WHAT I GAVE.

BY ADELAIDE STOUT. I had been adown to the village, The village that sprung like a gourd, On the fair green slope of the river,

There I listened a while to its lord. He had opened his coffers so freely, Responsive at once to the call Of the country, had poured out his treasure, And what seemed harder than all,-

They had taxed all his broad rolling acres, Had levied on flock and on herd :-Then through the deep silence that followed, There fell not an answering word:

As if 'twere in awe of his greatness He counted the stillness of mine; I checked on my lip the proud answer, And thought of the pearls and the swine :-

He'd trample my offering in scorning My soul's hidden treasure to earth: O hearts that hold such in your keeping, You'll estimate truly its worth.

Thou knowest, O "God of the battle," My lips with their anguish were dumb, When they told me death softly had darkened The eyes of my beautiful one.

"My youngest," with eyes like his mother's-She died when this youngest was born, His hair touched with just the soft golden That glints on the silk of the corn.

Then my heart's broken tendrils reached upward, Clinging nearer and nearer to him Who marched by the side of my Allen,-Who wept when his young eyes grew dim.

A stranger hand traced the last tidings; God had broken the staff of my age; I bowed like a tree in the forest, Swept down by the tempest's wild rage.

O God! but to hear the young voices Ring out in our home as of old! Forgive those who murmur before thee, And miss but the clink of their gold !!

The mother's frame quivered in her efforts to retain a composed exterior, as she asked this question. "Kiss me, even if I am naughty. Talk to me just as you are talking to me now. Oh, mother !" And his arms went round her neck again. "I love you so much, and can't bear to have you cross. Don't scold me when I'm bad. "I will try, John; but you must try also." The mother's heart was full. She could not trust herself with many sentences.

An hour afterwards, a bitter word against his sister leaped wildly from the lips of John. Almost before she could restrain herself, a sharp reproof was on the tongue of his mother, but reflection came in time, and she shut her mouth in silence. The look she gave her boy subdued him instantly. Leaving his sister, he came across the room, and putting his arm around his mother's neck, said, with penitent seriousness-

"COME YE TO THE WATERS."

During a revival in a town in Ohio, a man who had been very worldly-minded was awakened, but for some time concealed his feelings even from his wife, who was a praying woman. She left him one evening in charge of his little girl of three years of age. After her departure his anxiety of mind became so great that he could not rest, and he began to walk the room in his agony. The little girl soon noticed his agitation of mind, and inquired, "What ails you pa?" He replied, "Nothing;" and endeavored to requiet his feelings, and divert his mind from the up at his bidding. He could not calm the troubled deep of his sin-polluted heart. After sitting a short time, he rose again, and commenced walking to and fro, as before. Soon the attention of his little daughter was again arrested, and wondering, doubtless, at her father's uneasiness, and ignorant of its cause, she looked up sympathizingly in his face, and inquired, with all the artlessness and simplicity of childhood -" Pa! if you were dry, wouldn't you go and get a drink of water?" The father started, as if a voice from heaven had fallen on his ear! He thought of his thirsty soul, famishing for the waters of life! He thought of the LIVING FOUNTAIN opened in the Gospel, and he heard the voice of Jesus saying, " If any man thirst, let him come unto Me and drink! Ho! every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters!

New Albany, Ind., March 12, 1867. For forty years I have been afflicted with costiveness, and for the last twenty was compelled daily to resort to injections to secure an evacuation. RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS. "The Faculty of the College state in their report that after a careful and minute examination, they have the honor to state that "the pills are not only free from every substance injurious to health, but are composed wholly of substances and elements promotive of digestion, and certain at the same time to act favorably upon the nervous system, &c., &c. They state, further, that the injurious rumors set afloat by the Prussian apothecaries originated "in a mean spirit of trade jealousy, excited by the great celebrity attained by the Pills within a very brief period,"

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures. any of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous dis ease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been urified and cured by it gravated by the scrofu-lous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses. Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. HANINGTON BROTHERS, Foster's Corner. CAUTION! CAUTION! CAUTION THE Proprietor of PICKSTONE'S WASHING AND CLEANSING CRYSTAL, deems it his duty to caution the public against spurious imitations of his highly celebrated Washing Crystal, which is the most harmless compound extant. It is free from Lime, Vitriol, and all other deadly mixtures so common to be found amongst washing compounds. Try Pickstone's Washing Crystal, if you want ease, comfort, and economy in washing, which washes every thing, and has rapid sale. It will be found invaluable for the following domestic purposes, viz.:-It washes all fine things, such as Muslin Lace, Crotchet Work, Baby Linen, &c,; cleaning Sponges, Combs, and Brushes; removing stains from the hands, and grease from Carpets, Cloth, Flannel, &c. It makes Hard Water Soft, and may be used with good effect in Baths, as it immediately removes all condensed perspiration from the skin. A small quantity should also be used in the foot pan. It forms a cooling and cleansing wash for the head, by dissolving a teaspnonful of the Crystal in a quarter of a pint of water; and for cleansing the Mouth, Teeth, and Gums, it is quite a luxury, by adding a teaspoonful to a tumbler of water. It renders linen beautifully white, and unlike other preparations, at the same time preserves the fabric. It contains nothing injurious to life. A child eating it by mistake, will not be injured. If you have not used this Cleansing Crystal, lose no time in obtaining it. Nothing has ever been introduced into this country which has effected such a wonderful age upon Washing Days. It saves vo your clothes-saves your money; and it does not logure the most delicate hands. Pickstone's Cleansing Crystal makes washing a pleasure, reduces the cost of fuel, the wear and tear of labor, and improves every article washed. For Linens, and heavy washes, it cannot be surpassed; for Laces, and fine fabrics, it is unequalled. Chairman of the London Board .- Samuel Baker, Esq. Chairman in Liverpool.—CHARLES TURNER, Esq. The Royal Insurance Company is one of the largest Offices in the kingdom. At the Annual Meeting held in August 1859, the following nighly satisfactory results were shown :-

FIRE DEPARTMENT. The most gratifying proof of the expansion of the business is exhibited in the one following fact—that the increase alone of the last three years exceeds the entire business of some of the existing and of many of the recently defunct ire insurance companies of this kingdom. The Premiums for the year 1855 being.....£180,060 While the Premiums for the year 1558 are.... 196,148

Showing an actual increase of...... 66,088 As the Subscriber intends devoting his whole or upwards of 50 per cent. in three years. The recent returns of duty made by Government for this atter year (1858) again show the "Royal" as more that naintaining the ratio of its increase as stated in former years. Only one among the London insurance offices exhibits an advance to the extent of one-half the increase of the Company, while all the others respectively fall far short of the groiety of its advance.

LIFE DEPARTMENT. The amount of new Life Premums received this year is by far the largest received in any similar period since the in the kingdom. The number of policies issued in the year Las 832, the sum assured £387,752 6s. 8d., and the premium £12,754 3s. 4d. These figures show a very rapid extension of business surprise the lest too room.
