu; not only so, but in they were induced to go in consequence of religious will take place, we have not yet been informed; but two Doctors removed about a pound from one side some parts of Maine the drinking saloon has been re- sympathy with C. J. Adams, who had for several we judge not later than August. We are pleased to of the mass, and six months since two other Physi-The states of the citizens of learn that this Province is represented in the Domilife that we will be missed at death, and the tear of been doing, until I leave home to attend our Gen and doing its work, marking distinctive eras in every The object of the colony was chiefly a religious one The former will represent the City of St. John, and remain. This mass of surplus flesh weighing about no doubt can be entertained of his being returned; eight pounds was attached to a surface of about six Christ, that we can say with the Apostle, "For me sionary labour. In reviewing the past eight months, has a law now on her Statute Book, which provides their temporal condition by the change from Maine to peal to the people. New Brunswick could select other the sciatic nerve, which rendered the operation not I am conscious of two opposing feelings. The first that all persons selling intoxicating drinks after July Syria. Most of those who joined the colony were men who would represent her with credit and profit only difficult but dangerous. Yet the Doctor's in the Dominion Government; but we feel confident | thorough knowledge of the anatomy of the human S. B. Oromocto, July, 9, 1867.

Inst offence, 60 days for the second, and three months dwellings, they had little or nothing left.

Under these circumstances, it is not strange that has been made. Mr. Tilley is a representative who and thus relieve the young man from an incumbus, We have only time to make a few brief remarks and the second is, gratitude to Almighty God that I of the Executive of the State, has been recognized the colonists began to get dissatisfied, and two parcharacter amidst the most searching criticism and op- become a source of great anxiety to the patient as position. No man in this Province has conducted its | well as to his friends. The operation occupied but a very short time, during which the sufferer was placed under the influence of sulphuric Ether. In retained his reputation unblemished, amidst the storm this operation Dr. Dow was ably assisted by Drs. FIRE IN NEWCASTLE, MIRAMICHL - The Miramichi tlemen will always be found working with the per- block of buildings lying north of the public square, sons who now compose the Government; indeed, we fire originated in a building occupied by Mrs. Sulli-present Government has nothing to fear; for the ad- two sides of the triangle, were saved. They were hesion and union that exists between them is of such frequently on fire, but fortunately by extraordinary

Mrs. Begnall oseph Hays; II upied by McIntupied by P. Mo Hon. Edward I understand Villiston's Brick ured. I have no out outside of ti in the destruction ion, was strew wharves on the he tide was very About eleven can't call him b the new store o fortunately the much headway. reaking in the cape in the da or three others luring the fire. ng laid across t leted, there v Chatham, and t sistance of the Douglastown er sible, Mr. Hut fire broke out, pefore it arrive

s. Flannigan;

Francis Carte

upied by Case

than to save th Yesterday af ing houses and ters and W. Ta have not hear Newfoundlar his season. The steamer port on Saturd and 51 package of the same day from Montreal flour, and the with 1,600.

Montreal, bro

quantity corn The market i Major Gene Lieut. Govern It is rumor who are now penal servitud be pardoned i Among tho extended, is t EMIGRATION note the fact t to leave the C polygamy, an in danger. T and appear to tion to the eff United States munication w increasing nu through Utah ping the foun RUNAWAY taken from th that even in break loose cases should are to be tole ed:--"About young ladies night. The in a very singu that day from ing educated the others, a vent, and jo The five from five miles 'grumblings convent aut Three of the of Mr. Macde resting, and the party w to the Sheffi THE LOND passengers l ares receiv number of p sun. week o transported there has n accident on BR There is the non-cour four years s

The Emp poor of Par The man to the Czar. ed its aim, LIVERPOO Quebec arr Barcela, fro Barcelona. in Brazil. bankruptcy BERLIN, Konigratz, to-day by g sian troops in the battle LONDON, McCafferty from Irela The En poned the place in H Maximilian demning M ecution cau tinent. VIENNA, has gone i PARIS, J duties as the court Cowley. DUBLIN, General H Fenian org at Cork. PARIS, J expressing In the S were mad against civ pending fr the Mexica All fest ations for out of res LONDON adopted u The reof Mexico between ( is serious United his efforts liberty of set free a Ismail London fi corated w trious vis the Princ of Foreign large bod formed an

of Earl D PARIS, granted a graph Co cable from