A VERY HARD CASE. Case 20,206.— Thompson Riggs states:—I am 45 years of age. In 1857, my business as a commission merchant called me to San Francisco. While there I contracted a frightful and loathsome disease that laid me on my bed for nine months. I paid for physician's fees $1,200 00, medicines $600 00. At the end of nine months, the disease was so far suppressed that I was enabled to return to New York. In two weeks after my arrival, the old disease appeared in a more severe form. Some and running along a property of the ball was those where form. Sores and running ulcers covered my body, my throat ulcersted, and mouth, tongue and tips a mass of sores. Again I called a physician who attended me for three months. Fees, $15000; medicines $2000, of no good. I then commanded a course of RESOLVENT Nine bottles, at $1 per bottle, made a perfect cure.
