WATCH, MOTHER. Mother ! watch the little feet Climbing o'er the garden wall, Rosming through the busy street, Ranging cellar, shed, and hall. Never count the moments lost, Never mind the time it costs; Little feet will go astray, Guide them, mother, while you may.

Mother I watch the little hand Picking berries by the way, Making houses in the sand, Tossing up the fragrant bay. Never dare the question ask, "Why to me this dreary task?" These same little hands may prove Messengers of light and love.

Mother ! watch the little hand Praising eloquent and wild, What is said and what is sung By the happy, joyous child. Catch the word while yet unspoken, Stop the vow before this broken; This same tongue may yet proclaim Blessings in a Saviour's name.

Mother I watch the little heart Besting soft and warm for you, Wholesome lessons now impart, Meep, O keep that young heart true, Extricating every weed, Sowing good and pretious seed! Harvest rich you then may see,

Ripening for eternity. - Sunday School Teacher.
