FAMILY TROUBLES.—In Dutch Valley a few days ago, a young man named Robinson quarrelled with his father, struck him, and was sentenced to a fine or imprisonment for assault. Since then the constable who has the warrant for his arrest has been making diligent efforts to serve it without success, though the young man prowls around the vicinity, inflicting all the injury he can upon his father. One night the old farmer's fences | the city. are thrown down, and hogs and cattle turned into his grain fields, and the next night some other kin- cians, in a general row last night in a liquor saloon, dred depredation is committed. Mr. James Campbell, proprietor of the Victoria Hotel, at Hampton, King's County, was recently convicted before Justice Barnes at that place for selling liquor at his place, there being no licenses for the sale of spirituous liquors granted by the Kings' Sessions. He was committed to jail in this City, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Legislature making the jails in Westmorland and St. John Counties legal places of imprisonment for King's County offenders, until the new jail in course of construction at Hampton shall be finished. The conviction issued by Justice Barnes, ordered Mr. Campbell to be "confined in the Gaol of the County of Kings at Kingston in the said County." Application was made before Judge Wetmore by C. N. Skinner, Esq., for a writ of Habeas Corpus on the ground of informality in the commitment. The writ was granted and Mr. Campbell is set free. Magistrates of King's County will therefore be careful to remember that there is now no "Gaol at Kingston in said County."—Tel.

FREDERICTON WATER WORKS .- John Pickard, Esq., M. P. and Alderman Richards, of Fredericton, arrived from the Upper Provinces on Saturday afternoon. They have just returned from Brantford, Ontario, where they have examined and tested the Waterous system of water-works with a view of recommending its adoption in Fredericton. They are fully satisfied with the tests to which they have seen it submitted, and will recommend its introduction in Fredericton as soon as possible.—Ib.

ARREST OF BRIGHAM YOUNG.—This is quite a notable event. The Boston Journal, in anticipation of it, said on Monday:

At length there appears a probability that the strange, lawless career of Brigham Young will have a deservedly inglorious termination. The admiration which waits upon individual achievements out of the usual course, whether in a good or evil cause, has been lavished upon Brigham to such a fulsome degree that many people have come to regard him as a very able as well as remarkable man, forgetting that circumstances have favored the old sinner hitherto to an extent caculated to stitious belief that he is endowed with supernatural powers.
