A wood-sawyer stood in the street as they passed The carriage and couple he eyed, And said as he worked with a saw on a log, "I wish I was rich and could ride."

The man in the carriage remarked to his wife: "One thing I would give if I could-I'd give all my wealth for the strength and the hea Of the man that was sawing the wood."

A pretty young maid with a bundle of work, Whose face as the morning was fair, Went tripping along, with a smile of delight, While humming a love-breathing air,

She looked on the carriage; the lady she saw Arrayed in apparel so fine, And said in a whisper, "I wish from my heart

Those satins and laces were mine." The lady looked out on the maid with her work, So fair in her calico dress, And said, "I'd relinquish possessions and wealth,

Her beauty and youth to possess." And thus in this world, whatever our lot, Our minds and our time we employ, In longing and sighing for what we have not,

Ungrateful for what we enjoy. We welcome the pleasure for which we have sighed; The heart has a void in it still, Growing deeper and wider the longer we live,

That nothing but heaven can fill.

JAMES WILLIAMS,
ang 17. East side Strong's Street, Portland CAUTION! CAUTION! CAUTION From the lowest quality to the very best OLOTH THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND Cheansing Chystal, dooms it his duty to caution the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongs washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale.
It will be found invaluable for the following domestic arposes, viz. : "It washes all fine things, such as Muslin Laco, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c., cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard > if immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, y dissolving a teasphonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and nulike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eatg it by mistake, will not be injured If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining the Nathing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time saves your clothes saves your money; and it does not injure the most delicate hands. Fickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed; for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injuse the color of Prints, but strengthens and improves them by its use they rotate their original brilliancy. Flannels become white and soft like new. White things are
