bor in your eyes, even if he is your enemy; Pettis, who, by the way, has the happiest faculty of Beecher.

difficulty, be it remembered, that no Post or Way Office securing a room there. age on our whole issue !

TERMS AND NOTICES.

The RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER is published weekly, at the Office of Messrs. BARNES & Co., St. John, N. B. TERMS-$2.00 per annum. PAYMENT IN ALL CASES IN ADVANCE. JOSEPH McLEOD, ..... .... EDITOR. All Communications for insertion should be addressed, Joseph McLeon, Fredericion, Remittances may be sent to either Messrs, BARNES & Co., St. John, N. B., or to the Editor, at Fredericton.

"Some of our Eachanges are addressed to St. John. The Editor's Office is in Fredericton, and Publishers will confer a favor by addressing papers intended for him to FREDERICTOR.

MARKED PAPERS.

For three weeks, the number to which each subscriber is paid will be marked on the wrapper of his ing exactly. For the information of these we number the wrappers. We are in need of funds just now, and hope those who are indebted will respond promptly to the call.

Religious Intelligencer.

ST. JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 25, 1871.

A TRIP TO THE ISLANDS.

on board the steamer New England for Eastport, Brook, situate near the northern head of the island, twenty-nine (29). After the reception of the Re- from each church member, or a Quarteriy Collection en route to White Head Cove, Frankland's Island, some three or four miles from our lodgings. On our ports, interesting remarks were made by a number of three dollars from each Church would be sufficient addition to the officers and delegates of the sides, viewing the scenery, first from one point and in their expressed resolves to make the record of churches, were three ladies and the writer, who ac- then from another, until we reached Whale Cove. the coming year-to give evidence of their increa- We think when the state of our Mission is genercompanied the others more perhaps with a view to Here we were introduced into the family of Mr. sed earnestness and zeal in the promotion of the ally understood all must be willing to do something. pleasure and adventure than in the interest of the Magnus Green, and as the hour of noon was near at Master's cause. denomination. Be that as it may, however, I think | hand we accepted a pressing invitation to view, she declared herself cured by the inhalation ble rock into a huge rocky basin below, forming a be done to save and advance the interests of and perhaps contemptuous glance at the English of pure Republican air from the freer shores of fall of respectable magnitude; again, for a time, Jesus' enusé, Maine. ly offered us a passage to Wilson's Beach, and as and stiff, yet eager to begin another day. lowing morning. Wilson's Beach is, we think, the we move early, in order to reach most northerly landing on the western side of any landlady we have yet met. During the summer

over the top and and anchored firmly in the rocks. entered at once upon receiving the The dwelling, which is separate from the Light-House, is a comfortable one-story cottage, has also been secured in like manner by two galvanized tional family, and contains but ten (10) churches,

FLAGG'S COVE.

Is a beautiful sheet of water, affording a commodious harbour, secure from any ordinary gale that exception of one, reported by letter, and except treasury very slowly, and consequently we have blows, and with its long line of pebbley beach, fruit-two, by letter and delegate also. There has been come far short of meeting the demand upon us. ful fields, extending nearly to the very peak of the years in the past, when there has been more mater- that, with a few exceptions, the only direct efforts paper. A good many are in arrears. Some may hills in the back ground, its fertile meadow lands, have forgotten it ; others may not know their stand- | the comfortable storey-and-a half cottages, surrounded by well-cultivated gardens, which line the Still there appeared no disposition to complain, smooth winding road, and the broad expanse of but rather a determination for a girding of loins called upon to contribute. bay fringed with beautiful islands, form a lovely for more earnest work for the year to come. panoramic view not easily forgotten. About one There were, however, a number of pleasing fea- vidually, and to each Church in its collective camile from Pettis' Beach, where we landed is a Free tures in the Reports. While some of the churches pacity, asking you in the name of our common Baptist meeting house, capable of seating about report having constant pastoral care-and others three hundred. The building is well finished, in- for a part of the time-all have had some labour The Missionaries are very hopeful, but they must side and out, and is certainly one of the neatest expended among them, whether by free will visits be sustained lest "the work cease" and their hopes churches belonging to the denomination. Services from ministers of other churches, or by the pre- be blasted. It is time for us to make use of addiwere held in this house on Thursday and Friday vious Missionary aid so generously tendered by evening, with a very full attendance on each occa- that Society in this District. sion. An efficient choir and melodeon add very A flourishing Sabbath School was also reported Missionaries, and the treasury, though not personmuch to the interest of the meetings. After visit- in connection with each church, which is certainly ally visited by Missionary beggars, and forward

THE RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER.

THE DISTRICT MEETING

how much more if he is your friend.-H. W. making her boarders comfortable and contented of was opened in due form at 10.30, with a large re- of grief; especially when he uttered that despairing our justification is not to be found in the word of presentation from the churches composing the Dis. cry, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken months, her house is mostly full of pleasure seeker. trict. The ministers present, were Messrs. Hartley, me?" POSTAGE - To present any misunderstanding or from abroad, and we felt ourselves fortunate in Parsons, Brown, Taylor, Babcock, Barnes, Smith, The remedy is THE GRACE OF GOD, put up in application of the water of baptism, but by the and Licentiate Rideout. This being a Confer- packages ready for use, and will be sent to any keeper can collect any postage on the delivery of the Flagg's Cove, which makes in directly to the ence Meeting, the time was entirely occupied in person free of cost, on application by prayer and INTELLEGENCEE, as we have paid in advance the post- west and south of Swallow Tail Light, presents speaking by the members of the several churches supplication at the THRONE OF GRACE, where it is varied attractions to the tourist, and several days represented, who followed each other in quick suc- prepared. It is to be taken three times a day fastmay be pleasantly and profitably spent here. cession, speaking earnestly and encouragingly ; and ing, or more frequently if the case is critical. Vi-While there we visited the Swallow Tail Light when the hour for adjournment arrived, all left the gorous exercise is necessary in prayer meetings, and House, which is kept by John Kent, Esq., and in church with the feeling, that this had been one of benevolent operations, and a rigid self-denial of all his absence we were kindly shown around by his the best Conference Meetings ever held in the Dis- ungodliness. The diet should be simple and plain, good lady, to whom we all felt indebted for her trict. The afternoon meeting convened at 21 to such as the "sincere milk of the word" and "the attention. This light is situate one hundred feet, organize the District Meeting and receive reports bread of life." Beware of counterfeits or quacks, perhaps, above low water, on what is commonly from the churches. Meeting opened by the Chair- who prescribe balls, theatres, and other places of known as "Fish Head," and is just above a series man of last year-when on motion it was unani- popular amusement. Adhere strictly to the direc- they refer to heart-work. of very dangerous ledges jutting out from the main mously Resolved, that Rev. F. Babcock be elected tions given above, and ten hundred out of every land. Since the "Saxby gale" the Light House Chairman for the current year. After a few inter- thousand, will find immediate relief. has been secured with galvanized iron rods passing esting remarks, the Chairman took his seat, and Contoocookville, August 1871.

REPORTS OF THE CHURCHES.

This District is the youngest of our denominawith a membership of about 800, situated entirely prise. A Missionary in India at our request has within the limits of St. John and Charlotte Coun- ARY, and the Parent Society is looking to us for her ties. All the Churches in the District, with the support. So far the funds have come into our ial prosperity reported by these churches, and to gather funds have been made at the Annual (Conclusion next week.) -----For the Religious Intelligencer. Sorrows, because there He made the acquaintance this an inward sorrow for sin. The evidence of pardon whispered to the ear by a priest, but in the inward consciousness of forgiveness bestowed by the Holy Ghost. We are regenerated not by the transformation of the moral nature. Sanctification is not mere external correctness of life; it is purity for the anti-infallibility party. of heart as the source of purity of life. Thus the entire Christian life is from within outward.

....

Merely reading and studying the Bible, or even believing the Bible, will not give us an adequate gue, failing to comply with the regulations reidea of Christianity. We may read an accurate quiring all Israelites to fast strictly one day during description of food we never saw, and yet know nothing of its taste. True, a general belier in ice cream, the congregation we determined to re-Christianity can be based on what is written; the move him. On Sunday, another rabbi occupied his evidences of authenticity may be weighed and desk, and an affray ensued, during which, one of conclusions drawn. But many of the declarations the leading officers of the church seized Herzman, of the Bible strike deeper than the surface. They divesting him of his sacerdotal robes, and conductare spiritual, and can be only spiritually discerned ;

If the Bible itself does not give us a complete can we hope to obtain it by a contemplation of the assault.

lives of Christians. Here there is confusion because LOTHAIR'S LUCK .- A London paper says that of the admixture of human fraility. Some of these by a recent decision in the law Courts, the Marquis so-called Christians fall-they belie their profession. of Bute comes into an additional income of $200,-Shall we judge of Christianity by their lives? 000 and arrears to the amount of $500,000. As the Suppose one to seek for a knowledge of virtue and proverb says, "Much will have more." The Marhonesty in the lives of men who lay claim to their quis literally owns the prosperous scaport of Carpossession, how could he find what he seeks? We diff in South Wales, with a population of 30,000. all know what the world is in these respects; how and also the mineral and coal district of which it innocence is ruined by men who claim to be virtu- is the capital. His trustees are about running a ous, and how confidence is betrayed by men who line of steamers from Cardiff to New York. Mr. protest that they are honest. But would it be Disraeli did not exaggerate, in his last novel of soright to say there is no virtue, no honesty, because ciety, the immense wealth of this young gentleman nor its potentiality. At this increasing rate of his f these instances of depravity? So in religion; our faith in its reality must be property, he will soon be in a neck-and-neck race based, not on mere outside testimony, but on an with the Marquis of Westminister as to actual ininward personal experience of its power. Sometimes come.-Exchange, men fall from grace, and many say, Religion is a

A CURIOUS SUNDAY-LAW CASE .-- A case came farce, a sham! Do they say the same of virtue, before a New York court last week which puts the ionesty, temperance, because there are men who Jewish and Protestant opinions of observing the profess to have all these, and yet show by their Sabbath in rather an amusing light. On Delaney lives that they have them not? No. They have Street there is a Methodist church in close proxian inward experience of the existence of these noble attributes of character, and while certain facts the Jews do up their worship on Saturday, so that make them lose confidence in men, their confidence when the Methodists assemble next day for worin the existence of a pure character is unshaken. ship their ears are saluted by the noisy hum of And in our efforts to test the reality of religion, we Jewish sewing machines in the next block. They must have such an experience in our inner life as bore it awhile, and then brought their complaint into court, where it was decided that the case came It is this alone that can steady the wavering, and properly within the meaning of the New York keep the soul firm in its integrity, even amid glar-Sunday law, and that the Jewish sewing machines, ng instances of apostacy .- Methodist. even if they have kept Saturday, must keep Sun----day also. But the oddest feature of the case ap-

WHY IS NOT THE WORLD SAVED? The following is to the point :

against Methodists if they disturb his Saturday The world fails to be saved because so many of worship, that the Methodists have against the Jew those who deny themselves luxuries refuse so often for disturbing their Sunday worship. Can a Jew o give more than those who do not. Much as we worship in New York or in any other city on Saturaud " old-fashioned Methodism," I am afraid facts day, without being disturbed ? Will they take adwould say it failed to do as much even in propor- vantage of this decision and prosecute all who intion, towards paying the expenses of preaching as terfere with their devotions? If so, when will * Then let let those who have been doing continue the sens and daughters of to-day that believe in prosecutions cease? Of course, the Christian erning the temple, and not in becoming the church would not engage in the retaliatory warfare that it would be likely to provoke, but this in-The world is not saved, says one, because there is terpretation of the law seems to accord one party not sufficient house to house visiting, and preaching as much immunity from disturbance on Saturday as in old school-houses and private homes. I think it it does the other from distracting noise on Sunday, Will the Ministers assist in carrying out one of is rather because the labors already performed in DEATHS FROM INTEMPERANCE. - Dr. Edward these plans in the churches where you labor (unless | that direction are not properly conducted. Not Jarvis, the statistician of the General Life Insurance one inhabitant in five requires frequent visiting. If Company of London, furnishes the following statetime is so valuable that a single hour spent in idle ment as shown in the deaths of persons who are of mirth is sinful, then it certainly is not wise for a intemperate habits. He says that if 100,000 intempreacher to employ a week in giving to separate inperate persons be taken from, fifteen to seventeen dividuals the message he can deliver to the whole, years of age, and an equal number of correspondwhen' congregated together, in half an hour. The ing ages who are not intemperate, thirty two of the ninister should attract the multitude, and not the former will die as soon as ten of the latter. Out of multitude the minister. But when people will not ! 100,000 of each, 16,907 of the intemperate will be or cannot come to God's house, it is best to carry dead before fifty years of age, but of those who are the Church to them. But this is the last resort, not intemperate 4266 only will be dead. From and not the first ; and even after thus employed, fifty to sixty, the comparative numbers of deaths the preaching will effect little good unless a permawill be 6413 and 2854, and from sixty years to nent organization soon follows. We have failed to preach Christ clearly, We seventy they will be 45,174 and 35,200

Pen and Scissors.

THE PRUSSIAN GOVERNMENT has assigned a chapel at Kuttowitz to the priest Kaminski-recently excommunicated for refusing to submit to the Infallibility dogma-for the celebration of mass

A DESPATCH from Chicago states that Rev. Elkin Herzman, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Synagothe fast week, he having broken the fast by eating ed him to the door, with instructions to leave. Herzman complained at the Police Headquarters, but was informed that he could do nothing. He conception of the nature of Christianity, much less threatened to prosecute for one year's salary and on the cars professional $1000 in gr slip a gold coat that w person was fied by Mr. stolen fron morning. a gold wate On the ar yesterday, a to escape in man as a this fected his a son, was id tleman from nesday. T snatched a nebeccasis, CROPS IN writing fro

other crew

race, in a

Renforth he and cast a g

were hung

during the

held at th

There we

John office

into consid

from the ca

and those v

a fair estim

the race at

to and from

dent.--- Tel.

day on susp

ARRESTS.

ceased.

BRVB : The weat raining ver; than an ave Crops of al. and bid fair places that

THE FIN. produced a banking, po arrangemen and conside position to rovernment Monday for congratulat having mad

DANGERO quash is in is very unse planking, o the remonst dignant at subject. T abutments i ly, and asce

fore the exp

FOREIGN MISSION APPEAL. To the F. B. Churches in Nova Scotia:

cheerfully allowed herself to become our Mission-when things generally looked more encouraging. Meetings of our Society; and that as only a few of our Church members make it a practice to attend all of our Annual Meetings, only a few are regularly We now come to each brother and sister indi-

ord and our perishing fellow-men, to help this tional means that our part of the work may go forward. Some have been doing nobly.

Wednesday morning, 9th inst., the ministers and ing Swallow Tail Light and its surrounding attrac-prophetic of large future increase. The number the maiorite are doing nothing delegates representing the 7th District, took passage tions, our next pilgrimage was made to Eel added by baptism during the past year, were Kn annual subscription of twelve and a half cents to attend the annual meeting of this District. In way we visited the grave yard; loitered by the road of ministers and others, and all became enthusiastic to meet the present annual demands upon our Soiety. And yet we find we are deficient nearly one

We have engaged in the Foreign Mission Enter-

в. м.

our clerical friends will bear us out in saying that | While our hostess was preparing our meal, we launwe rendered very good assistance in making the ched a skiff, and casting anchor a short distance journey pleasant as well as profitable, and under the from the shore, induced a few pollock to take our "WHERE LIES THE FAULT?"- A SUG- church for Foreign Missions. captaincy of the popular pastor of the St. John | bait. Our success in catching fish was not so great Church, who had formerly resided on the island of however as were our efforts when seated around the DEAR BRO. McLEOD-In your paper of the 4th Grand Manan, we all succeeded in having a very table, to do full justice to the hearty dinner set be- you had an article with the question, "Where lies of those churches which have no pastoral labor atenjoyable time, and I am certain all of us will re- fore us. After dinner we struck the road for Eel the fault ?" As I was at the District Meeting re- tend to it; or if no plan like this is adopted, will member our visit to the islands as one of the plea- Brook, and after a long and tedious walk beneath ferred to, I may be allowed to suggest a thought every brother and sister listen to the cry of the santest of our lifetime. As we steamed out of the a broiling sun, we reach our destination, yet not be- or two. Let me speak of the 1st District. It is perishing heathens, consider their claims upon you, harbor of St. John everything was enveloped in fore a little accident occurred, that for a time cast about 30 miles long, and from 12 to 20 miles wide. fog, and promised a very tedious and disagreeable a damper on our spirits, but fortunately proved The country is comparatively new; and there is iriend to the Treasurer. trip. The first hour of our run was scarcely passed, more trivial than at first supposed. A lady of not much of a money market for the products of however, before we had left the fog entirely behind, our party, in the exuberance of her spirits, challen- the soil, &c. This, I think, in a great degree, and the spirits of all (save the very few who were ged a gentleman to a foot race down the road lea- makes it very hard to get the ready eash to pay for sick), quickly raised, and the time passed rapidly ding to the shore. He accepted the challenge, and preaching. Why might not a new method of "quickly" whatever we do for for our fellowin surveying the coast, asking and answering both started at a break-neck speed. The lady gal- raising the necessary support be tried? Present a creatures. questions, the latter chiefly suggested by Ameri- lantly drew ahead : with a prospect of defeat, her subscription paper to all the members of all the cans, many of whom were on board, just returning opponent redoubled his efforts to overtake her, churches, requesting them to sign what they can. the Judge Eternal with "Inasmuch as ye have done from a ramble through the Maritime Provinces. when his foot struck a loose stone, and he fell hea- If they cannot promise each then, let them agree to it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye Our currency, fisheries, cookery, kitchen gardens, vily to the ground, plowing the dust and gravel give a certain amount of grain or other produce, have done it unto me." Tako. H. CROWELL, and political freedom were discussed by them with with his face and shoulder for several yards; slowly In the winter and spring this could be gathered by frankness, and ignorance on some points, and painfully he gathered himself up, and when we collectors properly appointed, and stored ready for truly refreshing. Some points made by them we reached him, the blood flowed freely from cuts on the opening of the earliest spring market. By were compelled to admit, particularly the " mixed. | his forehead, hand and arm. A few moments suf- doing this, I think there might be enough raised ness " of our currency, the want of knowledge and ficient to restore his equilibrium, and when we rea- to support two three missionaries. Try it one year taste in the art of cooking and setting tables at our ched the cold sparkling waters of Eel Brook, his at any rate. country hotels, and the apparent lack of thrift wounds were washed and dressed by the surgeon We ought to have volunteer workers from among manifested by many of our farmers in the careless of our party. On a ledge, a little to the east of the laity. There are some lay brethren who might and earnest faith. The unbelieving world, i.e., surroundings of their premises, and the lack of paint, where this brook enters the bay, the ship Lord go to work for God. I will enlist for one. For those who have no settled and satisfying religious white-wash, good outhouses and serviceable gates, Ashburton was lost, and her captain and twenty one of years I have felt that God had called me to do convictions, long for some form of Christian faith etc. In the discussion of our fisheries, and the crew drowned, or afterwards perished from ex- more in His vineyard than I have ever yet done. that will approve fisher to then beach and the crew drowned, or afterwards perished from exa comparison of our political rights and privi posure, some ten years ago. One of the survivors There may be many brethren in the Conference if only it could be brought home to them in simplileges, their exaited ideas of Republicanism was is said to have secured his safety by scaling the who feel the cause at heart enough to go also into city and power, there are hundreds of thousands, rather beyond our comprehension, and we had to bluff above where the ship struck - a feat certainly the vineyard and labor for the Lord. Our Saviour now sitting in darkness, who would gladly welleave those yezed questions still undecided when impossible under ordinary circumstances. The resent them two by two. One minister and one lay the bost arrived at Eastport. As evidence of the sidents of Flagg's Cove interred the bodies side by brother together might accomplish, under God, a wonderful effect of the imagination, we might quote side in the village grave yard. A simple and rudely great work. If the 1st District had from four to have set themselves apart as ministers of Christ, and the case of an elderly American dowager, who was executed inscription relates their tragic fate, and six warm-hearted workers, much good might be who are ready to spend and be spent in his service. considerably annoyed with symptoms of sea-sick points out their last resting place - a touching evi- done. Let the District be divided into circuits, ness shortly after leaving the wharf at St. John dence of sympathy for the unfortunate strangers. according to the number of the men to be got into but as the atmosphere cleared and the sea became Here we witnessed the greatest diversity of scenery the work. Let them have intercourse with each questions of the day in a spirit of fairness and canas smooth as a "mill-pond," she snuffed the air as imaginable: the stream comes pouring down other, so that they may have union one with the dor, and to lead through the sea and wilderness of the battle horse snuffs the field of carnage from afar through a deep gorge, with banks on either side. other in the good work of the Lord. and gradually her spirits arose, and as we passed extending upwards, almost perpendicular in places, If my proposition is at all suitable I shall be down the Passamaquoddy, and Eastport came to one hundred feet or more now pouring over a ta- glad; I shall be rejoiced any way if anything can modern science through radical eye glasses, a little almost lost between the wreck of fallen trees and Bridgetown, Mc., August 15, 1871. Previous to our leaving home it had been ar accumulation of rubbish from surrounding hill ranged that a vessel should meet us at Eastport sides-it finally reappears to view, its gently flowand take us direct to Grand Manan, but after the ing water playfully glistening in the rays of the "The symptoms of the "blues" are so peculiar most patient enquiry we found that our vessel had western sun : on and on it flows until it loses itself that most people do not fail to recognize them, and not arrived, and was not likely to do so before in the deep blue sea beyond. Wandering along the languid sensation that runs sluggishly to the lous habits of study, who understand something of Friday. We bore our disappointment with wonder the beach we gaze with awe upon the cliffs reaching tips of the fingers is by no means uncommon. The the most recent methods and results of scientific and ful heroism, and hastened to the Passamaquoddy perpendicularly far above our heads, shutting out singular indigo complexion that accompanies the philosophical investigation, whose minds are open House for dinner. This hotel is large and com- the sun and casting a shadow far out on the sea. blues through its various phases, doubtless is the modious, and is managed by one who seems to This rocky coast when viewed from a distance on occasion of the name. Belts of blue/encircle the by the Christian consciousness and the deep things understand how to oblige and make his guests the bay presents the appearance of immense walls eyes, nose, and mouth, unless hidden by a mous of the spirit of God. Such men will have a hearing. comfortable. Some of our party complained of the of masonry. Soon we are reminded of the approach tache, almost as large as that which surrounds They must, indeed, be gifted with the faculty of ut weakness of the chicken soup, but this was all of night, and after each had slaked their thirst at Baturn, but not quite so luminous; the hands are terence. But a man of this character, whereever he owing to the absence of the chicken when the soup a cool spring discovered by our leader, we relue blue, and copperas is not needed to set the stain thoughts tell till even with those who may not fully was made. One or two extra waiters would certain tantly retraced our steps, homeward bound. An spon any thing handled; the feet are blue, except understand him. His life is a sermon of sweet and ly facilitate matters about dinner time, and be more hour's walk brought us to Whale Cove, when our those fertile little garden spots about the toes so persnasive eloquence. He may seem at times to be encouraging to a hungry traveller. The sitemoon was spent in doing Eastport; all of which I might was divided, and the half to which we ad-hered crossed the beach to enjoy the hospitalities subject goes, leaves behind him blue foot prints in throughout my circuit; but there is no ingathering. The reports of the crops, throughout Great Britain, are encouraging, and the prevailing weather is a court of the prevailing weather is no ingathering. The reports of the prevailing weather is a court of the prevailing weather is a court of the prevailing weather is no ingathering. time to spare. 'Trade is evidently very dull, and short sail in the bay-a bath at Little Beach-then is blue, excepting the sunny sky overhead and the Morison, D. D. all classes complain loudly of hard times, which to meeting; when we found a large congregation sweet young violets under foot. If one could only was to us a striking contrast with business in our assembled. Hev. Mr. Parsons preached a powerful have this malady once for all time, like the mumps, own city. While strolling on the wharf we fell in sermon, and the exercises were prolonged till a late whooping-cough, and measles, there would be a with Mr. Charles Savage, of Campobello, who kind- hour. After meeting we hastened home wearied solace in having it. This, however, is not the of its power. There is a hidden life which is consured us of a chance to Grand Manan on the fol Next day being Saturday, it was required that tain free blue agony of its own, always seizing the tence is only known to the world by the influence unhappy victim when least prepared for the unex-WHITE HEAD Campobello, and is quite a thriving village. Our in time for the organization of the District Meeting, should be affected the same as the body; the that it is from this inner fountain that the outward party was quickly divided up on landing here, and which was appointed for 10 o'clock, A. M. Seven brightest hopes arranged in blue sittings, the finest streams of a good life are to be fed. A religion warmly welcomed in the houses of several warm o'clock found us gathered on the beach near Mr. sensibilities of the mind are put in the blue vase of the line was of the blue vase of the blue vas friends. We were kindly eared for at the residence E. Gaskill's place of business, where we embarked coldness, and placed in the blue window of de- accordance with the rubric, while the mind wanders of Mrs. Capt. Wilson, who, in the absence of her on hoard the boat of Capt. Gilmore, who, with his spondency, and the tenderest emotions of the heart to the ends of the earth. It is one objection to husband, acted the hostess much to our comfort and characteristic kindness, volunteered to take us to wind their pliant tendrils around the blue remains ritualism that the undue observance of forms tends satisfaction. At this place they have a very com. White Head Island. Quite an addition had been of some sheltered idol. The blue, fleshless spectre modious and comfortable F. C. B. Church, and made to our numbers from among the residents of adverse circumstances, is the only apparent in the color of an altar-cloth, or the precise cut of anticipating the arrival of the ministers from St. here, who were also on their way to the meeting. waiter, and bathes the hot tips and throbbing tem- elerical vestments, or the number of times certain John, the Rev. Mr. Smith had appointed a meet. The day was clear and beautiful, but with little ples from the cup of despair. The clouds that prayers are to be said, or the precise place in ing for that evening. Although the notice of ap- wind to propel our boat. The ladies tried to gathers over the soul are so blue, that the silver pointment was very short, a large number attended whistle, and others scraped the masts, but all in lining on the upper side, and the smiling face of of inward repentence and holiness be overlooked. the service, which was conducted by Messrs. Par- vain, "the spruce" was our alternative, and by the loving Baviour cannot be seen. sons, Hartley, and Smith. Considerable interest means of it we reach our destination at 10.30 A. M. The fear of being forsaken and a sense of inabili- the inward power. was manifested, and the meeting was prolonged At the landing near the Meeting House, we were ty to grapple with the ills of life, is no doubt the till quite a late hour, Next day (Thursday), we cheerfully welcomed by Rev. Messrs. Brown, Bab- cause; if this can be removed, the patient will embarked in a fine new two sail boat, under the cock and others. Every preparation had been speedily recover. The Great Physician says, "I ings become matters of consciousness. Thus, for Clubs, stc., together with the Odes of the Bons of to witness what was called a struggle for the skillal management of Capt. Calvin Brown, bound made for the accommodation of expected visitors. will never leave thee nor forsake thee." This cer- example, conviction for sin is not a bare announce. Temperance and Good Templars. Edited by W. for Flagg's Cove, Grand Manan. With a gentle It fell to our lot to be located at the residence of tifies that He is always at hand ready to administer ment by another, but an inward perception. When F. Bherwin and J. N. Btearns. The words and breeze we sailed up the western shore, and soon pas- Simon Frankland, Esq., Guil Cove. This gentle- comfort and consolation. An old Greek Commensed H. Harbor lighthouse. The weather was delight man's father was a Yorkshire man, and was the tator renders this, "I will not, not leave thee; the plain declaration of the prophet. He knew he tastes and occasions where temperance is the theme. were working well, with St. John crew leading, as ful, and as we ran before the breeze, enjoyed a fine first settler on this Island, having received the ori neither will I not, not forsake thee." Bhowing it was a sinner, not because Nathan told him so, but Price 80 cents. Published by the National Tem- they neared Appleby's Wharf, when Reuforth was view of the northern shores of Campobello; while ginal grant from the Imperial Government. In contains five negatives, and constitutes a chain of because his own heart told him. Nathan was perance Society, 58 Heade Street, New York. we laid our course direct for our destination, where this family we were made to feel perfectly at home, eternal constancy. Jesus has been touched with mind were opened and he saw his soul in its true FREEWILL BAPTISTS. The FreeWILL BAPTISTS. The FreeWILL BAPTISTS. The FreeWILL BAPTISTS. we arrived shortly after dinner, and were soon and shall always remember with pleasure the few a feeling of our infimities, having passed through character. In like manner, repentance is not a Church reports 1,161 ministers, and 63,314 mem-

GESTION.

JOSEPH BMITH

HOW TO CURE THE "BLUES."

of contributing let there be an Auxiliary Society | scarecrows of society when none are needed. organized at once in connection with each Church, or let there be a collection taken quarterly in every

you can adopt a better plan), and will the Deacons and according to your ability and as God hath prospered you, forward something by letter or The time of our yearly gathering is rapidly drawing near. In this we are reminded of the rapidity with which we are being borne along down to the grave, and of the importance of doing

Who will respond to this appeal with your money boisterousness, let us be singing religious notes of Corresponding See'y and Treasurer. Port Medway, Nova Scotia, August, 1871.

------THE MINISTERS WE NEED.

they have an abundance; because idlers will neither | There never was a nobler field than is now open move out nor on, but are always in the way ; beamong us for Christian ministers of the largest incause men light their Gospel lamps with no oil of tellectual powers and attainments, if only these love to keep them burning ; because the Church great gifts are consecrated and vitalized by a warm has not hurled heavier shot against the licentiousness and corruption of the times ; because the world has not yet sufficiently learned that our eligion is of the every-day, homelike style, "repicing with those that do rejoice, and weeping o fashion, who mingled freely with all classes; and some its light. Where are the preachers to be found whether found at houses of mourning or feasting, -men equal to these things i in the mountain's solitude of among the noisy

We want men, not only of a devout and consecrated purpose, but of mind and education, men able to darkness and doubt into the land of truth and faith. Not a little sip of knowledge from a Unitarian or version of the Bible, an eager gallop through a few favorite books of pretentious philosophy and portentous rhetoric, with an amount of conceit equaled only by the boundless ignorance that lies behind l'aking care of to day is the secret of success in it, -- not these things, not the extempore ministers ife. Putting off duty until to morrow, is the curse formed by them, coming to-day and vanishing of every day and every hour, to-morrow, are what we need ; but men of solemn to spiritual things, and who in their own thought ternity. They are lost quicker than thought :---

HEV. Jos. NORLE writes from Newtown, K. C. :-

A venerable woman in Oxford County, Me., 82 need to show sinners that His name is " above every and your prayers, and meet the approving smile of other name;" not only in love, but in wisdom, years old, who worked for twenty-five cents a day power, rejoicing-in everything that is honorable. and saved the money, has just given $300, her Instead of spending our time in hushing the world's | wages for four years, toward building a church.

pears in a sentence of the ruling Judge's decision,

which state that the Jew has the same redress

PROGRESS .- On July 1, 1801, exactly seventy joy above all else, -- not in one tone, and that borderyears ago, one of the first steamboats ever built ng on cant, but in the free and social manner of made a trial trip on the Thames. This is the account of it given by the London papers of the day : These are my ideas why the world is not saved : An experiment has taken place on the river for Becauce miserly professors will not give, though the purpose of working a barge or any other heavy craft against wind and tide by means of a steam engine, on a very simple construction. The moment the engine was set to work, the barge was brought about, answering her helm quickly, and she proceeded at once to make way against a strong ebb tide at the rate of nearly two miles and a half an hour,- Ew, with those that weep," Finally, it is because we The Mews and the Press. are not more like Him who came with neither austerity nor levity, oddity, nor tame conformanc

ST. JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 25, 1871.

BREVITIES. A Temperance monthly paper is to be published in this city about Oct. 1st .- Pires still prevail in the woods of Ontario .- Messrs, B. Bever-Now is the accepted time for every personal pre- idge, Junr., and G. L. Kelly, are creeting a large paration to meet God. God makes no other pro- Steam Tannery at Tobique. A Frenchman in New tance to day. If we wait, we do it at our peril. York was strangled to death by swallowing his The day of salvation is now, He who would profit false teeth with some food he was eating .- Trouble by God's elemency, commits the act of unaccount- is anticipated from some Indians in Montana. They able stupidity by delaying the work for a single have assumed a warlike attitude. The English rebellion. Hear his voice calling you from the Government is seriously considering the project of midst of your hurry and neglect, saying, " Come employing their now idle soldiery on regular daily unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden, work, in addition to its drill, and would commence and 1 will give you rest !" But come to day. by making them build the coast fortifications .---Bands of Mexican robbers are reported to have committed serions depredation on the Texan frontier, Come to your work like a man. Take up your and further troubles are apprehended. - The Bank of books, your business, your spade or axe like one Montreal is about to increase its capital to $12,000,who is determined to win. To morrow will be 000, which will make it the third largest in the my soul, however feeble, if he believes and is faith. world, the Banks of England and France being al. One lost day never can be recovered. Like ahead. No other bank in America has a capital of ewels east into the deep sea, our moments sink into over $10,000,000. The known foss of life by the " Westfield" disaster has now reached the sad total of one hundred and seven, and there are yet some very doubtful cases in hospital .- The priests in Chill are accused of burning a newly-crected schoolhouse, because they were opposed to education .-

of last week,-Newark manufactured $5,500,000

SERIOUS . as Mr. Will his son, Mr. Miss Pugsl catch the tr an old tin p flew up and ran away, occupants Pugsley esc had his clot to his hand more seriou -so much

James Chris

NEW FO Johnson & Yarmouth, 100 feet lon boiler shop large quan mill work a in their esta fers to the r me a large for soft co reservoir an provement of the mo employmen employ mor completed.

LONDON,

Wales has l

other despa mitted to a work, Five boy to day. Postal Co Treaties b making uni distance 20 with additi Abbatues Corsica, res La Patril great milits preparation Russia, The fami viously rep thousand d The condit still worse. ure, and th and choler The prop France to 1 Assembly 1 Negotiat France by LONDON, eral distric 116F. Garibald recent seve Prince H Madrid on rabile of Jerusalem, always strove to do good. - de la dela -TO DAY.

every-day life,

THE INNER LIFE.

No man can have a correct conception of the case, but like the toothache, is actuated by a cer- cealed from the gaze of the world, and whose exis- any engagement. He purposes attending the Nova one million dollars in gold has been expended in Beatia Conterence. which it exerts upon the outward conduct. There is a consciousness of its presence in the heart of pected raid. It is very strange that the mind every true Christian, and a further consciousness > to a dependence on them to the neglect of an inthe service where the head is to how or the knees and the outward manifestation take the place of Christianity penetrates to the springs of human

all the shadowy places, and was named the Man of mere forsaking of sinful practices; there is with | bers.

recently raised money enough to purchase a nice favorable .- Eleven thousand barrels of flour were Bible for the School House, to be used in religious shipped for China, from San Francisco, on Friday meetings, and also by the Lodge of Templars." REV. THOS. CONSON spent last Babbath on Bonth | worth of patent leather last year .- It is estimated Branch of Oromosto. He is at present without that within the past hundred days not less than

Like a snow fall on a river,

A moment white, then gone forever."

------

DENOMINATIONAL.

REV. S. SMITH has been spending a few days at cattle and horses .- At a coal mine in Cooper home. He has an engagement with the churches County, Mo., one solid block of coal was taken out, on Deer Island and Campobello. He is soon to which, when broken into small pieces, measured spend a month at Beaver Harbor, under the direc- six hundred bushels.-The stone used in building tion of the Home Mission Executive.

writes : "The cause of religion in this place is low," A NEW MEETING HOUSE IS IN COURSE of creetion at Victoria Corner, Carleton County, 10 H H

Harpor's Monthly for September is on sale at McMillan's. It is full of good things as usual,

1 27 The usual editorial is omitted this week to make room for notes on " A Trip to the Islands."

BUGLE NOTES for the Temperance Army .- A action; there is no depth of the heart it cannot | new collection of Bongs, Quartets and Glees, adapt-Nathan said to David, " Thou art the man," there | music are nearly all new, written and composed ex-

Texas, west of the Colorado, for beeves, stock

many of the great bridges in the country, even as BERISOFIELD, KING'S COUNTY-Bro, G. W. Sharp far west as Oniaha, is brought from Mosquito Mountain, Maine. Texas reports one hundred thousand new settlers during the past year .-- A Berlin telegram of the 8th says, the Cholera has made its appearance at Biottin. It continues its ravages at Konigsberg, where in one day 70 new cases appeared, resulting in 34 deaths. On the following day, 80 persons were attacked and 37 died.

> THE BOAT HAUE DEATH OF RESPONTE. ON Wednesday the great Anglo-Canadian boat race was contested on the waters of the Kennebecasis, A great concourse of people was attracted there championship of the world. The morning was very fine, and the water smooth, so that a start was seized with a fit and fell into the arms of Kelly. His comrades rowed ashors above the wharf, and seat the unconscious man to the Claremont House, where he expired a few minutes before nine. The Deaths in from chole In the A recomment vice comp tute, prohi tions, and a the country LONDON. at Balmora Parliane mission, The Que tion the p Princess L relations of is of friend ing been re London ho in the East upon the T eral recogn time condi upon the c all the pr are thanks ed. The e pressian of thus far a portions of from orin top is of h London, Queen's sy adjournme An elect. day, to fi Charles Bi In the F Budget ag 000 francs, expenses a A bill, p BUIL ASSUL Deputie Asinuading