IN MEMORIAM.

One year ago-one year! What tender memories this hour doth bring Of all the starry hopes which then took wing And left our home so drear; Smitten and crushed our hearts, in grief and woe, As star by star went out, one year ago.

A requiem, tender, just, Inspired by Christian faith and love, to-day We breathe for one so gently laid away In silent, holy trust:

For one, so sadly from our gaze laid low, By loving hearts and hands, one year ago. "We weep, and it is well,"-

The loving words, the thousand artless ways,-The sparkling eye, lit up by Love's sweet rays,-On these we love to dwell; Oh! it is fitting that our tears should flow, Remembering all we lost, one year ago.

For the idol of our trust, The child whose cherub form and angel voice Had filled our hearts and homes with untold joys, We found but clay and dust;

And we, bereft of all most dear below, Were written "childless," just one year ago. But here the Master's voice

Breaks forth in tenderness and yearning love, Bidding us lift the eye of faith above, And in that view rejoice; For, 'mid the harpers there is, one we know-God's angel now, but ours one year ago.

Though changed that form and face-Though lost from earth, she lives; she still is ours; That angel-child, with ail her new-born powers, We yet shall see, embrace;

She is not dead, but gone from scenes below, "By guardian angels led," one year ago.

Treasures laid up above Are richer far than pearls or golden dust. And this we know, that we have one in trust

Laid up in faith and love; With this sweet hope, let thanks unceasing flow For the treasure lent-but claimed-one year ago. Thus, smiling through our tears,

We bumbly bow-nor question once His will Whose love quells all our fears; Content 'mid all, this one sweet truth to know-he said that, on the one hand, we could but regret that so much excellence had been lost to earth, but, on the other, looking into the Great Beyond, where the angels were rejoicing over one more freed soul as in the light of the Father's welcome smile it was bathed in the splendor of heaven, we should rejoice. For life is but a m ment, and while it is passing we need to watch and pray that we may enter the same haven of rest. Then in his last prayer he appealed to God in behalf of the widow and fatherless with so much power and feeling that it brought tears to eyes unused to weeping, and Emi y's sobs burst forth.

They followed him to the grave, and when the bearers set the coffin down by the side of it, and laid back the lid, that all might see, there was a pause, then a short bymn was sung, and we prepared to leave. Emily stood for a moment, taking the last view of the loved face, when little Eddie clasping her hand tightly in both his own, cried out,-"O mamma, don't let papa be put down in the earth !" pointing to the grave. "Why did papa die? O dear! O dear! What shall we do, mamma? How can we live without papa?" The child, in that one moment, took in at a glance what his childish mind had failed to see before, and, hiding his face in the folds of his mother's dress, cried passionately. It so happened that I spent the recent Thanksgiving of 1868 with the grandparents of Edward Somers with whom he is living. His mother has joined her husband, and her tried, weary heart is at rest. > Ayer's Sarsaparilla, FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

> > The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys,

is derived from its cures,

nany of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system

seemed saturated with corruption, have been

rifled and cured by it crofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scroft they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every see tion of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses. Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt enant of the organism undermines the constitution and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases. without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tuber-cles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is ad visable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following comints generally find immediate relief, and, at gth, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARIL-LA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems. Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure he complaint. Leucorrhea or Whites, Uterino Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Direc-tions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflam-mation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, they often do, from the rankling poisons in the bod. This SARSAPARILLA is a great re-
