On Tuesday afternoon Frederick Marshall, aged three years, son of the proprietor of the Porto Bello Hotel, on the Waverley Road, was drowned in the Shubenacadie Canal. The little fellow furnished himself with a bended pin and a thread line and went to the Canal to fish. While thus engaged he fell into deep water and was drowned. His body was recovered, and an inquest held before John Lingley, Esq., J. P., and a verdict of accidental death returned.—Halifax Chronicle.

The Free Press of last week says:—"George McNayr, son of Mr. Thomas McNayr, of Springfield, was drowned on Friday last in the Annapolis river, near Middleton. He went alone to bathe; and after being missed about three hours, his clothes were found on the bank of the river. Finding these, of course, led to an immediate search, and he was soon discovered in about three feet of water. The young man, thus early passing away from his friends, was about 20 years of age, and was universally esteemed for his studious habits, amiable disposition and deep piety."

The Herald of the 16th inst., says:—A dense fog has prevailed along our coast and for some distance inland for the past two or three weeks, and the Steam Fog Whistle at the entrance of this harbor has been almost constantly in operation. Late New York papers state that for more than a fortnight previously a thick fog had enveloped the Atlantic from Hatteras to Halifax, proving a source of great danger and delay to shipping.

More than a year ago now, Mr. Thomas E. Robertson, an English gentleman, of the firm of Kirkwood, Hawkins & Robertson, contractors on the Windsor and Annapolis Railway, died and was buried in Windsor, where subsequently a tombstone was erected to his memory, setting forth that he had been harshly treated by certain creditors, who persisted in imprisoning him when languishing in deathly sickness, his end being thus hastened. The widow was left with three children in a strange land, and after the affairs of the deceased were settled up, purposed returning to her friends in the old country. Passage for them had been engaged on board the "City of Boston," but on the eve of the sailing of that ill-fated steamer, the youngest child took sick, and the mother was unwilling to risk the voyage in the critical condition of the infant. A friend who was going volunteered to take charge of the two oldest boys, thus relieving the lady, who was in a delicate state of health, of the onerous charge of three children throughout a transatlantic voyage. Consequently the names of Masters T. H. and F. R. Robertson appeared on the passenger list of the steamer, and their fate with all on board, remains shrouded in mystery; the mother has followed her children and her husband to a happier sphere than this world has proved to her, and at the early age of 30 years. Hath romance a sadder story?—Recorder.

WELCOME HOME!—The return to Ottawa on the 4th inst., of the battalions of militia, lately under arms, caused immense excitement. They numbered a thousand men, appeared in fine condition, and were received in the Rink by the Mayor and citizens, who served up refreshments, Cartier, Howe, Tilley, &c., were present. Prince Arthur spoke in reply to one of the toasts, and the Governor General to another. His Excellency spoke well as he always does: Mr. Mayor, Volunteers, and Gentlemen, it certainly affords me unspeakable pleasure that I am accorded permission by the Mayor, to attend this gathering. Glad am I to be here, to see you all; glad to give expression to the pluck and promptness with which you responded to the call, to protect your frontier against the lawless invaders—the rough and scum of the American cities. (Cheers). To myself and to the members of the Government, and I may say the whole country it has been the source of extreme gratification. And I may state that, in my report to Her Majesty's Government, through Lord Granville, both in April last, and during the more recent and actual raid, the Volunteers assembled with the greatest alacrity, against a common enemy, and nobly came forward. (Cheers.) On the first occasion, such was their promptitude, that the murderous intentions of the villians were turned for a time, but only, it seems, to be again attempted. On the second occasion, these marauders, as the sequel shows, found themselves faced by men determined and dauntless, whose onslaught was such that any who dared to face them were driven back, pele mele. (Cheers.)

INTERNATIONAL COINAGE.—We lately offered some remarks on the proposed adoption by the Dominion of the metric system of weights and measures, also on the long proposed project of an international decimal coinage. This coinage question is discussed, and a statement of its history and present position is given in the report made by the Senate Committee, moved for by the Hon. T. Ryan. Four years ago the French Government invited the British Government to send Commissioners to a Conference to be held in Paris, consisting of representatives of different States, to deliberate on the best means of securing a basis for an international coinage. British delegates were sent, and amongst other things the Conference agreed:—That a gold standard be adopted, and all good coins thereafter struck in any of the countries, parties to the proposed convention, should be either of the value of five francs or multiples of that sum. Likewise that a gold coin of the value of twenty-five francs should be struck by such countries as prefer it, and be admitted as an international coin. A royal commission was subsequently appointed, and it submitted that the English sovereign and pound might form a convenient basis for an international currency. Good reasons were given for this preference for the English sovereign as an international coin basis; one being that that the United States would probably come into it. Since that time the English and French Governments have made some progress in the direction of establishing an equality of value between the twenty-five franc gold piece, which it is proposed to coin in France, and the English sovereign. The Canadian silver coins now being minted, will be of a decimal character, and, we are told, be of such denominations and intrinsic values as to serve for sub-divisions of the proposed twenty-five franc piece, if the latter should be established as an international standard as well as of the sovereign and of the twenty-five franc piece. The currency of Nova Scotia is already suited for the decimal system, and by an Act of 1868 Canada has placed herself in a position to adapt her currency to an international system of coinage.—Montreal Witness.

LONDON, June 21.—In the House of Lords last night Earl Russel moved that a Commission be appointed to inquire into the means whereby the union between England and her colonies may be perpetuated. He considered that the great national armaments now on foot, and the vast improvements in navies made the question of our relations with the colonies one of grave moment, and argued in favor of maintaining intact the Colonial Empire He dwelt particularly on the perservation of the union with the Canadas. He described the Canadian climate, pointed out the want of communication and showed what obstacles there were in the way of ready reinforcements in case of emergency. He regretted the withdrawal of the garrison from Quebec as imprudent and impolitic. Earl Gray supported the motion for enquiry, but the house adjourned without a vote.

HEART DISEASE CURED.

Freeport, Digby County, N. S.
February 12th 1869.

JAMES I. FELLOWS, ESQ.,

Dear Sir,—I have during several years been troubled with a Nervous Complaint and Palpitation of the Heart, so much so that at times I became unconscious of everything around me; in fact, my pulse stopped sometimes altogether. Hearing of the good it afforded to others, I was induced to try your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, and have derived great benef: fi m its use, and whenever I am troubled again with the old complaint, I shall always have recourse to your Syrup, feeling sure of obtaining relief from its use.

You are at liberty to publish this for the benefit of other sufferers. I am, Sir, respectfully yours,

FANNY HAINES.

Sold by Apothecaries. Price $1.50 per bottle, or six for $7.50.—James I. Fellows, Chemist, Manufacturer, Saint John, N. B.

How few there are who are not subject to some affections of the respiratory organs, who by neglecting premonitory symptoms aggravate the complaints, until disease strikes its shafts, causing inexpressible torture to the patient, and anxiety and distress to friends. Dr. Wilson's Pulmonary Cherry Balsam has, over and over again, proved the best friend to persons afflicted with these complaints, and cures all such disorders without interfering with the regular diet of the patient, nauseating his stomach, or withdrawing from him the nutrition diet so imperatively demanded when weakened by disease.

Old cases of lameness in horses, generally caused by contracted cords, &c., of long standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy, have invariably succumbed when thoroughly treated with Dr. Dow's Sturgeon Oil Liniment.

While many of the so called Condition Powders before the community failed, and been discarded, Clark's Derby Condition Powders, from their merits and intrinisic value, are growing in public confidence and everywhere taking the lead.

The aperient and mild laxative properties of Dr. Wilson's Family Anti-Bilious Pills are the best safe-guard in all cases of eruptions and fever Their Balsamic, tonic, and healing properties protest the coats of the alimentary passage against the irritant and acrid humor of the bile.

A gentleman afflicted with the chronic rheumatism says, "No description of my case can convey the vast amount of benefit I have received from the use of 'Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.' I believe it is the best article in the world for rheumatism.

If a horse has a good constitution, and has once been a good horse, no matter how old or how much run down he may be, he can be greatly improved, and in many respects mads as good as new, by a liberal use of "Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders."

☞Some acknowledgments held over till next week.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF SAINT JOHN:

GENTLEMEN,—The House of Assembly having been dissolved, the seat in which your suffrages placed me three years ago is again at your disposal.

My course in the Legislature during the period I had the honor to represent this thriving and important City is well known to you all. It has been my constant aim and endeavor faithfully to serve my constituency, and prove myself a diligent and independent member of the House.

Should my past course have been such as to warrant you in returning me again as your representative, I shall esteem it a high honor and shall, by renewed zeal and diligence, endeavor to insure the continuance of your confidence.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen, your obd't servt.,

Saint John, June 10, 1870. W. H. A. KEANS.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF SAINT JOHN:

GENTLEMEN,—I intend to offer as a candidate for your suffrages at the ensuing election of persons to represent you in the House of Assembly of this Province. If I am honored with a majority of your votes, I shall earnestly endeavor to promote the general welfare by the initiation and support of such measures as I shall belive adapted to the requirements of this City; bringing the best judgment I can command to bear upon an independant discharge of my duty as your representative.

While I will not consent to join in factious opposition to any Government, I shall, at all times, hold myself free to oppose any measure which may appear to be detrimental to the public interests—regardless of consequences.

Although the powers of the Legislature are admittedly limited, I believe the influence of the House of Assembly should be felt on every subject affecting the condition of the people of this Province.

As the General Parliament has already granted to the Province of Nova Scotia "better terms" than those contemplated and concluded by the "British North America Act," thereby re-opening and altering the original compact of Confederation, I think the Province of New Brunswick has fairly acquired new claims for further and favorable consideration; and that the Local Legislature is the proper place to mature them, and the Executive Government the constitutional organ by which to transmit them to the Governor General in Council. I shall, therefore, feel it my duty, if elected to represent you, to exercise whatever ability I may possess in arranging those claims and in pressing them upon the Administration in this Province, and the Government and Parliament of this Dominion.

I hold the opinion that to impose taxes upon the "necessaries of life" is exceedingly impolitic, and should not be resorted to, except under the most pressing exigencies of the public service. I confess I have failed to discover a justification for such taxation in this Dominion at the present time, nor can I convince myself that the distribution of taxation has been equitable to this Province. I conceive it to be the duty of the Legislature, therefore, carefully to consider this subject, and, if this opinion is well founded, to use every legitimate means to secure exemption from such taxes, and at all times to protest against any taxation not
