THE UNITY OF THE SPIRIT.

(Eph. 17. 3-5.)

Ope Spirit breathes, one Faith unites

Where heavenly grace descends ;

To bliss which never ends !

Their Baptism also one ;

Where Jesus now is gone !

One Hope the church of Christ idvites

In faith and hope-Christians are one !

One Lord, their Saviour and their King.

One God their pilgrim feet shall bring

In work and rest-Christians are one!

One Father's likeness each shall bear,

His power and presence know ;

One feeling in them glow !

Amidst diversity of grace

The Body is but one :

But while poor Nellie was doing all this, thoughtless little Pet, who had said she was " so sorry," had gone off to her play and forgotten all about it.

sorry. She was a merry, thoughtless, little child. always getting into mischiel. She danced about the room, knocking things off the table, and sweeping the chairs down; she ran about close to the fire until somebody shouted out, "Oh, Pet, you will be burnt." And when she had frightened everybody, and made her friends' heads ache, she would looked troubled and say, "I am so sorry."

But the worst of it was, that she would be sure to do the same thing again almost directly after, and so people did not believe her very much when she said she was sorry.

In the evening, when they were all sitting round . the fire, Pet said, "Oh, Nellie ! you do look miserable. What is the matter ?"

And before she could answer, her father scolded her a little. He said, "You know, Nellie, you should not have let Pet have your work-box to play with. It was given you to take care care of, and you ought to have known that Pst. was too little to play with such a thing."

Nelffe said nothing, for she did not like to tell her father that Pet had teased her for it. And she was giad she had not done so, when, just after, Pet came softly to her side, and put up her little mouth for a kiss, and said, "I'm so sorry, Nellie dear."

Nellie comforted her little sister by giving her an orange. As she took off the orange pesh, she threw little pieces of it on the floor.

" Oh, Pet, you must not do that," said Nellie. " It is so dangerous. Any one who stepped on those piecas might fall and hurt themselves."

"I will pick them up," said Pet; and she did so. But she was careless even over that, for she left one of the pieces lying on the floor. Presently Ann.came in to take the shildren to bed, and she happened to step on that piece of orange peel, and fell down. At first it was thought that she was very badly hurt, and again little Pet said, with toars in her eyes, "Oh I I am so sorry."

But her father and mamma talked very seriously to Pet that night. They told her that it was of no use her being very sorry if she forget all about it the next minute. They told her, too, that some people walking in the streets, had been very seriously hurt' by stepping on pieces of orange-peel which thoughtless persons had thrown down.

And little Pet said she was really very sorry this time, and would not be so careless again. And Neltis believed har, and loved her little sister so much . that she quite forgave her for breaking her box.

But I am sorry to say it all did Pet no good. She was just as thoughtless and careless as ever. The wery next day she broks her papa's spectacles; and the day after threw the ink over the parloar carpet and the next day lost her lesson-book, and could find it nowhere.

CAUTION CAUTION! CAUTION roprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAIS deems it his duty to onution the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless ompound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want case, comfort, and economy in washing, which vashes every thing, and has rapid sale. It will be found invaluable for the following domestic purposes, viz. :-- It washes all fine things, such as Muslin Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c.; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as it immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, by dissolving a teasphonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water ; and for cleansing the Month, Tooth, and Jums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a anibler of water. It renders men beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child cat-

If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It sayes your time-sayes our clothes saves your money; and it does not the most deficate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the year and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed ; r Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injure the color of Prints; but strengthens and improves them - by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flan-nels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery on a Washing Day, with Picksrows's Cleansing Urystal. But about a week afterwards she did something which made her more sorry than she had ever felt in her life before-and it was about a piece of orangepeel after all.

Pet had quite forgotten what was said on the eve ming I have told you of. It was cold weather, and she, and Nellie, and some young friends were having a good game at rounders to make them warm. When they had been playing some little time, Pot, getting thirsty; thought she would like an orange; but, in the excitement and mirth of the game, she forgot that she had to be careful about the peel, and, pulling it. off the orange in a burry, tossed it down, not notic ing where it went. When they went on with their game, none of them saw the piece of orange-peel lying in the way, They had several rounds before any one stepped on it. But, at last, it was Nellie's turn to run; and, after batting the ball up, she started quickly for fear of being caught, and, as she was running, she stepped on the peel, her foot slipped, and she fell heavily on the ground.

She lay so still there that they were all frightened, and ran to her. But when they tried to lift her she is the meaning of the words scraphim and cherubim, screame with pain, and nearly fainted.

lifted her into the house, and sent for a doctor. But, ing knowledge ; seraphim is another word of the as they were carrying her in, thoughtless little Pet same language, and signifies flame. The doctor came, and he said that Nellie's leg was | who excel in loving God." " I hope then," said the broken, and it would be a long time getting well. So little boy, " when I die I shall be a scraph ; for I

WHO IS SAFE ?- God has never created a mind yet that can safely challenge combat with the appetite of drink. Earth has no ambition that is not engulfed, no hope which is not blasted, no tie which is not broken, no sanetuary which is not invaded, no friend, no kinsman, brother, wife, or child that is not forgotien ; no fibre of human agony which is not wring. Minds of common mould will go through life without excess, while those gifted with Gotlike powers are Window Poles and Cornices, smitten with weakness. The gifted author of Childe Harold walked in fetters, and died at Missolonghi of a drunken debauch. He who led the prosecution in the British Parliament against Hastings, was furried to the grave to escape the clutch of his landlords. Poor Charley Fox ! And the author of Gertrude of Wyoming died a drivelling unbecile. How the "Gentle Ella" wept over the habit that enthralled him. Ah! how these tragedies of human individual history-of temptation and fall-stalk before us!

The history of the best minds of our land is darkened. by these episodes of weakness and ruin. -T. M. Brown.
