

POSTAGE.—To prevent any misunderstanding or difficulty, we may just state that no Post or Way Office keeper, can collect any postage on the delivery of the INTELLIGENCER, as we have paid in advance the postage on our whole issue.

TERMS.—The INTELLIGENCER is published weekly, at the Office of Messrs. Bates & Co., No. 10, N. B. Street, Boston, Mass. The price is $2.00 per annum in advance. Single copies are sent free of charge. Remittances may be sent to either Messrs. Bates & Co., No. 10, N. B. Street, Boston, Mass., or to the Editor, at Frederick.

INDUCEMENT TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS!—The "INTELLIGENCER" FREE TILL THE END OF 1865!

We are desirous of having our list of subscribers increased for the next year. With this object in view we offer the following inducement: For two dollars ($2.00), received any time before the close of this year we will send the INTELLIGENCER till the close of 1865. By availing themselves of this offer new subscribers will receive the paper till January 1st, gratis.

Fifty-two numbers of the INTELLIGENCER is good value for $2.00. Our object in making the above offer is that we may secure a wider circulation for our journal, and thus, by reaching a great number of its readers, accomplish more fully its mission.

In every village and city of our country there are many who, we doubt not, would gladly become subscribers, if their attention was directed to the character of our paper, and the object had in view in its publication. Each one of our readers may render us efficient aid by obtaining for us new subscribers among his personal friends; and on every fitting occasion urging upon Christian communities the necessity of supporting a religious journal. Pastors or Churches can also do much by bringing the merits of our paper before the people among whom they labor, with the view of obtaining for it an entrance into every family as a weekly visitor.

To Face BAPTIST especially the "INTELLIGENCER" has become a necessity. The resolution of approval, unanimously passed at the last General Conference, told unmistakably the feeling with which that body regarded this journal, and yet there are, we regret to say, scores of Free Baptist families that are not known to the INTELLIGENCER's list of subscribers, nor do they take any religious paper. Should this state of things continue? We think not. We do not care of the postage of our churches because of any profit we expect to derive from the subscription, for as far as any monetary profit goes we have as yet failed to discover where it is. We ask your support simply because we need it in order that we may be relieved from a portion of the embarrassment we sometimes experience in the management of the paper which is the acknowledged organ of our denomination (consequently in one sense as much your paper as ours), and which is admitted by all to be a real necessity to our churches. In making that at least all Free Baptist families subscribe for it, we ask too much, attribute it to our anxiety for the prosperity of the denomination we love.

Will not our ministers, agents, and subscribers generally, lend us their aid in extending the circulation of the INTELLIGENCER? Let each subscriber send us one new name. From whom shall we hear first?

THE "INTELLIGENCER" SENT TO ALL NEW SUBSCRIBERS TILL JANUARY 1ST, 1870, FOR $2.00.

TO OUR READERS.

who have been prompt to renew, we tender our thanks for the support we have enjoyed thus far, and we respectfully solicit a continuance of their favor. Notwithstanding our terms are "payment in advance," we find by reference to our books that there are many who are now in arrears. Upon all delinquents we are compelled to call for immediate payment. Delay causes us anxiety and loss. Remittances may either be made to us by letter—post paid—or be sent through any of our agents. Other subscriptions are about expiring. Newspapers can only lose when remittances are promptly made. Our friends, knowing this, will please favour us with immediate remittances.

We feel greatly obliged to the friends who have acted as agents, and hope they may continue their valuable services. Perhaps they can succeed in collecting arrears due in their respective localities; if so, we shall be much indebted to them.

"HE IS OUR PEACE."

The history of our race is a history of war. War seems to be the normal state of fallen humanity. The world's history is but a dismal record of mutual slaughter, and is overwhelming proof of our depravity. It is a terrible fact, which cannot be contradicted, that the prominent work of all nations has been war. The hand-marks of empires are landmarks of human blood. The shock of battle salutes everywhere, on every soil, and in every age. In a word, every nation known to history is a nation engaged in war—Jewish or Gentile, civilized or savage, it is all the same. But beneath this fact, fearful as it is, there is another, a fact which accounts for it all. Man could not thus trample on his fellow, if he had not first trampled beneath his feet the laws of his God. Injustice to a fellow creature is the natural outgrowth of idolatry to the Creator; and hence the earnest and merciful call, "Be ye reconciled to God," it being plain that reconciliation to God must precede reconciliation to our fellow-men. When the world has again resumed its allegiance to God, nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they "learn war any more." How grateful then should we be for the blessed fact that the great Peacemaker has been in our world of fighting and bloodshed, and has made His sacrificial atonement, the only one whereby we can be reconciled to God. Even while desolating wars rage around us, causing human blood to madden the soil and discolor the rivers of many lands; even though pride, envy and hatred are rife in our midst; and even though care, trouble and anxiety press upon our hearts, embittering our life, and causing us to sigh for release, let us rejoice exceedingly that it is written of Jesus Christ, in a book that never fades, and never will, "He is our peace." In that matter, which is inconceivably of more moment than any other; in that business which is the very highest that can engage the thoughts of man; in that discord and confusion which has alienated us from the life of God, and driven us into a state of enmity, "He is our peace." How could ing to contemplate the Saviour in this light! How available, and attractive, and lovely He appears as the Prince of Peace! Our temptations and troubles humanity presented a gloomy picture. He came to save us from all unrighteousness. He came to save us from all sin. He came to save us from all evil. He came to save us from all sorrow. He came to save us from all pain.
