AND THEY SUNG A NEW SONG.

Hear what the Saint in solemn dream was shown Through Heaven's own Gates of Gold; He saw them standing by the great White Throne He heard their raptures rolled!

Christ was the Sun of that new firmament, And there was no more night, While through the Golden City harping went The glorious all in white.

These, out of their great tribulation, came To bow before the throne!

These lifted up their foreheads from the flame And by His name were known! Some on the rack were living witnesses,

And many fell afield; But Christ did greet His Martyrs with a kiss, And all their hurts were healed.

These had to wrestle with wild waves of strife, Long ere they reached that shore,

Where they at last have won the crowns of life They wear forevermore.

There do they drink of Life's all-healing Stream, And quench their thirst of years; All star-like now the precious jewels gleam

Help us, O Lord, to reach that Better Land, A far from sorrow and sin And join that blessed band, all harp in hand,

They sowed on earth as tears.

All safe with Christ shut in.

Feeble and poor the songs we sing! at most, Some selfish Prayer we raise, While the white harpers on that Heavenly coast
