

Grafton Street Methodist Church.—This handsome structure was found to be on fire on Sunday afternoon. The fire was first discovered in the tower through which the chimney from the furnace passes. It appears to have arisen from some defect in the pipes coming from the furnace. The fire brigade was early on the spot with the steam fire engines. The fire made such rapid progress, that it was evident that nothing could save the church, and efforts were directed to save the dwelling-houses in the neighborhood. In about an hour from the first alarm the whole building was a mass of flames, and by eight o'clock the whole was leveled to the ground by the devouring element, and a heap of smouldering ruins.

The fine new organ, with nearly all the church furniture and books, were destroyed.

We are glad to learn that the building was insured for $30,000. This, however, will not more than half cover the loss. The fine brick school-rooms in the rear were in danger, but were not injured, and we presume, supply the congregation with a place for worship until they can be rebuilt. We sincerely sympathize with our Methodist friends in the loss of their beautiful edifice—altered, enlarged, and greatly improved only last summer.

Our Parish of Halifax are, we believe, suffering greatly. Perhaps many who are not accustomed to receive charitable gifts, are in as much need as the known poor. "The Association for improving the condition of the poor," during January, relieved 500 families, containing 1843 persons. They gave 1140 loaves of bread, 1234 baskets of corn. In groceries $361.96; 180 lbs of meat, and 214 quarts of soup.

In the Nova Scotia Assembly the Attorney General introduced a resolution to the effect that Nova Scotia, provided she got repeal, would take her full share of the cost of constructing the Intercolonial Railway. This was put to division and carried, only Messrs. Blanchard, Townsend, Penco, Brown and Doucette voting against it.

MOSES DISTRESS.—The Bridgewater (Lunenburg County) Times, in looking for help to the settlers of the back settlements. While the wants of the fishermen along the shores are being attended to, many families in the interior are suffering from lack of the necessities of life, and unless assistance is rendered, it is feared that many persons will actually perish from starvation before spring.

Mr. Thos. Albert Williams, of Yarmouth made of brig Alca, from St. John for Centagoes, was washed overboard in the Bay of Fundy and perished. The boat was got out, boards were thrown overboard, and every possible effort made to save him, but in vain, the weather being rough. The deceased has left a widow and one child.

SOUTH AMERICA.—Late advices from Buenos Ayres report the frightful ravages of the cholera in the Argentine Republic and Uruguay. All the towns on the Platine River have been fearfully scourged. Within forty days five thousand persons had died in Buenos Ayres. One half the population had died; in every street and in every square. At Cordova, of 20,000 inhabitants two-thirds had died, and the mortality of the remainder was over two per cent daily. Carcasses enough to convey the dead could not be found, nor men to dig graves.

The Globe quotes from letters and papers received from Buenos Ayres by Messrs. Scamell Bros. of this city:

The captain of one of our vessels writes that "most of the inhabitants, brokers and merchants are leaving the city—everything was in confusion"; and there was great anxiety to "get the lumber out of the hold—for coffin." Since that was written, the epidemic has increased about tenfold. There were two or three St. John vessels in port. The Buenos Ayres Standard of Dec. 19 contains several columns of material relative to the state of the city, from which people were fleeing in every direction to the country. "No road is too long, says our contemporary, 'no train too crowded, no bullock-cart too dilapidated to intimidate the citizens; sheep-stealers are turned into lodging-houses, estancias houses into hotels.'"

R. R. RADWAY'S PILLS

Are the only Purgative, Alterative, and Cathartic Medicine, that secures a vegetable substitute for mercury or calomel. They cure, with astonishing rapidity, Liver Complaint, Kidney disease, Irritation of the Bladder, Piles, Biliousness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Ladies' Complaints, and all diseases indicating the necessity of a purgative medicine.

AGED PEOPLE

Subject to Costiveness, or Paralysis of the Bowels, are quickly cured by these pills.

A gentleman, aged 80 years, who had not enjoyed a natural discharge from the bowels for nearly forty years, and was always compelled to resort to injections, was relieved by one dose; and by taking a pill each night, for one month, was restored to sound health and regularity.

These Pills regulate the blood, remove all obstructions from the bowels, liver, skin, spleen, bladder, &c., and purge out all corrupt and acrimonious humors. A few days' use of these pills will make the skin smooth, clear, pure, and healthy. They increase the appetite and flesh.

For regular use, the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and promoting Digestion, One Pill at Night. For Obsolete Diseases and Chronic Complaints, 4 to 6 every 24 hours.

Price, 25 cents per box. Sold by Druggists. Always ask for Dr. Radway's Pills.

A Good Old Baptist Deacon, who accidentally fell overboard, said he was not afraid of water, but objected to that method of application. The simple application of GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE to sores and wounds, and all cutaneous diseases and eruptions, is a sure cure.

A PRESS FUNERAL IN PRUSSIA.—The Berlin journals give an account of a curious ceremony of the burial of the Police Gazette in Prussia. Letters announcing the decease of that journal were distributed, a number of persons connected with the press, and their friends. The funeral procession started from the printing office, preceded by a band of music, to place of interment. Compositors dressed in black paper carried the body. A humorous funeral oration was pronounced, at which the journal was plunged into a vat of printer's ink and so buried.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The London Times commenting on the change in the Cabinet, says Lord Derby's resignation was a foregone conclusion. So also was the accession of Mr. Disraeli, as no other man has an equal right to take the Tory lead. It thinks that Lord Chelmsford will retire, but that no other change is likely to be made. It sees no reason to suppose that the appearance of the Ministry should not be permanent.

The Morning Standard says: "The previous task of Disraeli, as Chancellor of the Exchequer, was of great difficulty, but best fitted by courage, tact, experience, and close relations with Earl Derby, to succeed in this difficult task which has now devolved upon him."

The Morning Post declares that Disraeli has become Prime Minister, less on account of his own power than because there is no one else so fit for the place.

In the High Court of Chancery, Lord Chelmsford announces his intention of resigning. It is now certain that Sir Hugh Cairns, one of the Lord Justices of Appeal will be his successor.

A great meeting of friends of the U. S. was held last night at St. James Hall. John Bright, M. P., presided. A number of prominent members of the Liberal party were present on the platform. In the course of the evening Mr. Bright made a speech assailing the sympathy of the audience for the American people by frequent allusions to their conduct in the war of the rebellion.

Rev. Newman Hall followed with an address in which he presented with ability the American side of the Alabama Controversy, and pressed his views with earnestness and eloquence which carried the vast assembly with him.

The meeting was very enthusiastic, and broke up with repeated cheers for America.

The Advertiser says the new Premier must make up his mind to do Parliamentary battle for his place, and face the probability of defeat.

He will receive no quarter from the Whig Tories as both parties have him as Head of the Cabinet. But he will enjoy fair play at the hands of the people if he stands forth boldly and draws a line of policy distinctive from the course of either.

Royal assent has been given to the Bill for the suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus in Ireland.

G. W. Hunt, Under Secretary of the Treasury will be appointed Chancellor of the Exchequer.

In the House of Commons this afternoon, Lord Stanley said an adjournment of Parliament until Thursday next was desirable to afford the Government an opportunity to complete the Cabinet.

Mr. Gladstone said such a delay in the proceedings of Parliament was unprecedented, but in the present case might possibly be justifiable.

Lord Wensleydale is dead.

The Parsonage of Rev. Mr. Leslie at Wilmont near Cork was attacked last night but the assailants were driven off.

Gen. Nagle and his fellow prisoners were indicted for treason at Sligo to-day. Mr. Heron, Council for the defence, moved a delay of trial. After hearing the motion the Court reserved its decision.

Burk and other Fenian prisoners in Warwick Jail are to be removed to London for trial.

His Majesty Louis, King of Bavaria, died yesterday. He was only 23 years old.

In the case of Gen. Nagle, now on trial at Sligo on the charge of Fenianism, the motion of delay made by Mr. Heron, Council for the defence, was refused.

On the adjournment of the Court, Mr. Heron moved to transfer the case to the Court of the Queen's Bench, in order that the trial might take place elsewhere. The chief ground for this motion, Mr. Heron said, was the fact that there were not six Americans in the whole County of Sligo, and therefore it would be impossible to select a mixed Jury.

Mr. G. F. Train, who happened to be in Sligo, rather unexpectedly appeared before the Court, and offered to become one of the American jurors, but the offer was declined. Mr. Heron's motion was argued at length, when the Court refused to transfer the trial to another place; the case was then proceeded with.

The Times has an editorial article on the trial of Gen. Nagle. The writer strongly urges the abandonment of the prosecution, saying that the point of law involved is, to say the least, questionable.

True bills have been found against Messrs. Nugent, Keen, Finnemore, Fitzgerald, Leonard, O'Connor, and Leahy, and prisoners will be accordingly brought to trial without delay.

Later news from the English captives in Abyssinia has been received. They were still safe and well at Magdalo. The advance of the English army had arrived at a place near Antalo. The Tigre people were everywhere friendly. There was no sickness among the troops.

Mr. Johnson, a grand secretary of the Orangemen's organization, was tried in Dublin last week on a charge of heading an illegal procession in the County Down, and found guilty, and sentenced to imprisonment and payment of the fine.

LONDON, March 2.

The Times is confident the new ministry is now complete. The following are the changes: Earl Derby is succeeded by Benjamin Disraeli; Chelmsford, Lord Chancellor, is succeeded by Sir Hugh Cairns; Spencer Walpole (it should be Disraeli) Chancellor of the Exchequer, is succeeded by S. N. Hunt. Mr. Disraeli has called a private meeting of the Tory members of Parliament.

BERLIN, March 2.

The Zollverein Convention assembled in this city to-day. Count Bismarck was present, and in a brief speech welcomed the delegates. It is given out that the deliberations of the Convention will be exclusively confined to commercial subjects.

LONDON, March 3.

Mr. Train was again arrested this evening, as he was about to deliver a lecture at the Rotunda—as alleged, for the purpose of raising money for the Fenians. The audience was very indignant, and demanded their money at the door. A serious disturbance was threatened at one time, but the crowd finally dispersed. All is now quiet.

At the Sligo assizes to-day the trial of Nugent for treason was discontinued, and without its continuance, the appeal of one of the jurors, and is postponed until the next term of the Court.

The Prussian Minister of State has been authorized to confiscate the estate of the ex-King of Hanover.

The report has reached here from the East that the United States made propositions to the Turkish Government, offering to build a port at Marmarosa on the coast of Asiatic Turkey, to be used as a station for the American navy, but the Sublime Porte declined to grant the necessary concession for such a purpose.

UNITED STATES.

The Boston Advertiser says:—There are two articles charging violation of the Constitution, one of these being the removal of Mr. Stanton, while the Senate was in session, and without its consent; the other, the appointment of General Thomas and issuing his commission as Secretary of War under the same circumstances. There are also two articles charging violation of the tenure of civil office bill, one in the case of the removal of Mr. Stanton, the other in the appointment of General Thomas. There are also two charges under the conspiracy act of July 1868, one for conspiring with General Thomas to deprive the Secretary of War of his office; the other, for conspiring with General Thomas and others, to wit: books, papers, mails, &c. of the war office.

Mr. Stevens and Mr. Bingham, appointed by the House of Representatives for that purpose, appeared at the Bar of the Senate, accompanied by several of the members, and addressing the President of that body, Mr. Stevens said:—

"Mr. President: By order of the House of Representatives we appear at the Bar of the Senate, and in the name of the House of Representatives and of the people of the United States we do impeach Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, of high crimes and misdemeanors and we do further inform the Senate that the House of Representatives, by due time, exhibit particular articles of impeachment, and make the same known to the Senate, and we demand that the Senate take order for the appearance of said Andrew Johnson to answer to said impeachment."

"Vice President Wade said:—The Senate will take order on the same."

DR. WISTAR'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY.

While this article is known it is a work of supererogation to say one word in its favor, so well it is established as an unfailing remedy for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, as well as that most dreaded of all diseases, Consumption, which high medical authority has pronounced to be a curable disease. Those who have used this remedy know its value; those who have not, have but to make a single trial to be satisfied that of all others it is the remedy.

Certificate of T. B. PARKER, Esq.,

A well known Druggist.

St. Johns, New Brunswick, June 8, 1898.

Gentlemen: I feel constrained to state, in order to inform you of the results attending the sale of your valuable remedy, Dr. Wistar's Balm of Wild Cherry. Although I do not feel at liberty to mention the names of parties who have a high appreciation of its value, I can only say that for Coughs, Colds, and all pulmonary diseases, it is a most effective remedy, and is equally useful, by any other remedy known, and I therefore cordially recommend it to those who suffer from pulmonary difficulties.

Yours respectfully,

T. B. PARKER.

It Cures Troublesome Coughs.
