NO GOD.

"No God ! No God ?" The simplest flower That on the wild is found, Shrinks as it drinks its cup of dew, And trembles at the sound : "No God ["-astonished echo cries From out her cavern hoar, And every wondering bird that flies Reproves the Atheist's lore.

The solemn forest lifts its head, The Almighty to proclaim, The brooklet, on its crystal urn, Doth leap to grave his name. How swells the deep and vengeful sun, Along his billowy track, The red Vesuvius opes his mouth To hurl the falsehood back.

The palm tree, with its princely crest, The cocoa's leafy shade, The bread fruit bending to its lord, In yon far island glade; The winged seeds that, borne by winds, The roving sparrow feed, The melon on the desert sands, Confute the scorner's creed.

" No God !" With indignation high The fervent Sun is stirred, And the pale Moon turns paler still, At such an impious word ; And from their burning thrones, the stars Look down with angry eyc, That thus a worm of dust should mock. Eternal majesty.

-Mra. Sigourney.
