THE RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER

postage on our whole issue !

and the second second

TERMS AND NOTICES. The Religious Intelligencer is published weekly, at the Office of Messrs. BARNES & Co., St. John, N. B. TERMS-$2.00 per at num. TOTYAYMENT IN ALL CASES IN ADVANCE. JOSEPH MCLEOD Editor. All Communications for insertion, should be addressed, Joseph McLEOD, Fredericton. Remittances may be sent to, either Messrs. BARNES & Co., St. John, N. B., or to the Editor, at Fredericton.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., JANUARY 1, 1869.

SIXTEENTE VOLUME OF THE "INTELLIGENCER.

is issued.

Brunswick.

subscribers. We also wish our agents and friends sible.

WORK !

Another year has been unfolded on the roll of time, page in our life's history. May each reader devoutly in Him."-2. Cor. v. 19-21. and with its joys and sorrows, events and porposes, praypassed forever from our view. At this period men pause and take a review of their labours and successes, and prepare for future activities and future results. The husbandman baving secured his harvest, now rests for a season from his toil and awaits the labours of another year. The merchant balances his accounts, and prepares for enlarged operations world? And thus looking, it is not at all improb- how do they affect them able that many-very many, will be painfully reminded of mistakes made; of opportunities of being Then, indefinite theories of Divine goodness and channel of divine grace, is not denied. numberless opportunities of doing good which are ty, and doubt. individual responsibility, and see more clearly how | following particulars :-and should have been done, a determination will dieed by his fall.

difficulty, we may just state that no Post or Way appeals to us to train them in the fear of the Lord. the fact of his equality in the Godhead. of the INTELLIGENCER, as we have paid in advance the eration, the responsibility of guiding the youthful of the Divine mind, and the words which they record joyment of the blessings of innocence.

"God our Saviour."

his duty and honors God. up the measure of our obligation.

race, in addition to a regard for their spiritual condi- | head. What now becomes of the dogma that " Christ | testimony, and confirmed in fact. tion. To relieve the needy, to visit and comfort the is not presented to us in the Scriptures as the Susick, to cheer those who mourn, become duties, not preme God?"

simply because humanity has claims upon us, but There is now another fact in the person of Christ because religion demands that we thus succour the to be considered. It is that as Deity was essential afflicted and distressed. Nor will such offices of to a Saviour's power, so humanity was essential to kindness pass unnoticed in the great day of accounts, the end for which that power was exerted. What for concerning such acts the Saviour says -" Inas- was that end? The sustaining of the honor of the much as ye did it unto one of the least of these my divine law by the payment of the penalty of transbrethren, ye did it unto me." Let no one say, "What gression. The penalty lying against the humanity, can I do ?" When the mind is with the act it will humanity alone could meet it. Man had sinned, and flow spontaneously. It is a lamentable fact that very it was out of his power to meet it except in his eterfew come up to the real standard of duty, which is nal ruin. In his helplessness there was none to deunremitting personal effort. Duty cannot be dele- liver. Then was it that God interfered and opened a This day, Friday, January 1st, the first number of gated, we may neglect it, but cannot possible escape | way of salvation consistently with the honor of his the Sixteenth Volume of the Religious Intelligencer its obligations. The great want of the present age is administration. He provided a substitute in whom a deeper sense of the fact that nothing supersedes he gave a second exemplification of his own idea of As for "man's suffering, the condemnation of present. Some Heras of business of considerable imtating the public mind. The Intelligencer is design- the same, the promise of God abideth sure, so that if nant, "Awake O sword against my Shepherd, against use this proverb in Israel." "Behold, all souls are with faith" in them.

We respectfully solicit the renewals of our present | failure must be chargeable to our own account. fraught, resolve, trusting in the grace of Christ, that He hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no 12. Self-conscious guilt will characterize every sin-

> " Waken, O God, my careless heart, Its great concerns to see, That I may act the Christian's part,

And give the year to thee."

For the Religious Intelligencer IMMANUEL, THE ONLY SAVIOUR. BY REV. BENJAMIN CARTO.

for the future, from which he hopes hereafter to se. There is no ecquiry in the revelation of God more age and his ineffable oneness with the Divinity. cure enlarged goins. And so in the various depart- momentous and imperative than that which has for "Israelites-of whom, as concerning the flesh, Christ | the Lord Jesus Christ ; and in that sublime manifesments of life, there is a brief cossation from the de- its object the knowledge of Him who is declared to csme, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen." tation of Incarnate Deity, show you the way of parmands upon energy and effort. Though in the mo- be the Saviour, and the ground upon which He sus- - Rom. ix. 4-5. Immanuel still, assertions to the don and mercy, consistently with the integrity of ral world there is no occasion to rest -no permission tains, to a dying world, so high and illustrious a pre- contrary notwithstanding. ral world there is no occasion to rest -no permission tails, to a dying world, so high and mustrious a pre-to be still—would it not be well for Christians to al-to be still—would it not be well for Christians to al-rogative. Apart from this knowledge true peace of the is asserted in the next place that "he is not the to be still—would it not be well for Christians to allow their thoughts to revert to the year just expired? mind cannot be obtained, because there are no ade-low their thoughts to revert to the year just expired? This conclusion is ground. forth the hand of faith, and reverently drawing aside rest for their souls." But God has still a people in this issue, but will appear next wesk. Looking back over the time which seemed long in quate grounds upon which may be based a confident ed on the hypothesis that Christ is not God. It has, the vail of time, behold emblazoned in everlasting the beginning, but which in the retrospect is mar- satisfaction. Vague views, it is true, may be held, however, been shown that he is; therefore " of divine light over against the throne of God and the Lambvellously short, may they not with profit note the and some that are positively at variance with the re- grace" he must be "the source." Not only so- "IMMANUEL THE ONLY SAVIOUR !" numerous events which have been crowded into the velation, to which, in the time of health and prosper- Since his redeeming act was essential to the enjoyshort space of a year, weighing their importance, and ity, the superficially informed may cling when a ment of that grace, he is in another sense also the judging of their effect, for weal or woe, upon the qualm of the last hour passes through the soul. But source of that grace. If he had not died to meet the

"Video meliora proboque Deteriora sequor, is the characteristic of every soul of man possessing dictates of conscience. And what saith the Scripeven as others." (Eph. ii. 3). However thus he may inherit a fallen nature, he is held responsible, not for nature, but for not following the right and rejecting the wrong of which he has a distinct knowledge, at the same time possessing in himself the capability of choice and of action in relation to that choice. Was not this plainly admitted by the depraved pagan whose acknowledgment has already been quoted,

"I see and I approve the better ; I follow the worse?"

It will continue to be "As Evangelical Family personal effort ; that the individual must never be. humanity, whose excellency stood out in contrast sin for Adam's sin," elsewhere alleged, it is the mere portance were transacted, and the religious services respecting every department of the Institution. We NEWSPAPER," devoted principally to religious news come lost in the mass, but must stand forth a living with fallen humanity, took it into union with him- figment of a querulous mind-an old mance avre. were well attended and interesting. and general religious reading; but it will also always independent agent, and while co-operating with those self, and met the demand of a violated law on behalf "The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the childcontain all the important general news, keeping its around him, still doing his own work in the great of every penitent sinner. This fact was asserted, pre- ren's teeth are set on edge." "As I live, saith the plied on the Sabbath, and we hope the "word readers well informed on the principal questions agi- harvest field. The instrumentalities of progress are dictively, by Jehovah himself under the Old Cove- Lord God, ye shall not have occasion any more to preached" profited them that heard it, being "mixed ed to be a family paper, second to none in New our growth is less apparent, if our triumphs are fewer, the man that is my fellow, saith the Lord of Hosts, mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of The Terms are Two Dollars a Year, in advance. less brilliant, the reason must rest with ourselves, the with Deity in the work of atonement by the expia "The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father ; to make a little exertion to increase our list, and for- the mistakes we have made, with the sad const- takable teaching of the New Covenant, "To know and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him." ness of the duties with which each short year is Himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them: for shall give account of himself to God."-Romans xiv.

> the year we now coter upon will record a brighter sin, that we might be made the rightcousness of God ner at the bar of God. "Every mouth will be stopped, and all the world found guilty before God."-

> > PORT MEDWAY, N. S., Dec., 1868.

Here is one person, whose necessary dignity, dei. Romans iii. 19. ty and humanity, it is impious to divide. He is the To give false views of man's condition before God Saviour. Man-that he may meeet the demands of -to deny the personal dignity of the Saviour-to the law against the transgressor, and God-that he cancel the primary end of his death as the ground of that "deep toned piety" and Christian activity mani-

This fact, in the revealed means of our redemption, sentiments which have passed under review. is clearly asserted by the apostle, when speaking of Reader, let no man deceive you with van words. ence taken the more prominent place. Has Chris- such acts. the dignity of Christ in relation to his national line- The Scriptures assert your self-ruin, and make known signity lost its power? Is vital piety less necessary?

Postage. To prevent any misunderstanding or and every consideration, both of time and eternity, the consistency of which can only be interpreted from of the way, the law honored, and the divine govern- now they want a minister-a "good soldier," who vilege and duty to labor, and in return, to erjoy that ment vindicated in the acquittal of the guilty, who will make that his " head-quarters," and from that happiness which ever flows from a course of well-Office keeper, can collect any postage on the delivery As irreligious parents do not beed any such consid-If the Scriptures are to be received by an act of consistent grace to the enguarding the "outposts" and extending the "battle line," cause the "enemies of the cross" to "retreat," Editor of a Religious Journal and Pastor of a Chrisminds in the way of wisdom, falls back upon the are to be taken in their legitimate meaning, then, Finally. The first particular only, remains for and "victory to turn on Ziou's side." Some of the tian Church. Our prayer daily shall be that the Church. In feeding these lambs the Christian fulfils "the Christ is the Lord Jesus," in other words, consideration. Here we have to do with fact. Nor fathers in the ministry-I forget who it was, and how God of your much lamented and highly esteemed will the fact be invalidated though we may not be many years ago it was-told the brethren there when father, may assist you in the discharge of these arduous and numerous duties, so that all may be done Aside from the religious aspects of the subject The phrase, "fractional part of the Godhead," is able to account for it. Man stands before his Maker their parsonage was ready, the Lord would send them to the glory of His great name, for the good of His there are other views we may take of it, which fill an absurdity, and the innuendo which it contains is as free, and as knowing the right and choosing the a minister. I hope whoever it was knew; for if he cause and the well-being of society. Long may it be either misrepresentation to give color to a weak po- wrong. Whatever may be his condition through did, the minister is just at hand, because I know our happiness to labor together for the upbuilding of The gospel contemplates the present happiness of sition, or mere ignorance. Trinitarians take Christ Adam's fall, he stands as did Adam, responsible for the Lord has not forgotten the contract, however that me aball is the time arrives men, as well as their future welfare, and its followers to be what the Scriptures say that he is, "Immanu- bis own acts, and not the acts of his progenitor. That owe a duty to their fellows, as members of a common el, God with us," not a "fractional part of the God- he inherits a failen nature, is asserted by the sacred part. I have no doubt that the right man will be prepared to enjoy that rest which remains for the well provided for by the people, and will see good people of God. results from his labors.

The Yarmouth and Shelburne Q. Meeting convened with the church at Lower Argyle, Yarmouth Co., that maturity of being essential to understanding the November 6th. For two or three reasons, but chiefly on account of unfavorable weather and the tures ? "And were by nature the children of wrath bad condition of the roads (distance a little more than 100 miles), I was not present. I was not a little disappointed, because I had anticipated much pleasure in meeting the brethren in the ministry, and en- creasing in public favor.

gaging with them in business and religious exercises, and also in meeting the Christian brethren and friends ing from the fact, that eleven County Scholarships of Argyle and adjacent places, with whom I have will be open for competition next year, we shall look formed acquaintance and enjoyed good seasons in the for a much larger class than usual for matriculation. past. I learn that most of the ministers and quite a The only three County Scholarships not open for number of the laity from different churches were competition are St. John, Carleton and Sunbury.

The pulpits at Upper and Lower Argyle were sup-

The meeting of the Home Missionary Society if our crowns of rejoicing are not so numerous, or are smite the Shepherd." Here is the humanity in union the son is mine-the soul that sinneth, it shall die." connection with the Q. Meeting was held as usual, and did not fail to be productive of good. Bro. W. tion, or the taking away of the penalty of guilt by neither shall the father bear the iniquities of the son; Downey, formerly of your Province, is employed as Looking upon the past, and beholding, as we must, the death of the Chief Shepherd. This is the unuis- the righteousness of the righteou God bless his labors with abundant success. The ward the names of new subscribers as soon as pos- quences arising therefrom, let us, in view of the vast. that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto -Ezek. xviii. 1, 4, 20. "So then every one of us next session of the Q. Meeting is to be held with the church at Kemptville, Yarmouth County.

our imperfect labor as a christian pastor. We feel Many of our churches-as far as our own knowencouraged by the frequent expressions of kindness ledge of them extends-are at present in a rather and sympathy which are shown us; and we are low state. Things which have of late tended to disanxious to be strengthened to labour carnestly for tract the public mind generally, have had their inthe welfare of those among whom our lot is now fluence upon Christians, and many seem to be bowed cast. May God bless them, not only with temporal down with affliction and discouragements; and then mercies, but with "all spiritual blessings in Christ Jesus," "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of our hope of salvation, are among the aims of those fest in other days seem to have retreated to the back the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto ground, and a lifeless formality and careless indiffer- me," is Christ's own record of approval concerning

THE NEWS and

and the second s

JANUARY

Many thanks to our ly renewing their subscripti not neglect to do likewise. make at this season of the y aue us.

ST. STEPHEN'S BANK payment of all soms due to E. McLeod ; and for renewo to the "INTELLIGENCER."

WELCOME VISITS .- The day evening last Rev. Mr. "surprise party" who sp went in for "a good time," sented their host with a pr Friday morning Mrs. Swab bers of St. Jude's Church, ing $60. Mr. Swabey, th England. Such visits evid gard, and are doubtless hig pients.

, DONATION. - Ray, Mr. L the Nashwaak circuit, was of a donation of some $5 week.

WESTERN EXTENSION .over 17 miles of railroad f the rails are being laid a day. In a month the loce from the Point to the jun Branch. On the Branch six miles of the road, and laid Below Brundage's down, and are being utili fills. The heavy rock of will be finished in two me

BENEVOLENT. -- On Chri Industrial School were] dinner, kindly spread for George C. Wiggins, Esq.-

Mr. Ferris, M. P., for ving in health, although

The Rev. Wm. Harrise Priest's orders, on Sunday Witness.

The Post Office Car course of fitting up, and the road.

The Course of Lectures Young People's Associate array of names, those of Lathern, Mr. Hastings ar lent choice of subjects.

The Railway Commiss Walsh, representing Out

and Col. Coffin, Nova Sc

Tuesday evening. They t

and were met by Mr. Ch

New Brunswick. Mr. B

his Private Secretary, Mr.

ing, Engineer in 1923

is also present. They le

Truro and Halifax, arri

evening and leaving on M

turn to Dorchester, en rol and Metis. From the M to the St. Lawrence and .

to Ottawa .- Telegraph.

mons for Northumberlan

nent, Mr. Gough, by 235

Gibson to England dur

amount to 67,942,511 st

A colored man, name

cently in Carleton, age

brought here by the Bri

ring the American war

troops. The Empress

swick-Royal Artillery,

three children ; 1st batt

1 woman, and two chi

Captain Prust, Ensign

children. The Simoom

tro.n Halifax to Barbad

with the 2nd battalion o

Despatches to the Jou

The Simoom arrived

769,505 paliogs.

The Telegraph publish

Mr. Hutchinson was e

and strong, to devote all to God, and to be faithful homage or our prayers.

per reward. The Master went about doing good | tent without further satisfaction."

mighty." Every member of the visible church has rit-a tri-unity.

out of the deepest piety-by a determination that The reason why he received this name is plainly sta the unjust, that he might bring us to God." 1 Peter, reasons, but a good degree of interest and earnest. the following in the Religious Intelligencer: falters not, and allows no repuise to discourage it-by ted in the New Covenant record : "Which being in ii. 18. "Who his own self bare our sins in his own ness for the cause of God was manifest on the part of to win souls to Jesus. supplication has been neglected by a large inajority of suggesting the religious services. The United in the control of a service is the service of the service is the service of the serv those churches are most prosperous, vigorous and Luke in. 11. "Who can save but God only ?" propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his in winning souls to Christ. be neglected with safety, either to them or ourselves, I equality with the Father in prerogative and power, Rom. iv. 25. Thus the real difficulty was taken out have a nice, snug parsonage, just completed, and it is now, or may hereafter providentially be your pri- in West Virginia, with a promising high school.

"When the spark of life is waning?"

ry that good has been left undone that might have, bility-that our relation to God has not been preju to him, verily I say unto thee, to-day shalt thou be labor with a renewed zeal for our denominational in-there be in every Christian heart a purpose, fixed channel of divine grace. He is not the object of ou "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you same glorious cause, interchange Christian greetings,

To every one the command comes, " Go work in tic stress of Christ's redeeming work upon his death Corintb, the apostle superscribes his letter, " To them and devise ways and means by which they may most my vineyard;" each is enjoined to be faithful and above and apart from his life, character, and doctrine that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, successfully advance the cause of Christ. Such diligent, and to "do with thy might what thy hand | and that his death, as an element in his redeemin findeta to do." To the Christian this is the com- work, is made effective for human salvation throug mand of his Heavenly Father, from the obligation of its influence on the hearts and lives of men, no which he cannot escape, and the force of which he through its vicarious value with God, nor through must always feel. For him there is always work to its removal of an abstract difficulty in the Divine ge do-work that will not fail to bring its full and pro- vernment, which hinders the forgiveness of the peni rightly understand his duty, if he fail in meeting op- | ceeding to the third, conclude with the first.

can do much to secure the triumph of the Gospel. in the Scriptures as the supreme God," there is let difficulty which would "have hindered the forgive- rage and earnestness, they go to their respective There are the careless and indifferent who may be out of view the Scripture doctrine of the two nature ness of the penitent." The fact that the death of fields of labor to battle with opposing influence and encouraged to zeal and devotion ; there are the pro- in the person of Christ, the fact that he is Immanuel Christ was vicarious is plain, both from the repre- win souls to Christ. In a similar manner, also, are fane and scoffing, who may be influenced to submit which forms the basis of his official dignity as Jesu sentative ceremonial and the positive assertions un- the brethren of the laity, and the sisters as well, beto the truth; there are many without God and with- is the Saviour. For, as none but God can save, s der both covenants. The Paschal Lamb, had it not nefitted who, having their own salvation and the out hope who may be persuaded to come to the sanc- none but God can be the Saviour; therefore in th been slain, Israel would have been slain by the sword cause of Christ at heart, thus congregate together. tuary that they may learn the way of life. Well- person of Jesus Christ there must be essential Deity of the destroying angel. "Christ our passover is We wish that more than do would try the experidirected, prayerful effort, on the part of individual What reason approves, that revelation asserts. Not sacrificed for us."-1 Cor. v. 7. Thus speaketh the ment. believers, would accomplish wonderful results in re- the evidences.

may redeem.

LETTER FROM REV. T. H. CROWELL.

law claim on the sinner, the grace had not been enjoyed. That he is, in his mediatorial office, the at the close of our Annual Conference on Cape Sable

Island, I have thought of trying to " report myself," actors in some moral reform, or in the propagation mercy, at contrariety with holiness and justice, af- It is also said that "he is not the object of our ho- as you requested, through the columns of your paper of some religious enterprise, neglected; and of pass- ford no suitable support, while at the best the rest- mage or our prayers." As this assertion is based on but I have been waiting-just as many well meaning ing unnoticed and unimproved many of the almost less spirit takes its departure in darkness, uncertain the supposition of his mere humanity, its refutation Christians do when they gather for religious conferfollows the evidence adduced of his divinity. Never- | ence-in hopes to gather something more interesting continually multiplying about 'us. They will per; Such must be the painful position of those what theless, read the Scripture statement of the fact. No to "say." I fear, however, though it might have had been restored, that his benefactor was the Son of present case to which I have just alluded, my corresprominent an actor in the great life drama is each "First, that human beings do not inherit from God, than he "worshipped Him."-John is. 88. The pondence will not be much improved by the experiindividual, and how potent for good or evil is his in- Adam a ruined nature-that there is no transfer from dying malefactor said, "Lord remember me when ment. fluence. May it not be hoped that while feeling sor- his guilt made to us, inflicting upon us a moral ina thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said un- From our Yearly Meeting I returned to my field of

with me in Paradise."-Luke xxiii. 42. The answer terests and the cause of Christ. The missionaries of deepen in all hearts to leave no effort unemployed, "Second, that whatever be the rank of Jesu to the prayer is an acknowledgment of the propriety the cross in foreign lands, toiling amid discourageand no exertion untaxed that will have any tendency Christ in the scale of beings, and whatever be his na of the prayer. The expiring martyr prayed, "Lord ments in the stations assigned them, separated for whatever to alleviate suffering, to lead the fallen to ture, he is not presented to us in the Scriptures a Jesus, receive my spirit." "Lord, lay not this sin to mouths, it may be for years, by desert and jungle, Christ, or in any way to do good to the human race? the supreme God, or as a fractional part of the God their charge."-Acts vii. 60. Again : the Apocalyp- bail with joy the time when, in the Providence of all. Amen."-Rev. xxii. 20-21. Nor were these talk over their seenes of labor, trials and discouragein the discharge of every duty, be it great or small. "Third, that the Scriptures do not lay the emphe exceptions to the rule. Writing to the church at ments, sympathize with and encourage one another, with all that in every place call upon the name of Je- meetings are calculated to inspire the soul with zeal sus Christ our Lord." 1 Cor. i. 2. What incidental and nerve the physical man with strength, and cause resort to such means for such purposes is almost remarks : step, to go forth to his work of unfurling the banpractice ?

lar,-that " Christ's redeeming work has its relation heathen. In like manner, the ministers of our Chris-unceasingly, -shall His followers find time for in As it will not prejudice the details, it may be we has, and proves that his life, character and doctrine the Lord's vineyard, trying to scatter the good seed activity and case? The disciple of Christ does not to consider the second particular first, and after pre harmonized in their spiritual excellency with the end of the word, and judging from apparent results that of his redeeming work. The writer proceeds: "And the greater part have fallen by the "way-side" and portunities of glorifying his Saviour. Faint indeed Under the second particular observe that the that his death, as an element of his redeeming work, upon "stony places," and among "thorns," and but God " Down of the Kingdom of declaration, all can see how it would increase this will be his faith, partial his consecration, cold his phrase, "fractional part of the Godhead," is likely t is made effective for human salvation through its few into "good ground," and on this account feeling love, and inconsistent his profession, if when God mislead the unwary. Trinitarians neither use th influence on the hearts and lives of men." True almost discouraged, as they gather at our annual and and Providence, and the wants of perishing souls, phrase nor hold the notion. On the contrary, they But how is it so? The Scriptures tell us that it is other stated religious gatherings and mingle their call upon him to work, he does not gird himself and contend for essential and undivided unity in the na so in the very point which the paragraph we are con- prayers, trials, joys, and words of exhortation, income up "to the help of the Lord against the ture of God-the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spi sidering denies. They place its effectiveness, "for struction, sympathy and encouragement, a new inhuman salvation," on the vicarous value of his death terest is awakened, hopes are revived, resolutions are stakes strengthened." Pray for us here also. his appropriate sphere of action, within which he In the statement, "that he is not presented to u in removing, not an abstract, but a real difficulty-a formed, plans are conceived; and with renewed cou-

Apostle. And what saith the Prophet? " He was The Harmony Quarterly meeting convened at Harwanderers back to the During the Old Covenant economy we have declar wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for mony, Queen's County, October 2nd. It was my fold of the Great Shepherd, reviving every Church, ations on the authority of heaven which set forth the our iniquities, the chastisement of our peace was privilege to be present; and as I am not aware that and filling the courts of heaven with joy. Nothing personal dignity of Messiah as supreme. The pre upon him, and with his stripes we are healed."-Isa. any report of that meeting has appeared through the less than unremitting exertion to save sinners by diction of his birth and titular dignity is closed thus liii. 5. Read again in the New Testament. "For press, the Clerk will pardon me if I make some reevery means in our power-by an activity springing "And shall call his name Immanuel."-Isa. vii. 14 Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for ference to it. The gathering was not large, for various party on Christmas Eve, I was requested to publish written language. A kiss would be signified by the

the remedy. They point you to God the Saviour, Is the sont of less value? Are Christian zeal and "stand in the ways, and see, and ask for the old divine law, and the honor of the divine government. the earth, and all through Christian lands, and in every church, there are praying ones. Prayers, The Morning News has made its appearance groans and sighs are going up before the throne, and as a daily. This mark of enterprise on the part of even into the ears of the God of heaven, and he will the proprietor is commendable, and we hope it may deliver.

Our church here at Port Medway has, for some time and for various reasons, been in somewhat dis-DEAR BRO. McLEOD, -Several times since we parted conraging circumstances, But we are not altogether without hope of seeing better days. Some are trying at twelve o'clock, noon, and at seven P. M., viz :-still to sustain the means of grace and forward the Monday, Germain street Wesleyan; Tuesday, interests of the Redeemer. Many of the young per- Germain street Baptist; Welnesday, Union street sons manifest considerable zeal for the cause and Friday, Centenary, Wesleyan; Saturday, Leinster willingness to follow Christ, and give promise of street Baptist.

illing well the places of those who have gone to THE WEEK OF PRAYER will be observed by the haps realize more fally than before the vastness of hold the Unitarian sentiments set forth in the three sooner was the truth known to the man, whose sight been beneficial under other circumstances, that in the fi mities of age, though their hearts are in the work, lowing order, viz. :-- Monday, Baptist Church ; Tuesday, Methodist Church; Wednesday, Free Baptist cin no longer labor as in other days.

Our place of worship has been undergoing repairs, nisters will preside alternately, each in his own which, for some time past, has somewhat interrupted church. We hope for a full attendance, and for a rich our religious services ; but it is now completed, and blessing.

we feel quite at home again. These repairs were made at an expense of several hundred dollars, which is rather heavy, considering the hard times ; and heavier because the repairs were not necessary on account of the age of the building, but because it

While launching out opon the tide of 1869, let head. Therefore, he is not the source, but is the tic Seer, "Amen. Even so, come Lord Jesus." God, they can meet with their fellow-laborers in the hope the Lord will strengthen the brethren for the widely published to the effect that the Rev. Mr. burden so long as it is upon them, and speedily rid Spurgeon, the noted London preacher, has declared them of it. The sisters have been assisting in the that he should no more drink wine or ale professedly work by "getting up" a "tea meeting." We hope as a medicine, but should take them as a regular bethe Lord will bless this means, if he can consistently verage ! Referring to this declaration and the indo so; for it seems for some reason, in these days, a fluence it is calculated to exert, Zion's Herald well record could more significantly note the universal the missionary, with a more joyful heart and a firmer necessary. What is the reason? Well, we have Exhausted by his enormous labors, nervous to exnow a fine commodious church ; we have also a suit- treme, he (Mr. Spurgeon) flies to the wine cup and Attention must now be given to the third particucontribute largely to the interest of our public ser- fee or strong tea, and he pours into these alcoholic to his life, character, and doctrine." Certainly it tian lands who are laboring in the different parts of vices. But we are very moch in want yet. We fires. It is not impossible, nor unlikely that they want that without which all else will be in vain-the | will make him a drunkard. It is certain that the act influence of the Holy Spirit. We want to see "Zion all the realm. Should Ward Beecher make such a

I am now engaged in holding some special services not yet advanced there as it has here, beyond the at East Medway, with encouraging prospects. This harm. He has done the cause of Protestant Chrislittle church is in a comparatively healthy condition, tianity at home and abroad unspeakable harm. but we want to see her "cords lengthened and WESLEYAN MISSION IN THE SOUTH SEA ISLANDS .-The annual meeting of the Doncaster Auxiliary was Christmas is really just at hand, and the New recently held in London, the Rev. D. S. Prout, M. Year right at its heels. How rapidly is time flying, A., in the chair. Says The Methodist Times and with it the day of our probation and our oppor- (London) :tunity to work for the soul, labor for God and bu-He read the report, and expressed his pleasure that manity, and prepare for heaver. Let us be admo- during the year the funds of the society had increased

Wishing you and the readers of your valuable pa- teen years speaking in a foreign tongue, to recurn to per the compliments of the season and the blessing the language of his fathers. The simculties with of God, I remain yours truly,

" A HAPPY NEW YEAR" to all the readers of the earnest, active farme less needed for the salvation of Intelligencer, with many wishes that they may enjoy the churches and the advancement of the cause of all the real pleasures of the season, and be favoured Christ? Oh! that professors of Christian would to witness the return of many joyous New Years.

Wishing you and Mrs. McLeod a long, prosper-

of Christian fellowship,

G. F. ATHERTON.

ous and happy life, with all the enjoyments and

We are glad to notice from the CALENDAR OF

THE UNIVERSITY, that that Institution is gradually in-

There are now 35 students in attendance, and judg-

The Calendar contains its usually full information

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.

In another column, we publish by request, an account of a donation visit, with which we were surprised last week. It is but simple justice that we should publicly acknowledge our thanks to our friends for their liberal and unexpected gift. While the donation in itself was valuable, the feeling of friendship and sympathy underlying it, the germ

from which it sprang, is of far greater value to us ;

being, as it is, an evidence of their appreciation of

would advise our readers to procure a copy.

We remain yours in the bonds pleasures of the present joyous season.

Signed in behalf of the Company.

10 Ma have received a very interesting letter

have the fullest success.

THE WEEK OF PRAYER is to be observed in the City proper, under the auspices of the "Young Men's Christian Association," in the following churches

Church; Thursday, Presbyterian Church. The mi-

The A course of Lectures is to be given at Jemseg. Q. C., under the auspices of the Lodge of British Templars of that place. Rev. J. E. Reud is to deliver the opening lecture this evening, Jan. 1.

ending March, 1868, amounted to £91 16s 9d. The Young's church. There is a growing Gentil popu-

GEO. F. ATHERTCN. rock by the natives, and occupied eight years in Whelan whose case con the Court of Error and has been further respited He is reported to be dep George J. Maunsell a gazetted Deputy Adjut wick and Nova Scotia I of Lieut. Colonel.

> The Opposition of th Quebec Government is pretty certain that Chay At the banquet given that during the past yea ported upwards of 40,00 time Provinces, which the United States. He large portion of the Inte tract, and before the end will be under prosecutio LONDON, Canada, De tached to the night ma Railway from Niagara embankment of 18 feet. sons. 12 were more of fatally.

1-17" Our Fur Trader here, find Ayer's medic ble articles of traffic. wild regions of the N uses, and have an abidi " Ayer-great medicine medies for the diseases often bring forth thei than wampum, rum, feols if they are unsoph civilization .- [Montrea 14December 18, 1868.

BRITICH /

LONDON, Dec. 28 .-Standard approves the were different, and in some cases there were two ties at Nankin. languages on one island. Native teachers, however, Sir Richard Mayne, were very useful, while the missionaries often acted not long since by bre Hyde Park, died yeste The Greecians are fle of the threatened war. church was built of coral stone cut from the solid native teachers were that in his mission-field the islands, though adjacent to each other, the languages Theo, H. CROWELL.

a love begotten from on high, and that regards every terpreted is, GoD wirn cs."-Matt. i. 23. Again, i body on the tree."-1 Peter, ii. 24. If words, taken those present. We were glad to meet Bros. Rev. W. man as its fitting object-by a fithfulness arising consistent recognition of the same truth, the prophe in their primary meaning, and carefully arranged by M. Knollin and J. J. Clarke, M.D., of Yarmouth and the Rev. Joseph McLeod, pastor of the Free Baptist Seas. He closed an interesting speech by arging to from a sense of what we ourselves owe to divine says: "His name shall be called Wonderful, Coun common sense, will express plainly the proposition Shelburne Q. Meeting, who rendered us timely and Church, Fredericton, assembled at his residence, to increased exertions. grace-nothing less than all these can meet the con- sellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father."- which they contain, then the foregoing quotations efficient assistance. Several items of business were give him and Mrs. McLeod, who were expected that Good News.-The A. T. correspondent of the grace-nothing less than an talese can inter the solutions difference assistance. Second rate and Reflector says that Rev. John Fran-ditions of our discipleship and deliver our souls from isa, ix. 6. There is also a record made by the pro-from the Scriptures assert the vicariousness of transacted with a view to the up-building of Zion. guilt. A happy day indeed will it be for the church phet Micah, respecting Messiah, intelligible only Christ's sufferings. And if vicarious, why so ? If The religious conference on Saturday was interesting appointed, persons were to be seen gathering, bring. Mission Society to the Western field, including Utab, when her members come up to this high standard, from the fact, that the names and titles recorded b there were no difficulty in the way of our salvation, and profitable. As the ordination of Bro. B. Minard ing with them eatables, as taste suggested, till, at sends intelligence that in that world of Mormons a when every member considers himself commissioned Isaiah are to be understood in their obvious and li why did he die for our sins? Ab, reader, there is had been considered at our Yearly Conference, and the hour for tea, above sixty sat down to tables rude door has been opened for the preaching of the teral import, essential Deity. The language is very no adequate reason for this extraordinary act of self- he had been duly examined, making it the privilege plentifully supplied from the baskets of the party. Gospel. He was invited by Brigham Young to oc-The church has interests upon which depend her emphatic, and commands attention to the grandeu sacrifice, and, on the part of One so sublime in dig- of the Q Meeting to publicly set hun apart to the thousand persons attended to hear the sermon. He growth and prosperity, interests which imperatively of his being who is the subject of the prediction nity, but that which the revelation itself assigns, work of the Christian ministry, it was decided it Benj. Atherton, Esq., to the Chair, when the follow- conducted the service, without aid or interruption, call for the highest activity of its members, and "Whose goings forth have been from of old, ever "For as many as are of the works of the law are should take place during this session. Accordingly, ing address was presented, accompanied by a dona- after the Baptist order. Brigham Young and all his under the curse; for it is written, cursed is every on the Sabbath (A.M.), Bro. Minard was ordained as tion of upwards of sixty dollars. An extemporancous officials were present and sat on the platform. The Among these the prayer meeting and the Sabbath Consonant with this view of Messiah's dignity ar one that continueth not in all things which are writ- follows: Singing; reading the Seriptures; Prayer; Author of eternal salvation. Hearty responses at the best of the back School occupy a very prominent place. How pre- the affirmations of the New Covenant, and, alike, c ten in the book of the law to do them. Christ bath Sermon, by Bro. Knollin; Ordaining Prayer, by the hopefulness for the future, and a strong desire that tended the delivery of the sermon, and at its close for cious and powerful are the prayers of the Saints! saints, and angels, and of the Lord himself. "In the redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made writer; Charge, by Bro. Knollin; Hand of Fellow- God would abundantly bless and graciously guide all was surrounded by all the dignitaries, who expressed They are the fervent utterances that reach the throne beginning was the Word, and the Word was God." a curse for us."-Gal. iii. 10-13. Thus, if the sin- ship, by the writer; Benediction, by Bro. Minard. present; after which, the company dispersed, appa- the highest gratification, and wished him to some of Jehovah. And yet is it not true that the place of "And the Word was made flesh and dwelt amon, ner escape, it is because the sentence of his sin has The congregation was large, and the exercises were rently well pleased with the evening's entertainment. Utah, three-fourths of whom belong to Brigham supplication has been neglected by a large majority us."-John i. 1. 14. Note the testimony of angels. been met by another on his behalf. How else could interesting and impressive, especially the sermon, as ed, and most prized. Christian professor, be found ency with this fact is the instruction of the Lord to through the forbearance of God; to declare, I say, friends of Harmony very much, especially as we us. We take this opportunity to greet you on your regularly there. The Sabbath School opens up a the unbelieving Jews. "My sheep hear my voice- at this time, his righteousness, that he might be just mingled again with those to whom, on former visits, return. We hope that not only may the harmony Success. Four years ago the Free Biptists orgafield of interesting and promising labour. The chil- and I give unto them eternal life. My Father who and the justifier of him that believeth in Jesus."- we had administered the ordinance of baptism, and which now exists in this church, ever continue to in- nized a Home Mission and Freedmen's Committee, to dren of the country are the country's hope, and the gave them are is greater than all. I and my Father hope of the church of Christ, and upon it, but, that you and your companion may Cairo as a centre, eleven churches, with 990 members here are one." hope of the church. Their religious culture cannot are one."-John x. 27-30. Here he asserts his fences, and was raised again for our justification."- found them still rejoicing in God their Saviour. They be long spared to be a blessing to those among whom and 415 Sabbath Schools. They have also a mission

SURPRISE PARTY.

BRO. MCLEOD-By a resolution at the donation as doctors, lawyers, or magistrates. They had no

On the evening above mentioned, the friends of building, and was called the cathedral of the South

ADDRESS.

lation who ask for religious services. The United some time existed; and we are pleased to know, that the bond of union, which should always exist between the bond of union, which should always exist between Episcopalians. Help is needed in this quarter, and Several families of fu the people of the Prov been warned, however lute neutrality in case Jones, the murderen the 29th, in London, thousands of people we He was attended all ni denied his guilt to the PARIE, Dec. 28 --- Th semi-official Linperialis from Vienna to-day, a Porte will decline to a ence, if the terms of h mitter of Crete or inte The Prussian Gover May an invitation fro leence. De Committee of A ed a petition to the G peace They urge th popula feeling of the peace and to avoid a w Russiahas asked of sion of hogilities until the Great lowers whi January.

It is semi-dicially, Admiral, Hobalt Pash on the Island of Syra s'antinople are percet that the Erosis be sal and Austrian steamer Naval Officer.

A despatch from Government had place coast of Cerigo, to pro volunteers from that]