REPININGS.

ET ELIZABETH P. GAEDNER.

Oh, the fierce trials and crosses I in this wilderness meet. Oh, the sharp thorns and the briers Piercing my bleeding feet.

Oh, the vain hopes which so mock me-Vain fears which cause me to shrink ; Sparsely is scattered the manna; Oh, for cool water to drink !

The friends Thou hast taken from me, Shall I e'er meet them again ? Will they not be enstranged from me? Oh, this dull grieving and pain !

Forty years longer to wander, Then feel the dark river roll Its flooding of bitter water Deep over my weary soul.

I have a faint hope, my Saviour, Thy blood is surely for me; But, oh, it is very far over ; Shall I thy beauties e'er see ?

REJOICINGS

Courage, soul, trust in thy Saviour, Rich manna lies by the way ; Feast on this sweet bread from heaven, Water springs wait thee each day. Courage, soul, light beams in the distance, Light ahead not very far; Light just beyond the river Streams through "the gates ajar."

Just over the narrow crossing There lieth the beautiful land, Thy dead-not thy dead, but thy living, Thy living are stretching their hands,

Ready to snatch from the river, And bear thee in peace to the throne Where sitteth the King in his beauty; He ever knoweth his own

He, with his soft hand, in pity Will wipe away every tear-Arrayed like the saved in the city, In raiment spotless and clear-Will crown with a crown of bright glory, Award thee a heavenly palm, Receive thy gold harp enraptured; Worthily worship the Lamb, Oh, the sweet songe of the angels; Taste the sweet bliss of the saints. My soul, why art thou disheartened? Cease this wild jar of complaints; No beauties there are in repinings, Wealth waits the desolate soul. The Saviour loves best him who trusteth-Joy in the calm which makes whole.

With the grace of God assisting Harry's "I will" helped him many times to do his duty. In such a case as this be found it always better to say "I will" than "I can't." I do not mean to say that he became good at once. Sometimes his temper got the advantage of him. Let me tell you of one instance. Near by his father's house lived a family by the name of Murray. There was one son, a boy several years older than Harry, who was called Robert. Poor Robert's speech was defective. He could never talk plainly, and strangers could scarcely understand a word that he said. This boy had a pony, named Dick, of which he was very fond. One day Dick, who was not a good-mannered animal, jumped over the fence into Mr. Grey's garden, where he made himself very much at home, without so much as saying, "by your leave." Now Harry had for several days been anxiously watching the sweet corn, hoping it would soon be large enough to roast, and coming suddenly upon Dick after he had been some time regaling himself opon the juicy stalks, his anger at the destruction of his anticipated treat knew no bounds, and driving him from the garden, he began to stone him. Just then Robert Murray happened along, and seeing the stones flying thick and fast about his precious pony, he was very much enraged, and in a loud voice commanded Harry to stop. Harry had always been sorry for Robert's misfortune, and when other boys had mocked him, pitied him very much; but now his anger was turned from the pony to his master, and as Robert continued using abusive language and calling him hard names, he lost all control of his temper, and did the very thing he had often censured others for doing, repeated Rabert's words in a tone and manner as nearly like his as he could. Of course this enraged Robert the more, but no sooner had as an Harry done this than his conscience began to reprove him. His anger melted away at the thought of his which has hitherto given perfect satisfaction to his clients own wickedness.

lous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cared in such great numbers in almost every se ion of the country, that the public scarcely need to informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution. d invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tuber-cles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcer-ations on some part of the body. Hence the ocea-sional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following com its generally find immediate rel ength, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARIL-LA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sove Eyes, Sove Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epitepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Utcerous affections of the muscun and nervous syste

Syphilis or Venercul and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for duing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhaa or Whites, Uterino Ulcerations, and Female Disegses, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Monute Direcons for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflam-mation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the ood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great re-

HARRY'S VICTORY. BY AUNT ETTA.

Since first the childish lips of Harry Gray had you ain't a queer boy! Of course I'll forgive you, Royal been able to lisp "Our Father," he had been accustomed to take a part in the family worship. After the Bible had been read, and Mr. Gray had asked a fact." that the blessing of God might rest upon them through the day, Harry always closed the exercises by repeating the Lord's prayer. It mattered not wicked, and I am so glad that you will forgive me." who was present, he always took delight in doing this.

mother noticed that the once pleasant task began to it had been me, I couldn't have been hired to ask your be performed with reluctance. To him, as to many an older one, the cross became heavy. He mas ashamed to do that which was once his delight. At first, Mrs. Grey said nothing, but after a few days she thought it best to talk to him about it. She found him very wilful and determined. It seemed I forget and get angry as I did just now, but God is as though some evil spirit had found the open door of so good that he forgives me when I ask him. his little heart and gone in to dwell there. He said : "I shall not pray any more, for it does no good. me till I get the better of my temper. I wish you You told me that God would hear and answer me, but he doesn't, for I've asked him, and asked him, to make me a good boy, and he don't do it."

wain. He had naturally a very quick temper. If any one offended him he would fly into a terrible rage. Very nervous and excitable, he seemed to lose all control of himself, and for the time to act like an insane person. How often had these scenes of childish passion caused his mother's heart to bleed! She thought, if he should grow to manhood with as there is in Harry Grey. He used to fly into a rage such a temper, it will surely lead him to the performance of some dreadful deed. Only by God's grace could these sinful passions be overcome ; so she tried to impress this upon his young mind, and teach him that through prayer this grace was to be obtained. Most fervent had been her prayers for him, and she had taught him to pray for himself.

When the angry fit had passed away, his heart

"Now, Harry," said Mrs. Grey, as they arose from their knees, " have you nothing more to do ?"

"Yes mother," said he sadly, "I know what you mean; that I must ask Robert's forgiveness. It is hard, but I will do it."

With a loving kiss she said "That is right, my Whatnots, Hat Trees, &c. son. God will give you strength."

Going in search of Robert, he found him in Mr. Murray's yard, and went directly to him, saying "Robert, I am very sorry that I stoned your pony, and more sorry that I was so angry and mocked you.

Will you forgive me ?" Up to this time Robert's anger had not abated, and he had been thinking how he could best punish Harry Grey for his impudence, when this unexpected 5 and 7 Change Avenue, - - - Boston. address took him completely by surprise. So he went on growing in grace. Many a hard-fought battle did he have with his own sinful nature, but by the help of Jesus, he came off conqueror. By and by people began to say, "I never before saw such a change in any boy at the least thing, and now nothing seems to make him angry. What can make such a difference ?"

You and I know the secret, little reader. It was the grace of God."

THE BOY TO SUCCEED.

A few years ago, a large drug firm in this city advertised for a boy. Next day the store was throngwas filled with penitence. Very humbly would he ed with applicants, among them, a queer-looking litbeg forgiveness of those who had offended him, and the fellow accompanied by a woman, who proved to of his Heavenly Father. He had prayed many times be his aunt, in lieu of faithless parents, by whom he that God would help him conquer this dreadful sin, had been abandoned. Looking at this little waif, the but when he was again tempted, he would forget all merchant in the store promptly said : " Can't take and fly into as great a passion as ever. CAUTION! CAUTION! CAUTION HE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to cau on the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmle compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want case, comfort, and economy in washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale

It will be found invaluable for the following domestic urposes, viz, :- It washes all fine things, such as Muslin e, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c.; cleaning Sponge Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, an grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as it immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foo pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head by dissolving a teasphonful of the Crystal in a quarter o a pint of water ; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a umbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and mlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eat ing it by mistake, will not be injured, time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful change upon Washing Days. It saves your time-saves afforded. your clothes-saves your money; and it does not injure the most delicate hands. Fickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, th wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. for Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpasse for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. It does not injurg the color of Prints, but strengthens and improvan- by its use they retain their original brilliancy. Flaniels become white and soft like new. White things are such improved, and keep their color, even if put by for months. Thousands of Families made happy ! No misery Sold by most respectable Grocers and Chemists, in Pack. ets THREE CENTS EACH, sufficient for 20 Gallons of water. or Tweive for Thirty Cents, also in Boxes containing 144 Funerals attended with a single or double Hearse.

Packets, price Three Dollars each. 12 Be sure to ask for PICKSTONE'S Washing Crystal, as there are spurious imitations. Do not condemn it untried. Make one trial 1 Pao-TECTED BY ACT OF PARLIAMENT. Sole Agent for New Brunswick
