Th' angelic host whom Christ has said, shall see In heaven his face.) The hearts of mutual friends; weeps when he weeps; In intercourse with those we love on earth, "Sweet is the breath of morn;" the song of birds, The choral hymn which nature wakes to God, Who will be praised in all his works below, When stealing o'er the hearts of those who look Thro' nature up to nature's Lord. But oh! There is a joy which only Christians know, "With which the stranger intermeddleth not." Compared with this, all other joys are poor, And mock our grasp with shadows thin as air. 'Tis His alone to get who paid the price

Earth holds it not-Time says, 'Tis not in me-The universe responsive echoes back, 'Tis not in me. And still 'tis yours, 'tis mine, If we have bathed us in the crimson tide, Which Jesus shed on Calvary's awful mount. Oh, reader, say, have you This heaven-born treasure sought? If so, In vain may Sinai's height, in livid flame,

Of man's transgression on the bloodstained cross.

Proclaim its penal code of strict demand, Do thus, or die ;-in vain shall death and hell Disclose their dark array against that soul, Shall sound—the dead arise—the Judge appear: Earth, like a folded vesture, shall depart : Still, still your joy, amid the general wreck. Shall live eternal as its Source.

SPEIGHT'S PATENT DESIDERATUM GLUE POT. T has hitherto been found in using any of the Domestic Glue Pots now before the public, that they have genally caused disappointment, for the Flue as soon as sufsciently heated, as speedily becomes chilled, owing to the in melting the Glue. This inconvenience is avoided in the use of "SPEIGHT'S PATENT DESIDERATUM GLUE POT," where the Family Night Light not only dissolver the Glue, but will keep it in a hot and liquid state for everal hours, and the necessity and manifest inconvenience is therefore obviated of having to place the Glue Pot on the bars of a hot grate or over a gas jet, as has been sually recommended, and is absolutely necessary in the use of any other Glue Pot, Another great improvement is the inner cup of porcelain which can be at any time renoved for cleaning, and will be found equally useful for issolving Gum, Isinglass, Gelatine, or any other adhe-

The advantage of having a Glue Pot, the separate parts of which can be removed and cleaned, and when necessary renewed, is sufficient alone to recommend the article to public use, and altogether will be found of a character mmensely superior to any other of the Domestic Glue Pots hitherto supplied, and will be admitted as a DESIDE RATUM IN EVERY HOUSEHOLD, SHOP, OR COUNTING HOUSE.
