WAITING.

I long for household voices gone, For vanished smiles I long; But God hath led my dear ones on, And He can do no wrong.

I know not what the future hath Of marvel or surprise ; Assured alone that life and death His mercy underlies.

And if my heart and flesh are weak To bear an untried pain, The bruised reed he will not break, But strengthen and sustain.

And so beside the silent sea I wait the muffled oar ; No harm from Him can come to me On ocean or on shore.

I know not where his islands lift Their fronted palms in air; I only know I cannot drift Beyond His love and care.

And O, dear Lord, by whom are seen Thy creatures as they be, Forgive me, if too close I lean My human heart on thee! -- Whittier.

at length a message was brought saying that Mr. Smith wished to see me; the messenger adding, that Mrs. Smith hoped I would come as soon as possible, for she feared her husband was dying. I immediately obeyed the summons.

"On entering his chamber, I found the whole of his family assembled to take farewell of him they so tenderly loved. As soon as he perceived me he motioned for me to approach near him, and taking my hand in both of his, he turned towards me, full of BANKERS .- Commercial Bank of New Brunswick. gratitude and affection, and said,-

". My dear master, my best earthly friend, I have sent for you that I may give you the thanks and blessings of a dying man for all your goodness to me. To your generosity and mercy I owe it that I have lived useful and respected, that I die lamented and happy. To you I owe it that I leave to my children a name unsullied by crime, that in after years the an indefinite number of Investors and Depositors, all havblush of shame shall never tinge their cheeks at the memory of their father. This young man, whom I shall call Smith, was of a respectable family. He had lost his father, and had a mother and sisters in some measure dependent upon him.

After he had been a short time in my employment, it happened that my confidential clerk, whose duty it was to receive the money from the bank for the payment of wages, being prevented by an unforseen circumstance from attending at the proper time, sent the sum required by Smith.

"My confidence was so great in my head-clerk that I was not in the habit of regularly counting the money when brought to me; but as, on this occasion, it had passed through other hands, I thought it right to do so. Therefore, calling Smith back as he was leaving my counting-house, 1 desired him to wait a few minutes, and proceeded to ascertain whether it was quite correct. Great was my surprise and concern on finding that there was a considerable deficiency. "' From whom,' said I, 'did you receive this mo-

"He replied, 'From Mr. ----,' naming my confidential clerk.'

"' It is strange,' said I, ' but this money is incorrect.' He changed countenance, and his eye fell as I looked at him; but he answered, with tolerable composure, "that it was as he had received it."

"After some further questioning, I became convinced that the young man had taken the money.

"' It is in vain,' I said at length, 'to impose upon me. I am convinced that you have taken this money, and that it is at this moment in your possession. The evidence against you is sufficient to justify me in immediately dismissing you from my service. But you are a very young man; your conduct has, I believe, been hitherto correct, and I am willing to afford · you an opportunity of redeeming the past. HARRY'S SERMON.

"Eddie," said Harry, "let's play at going to church; and I'll be minister, and preach you a sermon."

"Well," said Eddie, "and I'll be the people." So they went up stairs together. Harry set an old fire-screen up in front of him, by way of a pulpit, and thus begun :---

"My text is a very short and easy one; 'Be kind. There are some little texts in the Bible on purpose for little children; and this is one of them. These are the heads of my sermon :

"Firstly. Be kind to father, and don't make a noise when he has a headache. I don't believe you know what a headache is, but I do. I had one once, and I didn't want to hear any one speak a word.

"Secondly. Be kind to mother, and don't make her tell you to do a thing more than once. It is very tiresome to say, 'It is time for you to go to bed,' halfa-dozen times over.

"Thirdly. Be kind to baby."

"You have left out, 'Be kind to Harry ;" broke in Eddie, forgetting that he was "the people."

"Yes," said Harry, "I didn't mean to menion my own name in my sermon. I was saying-Be kind to little Minnie, and let her have your red soldier to play with, when she wants it. "Fourthly. Be kind to Jane, and don't scream and kick when she washes and dresses you." Here Eddie looked a little ashamed, and said-" But she pulled my hair with the comb." "People mustn't talk in church," said Harry. "Be kind to Kitty, and do what will make her purr, and don't do what will make her scratch and squeak."

"Isn't the sermon nearly done ?" asked Eddie, "I want to sing ;" and without waiting for Harry to finish his discourse, or to give out a hymn, he began to sing; and so Harry had to stop; but it was a very good sermon after all. Don't you think so ?-The ngs, Liverpool Chairman of the London Board .- SAMUEL BAKER, Esq. Chairman in Liverpool.—CHARLES TURNER, Esq. The Royal Insurance Company is one of the largest

Offices in the kingdom. At the Annual Meeting held in August 1859, the following nighly satisfactory results were shown :--

FIRE DEPARTMENT. The most gratifying proof of the expansion of the business is exhibited in the one following fact-that the increase alone of the last three years exceeds the entire business of some of the existing and of many of the recently defunct fire insurance companies of this kingdom. The Premiums for the year 1855 being £130,060 While the Premiums for the year 1558 are 196,148 Showing an actual increase of 66,088

r upwards of 50 per cent. in three years. The recent returns of duty made by Government for this atter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more than maintaining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years. Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an advance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Company, while all the others respectively fall far short of the moiety of its advance.

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

The amount of new Life Premiums received this year's by far the largest received in any similar period since the ommencement of the business, and must far exceed the average of amount received by the most successful offices was 832, the sum assured £387,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,354 3s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension f business during the last ten years. Thus :-

Years. No. of Policies. Sums Assured. New Premiums £48,764 17 0 £1.380 9 1 95,650 9 11 190 2,627 4 422 181,504 10 6 5,828 5 10 408 161,848 13 4 4,694 16 0 .. 703 297,560 16 8 8,850 8 11 .. 387,752 6 8 12,354 3 4 The remarkable increase in the business of the last four years, is mainly consequent upon the large bonus declared in 1855, which amounted to no less than £2 per cent. per annum on the sums assured and averaged 80 per cent. upon

LAUTION! CAUTION! CAUTION! THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to caution the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all shes every thing, and has rapid sal

It will be found invaluable for the following domestic purposes, viz. :- It washes all fine things, such as Muslin Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c,; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Vater Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as it immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, dissolving a teaspnonful of the Crystal in a quarter o pint of water ; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and lums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a umbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the abric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eatng it by mistake, will not be injured

If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no me in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduc nto this country which has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time-saves your clothes-saves your money; and it does not injure the most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed; for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not njure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improves em--by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flannels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery on a Washing Day, with PICKSTONE'S Cleansing Crystal.
