Augusta A., aged 7 years and 5 months, daughter of Captain David and Lavinia Weston, died on the evening of the 20th February.

And to-day the open grave received the mortal remains of her, who, some days ago was joyously attending with her little class-mates and associates, the school for mental instruction. Changes fly apace, with the pace of railroads and the volocity of lightning. Our little ones-all life, vivacity and innocent trust are here to-day and on the morrow the purple stream has ceased to flow. The body is left in a fit state only to mingle with its mother earth. while the spirit has gone to God who gave it. Rev-J. R. Strang attended the funeral, and spoke from the text, Heb. xx. 16: "But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly." The sermon was listened to with attention by the large congregation present. The front pews in the centre row were occupied by the mourners. But why are so many children seated together near the mourners or immediately in their rear? Ah! I remember now, as they sing that impressive hymn :--

> " Dear Saviour ever at thy side, How loving thou must be,"

That little Augusta was a member of the Sabbath one whom they all loved dearly. Is anything more was more punctual in her attendance than the deceased, always found at her, post. She was missed from her class only one Sabbath during the whole of last season ; on that day she was at St. John, and the minister read at the close of the sermon a number which she had repeated frequently at home. She was a great sufferer during her short illness. But it is over now. "To live is Christ, but to die is gain." Parents-your child is not dead, but gone a little before; and while you may take pleasure with your children left you on earth, oh ! remember, that you have two little ones above, who are under the care of a Parent free from guile, and who will protect them from the slightest touch of evil. The sentiment of the following verses are, no doubt, those of the pa-

Saturday night had come. Mr. Cowan's family began their Sabbath, like the Jews, at sunset, instead f midnight, and then all work was put away, not to be even talked about until after sunset on Sunday : and this was the best time of all the week for the children, because their father always gave up part of the evening to telling them Bible stories.

That Saturday night he brought in a soft buffalo skin from the sleigh, and spreading it upon the floor before the fire, which blazed and sparkled on the wide stone hearth, "camped down like the Indians," as he said, with Guy on one side, and little Ralph and Sophy on the other. A flaming knot of pitch ine, leaning against the forestick, made the room cheerful and rosy from floor to ceiling, so they did not need gas-light, if they could have had it.

"Away off on the other side of the world from us. where there is never any snow or cold," began Mr. Cowan, " live some people who don't know any better than to think God is pleased when they give him their children and even themselves, before he calls for them. When God calls for our children, either by taking them at once to live with bim, or by sending School, and the scholars are sitting as mourners, for them far away from us, he is pleased to have us willing to part with them. And so of ourselves or anysublime than innocent and gentle affection? None thing which we have, for we have nothing only what came from him; and came with the express understanding that we shall give them up just when he is ready. So if it is money or friends, or health or life, we must not object a word when he sees the time visited Brussels street Sabbath School. Cannot we, has come, that it is best we do without them. And who are older, learn a lesson of punctuality from the be wishes us to keep them and be happy with them little one gone. She was fond of learning verses, and till then. But these poor black people are so ignorant, that they believe that they please God by throwing themselves under the wheels of a great heavy iron car, or by throwing their babies into the river, or into the arms of a red-hot iron image. Of course they cannot have any such kind, loving God in their minds as we worship; so don't you see somebody ought to go and tell them better? I am sure of it. But those who do go have a very hard time, beside having to leave their home and friends; that is what they are called to give up. And then everybody cannot go, and those who stay at home, I should think, rents; and while we would not wish them to forget ought to feel called of God to give of their money to the dear ones gone, we would desire them to love buy Bibles and send the teachers who are willing and able to go. Shouldn't you, Guy ?"

"Do you mean my quarter, pa?" asked Guy in

such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dan-gerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a progerous anections of the throat and things. As a pro-vision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought i curable, still great numbers of cases where the dis-ease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear. Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it. Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it. Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Guy was troubled. Every time he looked into the fire, instead of Joseph with his eleven brethren making obeisance to him, of Daniel in the lion's den, he could only see pictures among the burning coals of this dreadful red hot image, of the mighty car of Juggernaut, or of great hungry sea monsters, waiting with open mouths for the helpless babies. And even after he had gone to bed and stuffed the bedclothes into his ears, he could seem to hear the cries of the children.

But he did not quite make up his mind to part with the precious hard-earned quarter, until it was meeting-time. Then he heard Sophy, who was going to stay at home with a cold and her cat, talking "If you would like to earn some money, Guy, to Ann, standing at the glass to tie on her bonnet.

"The mothers throw their babies into the water, and the alligators backbite them. Father said so. Did you know it before ?" said she.

Guy began to laugh, then he looked very sober, snow, falling flake by flake upon the brown earth." and turning around, ran up stairs, took the money "This is the first snow of the season, but it isn't | out of the little bag, kissed it once, slipped it into his going to be the last. THE Proprietor of l'ICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to caution the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale.

It will be found invaluable for the following domestic arposes, viz. :--It washes all fine things, such as Muslin Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c.; cleaning Sponges Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, by dissolving a teaspnonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water ; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a umbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the abric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eat-

If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful hange upon Washing Days. It saves your time-saves your clothes-saves your money; and it does not injure the most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not njure the color of Prints, but strengthens and improve them--by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flannels become white and soft like new. White things are much improved, and keep their color, even if put by for onths. Thousands of Families made happy! No misery Sold by most respectable Grocers and Chemists, in Packets THREE CENTS EACH, sufficient for 20 Gallons of water, r Tweive for Thirty Cents, also in Boxes containing 144 ackets, price Three Dollars eauh. Be sure to ask for ICKSTONE'S Washing Crystal, as there are spurious imitaons. Do not condemn it untried. Make one trial ! PRO-
