The New York Evangelist has recently published a series of articles on this subject from the able pen of Dr. John Hall of New York, in which he presents facts and suggestions eminently worthy of the thoughtful and prayerful attention of all who love Zion and pray for her prosperity,

Facts and arguments are not wanting, surely, to prove the inadequacy of ministerial support, or how impossible it is for them to make any provision for old age, or for their bereaved families, from the salaries now paid by a large majority of the churches Victoria Cosses. - Bro. G. W. Boyer, writes Province is full of aspirants to Legislative honors, free. At the first Parliament, a

Young men are dissuaded from entering a service and twenty-two in all joined the church." in which the divinely ordained principle, "The laborer while those who are now in the sacred office being required to serve the churches without adequate present support or any provision for the future wants of themselves or families, are bara-sed in mind, and hindered in their work by worldly cares anxieties sufficient to weigh down any other class of men, and render them powerless for good,

We have long thought that no greater fervice can Se rendered to the church than to devise a practicable plan for correcting this terrible cvit. It is, we think, plain that a ministerial relief fund sheared through collections in the churches must always fall to reach and remedy efficiently any branch of the difficulty. Such relief may be most timely and especial cases; but no plan should be recognized as sufficient which makes ministers and shely families thus pensioners on the church. Ob. stously no plan will most the case fully that does not ries as shall provide for the sortable support based apon the cost of living to families who are called to spore in the same social relations, and to maintain the same respectable appearance that is required of the minister and ins family. And second, To secure such a provision for their support in old age, or for their families after their death, as shall relieve the future of distressing apprehensions as to their minds.

Would that every Christian might feel a persona responsibility to think, to pray, and to act with re ference to this great subject, until the whole church is alive to its importance, and has made adequate provision for the present and future wants of her the proffered salvation. No Good Drun Lour .- Philosophers tell us that since the creation of the world not one single particle of matter has ever been lost. It may have passed into new shapes -- it may have been combined with office elements -- it may have floated away in smoke or vapor -- but it is not lost. It will come back again in the dew drop or the rain-it will spring up in the fibre of the plant, or paint itself on the rose leaf. What God dies is perfectly done. The Gospey of the Inventorences, as we have paid in advance the Seast has been provided by Him, and is ample, full, complete. The buman family was in a state of starvation spiritually, without the Gospel. When our first parents fell, they lost in the fall all right to glory, happiness, and heaven, and brought upon the whole human family a like calamity, and had it not been for the love of God every one of Adam's descendants would have rested under the curse of a broken law, and been eternally banished from the presence of their Creator-shut out from eternal happiness forever. This, then, is the condition in which, by nature, we find ourselves placed; and as we look around to see by what means we may receive pardon and become extricated from the condemnation of a broken law, we find that, through the boundless love of Christ, who became our propitiation, and paid a debt, by His own death on the cross, which it was impossible for us to pay, we have a chance for escape, and a way of escape made possible for all, not, as Our list of Subscribers ought to be increased. To some would wish us believe, unconditionally, but as God's Word plainly declares, it is for all that will come to God through Christ; or in other words, all who believe on the Lord Jesus Christ shall be saved. double that amount was voluntarily expended by the people governed in drink. Surely, all the Government extravagances that can be conjured up sink into spirits and beer alone exceeds the entire national expenditure, including the interest of the National Debt. Our army, which does duty in all parts of the world, costs fourteen and a half millions sterling yearly; while we spend over thirty millfons upon gin, whiskey and brandy. Our Navy costs nearly nine millions, and our beer nearly forty-four millions. The whole expense of managing the postal service costs only one fourth of what we spend on tobacco. Mr. Tilley - I will refer the hop, member to the A great deal of straw (out and wheat) is used, for Estimates for the answer. In 1868, after we had which its proprietors pay $7.00 per ton, delivered at been one year in the Union, I found that great the Mill. About thirty hands are employed, and the misapprehensions as to the financial operations of the Mill is kept running night and day. The manager, Mr. Cameron, informed us, that they will commence statement of the receipts from, and payments to, New | the manufacture of printing paper in about six weeks; Brunswick during the first 12 months, ending 80th the demand for the wrapping paper being so great, June, 1868. This statement showed that we had red that they have to devote themselves exclusively to it for the present. It is the intention of the Proprietors would not have entered upon this di cassion now, Mr. to put in additional machinery soon, that they may peaker, could I have avoided it, but I have been go more extensively into the business, which we are glad to know promises to be profitable. The water which drives the machinery bursts forth from the side of a hill, no person knowing its source. It is so gues in the Government, that when an appropriation | pure that no filtering is required, and it renders unnecessary in part, the use of some of the chemicals generally used to purify the material from which the paper is made; thus effecting considerable saving to the Proprietors.
