DESTRUCTIVE FIRE .- One of the most serious loss." fires with which our City has been visited for a long time past, occurred between twelve and one o'clock on Friday morning, involving the total destruction of a large Steam Saw Mill and out-buildings, together with a fine two story dwelling house, known as the Temple & Pickard property, and situate on Campbell Street. By this calamity, 49 men, who Halifax. The resolve was withdrawn. were daily employed in the Mill, have been thrown out of work. This is the more to be deplored, as many of them have familes to support, and will find it difficult to obtain steady work for the remainder of the season. If we take into consideration the persons who were on way or another engaged about the premises, either as Surveyors, Woodboatmen, and general laborers, probably not less than one hundred persons are deprived of work by this visitation.—Farmer.
