sed and examined it, and told her that it was a boat; I never knew Mr. Monroe to get anything recently still, some members of the denomination, fits to me?" rupture. She asked me what she should do for it, there before. and I told her she must take a piece of lead and sew it to a bandage, to serve as a truss. There was nothing on the child at this time. She told me that she had a lead bullet that had been east her it would. I told her to pound it until it was flattened smooth, and to punch holes in it with an awl, find traces of lead, and on the fragment of bonefound rate to the wants of the denomination. We can now sew it to the bandage, covering it with a piece of cloth. there are particles of lead larger than those to be seen imagine some good brother saying, "Why, you have to see it done. [The piece of lead found with re- by a pistol ball, of a very small size. The bullet machinery enough," We are almost of that same opiwhat I ordered. [Bandage shown.] That has had [Pistol cartridge shown, which witness said would power"—the means to keep them in healthy operation. something sewed to it and would be about what I produce just such an opening as that in the skull. It is true that a great deal is now being done—we may recollect anything about how the child was dressed tery, a portion of which must have been shot away. except in April which was the last time I saw it. about three months old when I last saw it. It had the manner of death in this case. beautiful white hair. Her uncle told me about her | money just after she sold her place. The child's hair

Sworn: - I am single and live in Carleton. I know | postage on our whole issue! the Vail girl, though not by her given name. I would not say in what street in Carleton she lived, I knew her sister, Mrs. Crear, better than herself. There was a bat sent in September for a Miss Vail, whom I suppose was the one in question. It was to Office of Messrs. Barnes & Co., St. Join, N. B. be colored and trimmed. The hat was a white chip straw, to be colored black, and trimmed with black.

flowers, and, I think, some black ribbon, though I minds me of it, as I had some of the same kind There were also some crape flowers on it. The rib bon was in the store at that time, and I think I have some of the same kind yet in the store. It was a Saturday evening the hat was sent for, and I think

MARY BLACK, sworn, says: -I am a servant, residing in the city; I behind the shoulders; the embroidery upon the bottom of her skirt was very large pattern, (embroidery shown) that looks like the embroidery I saw at the the morning she left; I cannot say about the color, but think it was a dark grey; (bandage shown) was an outside one; there was another small one in-sworp, says :- I reside in Carleton : am a house attended him in his sickness; there was a good deal man, and that she was very foolish in thinking about father, on the 18th or 19th December, 1867; I re-Sarah Margaret. Sarah Margaret's hair was a brown, lect telling any one that I thought Munroe would get her money, but I believed that he would.

ROBERT R. RORERTSON, store of I. & F. Burpee; one morning last fall before practical form in the organization of our Mission Sobreakfast, I do not recollect the month, Mr. John A. cleties-Home and Foreign. Rev. J. L. Phillips and service gives place to the service of a freeman. The con-Monroe came into the store and asked to see our re- wife were sent to India; and while there they labor verted man is liberated from a yoke of bondage; he volvers; I showed him what we had; he bought one for the conversion of the heathen, they are supported sings a new song; love takes the place of fear. God of Smith and Wessons; it was a cylinder with seven by the prayers and contributions of the Free Baptist is no longer an unknown God. He feels his unworit, either $13 or $14, I forget which; he said he was | considerable extent, supplied the destitute places in | while he cries out for perfect purity; and he inquires | Moore, No. 21 Franklin street, Boston.

SAMUEL BRITTAIN, was called, but on his stating he was away in the States at the time, he was not swern.

she? Not very stont or tall, and light complexioned. skull. The fragment found was also fitted into the sustained the different branches of its work; but yet What kind of hair had she? Between a light brown place from which it was drawn by the pistol bullet no one seems to have been at all burdened. It has and a dark brown -a very pretty brown. How did and exhibited to the jury.] I have no doubt that the been said by some one that if we feel not what we give, she usually wear it? In a braid. She had a heavy and beautiful head of hair. It was worn plaited and pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet; had some experiments made on a skull belonged was shot by a pistof bullet. she wore? She was in black for her father, and the | bullets were fired into the skull while it was covered last time I saw her it was by the Asylum in Carie. and filled with water, but neither of them went thing except that it was black. I do not know whether | shots were fired from a distance of about two feet. or not I could recognize her sacque. Her hat was | The bullet fired through the skull without covering straw, trimmed with crape or illusion. I don't know or water made a large, irregular hole, while those a very nice worked underskirt which her sister told in the skull before me. The probability is that the me she had worked herself. [Embroidery shown.] shot produced instant death. If her death did not re-I could'nt recollect that as belonging to the skirt, sult from shock, it must shortly ensue from hemorra Do you recollect about the child's dress? I could'nt hage, as the bullet passed through the meningen ar-

LEBARON BOTSFORD, M. D., Her uncle, Jacob Vail, told me on the ferry boat, that sworn-This witness reiterated the testimony given he believed that she would give Munroe the money by Dr. Christie, and expressed his belief that the pershe had got for her place, and that he would spend it | son to whom the skull shown belonged came to a vioand leave her destitute. I heard that young Fred. | lent death from a pistol shot, the marks of which are Brittain, expressman, brought her over to the City in the skull. The microscopic examinations and dissome time in the Fall. Her uncle, Jacob Vail, lives covery of lead scrapings on the aperture in the skull in Carleton. She had nice even teeth. I never no- and on the splinters driven from its inner table only ticed any peculiarity about them. Her child was confirmed opinions previously entertained by him of > POSTAGE. - To prevent any misunderstanding or Office keeper, can collect any postage on the delivery ceive the advantages of our provincial institution- River, Yarmouth County, on Thursday, 9th instant, of the Intelligencer, as we have paid in advance the |-the N. B. University.

TERMS AND NOTICES. The Religious Intelligencer is published weekly, at the Terms-$2.00 per arnum.

PAYERNT IN ALL CASES IN ADVANCE. All Communications for insertion, should be ad-

Who came and got it away? I think it was Mrs. 23 Remittances may be sent to, either Messrs. BARNES ged, Look at the bright—the hopeful side; encou- parties. Crear, though I cannot say. [Remains of hat shown.] & Co., St. John, N. B., or to the Editor, at Fredericton.

Aeligious Antelligencer.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 1, 1869.

THOUGHTS CONCERNING OUR WORK. The present is an eventful age - an age of progress. This is true religiously as otherwise. The demands was brought about in the following way: He had spent Maine Central Yearly Meeting of Free Will Baptists of the world that "still light in wickedness," upon the Sabbath, 26th day of March, 1775, in reading, meditaold; it was a little girl; the lady called herself Mrs. church is greater, if possible, than ever. At least the tion and prayer, and at sunset was wandering about in he was not with us during our business sessions, yet Clarke. When Mrs. Clarke washed the baby in the world more keenly feels its religious conference of the fields, lamenting his miserable condition, when he his apparent enjoyment of the religious conference of the fields, lamenting his miserable condition, when he has a little chafed, and I gave her morning, its neck was a little chaled, and I gave her in louder tones express its desire for help. The became suddenly impressed with the inutility of the Saturday afternoon (which was so good to all), and church is continually extending its efforts to meet struggles of the past nineteen years, and almost over. his labors on the Sabbath, have endeared him to by His uncering wisdom, and constrained by His not; I did not see them after I gave her the beads, the rapidly increasing wants. We thank God that whelmed by a sense of his helplessness. Opening his many who will not soon forget his visit to this Prothey were not strung when I gave them to her on no demand, however great, can possibly exhaust the Bible at the 38th Psalm, on his return to the house, the vince. Friday morning; the beads were red with a little saving power of Christ's precious gospel. It can word of God took hold of him with great power. Let The reports of the Quarterly Meetings were quite I am told, a very bad piece of road, all granite likely to promote the moral and spiritual condition of our voung men. bless and save the many as well as the few. To save the reader peruse this Psalm, and he will see its appro- encouraging. Many churches have enjoyed revival, gave to Mrs. Clarke; (cloth shown) that is the very the world, Jesus died-to have all men come to him priateness as a description of the distress under which and considerable additions to their membership. same kind of material I saw Mrs. Clarke wear in her and be saved. He is waiting. With these facts in Henry Alline was labouring. As he read he wept, and But the want of ministerial labor is deeply felt in sacque; it was bound with black braid as that shown; view, it becomes Christians of every name to examine lifted up his heart to God. Closing the Bible, he conthemselves carefully, to know whether they are help- tinued to pray in the words of the Psalm; his me. Minard having decided to go to New Hampton, in she bought a new sontag on Friday evening after tea; ing forward, in any or all of its departments, the mory, quickened to unwonted activity, recalling its order to pursue a course of study, leaves the churches (sontag shown), that is the same kind that I saw her glorious work of God. To God must all look and confessions and petitions almost word for word. __ in the counties of Kings and Hants without pastoral bring home; I saw her sew the strings on it to tie pray for blessing. All prosperity comes from him, After a little, he opened the Bible once more, when help, there being no other minister in that section and the glory of success is his. But as the human the 40th Psalm met his eye. Without taking hold belonging to our Conference. "Pray the Lord of instrumentality-christian denominations must see of the first three verses as evidence of his acceptance, the harvest to send" help to this interesting portion bottom of her skirt; (dress shown) this is trimmed as to it, that they are fully up to the point that meets he read with wonder and gladness: "I waited pa- of His vineyard. Who will go? How much we that was which I saw Mrs. Clarke put upon the baby with God's approbation, in instituting and carrying tiently for the Lord, and he inclined unto me, and need faithful men of God to care for the churches ! forward the various enterprises that are to be the heard my cry. / He brought me up also out of a hormeans through which the "word of life" is to be rible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon ness sessions was very encouraging. given to the world. God, in a wonderful manner, is a rock, and established my goings. And he hath put The Reporting Meeting was very interesting. Rethe size of half a dellar, as the piece of lead bringing full in view of the christian church large a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God; ports on Missions, the Sabbath, Sabbath-schools, shown; it was put on and sewed over, first one and inviting fields for gospel labor, both at home and many shall see it and fear, and shall trust in the Temperance and Education, were read, and spoken to abroad. Satan is not blind to this fact; and seeing Lord." material and make as I saw upon the child; (sontag the probability of his prey escaping his grasp, he About this time the family was called together for The public meeting of the Foreign Mission Society, shown) I saw that sontag on the child, but I do not makes through his emissaries bold and determined worship. He obeyed the summons, but heard no- held on Friday evening, was quite successful, conattempts to retain those who are now marshalled un- thing, being absorbed by his own thoughts. When sidering the evening was rainy. The state of the der his banner, and to win others to his ranks. He worship was over, he retired to his own room, and funds of this Society is such that with consistent who he was; I do not know whether I could re- is busy and active, and would sap the very foundar gave himself to prayer, hungering, thirsting, and effort on the part of its friends, there need be no cognise him or not; Mrs. Clarke's hair was of a pretty tions of christianity; rob God of his glory, and bring longing after God and his love. "O, help me ! help failure in the support of our missionary. brown color, done up in a braid; I gave her the pins the world in submission to himself. Christians me, thou Redeemer of souls!" he cried, "and save The Education Society held its public meeting on should at least be equally active. This is not the time me, or I am gone forever." "At that instant of time," Saturday evening. The attendance large, speaking is the same kind of hair, but a little faded; I washed to relax any effort; on the other hand, the advances he adds, "when I gave up all to him, to do with me good, and although the funds realized were not as and did up the child's tier the morning they went on the strongholds of the enemy should be more de- as he pleased, and was willing that God should reign much as we had a right to expect from so large a away; (tier shown) I do not recognize this; this termined and full of faith than ever. Believing that in me and rule me at his pleasure, redeeming love meeting, in view of the urgent calls upon the Sotruth must inevitably triumph, and error in every broke into my soul, with repeated scriptures, with ciety; yet we think our people are awaking to a upon the child; I have never seen Mrs. Clarke since form be overthrown, christians should seek to be in- such power, that my whole soul seemed to be greater interest in this good enterprise. she went away; Mrs. Clarke told me on Toesday spired with a more glowing zeal, and a deeper conse- melted down with love. The burden of guilt and The meetings for worship were highly profitable morning she was going away in the boat; on Friday cration of themselves and all they have, to service in condemnation was gone, darkness was expelled, my and interesting, especially on the Sabbath. The atafternoon she was away for 15 or 25 minutes, leaving the cause which aims to bring in the glad day, when heart humbled and filled with gratitude, and my tendance was very large. All present must have felt trank factory; she did not say where it was, but all men shall be blessed in Christ. Be not satisfied will turned of choice after the infinite God, whom it good to be there. The Lord was present of a said it was to get some money; when she got back that God has been honored in a degree, but let the I saw I had rebelled against all my days. Attract- truth. she showed me one $5 note, two $4 notes, and two earnest, honest inquiry be-How shall we further ed by the love and beauty I saw in his divine We think we do not mistake in pronouncing this a $2 notes; she said she got them from the gentleman glorify him? -how shall we glorify him most? perfections, my whole soul was inexpressively ra- very successful Yearly Meeting. tleman when he called on Friday morning; I did not Have we done, and are we doing all in our power to vished with the blessed Redeemer; not with what know him, and I did not take particular notice of ferward the cause of Christ among the destitute at I expected to enjoy after death, or in heaven, but him; I saw no buttons on her dress, but I saw some home and abroad? These are questions which might | with what I now enjoyed in my soul; for my whole on her black garibaldi; the garibaldi was very thin profitably be put to the General Conference of Free soul seemed filled with the Divine Being-my whole Baptists, which will meet in annual session to-mor- soul, that was a few minutes ago groaning under the garibaldi; I do not know what kind of a skirt Mrs. row. For a number of years, we have been laboring mountains of death, wading through the storms DEAR BROTHER-The flight of time has again Clarke wore when she went away; Mrs. Clark had to set in motion a certain amount of machinery to of sorrow, racked with distressing fears, and crying brought us to the close of another month; and it large new trunk, light brown or yellowish color; that meet the growing wants of the people in our midst; to an unknown God for help, was now filled with becomes my duty to report my doings in the mission was an outside one; there was another small one indo not recollect her wearing any ear-rings or brooch. tion in other parts of the gospel field. The progress from the chains of death and darkness, and crying The first and second Sabbaths were spent with the in this respect has truly been wondrous; and in view out, ' My Lord and my God, thou art my rock and Church at Beaver River, at which place some revival of what has been accomplished in a very few years, my shield and my high tower, my life, interest is in progress. Some five or six have projoiner; my brother, the father of this supposed all hearts have cause for deepest thankfulness, and my foy, my present and my everlasting portion.' fessed religion, and one has been baptized; there are murdered girl was sick and in a dying state, and I may truly exclaim, "What hath God wrought?" A O, the astonishing wonders of his grace, out of the others that will doubtless go forward in baptism visited him; this will be two years ago in the coming number of churches were sometime in existence be- boundless ocean of redeeming love! Millions and soon. December; he died on the 16th of December; I often fore the organization of General Conference. This was millions of praises belong to his name. O, how shall The third Sabbath was spent in attending the of talk about this gentleman Mr. Munroe; it was done; and now the management of denominational afrumored that this girl, Sarah Margaret, and he were fairs has been brought to a comparatively good and or- been to stand it out against such love! I have long It was pretty well attended, and I trust some good keeping company, and I had a conversation with her, derly state. Churches rapidly increased, so that the de- and often wondered that God did not have mercy on was done. No account of this Quarterly Meeting giving her good advice, telling her he was a married nominational territory had to be divided into Districts we and convert me; but now I saw it was my own has been published. I have no doubt if our Quarterly him at all; she gave me a good deal of abuse, and I (of which there are seven), each holding an annual fault, and wondered why he waited so long upon Meetings were reported through the Intelligences, gave her up, and that was the last conversation I had meeting. Conference has come to be a very large and such miserable rejecters of his grace." with her; she said she thought she was capable of important gathering; so much so, that we think we The reader will observe that relief came at the might have the effect of stirring up the brethren taking care of herself. I saw her at the funeral of her may be justified in venturing the opinion, that in a moment when Henry Alline submitted to God. more generally to attend them. turned to the house, and Rev. Mr. Hartley, who attended the foneral, read over the deeds; he had the churches, so as to hold two distinct General Con- mistake which kept him in misery for many years - River. The revival interest appears to deepen and deeded his property to his two youngest daughters; ferences. After the formation of General Conference, was refusal to submit to God. He sought to underthere were two lots to Phelena Crear and the rest to in a few years came the publication of a religious stand God, to fathom his nature, to comprehend eter-Sarah Margaret. Sarah Margaret Shan was a brown, between a light and a dark, (hair shown) if I ever journal. This, it was felt, was needed, considering nity. He went about to establish his own righteous crease, and a few seem very anxious that a reformasaw it I see it now, I believe from my heart and soul the position of the denomination in this and the adthat this is her hair; I could not identify any of her joining Province. Years of experience have proved but vehement, protracted, agonizing. All were vain, after the Saviour. I shall remain here until after clothes as it so long since I saw her; I do not recol- the ideas entertained by those who favored its publi- until he surrendered. When he consented to God's the Yearly Meeting, and if the interest warrants I cation at first to be correct. Soon there was shown plan of salvation, he found relief. When he became shall protract the Yearly Meeting, in a special effort. a growing desire to have some part in the missionary as a little child, he entered into the Kingdom of work of the day. This desire was not long in taking | Heaven.

to me. She showed me the child, and I undres- going on to the States that morning in the American our own Province, with the preached gospel. More - What shall I render to the Lord for all his benefeeling the need of greater interest in the cause of It is not given to all Christians to rejoice as Henry education, organized an Education Society, and deter- Alline did in the hour of conversion. Christian exmined at the very first opportunity, to make a begin- perience varies in circumstantials; but conversion Tuesday, Sept. 28. ning in the way of a school of superior character, dates from the moment of submission to God. "Belaying their plans in a way that will allow them to lieve in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be to see it done. [The piece of lead found with re-mains shown.] I should say that that was about would not be over 3 16ths of an inch in diameter. In the business to be done, every church member, ton, a week before she left, and that she was going to through, out dropped down into the water. They are going to join with the churches in Gonish seen that an invitation is extended to Churches and sell her place, and that she didn't know where she third was fired without covering and without water, and that she didn't know where she third was fired without covering and without water, and that she didn't know where she third was fired without covering and without water. sell her place, and that she didnt know where she was going. I do not recollect anything about her cloportance that plans be devised that will establish the enterprises to which we have alluded upon a permastraw, trimmed with crape or musion. I don't know or water made a large, megdiar note, which straw, trimmed with crape or musion. I don't know, yet there is still left in it which; it was some thin stuff. [Trimming shown.] fired while the skull was covered and filled with water in the world which we know, yet there is still left in it

> "frames and feelings." money judiciously; yet there is destitution. There are churches languishing for ministerial aid, and other localities entirely without either church or preacher. Shall they not receive help?

Concerning the Education Society, it should be at once placed in a position to commence operations. A good institution should be started, at which a shadow" over every matter that seems at all difficult | next session, as we do not wish correspondence fur--they see many fions in the way. Be not discoura- ther interrupted, believing it to be profitable to both takings, and give glory to him whom we serve.

HENRY ALLINE.

(Third paper.) Henry Alline's deliverance, after years of torture

For the Religious Intelligencer. HOME MISSION REPORT.

more happy converts-eight in all: five of them heads | the Douglas or Nerepis valley. Here in a drive of 10 | rally, and be for the glory of God. of families. Fourteen were added to the church, miles we have a level carriage road over intervale for and beautiful head of hair. It was worn plaited and in a braid, but in the style of a waterfall. [The hair lo-day by a pistol of the same size, as to which the in a braid, but in the style of a waterfall. [The hair shown] It is very dusty looking, but would answer shown I this very dusty looking, but would answer shown I this very dusty looking, but would answer shown I this very dusty looking, but would answer shown I the style of a waterfall. [The hair carridge shown belonged. I filled the skull with look of the Young Men's look of the Young shown I It is very dusty looking, but would answer for her hair. Do you remember the style of dress water and covered it with thin muscular tissue. Two of; but are they established upon a basis that will ted the church at the Mouth of the Oromocto, and rest for inspiration and a look around; then another cular, concerning the Convention to be held in this and spent a few days. I found the cause prospering, | constant agitation and disturbance of physical elements once. willing), to hold the Young Men's Convention, under Timt is illusion, but I do not recognize it. She had made holes corresponding in every respect with that precarious support which is the that the made holes corresponding in every respect with that precarious support which is the that the made holes corresponding in every respect with that precarious support which is the that the made holes corresponding in every respect with that precarious support which is the that the made holes corresponding in every respect with that precarious support which is the made holes corresponding in every respect with that precarious support which is the made holes corresponding in every respect with that precarious support which is the made holes corresponding in every respect with that precarious support which is the made holes corresponding in every respect with that precarious support which is the made holes corresponding in every respect with that the made holes corresponding in every respect with the made holes corresponding the made holes correspo them to unite with the Stanley and Miramichi Keswick valley; here and there you see the silver its auspices, on the second Thursday in October. It should be remembered, too, that these institu- churches, and employ a pastor. They would make a stream, not deep, but beautiful: to be measured by tions are capable of expansion to an almost unlimited good field for some one of our ministers, and, as far your taste, not by your plummet; beautiful not deep, extent; and also that there are many who have not as I can learn, would be willing to support a pastor. like many of our race; butterflies have their mission sociations, yet commenced to give their aid. The Home Mission In the churches visited a good deal of darkness and however, and this thread of silver like water, even at Society is only partially self-supporting, and requires dearth exist. They are not doing what they might, this season of drought, tells me that in this lovely auaid from the other churches. It is now expending its and I don't know how they can without pastoral care tumn morning, in this pure atmosphere, even this, tian Associations best mutually aid each other?

sions, $22.38; and for Foreign Missions, $1.90. Sept. 23, 1869. AARON KINNEY.

NOVA SUOTIA CONFERENCE.

difficulty, we may just state that no Post or Way large number of lads might be fitted to enter, and re- ing of Nova Scotia met with the church at Beaver answer the query. "You go on up to the top of this and continued its sessions until the twelfth.

rage ourselves and others in every good work; aid- The Rev. A. H. Morrill was with us after Saturing every christian enterprise to the extent of our day morning, at which time he arrived, having crossability. Then with devotedness to God, the cultiva- ed the Bay in a sailing vessel, on account of the tion of piety and good works, with an abiding faith steamer Linda being detained in Boston for repairs. in the Lord our God, we shall presper in our under The vessel was at sea during the severe storm of the no doubt is, what shall we plant, and what shall we day (the day previous to the Convention), from 10 7th and Stb. Much anxiety was telt for the safety of Bro. Morrill and his good lady, who accompanied him, but the Lord preserved them, and made us glad to

Brother Morrill came as the worthy delegate of the

J. I. PORTER.

NOVA SCOTIA HOME MISSION REPORT.

the reports would be read with much interest, and

The remainder of the month was spent at Beaver I have collected during the month for the funds of the Society, $27.854. Your brother in Christ,

Barrington, N. S., Sept. 1, 1869.

For the Religious Intelligencer.

JOTTINGS BY THE WAY. DEAR INTELLIGENCER, -I believe I am or was to be | we refer to the "Elders' meeting"-will be held, an occasional correspondent upon certain conditions | Saturday the General Conference will be organized, Some things about this portion of the imperial coun membered in prayer, with its surroundings of hill and dell, tells me that the I collected during the last month for Home Miss- God of nature loves the quiet as well as the storm, the beautiful as well as the grand. Let me tell you here whither we are travelling this morning. "Where work, does the Springfield road join this place?" we ask of a downhill traveller, whose pace is in keeping Dear Bro. McLeod-The Free Baptist Yearly Meet- with his position, and who suddenly stops to hill and at the corner, yonder, turn sharp around to John River; Steamer Empress from Windsor and the left." "This is a fine morning sir, and a fine Annapolis; European and North American, and Of the denominational organ—the Intelligences | Quite a number of the members of Conference | Country too." "Well, yes. It is a pretty likely coun--we may say that its circulation might easily be were present. We regret that your Conference was try, and a sightly one up on these ere hills. I live termediate ports. Delegates travelling by either of doubled. This, as well as other matters, at which not represented. As there was no visitor from your over yonder on that hill." Up the hill, and indeed these routes to attend the Convention, by paying the we have hinted, seems to us something in which the Province, of course this could not be done, as we are all through this new settlement, called New Zealand, full rate of fare coming, will, on production of certiwhole denomination should be interested. well aware that the change of the time of holding for its wonderful resemblance to the Pacific Islands, I ficate from the Secretary of the Association, be re-Let us remember how great is our responsibility. your Conference did not afford you an opportunity to suspect, or some other equally definite reason, we tra-Some will think - nay, do think - too much has been appoint delegates. However, we have appointed Rev. vel on, thinking. Here are multitudes of people, new commodation of the Delegates during the sittings of indertaken. Always fearful, they cast a "pall-like T. H. Crowell as delegate to your Conference at its settlers, all thinking, planning, working, and this the Convention, by the members and friends of the being, the first consumed but not the last. Oh no, this the enclosed Circular, certifying that they have been ignorant and learned, this soul will live. There | Ministers are most cordially invited to attend, and are many people here, and he who loved a lowly co operate heartily in the objects of the Convention.

inherent vital principle that possesses all men alike, duly appointed as such. household in Bethany, loves with a personal, never ceasing love all of these people, whose prime thought corner of Union and Charlotte Sttreets, on Wednesreap, what shall we eat, and what shall we drink. A. M. to 10 P. M., or on thursday, any time previous Not how shall we live away beyond earth's limits. But here, Mr. Editor, let me tell your readers, how date them; or to the Secretary of the Association many settlements there are in this part of York, and | during the sittings of the Convention. the probable future of this part of our Province, Ministers, or Associations, who have not yet including the capital city. Here in Springfield, answered our first Circular, are earnestly solicited to them finished in gothic style, evidences of the good ours, that God may be pleased to bless the proposed crop comes to fill the granaries. We came down infinite love, we may be enabled to adopt and put in through this settlement through what was once, practical operation those means which will be most rocks; but now through hard labour, by some our young men. one and government expenditure, we find a beautiful level road, upon which it is a pleasure to travel, on through into Scotch settlement. Here again are A telegram to the Telegraph of Tuesday, reports tokens of thrift and industry. The Scotch people I | the Rev. William Wilson, Wesleyan minister, of believe are generally shrewd enough in selecting a Point de Bute, died on Sunday, under the following location, to get good land, and here is the secret or | circumstances. After preaching twice, he was rethe basis at least of all the wealth and growth of this turning home in his carriage. His position in it settlement. This season of the year we think the far- attracted the notice of a pass r-by, who discovered, mer ought if ever to gather his family circle around his on closer examination, that the Reverend gentleman hearth stone, and lift up his voice with the Psalmist | was quite dead! It would seem that he must have and say; "O come let us sing unto the Lord!" | died of disease of the heart, and probably with very Thankfulness is a duty and a privilege. From the little pain. Mr. Wilson, though over seventy years Keswick ridge road we can look in every direction of age, had always been remarkably healthy. He if the day is fine and clear. Fredericton's steeples | had been preaching over fifty years. can be seen at a distance of 12 miles, and the Bird settlement, named for Robert Bird, a Protestant Irishman, whose name stands good to this day. There is near this settlement the Boon settlement, and Cardigan, Tay Creek, Stanley, and away in another direction senger, that Mr. Joseph Jones one of the recent gradu-Upper and Lower Caverbill. This is a fine country, Digby with favorable indications, and has accepted a and some say the land is better than it is through Sus- call to the pastorate of the Baptist Church. Digby sex valley. Fredericton affords a poor market for such is a point of much importance, and presents a fine a country, but it will be better. We should have field of usefulness for a minister of cultivation and more faith in our country's capabilities and resources, ment, and doubt not the church will be encouraged and believe in her prosperous future. Will Fre- and co-operate with fresh devotion to the service of dericton ever be a manufacturing city? When it | the Master. be filled up by enterprising people with capital be glad to hear of his success. to invest? This will increase the growth of outlying ment of His promises.

Upper Keswick, Y. C., September 1869.

business occupied the attention of the meeting. "Pro- go in quest of the great explorer. minent among these," says our correspondent, " was leton Sentinel, was the principal speaker.

lain; Wm. Everett, W. Co. P. Chief.

the Catalogue of the Officers and Students of Bates College, 1869-70. This College is situated in Lewislit $100,000.

GENERAL CONFERENCE. - To-day (Friday) the first meeting in connection with the General Conferenceknown to you and me, one of which was, understood and the business of the session commenced. The but not expressed, that my occasional efforts might | business of an annual meeting has now come to be a be at all worthy of the printer's trouble, or serve up | matter of no small importance, requiring much care a mental dish having the flavor if not the taste and and discretion. It is to be hoped that in all the the strength of good material. I have some things churches and in the households of all the members to write about this beautiful autumn morning. 1st. of our churches, the General Conference will be re-something sewed to it and would be about what I branches of its work. What kind of looking person was a looking person was It is true that a great deal is now being done—we may be about what I branches of its work. But yet looking person was a looking person was a looking person was looking person remained some time in Stanley. I baptized four knowledge (which is not very extensive) than does will their doing, be beneficial to the churches gene-

> YOUNG MEN'S CONVENTION. insure their support in the future? This is what spent one week. They are in want of pastoral labor. climb, and perhaps another, until at last the hill top,

DEAR SIR-Our Association has determined (God The following questions will be discussed at the sittings of the Convention:

ng Young Men's Christian Associations.

1st. The necessity for Young Men's Christian As-2nd. The best method of organizing and sustain-

3rd. How can the Church and Young Mens Chris-4th. Characteristics of Christianity in daily life. 5th. What are the causes of apathy in young men towards religion? 6th. The best agencies for promoting Christian

Arrangements have been made with the following Railroad and Steamboat Companies: Grand Trunk Railroad to Portland; International Steamboat Company's Steamers from Boston and intermediate ports; Union and Express Lines of Steamers on the Saint

Arrangements have been made for the free ac-

Delegates attending the Convention will present

Ministers and Delegates, on their arrival in the City, will report at the Rooms of the Association, to the hour of meeting, from 9 o'clock, A. M., when the Committee will attend to receive and accommo-

send an immediate reply, as to whether they intend

Convention with His presence, so that, being guided

Yours, in Christian fellowship, Joshua Clawson, Secretary.

HARPER'S MONTHLY for October is a good number.

We are informed, says the Christian Mesates of Acadia College has lately been labouring at talent. We are glad to hear of our brother's settle-becomes connected by rail with Saint John, and Mr. Jones, was formerly a teacher in the Baptist by Western Extension with the union, will it not | Seminary at Fredericton, and his many friends will districts, and our country may afford as pleasant and Dr. Livingstone. - Englishmen still cling with tenhappy a home to the working man as he can want | acity to the hope that Dr. Livingstone is still living, Then in these future days, we will see good school | notwithstanding so long a time has elapsed since any houses and full schools, supported gladly and cheer- tidings were received from the African traveller. fully by public tax, sending out intelligent men and They believe that he is the captive of some African women, alive to the cultivation of their minds and chief, or that he was turned away westward from souls as well as of their tarms. May God speed the Lake Tanganka, having, perhaps, found a clue to the day. May he also speed the day, when the believing origin and watershed of the Congo River. A letter prayer of his people will be heard and answered, from the wife of the well known traveller, Captain when not any upon this part of our Province, but | Burton, and which is supposed to reflect the latter's upon all portions, wherever a human befog dwells, views, expresses a belief that Dr. Livingstone is a To the Rev. W. C. Weston, President of the Yarmouth | may come down in mighty showers of blessings His | prisoner at the town of Lucenda or Lunda, the capital Holy Spirit, to convict sinners of their sins, and the of the King of Cazembe. The chief of that country worldly-minded professor following Christ Jesus afar is a monarch of considerable note and power, living off, and almost ready like Peter to deny Him alto- in a land far removed from the intercourse of trade gether, of his swful idol worship, to bring him back | southward and northward; and if Livingstone were and lead him to his forsaken weekly prayer-meeting, violently detained at Lucenda it would be natural where once he found a blessing. But I have ex- that no tidings from him should come by the way of ceeded my limits; and, in conclusion, I would say to the Nile, or Zanzibar. Mrs. Burton draws attention my brethren in Christ, of every name and sect, join to the fact that the Arabs of Muscat have great inin this prayer, and have faith in God for the fulfil fluence in the Cazembe district; and that the doctor has never been popular with the Moslem, for whose J. H. BARKER. faith and whose manners he has no sympathy. Mrs. Burton incline, therefore, to believe that the Arabs, VICTORIA COUNTY LODGE OF BRITISH TEMPLARS .- dreading probably an interruption of their slave-trade, A correspondent writes that this Lodge held its an- have caused him to be kept at Cazembe. This letter nual session on the 21st ult., at Grand Falls. There has attracted much attention, and it is not improbawere about 100 in attendance. Several matters of ble that a proposed expedition may be fitted out to the necessity of organizing an independent political | OPEN AIR MISSION. - Open air preaching, together party on the platform of Prohibition, Free Schools, with the other work carried on by the open air misand Progress." After considerable discussion, "the sion in London, is productive of great good. Of the sense of the meeting sustained the proposition." In work done a letter from the Secretary of the mission the evening a public temperance meeting was held in states, that there are more than a million of persons the Court House. Samuel Watts, Esq., of the Cur- in London for whom there is neither church nor chapel accommodation. The object of the mission is The following are the principal officers; G. W. to regulate and improve open-air preaching, especi-Fenwick. W. Co. Chief; Robert Wallace, W. Co. ally among laymen. The committee and members, Vice; Charles Barker, W. Co. Secretary; Frederick | 100 in all, belong to different Protestant Churches. Bloodsworth, W. Co. Treasurer; P. G. Fraser, W. During the past year, in addition to street-preaching, Co. Lecturer; George F. Raymond, W. Co. Chap- the agents of the society have visited 148 races, fairs, and other special gatherings. During the same To Rev. O. B. Cheney we are indebted for period 618,000 tracts were distributed. The expenditure was £568, and at present the funds are quite exhausted.

A CLERGYMAN, Rev. Samuel Scott, bas been placed very small, the smallest size; he paid me cash for F. M. Society. The Home Mission Society has, to a thiness as he never felt it before; becomes odious, ly a valuable publication. Published by Alexander is named after Benjamin Bates, Esq., who donated to upon the Temperance ticket for Governor of the State remember Just now sing to a publicatio we trust t to be caus rears, tog are looki upon all

Inquest, complete only be Company

rived fro to be take will prob rendered afloat in particula which ar a very fe ner, whi ITEMS.

Reed's placed o patroniz in good new acq A Co chester, death ex the inc nobsqu way, an merce Dry Do to secu that it theirs t the nat vourab up by find an well as sons V Wood forms in the

> Cox are a

the m

A ma

spe rev the oth sar fiv

and for ou