THOU HEAREST PRAYER.

Poetry.

CONTRACTOR NOT AND ADDRESS

BY G. DAVIES BRADWAY, M. D.

. . brain is weary,

When the una And the heart is sick-o'erpress .... And the cold world looks dreary-all dreary, O God, thou hearest our prayers ! When friends and hopes are fled, And none are left to soothe our wounded hearts, And all our loved ones mingle with the dead,

Thy love its joy imparts.

When sorrows deep surround, And the mixed cup is full of bitter woe, And all silently from out each deep wound, The life streams ceaseless flow-

Thou art the same. Our trust. Is in thy providence, and in thy hand Is all we have and are-for moth and rust Do waste the golden sand.

We flee to thee, and weep When troubles dark surround us, and we see Our frail bark foundering on the stormy deep, And pray in agony.

O God, thou hearest prayer," When from the troubled heart it goeth up, Like incense floating on the midnight air, To him who drank the cup.

"But there is comfort in heaven ! Do you not hope to see again those whom you have loved, never more to part? Do you not hope that they are happy now ?"

"Ay, they are happy; for my husband feared God, and my boys were taken before they knew evil. But here am I, a feeble old woman, without a friend on earth."

"But you have a Friend in heaven; there is comfort again !'

"Ay, if I could take it, my dear; but my heart is low, and my spirit weary, and everything looks dark around and above !"

Susan rather whispered than spoke, "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in Gcd; for I shall yet praise him who is the health of my countenance, and my God."-Ps. 42. 11. A tear rolled down the pale cheek of the stranger ; but her heart felt lighter; she had met with one who could feel for her.

"I wish," said she, after a pause, "that I had thought more of these things when I was young like you. It doesn't do to put off ; one's heart grows cold and hard; and O, it's a weary, weary thing, old age like mine-no comforts around one, nothing but troubles to look back upon, nothing but death to look forward to !" and she sighed heavily. "And heaven beyond !" said Susan.

STORMONT, Guysboro', April 17, 1866;

Gents :-- Your Medicine has made -another wonderful cure. Thomas Cooper, Esq., of Lachabor Lake (storekeeper), got some for his wife, who had been afflicted with Scrofula for seven years, and nothing she got from the doctors did her any good. Mr. Cooper says her face was in a dreadful state with running sores, but is now well. As he expressed it, "It made a total cure of her."

CAUTION ! CAUTION ! CAUTION ! THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to caution the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale. It will be found invaluable for the following domestic Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as it immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, by dissolving a teasphonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and ims, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a umbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eatg it by mistake, will not be injured.

If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time-saves the most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal injure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improve them--by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flannels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery on a Washing Day, with PICESTONE's Cleansing Crystal.
