FIRES.—Between noon and one o'clock on Friday, three dwelling houses and two barns, situate beyond the Marsh Bridge, were totally destroyed by fire. Between five and six o'clock another fire broke out in the upper part of a building on Chipman's Hill, occupied by Messrs. Daniel & Boyd as a store-room; but not much damage was done. Between eight and nine o'clock the same evening, a large two-story house on Gilbert's Lane, owned by a Mr. Ritchie, was totally destroyed.—Journal.

A fire of an extensive nature took place on Wednesday morning, about half past 12. There are some doubts as to where it originated, whether in the stable of Mr. Green on Union Lane, in the rear of Messrs. Brown & Hamm's Mammoth Livery Stables, or in the latter establishment itself. The flames, however, spread with amazing rapidity, insomuch that in less than half an hour about half an acre of stables, barns, and out-houses were enveloped in an angry and threatening body of fire. The three steamers poured on immense volumes of water from different quarters. The brick building owned by Mrs. Hatheway on the southern side of the stables on Coburg street also assisted largely in preventing the spread of the fire. The narrow wooden buildings attached to the southern end of Mrs. Owens' house, and occupied by Mrs. Cowperthwaite—who appears to be unfortunate, having been burnt out at the time Mr. Robinson's stables were destroyed—was completely ruined, also the house occupied by Mrs. Green. These are the only dwelling houses that suffered material damage.—The outhouses, &c., attached to Mrs. Owens's and Mrs. Hatheway's residence were completely destroyed, with nearly all their contents. It was with great difficulty that the flames were kept out of these buildings and from extending to the outhouses to the rear of Peters street. Had the wind been blowing at the time it could not possibly have been done. Messrs. Brown and Hamm are heavy losers. They had four thousand dollars on their buildings and $2,000 on their stock. They lost all their best stock of sleighs, wagons, stages and coaches, it being at a season of the year when the more inferior articles are used, the others having been run into the storeroom, from which it was impossible to rescue them. They also lost six fine horses. At present they cannot estimate their loss fully; but very little of the stock was saved, so rapidly did the flames spread. The stock of provender on hand was light. We understand that Mr. Green saved his coaches, &c.—Globe.

RUN AWAY.—Between eleven and twelve o'clock on Saturday forenoon, a horse belonging to John Walker, Esq., Ward street, with a sloven attached to it, ran away on Prince William street, on turning the corner of Duke, to enter Water street; the driver was thrown out, and a boy named Alfred Cline got caught in the wheel, and was severely injured. Dr. McLaren was immediately in attendance, and we have reason to believe that the patient is progressing favourably.

RUN OVER.—On Saturday night, between eight and nine o'clock, a man named Callaghan, while crossing King street, was run over by a horse and waggon, and sustained severe bodily injuries.—Morning paper.

In the House of Lords, on the 27th inst., the question of the Alabama claims came up and gave rise to some debate. Earl Russell made a speech in which he reviewed the relations of Great Britain and the United States during the war of the Rebellion, and defended the policy pursued by him in the case of the Alabama and other confederate cruisers. Lord Cairns sustained the course of the Secretary of State for foreign affairs, Lord Stanley, in the controversy with the American Government on the Alabama claims. Lord Westbury denied the Laws of England bearing upon the questions at issue and denied the justice of the claims for indemnity urged by Mr. Seward.

In the House of Commons Lord Stanley gave notice that on Monday he should offer a resolution that the consideration of the question of Reform in the Irish Church Establishment be left to the next Parliament.

A London telegram of March 29th, says that the case of George F. Train, arrested for debt, came before the Dublin Court of Bankruptcy a day or two since. Mr. Train presented to the Court a schedule of his assets and liabilities, which the Court rejected as a complete farce, and announced it as worth less than so much blank paper.

In the House of Commons on the 31st March, petitions in favour or against the Irish Church Establishment were read. Mr. Gladstone after calling for the reading of the Acts of Parliament in relation to the Irish Church, moved that the House proceed to consider them. He declared that the time would come when the Irish Church would cease to exist as a State establishment.

Mr. Stanley replied, opposing too hurried action in the matter, saying the House should wait until the commission on the Irish Church had made their report, and concluded by moving his resolution, of which he gave notice last Friday, that the subject be left over for the consideration of the next Parliament.

Mr. Cranborne, the member for Stanford, moved a resolution that the principle of disestablishing the Irish Church be settled now, and the details left over to the next Parliament. The debate was then adjourned.

Despatches from the British military expedition in Abyssinia report that the entire force, with the exception of the mountain battery and four companies of the 45th Regt. of infantry, had just left Toula and commenced the march for the highlands of the country. The army was in good health and the general sanitory report is favorable. The ascent to the highlands of Abyssinia is regarded here as a very difficult undertaking but it is understood that Gen. Napier's advance is by the safest and most travelled route—that on the east, by Senafe and Dogunta. The country is represented as being very variable in appearance, fertile and extremely barren alternately, and some of the mountain passes very formidable.
