PAYMENT IN ALL CASES IN ADVANCE. JOSEPH McLEOD, Editor. REV. G. A. HARTLEY, EDITORIAL CONTRIBUTOR, over the

All Communications for insertion, should be addressed, Joseph McLEOD, Fredericton.

Remittances may be sent to, either Messrs. BARNES & Co., St. John, N. B., or to the Editor, at Fredericton.

Aeligious Antelligencer.

SAINT JOHN, N.B., NOVEMBER 1, 1867.

FOURTH DISTRICT MEETING. and felt at home. Arrangements had been made for route.

legates to the General Conference.

es. Many there are who only require to have the Island, cause and its claims laid before them, while others | In conclusion, I would say that we found the union "want a copious bleeding" as a gentleman once said | between the two branches of the Free Baptist family to his miserly rich neighbor. This covetous wealthy | working well. Some, on both sides, cannot quite yet man was fretting about what would become of his see their way clear to join in it; but we hope their money, and who would have it after his death. So grievances will wear away, and they will ere long be seriously was he affected by his anxiety, that he was | found actively engaged in the work of the Lord .pining away and becoming really sickly, when his | Some of them have been among the most active workchristian neighbor kindly said to him one day, "My ers, and they will meet with a loss in not continuing dear sir, what you want is a copious bleeding," at | to work with all their heart in the Lord's vineyard. which he expressed great surprise, replying that he Let them unite with their brethren, and work to rewas now so much reduced that he could not stand medy any evils they now deplore, and all will be benbleeding. "It is not the bleeding of your body you efitted. We have no hard words for such. We feel require, but the bleeding of your money chest," con- | for and sympathize with them in their trials; but we tinued the christian man. And this is just the truth | hope they will at once go to work, doing all they of the case. There are many amongst our own peo- can, and relief will come to them and to the cause. ple who, if they only knew the blessed privilege of emptying their purses and devoting the contents to the cause of Christ, would soon enjoy better spiritual health. Our mission and benevolent societies afford all such an excellent opportunity of benefitting their health, and it may be of prolonging their lives. Who will benefit by this suggestion? From the spiritual invalids we ask no fee for the receipt, but from some of them hope soon to receive certificates tes the great good they have recived from giving to the cause of Christ.

We really believe the good people of Upper Gagetown, who contributed to our funds that evening, felt given to both societies is $50.80, of which the Home received in cash, $12,60, and $17.50 in pledges, and the Foreign, cash $10.20, and $19.50, pledges. H.

(who was one of our party to Nova Scotia a few church; in fact, had it not have been for a few church crowned with thorns, and a drop of His blood made thought and consequently to a great extent similarity weeks ago) dated at Harper's Ferry, 19th of October, members of sterling principles, the cause must have a stain one of the steps, which, it is affirmed, is there of emotion in the minds of all present who heartily our hands. We are disposing of it as rapidly as pos- converts baptized and received into the church, Other me of the rains of Rome was the palace of Nero, afsible. This week we give two letters from Bro. ers were received under the care of the church. Libby, and the conclusion of our correspondence I regretted the necessity of leaving to attend my ap- built by Titus in honor of his taking Jerusalem, and securing those very things which are almost mais of his valuable services. from Rome. We have a long and very interesting pointment at the District Meeting, as the work seem- the Colosseum, also built by Titus, where over one pensable to a good prayer meeting. communication from Rev. A. H. Marrill, which we ed to be increasing in interest and power. will endeavor to publish next week.

The Deputation from the Deaf and Dumb Institution of Hal fax, which recently made the tour of New Brunswick, realized $400 in aid of the Society.

For the Religious Intelligencer. LETTER FROM REV. C. O. LIBBY.

Mr. Epiron-In my last we had reached Yarat Kemptville. On landing, we supposed we were ver, N. H., a place in your paper.

a refreshing season was experienced. The Confer- ning through the whole; and there was also a disposi. Phillips is a sister of Rev. J. L. Phillips. Bro. Smith fruit in almost endless variety grows here in abunence meeting, Saturday morning, was good. In the tion to let this spiritual life breathe, speak and act. Of. and wife have been in India before, and returned dance. French, Gunter, Parsons, DeWitt, G. A. Hartley, any utterance at all, it is in a suppressed form. But and Reud arrived during the afternoon. There are cheering and edifying to us to hear their earnest ex- Board kept me away. The Female Systematic Bene- vius, I procured a guide, and by the help of two than from a lack of piety. but ten churches included in this district, nine of pressions of religious thought and experience. We ficence Society had a good meeting, and the speaking horses, we, on horse-back, rode to within about two Long prayers and exhortations, however, almost they have sent one of their number - Mr. Prince W form call for help, which has been heard in the other from active, outspoken spiritual life. As you have to our benevolent societies, by which the streams of lieve, is 5,000 feet high. It is wonderful to see the of the prayer meeting long prayers and exhortations. no time have we ever known so many and such ur- dwell upon it, but simply add that the organization of the revival spirit by the fact that certain gent calls for ministerial care and labor as at the pre- the Foreign Mission Society promises well for the fu- appointed whose duty it is to establish Sabbath-school template this red hot mass, thrown out from the persons make their prayers and exhortations brief sent. More applications are being made to our Home ture of this Conference. This foreign work always Mission Society this fall than ever before since its or- infuses more life and energy into the home work, and Mission Society held its anniversary Wednesday ève- to the plains below. From the top we have an ex- promptness, brevity, scriptural thought and deep inspiring character of the remarks made by the bre. that their operations in this department would be wissionary, who has been among the freedmen, read | the smell of sulphur, and every where marks of lava, thren, that at the close of the meeting all seemed en. through the Society in your Province; and I should a most affecting lecture on that work. Notwith- when in action, are to be seen. Sulphur is gathered purged out of a meeting without special pains-taking ly and with stronger faith. Elder DeWitt preached not the brethren from both Provinces united in the The Foreign Mission anniversary came on Thursday, markets of the world. We descended the opposite who wisely co-operate as leaders in the effort. son was evjoyed. On the Sabbath there was preach. will feel more interest, and do more than they would abstract of the report was read, and very short which, to me, was very interesting. This city was of brevity, and it is much better to speak frequently Baptist house by Elder Reud at 11 A. M., and by El- the Home Mission we could not judge, as this had der Parsons at 3 P. M. The listening multitudes ap. been committed to the Quarterly Meetings. I hope peared to appreciate and receive the expositions that they will push this with vigor; yet, it seems to me. were given of the Word of God, as well as to enjoy that a Home Mission Society, in the Annual Confer the earnest devout spirit of the speakers. The ence, which should take charge of the home work Lord's presence made his house a hallowed place. Would accomplish more. The only painful thing was The business of the session was all transacted on the scarcity of ministers. This is lamentable, How Monday before noon. Not much was there to be can it be helped? Would that the number was doudone. Only three of the ten churches adopted the ble what it now is. There must be help in this dicircuit system. It was thought others would have rection; but how it is to be sought, just now, is not done so had they understood the matter more thor. so readily seen. Perhaps the Lord is calling upon oughly. Those churches who had not reported on his children to pray, "The Lord of the harvest to it, as well as those who decided against it, were re. send more laborers into His vineyard." Brethren, try commended by a resolution to consider and reconsi- prayer for the coming year, and see if God will not der the question, and report their conclusions to the pour you out a blessing. The Free Baptists in clerk of the district on or before the first of June | the Provinces are, and must be a live people; a livnext. The next annual meeting of this district is to ing, working power, which will be largely felt in be held with the church at Rushagornish. Brethren future. I hope you will see this, and be inspired by Leonard Slipp and James Cowperthwaite are the de- it to plan and to do great things for God and the people. Our missionary meeting in the evening was well. Our Eastern tour was highly enjoyed. Brother M. attended. Several of the ministers and nearly all the went directly to Cape Island, where he preached to full delegates had left, but the people of the community congregations, Monday and Tuesday evenings. gave us a full house, and responded to the calls no. spent Monday evening at Barrington, and spoke to a bly. Besides those of our own ministers who re. full house. On Tuesday, Brother Jonah Smith took mained, we had the assistance of the Rev. Mr. Strang, me to Port Latour, and I had the privilege of speak. the pastor of the Baptist church, whose christian ling to another large congregation. We found it easy character and kindness we enjoyed much throughout, preaching wherever we went, and the congregations as well as that of Revs. Beckwith and Reese. We attentive and appreciative. The appearance of the think it important that missionary meetings should buildings, all the way from Tusket to Port Latour, be held in connection with each annual meeting. The were good, and showed a spirit of enterprise and money received is one of the benefits, but a higher | thrift rarely seen. We noticed with great interest good resulting therefrom is the educating of the peo. | the fine school houses springing up all through this ple in the mission work. It would be a blessing to section. They speak well for the intelligence of the each church in the denomination if a missionary | people, both present and future. I was not permitted meeting were held by it once a year, even if for the to visit Cape Island this time; but my desires are so first year or two no money was collected. The duty | strong to go to that place and visit the good brethren and blessings of systematically giving to the cause of | there, that I shall be strongly tempted to attend the Christ should be taught everywhere and to all class. | next Yearly Conference, which is to be held on the

HOME MISSION REPORT.

Correspondence has been accumulating on many wanderers were reclaimed, and fourteen happy marble is covered with wood. What most interested does it not prevent the requisite variety and spon-

British Order of Good Templars has been received, the people witnessed the savage beasts turned in up- in preaching. The opening remarks should be a "Sisters, I am going to talk to you. Some of you The reports of the several officers show that the but too late for insertion this week. A report of on the helpless Christians. It is wonderful to look brief and pointed introduction to a good sermon on have been laughing to day, when you ought to have Order has made much progress during the year. APPOINTMENTS.—Rev. George W. McDonald will the meeting of the Grand Lodge will also be furnish at. They had it so arranged that these beasts, which that theme at least in substance, if not in form.

The subject, thus introduced, should be the guide heather for days without food to make them.

And the statistics furnished by the Grand Scribe prove beyond doubt that the Order of the Sons of passages to the meeting. We found a home at Bro. Society is incorporated in Maine, and we are obliged found under Rome. This city contains many fine on its many sides. leary Thurston's, and in good time were carried out to hold our annual meetings in this State. The offi- churches, both rich and beautiful; no place in the prayer meeting is on Sabbath evening, the poor heathen, afar off, and here at home in our own those in your Province, and this is saying a good deal. | why our churches should not send their contribu. | a new church, is one of the finest. St. Peter's bears | prayers and remarks. We found excellent pilgrims' homes at Brother Asa tions for the Bible cause through other organiza- the palm for size, being the largest in the world. It Brevity in all is absolutely essential to the best type The Fourth District held its annual meeting with Every where brethren kindly interested themselves | The funds are used in printing portions of the Scrip. | 000,000); it now costs, annually, £6,300 to keep it and 21st inst. Remarkably fine weather and, in appointments. And we ought not to forget the kind | Rev. J. L. Phillips, resides near the press, writes and | Peter's at Rome, in size. friends to their midst, while the strangers acted, comfortable boat. We hope the business on this line portion for that in which your own missionary is at with men, women and children, begging. important action. They voted to send Rev. B. B. took the train for Naples. Along the first parts of > quite encouraging, and a strong endorsement of our part of the city is now to be seen in a good state or Society had its turn. After the report, and eloquent | inhabited by Romans, Greeks, &c. speeches by several brethren, a subscription for the I will not be able, as I intended, to proceed to Pa erection of buildings for the Biblical school was lestine; as, on enquiry, I found the mail steamers, started, and forty pledged one hundred dollars each, carrying the mail to India, could not take passenty proposes to raise $75,000 for the school and its England via Rome, thence to Florence, thence to Miendowment. We ask for $18,000 this year to be lan, thence over the Alps to Switzerland, passing by expended in the Foreign Mission work.

These meetings have had a decided influence upon | don.

For the Religious Intelligencer. LETTER FROM ROME.

see in and about it, we proceeded to examine this in your duty faithfully to Him and to those around teresting and historic city. We first visited the you. Pope's mansion and the Palace of the Vatican, in which is a wonderful collection of the antiquities of pagan Rome, and other ancient ruins from different parts of the world. These Fcannot attempt to describe in this letter. There are also many very interesting and rich presents in the shape of vases and other splendid ornaments, made by Kings and Emperors to the Pope. One I saw which was pre- reference to sented by the Emperor of Russia, and another from meetings. A round of ceremonies in any thing is unthe present Emperor of the French.

From the commotion going on in Italy, and from what I can learn, the people are determined to be de- be very profitable. great fears at Rome in regard to Garibaldi; his need of such hints. movements are closely watched by the Pope and his riends. The impression since the Conference at Geneva, is that Victor Emanuel has advised Garibaldi to desist from making any attempt to enter Rome at the present time; but just now the position of the king is anything but pleasant. Many of the numerous districts of Sicily are calling on him for bread, and must have it, or starvation is inevitable; they ask for labor likewise. Some of the leading journals think they want the bread, but do not care for the labor if they can subsist in any other way; but to return to Victor Emanuel. He has not the means to help them. All the resources of Italy have been drained; there seems to be no money in the country. It is often difficult, at the public offices, to get a " Napo leon" changed, except in scrip-at least, my experience has been such while travelling in Italy. The people seem to think that Victor Emanuel is directing and will administer the affairs of the country better DEAR BROTHER-During the mission at Brighton, than they have been heretofore, and that they will I attended two Conference meetings of the Church at prosper under his rule. My guide at Rome was a the mouth of the Becaguimic, and supplied them very intelligent person. He says he has the Protesonce a day for six Sabbaths, after which a series of tant Bible, but is obliged to keep it hid, as it would etings was appointed, and continued for a week, be at once taken from him; he also said the priests perienced for years in the New York church. W resulting in the cause being somewhat revived and want much money from the people for mass and may further add that such a point was not reached. one or two backsliders reclaimed. I then proceeded prayers, but he thought be ought to pray for him. in either place, till after months of experiment, and to the 1st Becaguimic Church, and met with Brother self. Many statements of my guide about relics, &c., we might almost say, tribulation, for what is more wearing to a pastor than a dull prayer meeting G. T. Hartley, who was on his way to Windsor. We are very absurd; he says he has to tell it as the What more resembles the pain of the "grumbling to a pastor than a dust player meeting to a dust player meeting much better than those whose names we did not get found the cause extremely low, and the church much Church has it, or lose his place as a guide. One toothache" than that which the pastor experience. scattered. This was, at one time, amongst our lar. story is that the print of St. Peter's face was made in when there are long pauses in prayer meeting? gest and most flourishing churches, and enjoyed the the rock, on the side of the prison, where the guard In the discipline of a church, in its exercises in isters. Three churches, however, have been formed cred, being carefully grated in with iron. Another his direct efforts to secure it. out of it; one of which is large and prosperous .- is the marble stairs of Pilate, brought from Jerusa. By unity we mean, not simply what might be re Church is truth" A private letter from Rev. A. H. Marrill This, with some reverses, militated against the parent lem, which, they say, Christ walked down after being ferred to under that name in the sense of kind feel-unions in all our Quarterly Meetings. The Home bowels of the earth, and running in such quantities The characteristics of a good prayer meeting, unity raised $750 in pledges, $135 paid down. This was the ashes alone from this burning mountain. A large | cellent rule also for prayer meetings, - Christia recent forward action. In the evening the Education preservation, showing by its architecture that it was LORD SANDON ON PRIESTLY INFLUENCE.

making four thousand dollars pledged in the meeting. gers to Alexandria without going into quarantine-the the road built by Napoleon in 1801, thence to Lon-stronger for them, and no doubt stronger to-day than trymen, which, to me, was a great satisfaction. Among others were Mr. and Mrs. Inches, and Mr. and Mrs. Randolph of Fredericton; also, the daugh- what do we mean by the priestly feeling, the priestly ter of the Hon. Chas. Connell, of Woodstock, with her idea? I use the word in the common sense in which husband, who had been married since I left the Provioce. These last are on their bridal tour to Paris, teachers of the people have endeavored to secure for On the following morning I sought a guide, who you and your departed father, as I journey through That is what I understand by the priestly idea in the the matter in hand. Speeches were made by Revs. could speak English, and soon a Roman presented this distant part of the world. Often I reflect onhimself, and said he was at my service at six francs | the great responsibilities suddenly and unexpectedly per day. So, informing him what length of time I thrown upon you. You have my prayers that God that feeling is the parent of serious evils. We be-

With best wishes, I remain yours truly,

PRAYER MEETINGS.

We have just received the following letter letter from our "experience," some one might out of the fullness of his good nature and from brotherly ove, and not at all from malice, remind us of an old ance to the growth and prosperity of our churches, and, especially to the promotion of genuine revivals in them, we venture to open the way for the communications of those whose experiences in successful treatment of prayer meetings may be unquestioned.

Yet, since our "experience" is alluded to, we may

District Meeting, I remain, yours &c. A. B. Marsh. mense size, circular, and open in the centre, and from nounce some distinct theme, as Repentance, Forgive The Report of the Provincial Chief of the cession of galleries, one above the other. In these be selected with reference to that theme as much as been a slave, rose up and spoke as follows:

For the Religious Intelligencer. scene with pleasure. Besides the above are the am- relates his experience in relation to the given theme, are what we are to-day. Praise God! yes, pra FREEWILL BAPTIST ANNIVERSARY MEET- phitheatres, where fought men and beasts for the and another his. One notes this application of it, and God for all He has done for us! And if we pra gratification of the multitudes, who assembled on another that. One relates an instance he has ob- Him, let it not be in words only. Formerly we have served, and that reminds another of a similar incident | the manager, the field, the socks, the whip, the loc MR. EDITOR :- Perhaps you would not refuse an ac- those occasions. The Catacombs, also, are here, to which he briefly relates. The thoughts, the emo- up. Sisters, I say our Saviour shall be our manager mouth, N. S., on our way to the Yearly Conference count of the Free Will Baptist anniversaries at Do. which the Christians were obliged to fly for their tions, and the utterances of all are thus generically His Word our whip, His Church our lock up, and lives; in them are to be seen the chapels in which similar as related to the given theme, but the specific His service the field for us to work in. Sisters, to make our way as best we could; but half way up The first meeting was the Foreign Mission Annual they worshipped, and in the sides of the walls the differences are varied and incommerable. This is what member what we were and what the heathen are we mean by unity in a prayer meeting. No one is to You felt yourselves; feel for them. Are we free the wharf we were met by Brother Durkee, who had Meeting for the choice of officers. It was held at places where they buried their dead. Over 360 miles aim at more than a single point or phase in a theme, Let us pray to God to make them free, to break the come ten miles, to welcome us and provide for our South Berwick, Me., four miles east of Dover. Our of these streets-wonderful as it may seem-are but all are to see the sulject, by the help of others, chains of Satan, and to set the captives at liberty to Kemptville. We found the Free Baptist brethren cers of last year were re-elected. The Society voted The hymns should come up by the same law of assoin this Province equally as cordial and hospitable as to have a tract published, setting forth the reasons worship; they may be seen of all sizes. St. Paul's, ciation as that which suggests the language of the longed, not merely to say something, but to do some ville. We shall long remember their families with Bible cause. I have thought your churches might be a height of 450 feet, and covering an area of eight life of a prayer meeting for the preacher, or other possessed of the same spirit. pleasure. And, of course, at Barrington and other | benefitted by such a tract. I here publish to your | acres. It is said to have been 350 years in building, | leader, to be slow and tedious. The evil next to places visited, there was no lack of favors received. | churches the fact that we have a Bible department, at an expense of an millions of pounds sterling (£10,- that is for some one to persist in singing a whole | There has been of late in the Sandwich Island. hymn and a long chorus with every verse, when only a single verse ought to be sung. Both these are the church at Upper Gagetown, on the 19th, 20th, in seeing us carried from place to attend our tures at our press in Midnapore. Your missionary, in repair. St. Paul's, in London, stands next to St. powerful anodynes, and only to be used in extreme cases, as for instance, when it is feared that some many other respects, a delightful season was enjoyed. attention of the officers and owners of the good prepares some works for it, and needs its issues of To see all of Rome, and study its various ruins, scape-grace will get the floor to deliver a long exhor- says:-The attendance was large, and the good people of the steamer Linda, which took us safely from St. John Scriptures and tracts in carrying on his work in Inpens to be present will seize the occasion to repeat | was observed by all the churches in our connection community appeared highly pleased to have the op- to Yarmouth, and eventually to Boston. Travellers dia. Would it not be well for you to remember this, some favorite sermon. Two or three such preachers in these islands. The two foreign churches in Honoportunity of welcoming many of their brethren and passing over this route will find the Linda a sale and and when you aid the Bible and tract causes, save a bounds of Rome, for he is beset at almost every step. in one prayer meeting, and one or two such exhorters. lulu were beginning to experience a reviving before and you may credit the people with rare patience and the new year came in, and that week greatly deeper looked, and spoke as though they enjoyed themselves may soon increase so as to require two boats on the work? The Foreign Mission Board took some very of the foreign Mission Board took some very of

The best medicine we have found for long pauses, Punahon a number of the youth have been hopefull a meeting on Friday evening, which was well-attend. Our impressions of the Yearly Meeting were favora- Smith and wife, Miss Dudley, and Miss Carrie Phil- our journey, we pass some of the most luxuriant is to close the meeting in three quarters of an hour converted. We bless the Lord for this manifestation ed. After the sermon a good many spoke, and quite ble. There seemed a deep current of spirituality run. lips to India as soon as they can find passage. Miss vineyards in the world, or, at least, second to none; from its beginning, if you can do it with good temper but pray that the work may spread until it involved and spirit. If you cannot close with such temper all classes of our foreign residents. and spirit, spend the last half of the hour and a half in silent prayer, that patience may have its perfect afternoon the meeting was organized by electing El- ten we see a real religious life dwarfed, and in the end home a few years since on account of ill-health. This Naples is a city of about 600,000 inhabitants; it pre- work in you, to the end that you may have the grace der French to the chair. There were present, Elders stiffed, by conformity to the world. If it is allowed will give our mission a much needed reinforcement, sents much the same appearance as Paris and Lon-Of the Temperance and Anti-slavery anniversaries | don, situate on ascending ground, raising gently from | moment you have reason to believe the people are ing-house Believing their cause a good one, and and licentiate, Solomon Smith. Elders Pennington here the brethren and sisters spoke right out. It was I cannot speak, as business in the Foreign Mission the beautiful harbor below. Now in sight of Vesuabusing the prayer to the grief of the Holy Spirit.

these were reported. Some of them are quite low, hope this will never grow less. Whatever progress was profitable. The object of this Society is to get thousand feet of the top; from this, with hard work invariably result from backsliden or from unconvert. Kenney—to solicit subscriptions in aid of their under while others are more prosperous. The almost uniwe have ever found that would absolutely purge out districts, was also heard from these churches. At already published accounts of the meeting, I will not benevolence shall be perpetuaal. The Sabbath- quantity of melted lava which has run for miles, in The experienced pastor not unfrequently detects the ful in his mission.

pauses and prayers, and routine, These are not

At the last sitting of the church Congress recently held at Wolverhampton, Lord Sandon spoke as fol-

"I believe that one great hindrance to Church extension is the impression that widely prevails, and I

Evangelical and moderate party, a steady, quiet, and have manifested. They have now a hall creditable hat the clergy are of a priestly order. Now, How often, my dear sir, do my thoughts rest upon themselves a position of supreme power and control. spread tables were creditable to the ladies who had ordinary English sense of the word. And what do Messrs. Tupper, Parsons and Downey, Dr. Brown, would tarry, and what principal objects I wished to may aid you, as He did your dear father, to discharge heve that it leads to the decline and the gradual expower will assist it leads to the gradual extermination of all who differ from the priestly body. We believe it leads to the doling out of extracts from the Sacred Booksin opposition to the principles of throwing If you could occasionally give us an article from your het-that this priestly feeling ends, fastly, in raising session under Confederation. Questions of vast imexperience, and from that of others, I think it would up and establishing a human, artificial barrier be- portance, involving the fature welfare of the Confedlivered from Popery and from priest-craft. There are "Excuse my suggestion. My apology is my own and I have your leave to express them. Let me reoriestly rule in England. Can you for a moment improverb, to the effect that physicians do well to show | memorable institutions, and disliking sudden changes | want a uniform currency; such a currency as will the quality of their medicine by themselves taking it. in the established order of things, would have made better facilitate the transaction of business between Yet the subject proposed is one of such vital import- that frightful break at the time of the Reformation the Provinces, and obviate the necessity of shaving Can you imagine that a nation whose horror of tised. We want a reduction in the letter postage, and foreigners has been one of its greatest reproaches the abolition of postage on newspapers, as is at prehave no priestly rule had been ineradicable? I say be allowed to say that the other evening, when we many clergymen there are before me. I have spent important branch of our material wealth and producstepped into the prayer meeting at Portland, we had my life under the influence of the clergy. I love tions is much to be desired. Our mineral resources every moment of the time was occupied by brief and admirable, or more learned body does not exist - that most important; give us population, encourage the tervent prayers, or brief and pointed remarks, save priestly rule is not aimed at, the Church will soon thousands of Englishmen, Irishmen, Scotchmen and from the Church's endowments, which now flow

EDITORIAL PARAGRAPHS.

Most people understand what Romish liberty means, Mark the principle, as expressed in the fol-

"Where liberty reigns we claim it, because it is social religious meetings, unity should be aimed at, your principle; when we are powerful, as in Spain of the Ultramontanes. A delightful principle!

flourished remarkably under his active direction, tianity, and the glory of God. terwards added to by Titus; the triumphal arch other hand it is the most certain way, as the rule, o. The proposed testimonial will be a fitting recognition Expecting to write again immediately after the beasts, or in other no less croel manner; it is of im- leader of the meeting as that it enables him to anthis circle, at a height of about 18 feet, there is a succession of galleries, one above the other. In these course of the meeting. The opening hymns should course of the meeting an old woman, who had once tives were admitted to membership in the Grand nately too late as well. These will appear next week. I their victims, while the vast multitude witnessed the parallel and allied passages from the Scriptures. One God's blessing and the efforts of the Missionaries, we condition.

Sisters we can do something, we can do much for the

That old sister had the true missionary spirit, and thing for Christ, and towards enlightening those who We found excellent pilgrims' homes at Brother Asa Robbins at Tusket, and Brother Goodwin's at Kempt Robbins at Tusket, and Brother Goodwin's at Ke more of the special and apparent working of the Holy Spirit than for years before. A missionary to thes islands, Dr. L. H. Gulick, writing to the Miss. News

ng before the "round of ceremonies" is half through. | came out on the Lord's side; and in the school

As stated in our columns some weeks ago, the hoping there may be some, who enjoy advantages which they do not, who will be willing to assist them, stock, and other places. We hope he may be success-

TEA MEETING. - The Tea meeting of Southampton Lodge of Good Templars, took place in their new hall, on Tuesday last, 29th ult. The weather was ganization. After receiving the reports, the time was a full attendance, and the speaking tensive and lovely view of Naples and the speaking tensive occupied with addresses. Such was the hopeful and any religious body. I supposed when I went there was stirring and effective. Miss Dudley, the foreign ing country. The tables were well spread with a variety of orayer meetings is formality and monotony, long good things, sufficient to satisfy more than ordinary appetites. The lady and gentlemen attendants lookcouraged and decided to work for God more zealous not have consented to aid in any other course, had standing, I am sorry to say the collection was small. here in large quantities and sent abroad to supply the part of the ly and with stronger faith. Elder DeWitt preached not the brethren from both Provinces united in the in the evening. The house was full, and a good sea. In this connection, but we are violating the law which, to me, was very interesting. This city was of brevity, and it is much better to speak frequently. and numerous wants of the company. Singing was There are other things which might be properly supplied by a choir from Weodstock, led by Mr. S. ing at 11 o'clock, A. M., at 3 P. M., and at 6 P. M., by and the gear 72 of the Christian era, by and briefly than to try to say it all at once any other organization; and the arrangements speeches were made by three of the Board, and then we destroyed about the year 72 of the Christian era, by the order in which their names occur :- Rev. Mr. Corey, Mr. Joseph McLeod, Rev. Thos. Connor, Jas. Watts, Esq., of the Carleton Sentinel, Mr. C. P. Brown, W. C. of Southampton Lodge, and J. A. Mc-Innis, Esq. A young lady, Miss Jane Brown, delivered a very interesting address on prohibition; the chairman also in his usually happy style, favoured the audience with a speech. The speakers dwelt We thought this was doing pretty well. This Socie- mail alone being allowed to land. So I will return to think not without cause, and not only among the principally on the Temperance question. The meet-High Church clergy, but also the clergy generally, ing was a decided success, and judging from the there is a strong growth of what I may broadly call happy expression of all countenances, each was a priestly feeling. I know I am touching dangerous pleased with himself, the meeting, and everybody else. Much credit is due to the members of Southevil in this matter. During the last ten years one us for good. The Free Will Baptist denomination is In my journey I met with several of my own coun- has observed more and more, even among men of the ampton Lodge, for the perseverance and zeal they althy growth-though without guilt-of the feel alike to themselves and "the order." It will be com-

We were present at the Lower Queensbury Tea Meeting, which was quite a success. The richly and the Editor of the Intelligencer. All seemed to enjoy themselves. Between $90,00 and $100.00

The new Meeting House is neat and substantial. It will be completed about the holidays.

THE NEWS and THE PRESS.

NOVEMBER 1, 1867.

On Wednesday next the first General Parliament of the New Dominion will be opened at Ottawa. Already are the representatives from the various Counties of the Maritime Provinces on their way to the Capitoi. Anxiously we look forward to to the first tween man and his God. Those are my opinions, eration will be brought up and discussed. Acts will be passed, and laws enacted relating to our Currency, n the distribution of books throughout the country Postal arrangements, Fisheries, Commerce, Emigra-- ever since knowledge ceased to be the exclusive tion, and Tariffs, which will have important bearing possession of the clergy-there has been no faltering on our future prosperity. The success of our Union will in a great measure depend on the wisdom disgine that a nation fond of antiquity, attached to played by our representatives in this Parliament. We selings against the domination of a priestly caste? the notes of our sister Provinces as at present pracwould have consented to receive William of Orange sent the law in Quebec and Ontario. A wise and judicious scheme for the encouragement of our fisherthese things with very great regret when I know how les, and a more general development of that very nvinced that unless it is made clear to the mass of and capabilities want much and careful attention and the laity by the clergy-than whom a nobler, more legislation. But perhaps of all these, emigration is it will cease to be national, and ceasing to be that do Germans, who are anxiously seeking a home in the you think you will be able to keep unhallowed hands | New World, to come and cast their lot with use Give through so many channels for the good of the people from the old countries in sufficient numbers, and the vast resources of our country must speedily and surely be developed. We want a firm and equitable tariff, as will give the poor man the necessaries of life free from heavy taxes, while, on the other hand, the rich, who can and will indulge in luxuries, must pay for them. On the policy of our present rulers much labours of some of our oldest and most faithful min- pushed him against the wall. This spot is very sa- and, until it is reached, the pastor should not ceas; and Kome, we refuse it, because our principle is to well, our country must prosper and expand. The depends; if they legislate wisely, economically, and crush error, and cause truth to reign; now, the many advocates and friends of union in Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland are watching anx-Thus lately wrote Le Monde, the organ in France lously for our policy. If it is good we will soon have these Provinces knocking at our door for admission; informs us that he has reached his field of labor been extinct. In the first meeting there was eviden yet; the spot is carefully covered with a piece of enter into the exercises. The utterances in a prayer erica, his church at home is preparing a surprise for the policy then may we despair of their coming into among the Freedmen. The party consists of seven signs of revival. Quite a large number consecrated brass. Superstitious persons pass up and down these meeting it was unanimously destined to the fold. Our Province has sent some of her ablest teachers and two missionaries. Many of our readers, themselves to the service of God, some of whom were their widest latitude, they should be prompted by from America. It is stated that during the thirteen and from whom we expect great things. Their influfrom America. It is stated that during the thirteen and from whom we expect great things. Their influhome on Monday. The meetings, however, were ascend these steps, which I would not doubt, as they allied to what may be the leading thought for the years of his pastorate, 1800 persons have been admitt- ence must be felt for the general good. May all be ed to church membership, while the various benevo- guided aright, and may their acts tend for the growth lent institutions in connection with the church have and good of our country, the advancement of Chris-

> The Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, of New Brunswick, opened its twentieth annual session in million of Christians were torn in pieces by wild opening of the meeting, should be so treated by the Islands, the work of God goes on. We find in a con-preach (p. v.) in the Hillman Meeting House, Lower ed for our readers. Also a letter from our Missionary had been kept for days without food to make them to all that follows, in remarks, in prayers, and in your own privileges, should make you cry to day. A Properation of the Sons of Tomperature is a healthy and flourishing. Canterbury, Monday evening, Nov. 4th; and Tuesday Rev. J. L. Philips, has just come to hand, unforte more fierce, could rush through a prepared way upon the hymns. Especially should it lead others to cite lew years ago we were as bad as the heathen. By Temperance is at present in a healthy and flourishing of New Bruns diac on the 2 deep hold of the lodges numbe crease the pas The officers R.v. J. E. I John P. Bel J. S Colpit Miss Annie C. E. Knapp Hon. W. P. Albert Paln William Mu B. R. Keith, Mrs. John 1 W. H. Jone Dr. J. M. J. A deeply in stirring addre men, viz:-Rev. W. W. Smith, Hon. man), T. W. Baizley, G. D.

100 SEC 200 2002 The following for the current Charles S. L. John Rankin, Dudley, Gran Grand Treasur Chaplain, Sali Hillsborough; Fredericton.

ington, J. S. time. The ne in St. John. In Nova Sc pidly increas Brunswick h Total in these The S will hold a U tute on Wed A young m native of Try pieces the oth circular saw A deaf man Station, was into him Th

did not hear

given notice

persons walk

The St. Cr larged and of temporary wi already so lit The ! fact. The w Pickard and sod" is to b Fredericton o FIRE IN K clock on Sat Knowlesville of Mr. James mill had onl The loss is ance. Supp THE ESTER Prince Ester many gems but, to those rheum, erys of Grace's C cious stones. QUEBEC, ( driven off by ed for the re The jail is g Rifle Brigad TORONTO, has been go virtually ce gold to-day. BR LONDON, from China tween the R were defeat of Pekin, at into the har Paris, O Austria in the late dem

were arreste

her of sever

ing. His v whenever h thusiastic a ple. A pro the unforti and esteem all classes. LONDON, are worse t the French The Pari fleet at Tou Civita Vecc Gen. Cia tion of a ne ground aga Ratazzi in best interes

ing on Ro columns, w column un do, only a The Pap victorious ground as Bagmor the Gariba PARIS, fleet at To the King o coast beca and becau This action not aggres ed in the law .- The between th

ceived on h

A banq Commissi bers, at w ings man Affairs, W significant in the Ita would not to engage emerge fro friend of o FLOREN between t pal troops and the se

In both o perate ch Garibaldi Lendon at Manch Friday. Murgridg discharge doubt in hopelessly The tri begins on service of is reporte turned St It is sai