THE BORDER LAND.

frequently to know where she had been for several month that she had not written to her. She had been to the getes of the grave, in a long and severe illness.] I have been to a land, a Border Land, Where there was but a strange, dim light?

Where shadows and dreams, in a spectral band, Seem'd real to the aching sight. I scarce bethought me how there I came, Or if thence I should pass again; Its morning and night were marked by the flight, Or coming, of woe and pain.

But I saw from this land, this Border Land, With its mountain ridges hoar, That they looked across to a wondrous strand-A bright and unearthly shore. Then I turned me to Him, " The Crucified," In most humble faith and prayer,

Who had ransomed with blood my sinful soul,

For I thought He would call me there.

Yet nay; for a while in the Border Land He bade me in patience stay, And gather rich fruits with a trembling hand, While He chased its gloom away; He had led me amid those shadows dim, And shown that bright world so near, To teach me that earnest trust in Him Is "the one thing needful" here.

And so from the land, the Border Land, I have turned me to earth once more; But earth and it's works were such trifles scanned By the light of that radiant shore! And oh! should they ever possess me again Too deeply, in heart and hand,

I must think how empty they seemed and vain, From the heights of the Border Land. The Border Land bad depths and vales, Where sorrow for sin was known; Where small seemed great, as weighed in scales,

Held by God's hand alone. 'Twas a land where earthly pride was naught, Where the poor were brought to mind, With their scanty bed, their fireless cot, And their bread so hard to find.

But little I heard in the Border Land, Of all that passed below; The once loud voices of human life To the deafened ear were low. I was deaf to the clang of its trumpet-call. And alike to its gibe or its sneer; Its riches were dust, and the loss of all Would then scarce have cost a tear.

I met with a Friend in this Border Land. Whose teachings can come with power To the blinded eyes and the deafened ear,

In affliction's loneliest hour. "Times of refreshing" to the soul, In languor, oft he brings, Prepares it then to meditate On high and glorious things.

O Holy Ghost! too often grieved In bealth and earthly haste, I bless those slow and silent hours Which seemed to run to waste, And such communion known,

I would not but have passed those "depths." As can be he beld in the Border Land, With Thee, and Thee alone.

I have been to a land, a Border Land! May oblivion never roll O'r the mighty lessons which there and then Have been graven on my soul! I have trodden a path I did not know, Save in my Saviour's hand;

I can trust Him for the future, now I have been to the Border Land.

Some four years since there came a lump in my breast, and at the time I did not know what it was; but on showing it to three Doctors, they told me it was a "CANCER," and for which the knife would have to be applied; then again, I went to a female Doctor, who has been in the ha bit of curing Cancers by drawing them out, but she informed me that it was deep in the flesh and too long seated, and therefore could not help me. Knowing that something must be done, I concluded to try your medicine, which s w advertised in the Visitor. Accordingly, I sent for a an of Ointment and Powders for making the Syrup, which used without the slightest change at the time. I began o think it was a failure, but concluded to give it another rial; cons quently I procured another can of Ointment | ther patronage. and fowders, and from its use it gathered and broke in two places, and discharged very freely for about six boats; Pumping, Clearing and Working Mines; for Saw nonths, after which time it broke again in another place, and one of the old Ulcers healed up, the remaining two still remaining, one of which ran for two and a half years, the other healing up in about two months after it broke, during ses, assorted; China Vases, assorted; China Dessert Sets; which time I used your medicine regularly. I may here state, that the last Ulcer healed up about thirteen months ago, since which time I have enjoyed good health! Yes, I may say better health than I have enjoyed for years. I remain yours, respectfull MRS. HANNAH BALMAIN. Wickham, Q. C., February 11, 1867.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER. FIVE ISLANDS, Nova Scotia, October 21, 1867. Messes, Rogers & Co. Gents ; My daughter is nicely, and you have done wonders, for I neverthought you would make a cure as you have done. Her leg appears to be quite strong, but it itches a little.

Yours, &c., The above was a very severe case of Serofula of four or ive years standing, and after having baffled the skill of the est Physicians and almost every other Patent Medicine. and the child appeared to be on the verge of the grave, and the parents having last confidence in every thing in the if we failed were to get nothing; but we succeeded, as we do in every case of Scrofula we undertake. Nearly the whole of the bone—from the knee to the ankle—came out washing compounds. Try l'ickstone's Washing Crystal,
