TERMS AND NOTICES.

the Office of Messrs. Barnes & Co., St. John, N. B. TERMS-$2.00 per annum.

PAYMENT IN ALL CASES IN ADVANCE. Joseph McLeod, ..... Editor.

dressed, Joseph McLeod, Fredericton. Remittances may be sent to either Messrs. BARNES

& Co., St. John, N. B., or to the Editor, at Fredericton Religions Intelligencer.

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEBRUARY 24, 1871.

GOD IS JUST, AS WELL AS MERCIFUL. the "Lamb of God," that taketh away the sins of nature, they are at enmity with God, they will not understand that they are condemned already, and Christ from entering their hearts, and by its power cleansing their souls, so that the mercy of God influences of the Holy Spirit, because these do not harmonize with their feelings, meet their desires, ing to all men, whosoever will may partake of the waters of life, that none who come to Jesus will be we find? Men everywhere resisting the most enfor we must be born again.

If then, the anger of God abides on the sinner, Christ is his only refuge; if out of Him, God is a consuming fire, safety can only be found in Christ: tice, and that will be eternal.

The following, from the pen of a contemporary,

the spirit reap life everlasting."

three Gospels. If these representations are not nothing of Christ. truthful, from what source shall we correct them? From Nature? But Nature is altogether more Christ offers pardon and life to all who will accept him; but Nature has no pardon for any transgressor. From Providence? Look at the history of and of course little or no Christian education. Now, mankind, at the condition of the human race from they have nearly 100 religious tracts and books, in the beginning to the present time. Does that look | the Hungarian, Slavonian and Romanic languages, like an indiscriminate granting of mercy," on the and 34 depositories of Christian books. About 30 part of the Creator and Ruler of men? Nothing colporteurs traverse the country without hindrance, of the kind. Oh, the unspeakable, sickening mise- selling evangelical tracts and books, and finding ries of men in every generation in consequence of everywhere open doors, the Catholic people being their habitual violation of God's laws! And just among the most ready purchasers. Last year they so long as the violation lasts the suffering will also sold over 49,000 copies, and orders are daily receivlast. And the violations will last just so long as ed from remote parts of the Hungarian forests. there are immortal creatures who allow themselves to be ignorant, careless, or ill-disposed

BE NOT DECEIVED. GOD IS NOT MOCKED. There is in Revelation the assurance that in the final re-Gospel pardon for the repentant; but there is nowhere, neither in the Bible nor out of it, anything to encourage the vague, indolent notion, that God is too kind to allow suffering to follow sincerity."

To all then we say, in conclusion, look well to be well; for Christ is able to save to the uttermost. But if our faith falls short of Jesus, it is only on the sand, and the justice of offended Deity

WHOLESOME ADVICE.

The following advice to young converts and professors of religion, we clip from a religious journal. We ask that it be prayerfully read and pondered. Seldom do we meet with counsel so much to the where, and a large field has been opened for compoint, and so concise as is found in this article. | bined and earnest Christian labor. We hope, in its perusal, our young readers, especially, may be benefitted. Read, ponder and spiritually

1. Consecrate yourself to Christ completely. Time, talents, opportunities, powers of body and mind, are all to be given to Him.

2. The grand daily question of life is to be, "Lord what wilt thou have me to do?" The smallest, as well as the greatest, matters are to be settled by it. 3. Never pick and choose among the Command-

4. To learn duty, read the precepts of the Bible in the light of an earnest piety. 5. Never let mere want of feeling hinder you calls, follow, and let feeling alone. 6. Never be afraid or ashamed to say "No."

7. Hold up your light bravely, though it be but

8. Let nothing hinder daily reading of the Bible. with prayer, and motives. It is like a child, pulling up a plant us from the field of conflict to the joyful triumph. by the roots, in order to see whether it is growing. Rather place your soul where the beams of the Sun

"This ought ye to have done, and not to leave the the Ragged-school Union conduct such "Children's noble exceptions notwithstanding. other undone." Let the two-words and life- Churches." They are usually held on Sunday My opinion is, Sir, that at least once a year all ter son or daughter, a better clerk, a better student, Union is greatly and in many ways indebted, tween them and their congregations.

all censoriousness, especially towards older Chris- meant what He said when He intimated, 'Ask, and sum would have been realized. However, under tians, who may not look at things just as you do. ye shall receive.' Many of these juvenile worship- the circumstances, it was quite a success. We had Remember that each one "to his own Master standpers give every evidence of their conversion. Some some singing on the occasion. Bro. H. made a few Place, on Monday morning last. The Doctor will ported. Mr. Gough, who has before distinguished cash he lost about $5000, no insurance.—The brib-

Never be tempted to stay away from Him by cold- Christ by their lives in those dismal alleys and home, feeling pretty well satisfied. Yours, s. L. C. ness, by unbelieving doubts, by past neglect, by dens which disgrace our city." present fear, by anything. Remember the "faithful saying," " Christ Jesus came into the world to save any earthly friend.

ing to Christ, is stronger than a strong man armed. | the estimation in which he is held .- News.

16. "Without Me ye can do nothing." Let this be the settled conviction of your soul, for without INTELLIGENCER, as we have paid in advance the post | this all else is unavailing, and all effort to grow in he shifting sand. in everything. If you were perfect, what need The Religious Intelligencer is published weekly, at | would you have of a Saviour? "Ask and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you; for every one that asketh, receiveth," and so forth. "If ye then being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the All Communications for insertion should be ad- Holy Spirit to them that ask Him?"-Congrega-

MISSIONARY GLEANINGS.

The following is a brief summary of the latest missionary news:

do not have to pass on to death and judgment to sionary and Bible-reader, who lately visited a hea- usages, and now there is but one tavern. The know their doom; it is because of this wilful blind- then village, where there was not a person who Lodge is still flourishing, having built a fine Hall ness, which prevents the light of the Gospel of could read, or had ever before heard the gospel. They expressed great earnestness and sympathy, wondering most of all why the bearers of these may be extended to them. Men cavil with Deity, public building to hear, inquired about the religion, people? What community can show a brighter question the authority of the Bible, and resist the aud said it was better than theirs; and when the record for the same length of time? In December or accord with their superior (?) reason; hence, al- entreating them to remain and teach them. One | me I was obliged to notify the Ex. Com. of my inthough mercy has sacrificed the Son of God, and woman, with the tears streaming over her face, said ability to fulfil my agreement. I have had a dehas lifted up Christ as an all-sufficient Saviour, say- at parting, "I have never prayed before; I shall sire to visit that church for some time, and hope to pray now the whole day long.

MADRAS PRESIDENCY-TELOGGOS. Mr. Clough, of Ongole, reports that a great work cast out, for He himself exclaims, "look unto me is going forward among the Teloogoos. He has all ye ends of the earth and be ye saved," with recently baptized 38 more candidates. Mr. Timmany other pressing entreaties; and still, what do | pany, Ramapatam, on his last journey baptized twelve candidates, and expected many more to come to the station to be baptized at the beginning of dearing and kind invitations, and refusing to ac- November. Many of the people are uneasy, and cept salvation. There is but one way, and source, long for a religion suited to meet the wants of the and fountain; but one road, and by that way all human soul. The mission sends an imploring cry harvest among this great heathen, but awaking

A missionary in Liberia, West Africa, speaks of the reception of "an old heathen queen" to the then it follows that, all who finally refuse God's | church in November last. Her husband in his lifemercy, which is in the Saviour, will feel His jus- time was one of the most powerful of chiefs. It is said that when she and her daughter for the first time sat down together at the Lord's table, the scene was most affecting both to Christians and

"Be not deceived, God is not mocked; for what- | The Republic of Liberia now numbers a populasoever a man soweth that shall he also reap: He | tion of about 600,000. The emigrants to the colony that soweth to the flesh shall of the flesh reap cor- from this country number in all 13,000 or 14,000. ruption; and he that soweth to the spirit shall of People from the neighboring tribes have readily amalgamated with the settlers, and learned to work Christ was full of mercy, his mission was a mis- with them. Frequent journeys have been made sion of love; but you can find nowhere in the into the interior, bringing to light new tribes, which Bible more terrific representations of the hopeless, show considerable advancement in civilization and eternal miseries of the wicked in the future life | the arts. The colony of Liberia seems destined to than those which are ascribed to Christ in the first | carry the light of religion to multitudes who know

It is said that there are three millions of Proteshopelessly and relentlessly severe than Christ. tants in Hungary, whose spiritual life was for many Up to 1863, the people had no religious literature,

With the new political state of Rome and Italy, the work of gospel effort has commenced a new sult there shall be no injustice to any; there is in the career of activity. Several colporteurs of the British and Foreign Bible Society accompanied the boxes of books and tracts, to be forwarded as soon as possible, and employed two colporteurs to dispastor. There were evident indications of revival: tribute them in the city and the surrounding coun- may God grant them an especial outpouring of His your hope of eternal life; see to it, that your faith try. The Scottish Bible Society also sent two col- Spirit is my prayer. is grounded on the "Rock of Ages," then all will porteurs with Bibles and tracts. No obstacle is put in the way of their operations, and the people receive them gladly. There is a Bible depot in the most frequented street of Rome, and religious books are sold in the neighbourhood of the church of will follow, eternally, such as reject his offered the Jesuits. Some of the tracts have obtained an extensive circulation; one of them, 3,000 in ward his support. I can only say the Lord is good. wickedness, and repent of the sinfulness of their Rome alone. The gospel is freely preached in Rome, by the Waldensian Christians and others, and by three Baptist missionaries. The governeducation in Rome. The Jesuit professors have been removed, and others have been put in their place. The gospel may be freely preached every-

> The remark has been made that "the most nviting and urgent mission-field in the world to-day is Mexico." Many are awaking to ask the way of life. Forty congregations meet every Sabbath for worship and instruction. Multitudes read. and there is a pressing demand for light. The evangelical movements is a popular one, and 23 o valley of Mexico. Several converts, at different points, have recently joined the church. Many, on entering the places of worship among the Protestants, are moved to tears of tenderness and joy, to

CONCLUSION. During the year recently begun, there is reason to expect new triumphs of grace, and new demands or liberality, prayer and earnest labor. Our stewardship cannot always last. This sublime cris- ful responsibilities rest upon the hearers, We are 9. Do not examine too closely your own heart by, faithfully and patiently, till the Master shall call of Righteousness, and the dews of the Holy Spirit, lished in London with notable success. The first their lives in their hand, not counting them dear may fall upon it daily, and you will grow in grace experiment dates back to 1865, when a church was unto them. morning, when the average attendance exceeds the ministers in our Denomination should be made 11. See to it that your religion makes you a bet- 2000. Mr. E. I. Hytohe, a gentleman to whom the to feel the reciprocal love which should exist bea betfer friend, a better workman. "By their writes: "Having visited and addressed several, I Now, Brother, let me tell you, that we had an can testify to the marked attention and reverence exhibition of this on the 3rd of this month. The 12. Strive to show forth the "beauty of holiness," of the youthful worshippers. One feature deserves by sympathy, by courtesy, by a delicate appreciation of the youthful worshippers. One feature deserves notice, namely, the simple faith they exhibit when stock, met at his residence, and left with him the tion of others' feelings, by a constant forgetfulness they request the conductor publicly to pray for amount of $79, $60.86 of which was cash. Had some object dear to themselves or their parents. | there been a little more care taken to have extend-13. Do not set yourself up as a standard. Shun They, at least, never seem to doubt that Jesus | ed invitations, we doubt not that a much larger have gone home to their Father; while others so appropriate remarks, thanking the friends for their be much missed by his denomination, and more es-

Donation.—After the evening service in the sinners." Be more intimate with Him than with Germain street Baptist church, on Thursday evening last, the Rev. Mr. Carey was presented by Mrs. and Shelburne was held on the 3rd inst., with the 15. Never resolve in your own strength. Resolu- V. Graves, on behalf of the ladies of the congrega- Church at East Pubnico. tions are of no avail simply as such. A child look- tion, with a purse containing $132, as a token of

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

REV. JOHN PERRY'S REPORT. DEAR BRO. McLeon—Truly I have derived no ginning the same, was the principal

grace will be as useless as to build a house upon Intelligencer for the past few weeks, especially Social conference. The weather being cold and the reports from my brethren in the ministry. It blustering, our hopes were more than realized in Finally. Do not be discouraged if you fail greatly is a matter of no little surprise to me how any loyal the number present; the meeting was a comforting Free Baptist can deprive himself of the weekly one, and some were made happy, through faith visits of this paper. But while enjoying myself in that finally they should be made victors. reading my brethren's reports, I am reminded that The Home Missionary Meeting was held in the I too have a report to make, although the results evening. After singing and prayer, the President of my labours look so small, that I fear they will having retired, another was chosen, who read the be too uninteresting to place on paper. However, Constitution and made some remarks, after which I suppose I must comply with the resolution of Brother C. Knowles addressed the meeting for Conference. As you are aware my time is occu- three-fourths of an hour, and was listened to with pied with the three following churches-Studholm, marked attention, while he gave a clear scriptural Springfield and Narrows, Washademoak Lake. description of the manner of supporting the cause During the first part of the winter I held a series of of God under the Law and also under the Gospel good effected that might have been, had the church | pleased and edified true condition, as it now stands in the light of an end to answer him, and the faith of the people is Norton Station, where there is a number of staunch of the weather throughout offended Deity, it would be easy pointing them to extensively undermined. A wealthy Hindoo has Free Baptists. This is an interesting place, and no The next meeting will be held at the Central temples built on his grounds. The preaching of | will be organized here. Six years ago there were | Saturday in May next, at 2 o'clock, p. m. the world. It is because they will not behold their Christianity is so readily received among the peo- five rumshops in the vicinity of this place doing own sinfulness, because they do not realize that, by ple, that the opinion is expressed that idolatry in | their dreadful work: a Lodge of British Templars northern India may at some unexpected moment fall | was organized about that time by a number of the Christian portion of the community, who were de-An interesting account is given of a female mis- termined to do something to check the drinking during the time; and a "Young Men's Christian Association" is in active working order. A Sabbath School is also sustained during the summer months. glad tidings had come to them. They crowded a Does not this speak well for the morals of the Bible-reader and missionary left them at evening, I made arrangements with the Ex. Com. of the ery man, woman, and child accompanied them to | Home Mission Society to spend one month with | the shore, with outstretched arms and tearful eyes, the church at Woodstock; but my health failing see my way clear to do so at some future time. At present my health is very much improved, and I hope to see many more days of active labour in my Master's cause. Yours in gospel bonds, JOHN PERRY. Springfield, K. C., Feb. 10, 1871.

REV. G. W. MCDONALD'S REPORT.

DEAR BRO. McLEOD-Doubtless many of your continually. Christ saves from sin, not in it; they Send us men! Out of your thousands, are there ligion, and were instrumental in leading many souls to Christ Indeed. I am led to believe that too Mr. T. says: "O American Baptists! Men! Men! were actively engaged in extensive revivals of re- in that land, by leading them to the Saviour. has other work for him to perform.

> are sometimes made regarding Christian effort. The farmer sows his seed, and waits patiently for the that it is every way a success. harvest. Why not allow the gospel laborer the seed-time first, and think him as profitably employed, as if gathering in the fruits (it may be of other men's sowing). We ought to cheerfully perform sow while others are reaping, we trust our brethren | the saving of many in that community. will not consider us guilty of inaction. It is pleasant I know to be always employed in gathering in the sheaves, but if we are patient, and sow beside all waters, we are assured that he that soweth, and ne that reapeth, shall eventually rejoice together. I am still employed in my old field, where in the Providence of God I have been permitted to labor Church recently the members were much strength-Christ. Eleven were baptized, who, with two effort for revival at Knoxford. his turn; some speaking of trials and difficulties, gambling dens, which lie almost within a stone's blessings of religion far outweigh the crosses and can be what he once was, and what he now is

Christians can appreciate The Church at Houlton has Rev. H. Preble as its rendered it a season of enjoyment such as only

My field of labor is large; for this I am thankful, as it gives me greater opportunities for doing good. God has dealt kindly with me, placing me here in a pleasant part of His vineyard, among a warmfeel that I am His. His faithfulness in the past hard hearts. I am acquainted, as well as all others who love for my son's conversion. brother in Christ.

G. W. McDonald. P. S. I have not forgotten the resolution of Con- ple. A few blessed mercy-drops have fallen. Oh! ference. Had the contributing cards reached us pray for the mighty shower. sooner we should have remitted before this. They were only received at our last Monthly Conference. difficulty is with the mails. G. W. McD. Wicklow, Feb. 8, 1871.

DONATION.

We are glad to record the following pleasing event: Dear Bro. McLeod .- I always teel grateful to God, and to my friends and all who are disposed to find that they can speak directly with God as a give evidence of their attachment to God's serfact, dear brother, that those who make a little sacrifice in the accomplishment of good, will verily have their reward here as well as hereafter. When men of God leave their homes and sacrifice their told that the "Hearer is not justified, but the doer of the work."

Now, some think that all is done inside the churches. I pity the man who refuses to help sup-CHILDREN'S CHURCHES have recently been establiport men of God, who, tremblingly, go forth with instituted at Field-lane Ragged-school, as an off- I hope that the day is not far distant when we, 10. Speak to the impenitent, of Christ and His shoot of its large Ragged-church, which has an as Free Baptists, will "bear one another's burdens, salvation. Remember the care, the prayers, and average attendance of 900 adults. It has been very and so fulfil the law of Christ." It is a lamentable the effort, bestowed upon you. But remember, too, fruitful of sincere conversions. At the present fact, that some of our ablest men seem to do the that the life is more powerful than mere words. time, above twenty of the institutions affiliated to least in supporting the gospel. There are some

The Free Baptist Quarterly Meeting of Yarmouth

after organizing, reports of committees, appointing | dead that die in the Lord.

committees, reports of churches, by letter and verbally, some of which were very favorable, change of clerk of Quarterly meeting and the time of belittle gratification from perusing the columns of the On Saturday, 4th, met at 2 o'clock, p m., for meetings with the Studholm church, but through dispensation. A collection and subscription was any previous Exhibition, notwithstending the un-been united; some, however, that had backslid- At 101, Sabbath morning, Rev. C. Knowles spoke It is said that a new and great excitement has den were revived. The church in Springfield from Prov. xxvi. 13, at the close of which, the of this Province at the last Session towards the recently been awakened in the northwestern pro- is in good working order. At the Narrows the Lord's Supper was administered. A social meeting vinces of India by the appearance of a strange pun- cause is low, yet there is good union and a grow- was held at 21 p. m., in which many took part, dit, who announces to immense assemblies that the ing interest. I spent one Sabbath with the Hen- speaking of the satisfaction of uniting in the Vedas gave no sanction to idolatry, and that the derson Settlement church some weeks ago, and worship of God. Rev. W. M. Knollin preached in Puranas, which do sanction it, are of no sort of value. found them in a very low state; Christian fellow- the evening, from Eph. iv. 30, to a very attentive In Benares, the capital city of Indian idolatry, the ship seemed to be in the background, and conten- congregation; thus closing an exceedingly inter- of Railway will soon be in course of construction. Could the human family be brought to see their leading supporters of the system are at their wits'- tion and strife ruling. Occasionally I preach at esting season, notwithstanding the disagreeableness > been so much affected that he has destroyed all the doubt at some future time a Free Baptist church | Meeting House, Cape Sable Island, on the first be preserved to us and never parted with unless W. C. Weston, Clerk Q. M.

Barrington, N. S., Feb. 18, 1871. HOME MISSION REPORT.

To the C. S. H. M. Society. DEAR BRO.—Doubtless you expected to hear from me and my mission before this time. I could not well leave home until the 7th of Jan. I then went to Lower Perth, where I remained two weeks. I trust good was done, but we saw no special revival. Two persons were received into the Church. They keep up their Conference and Sabbath meetings. Thence I came to this place and found the cause very low. They had held no meetings since November. The Lord is good, and is blessing us. last Session have been judiciously expended. De-Christians have been revived, others are seeking after the old paths, and one has been baptized who the past year will at once be laid before you, together had previously professed conversion. The interest with the estimates of the revenue and expenditure is encouraging, but there are some hinderances. for the current year. The congregations are large for the place, and solemnity pervades the minds of the people. Brother, pray for us.

I have received for the mission $20.06. E. B. GRAY. Grand Falls, Portage, V. C., Feb. 13, 1871.

Bro. Aaron Kenney, writes from Newcastle, and says: he is encouraged to continue his labours in Miramichi, that the Lord has already given some many expect this of the minister, when the Master | the Rev. E. Weyman, that it is decided to pay him a Donation visit, at 4 o'clock p. m., on Wednesday, In agriculture, men make no such mistakes as 1st day of March next. We shall be glad to learn

Bro. Weston, writing on the 13th inst., says: 'Meetings are continued at East Pubnico, up to date," and intimates that some interest is manifestthe work assigned us, and if we are compelled to ed. May the God of all grace bless his labours, to

FULTON STREET PRAYER MEETING. The meetings are crowded and solemn. They are uniformly so when there is any display of the presence of the divine power. The leader of the the suffering portions of the population of France. meeting to-day was, three or four years ago, an infor the last three years, giving three quarters of the veterate gambler. He was overtaken by that mystime to the Church at Tracy's Mills, and the remain- terious and amazing power which changes and reder to the branch Church at Knoxford (four miles | news the heart of the vilest sinner, and brings him distant). In a series of meetings held with the to become obedient to the truth as it is in Jesus. From the purlieus and sinks of iniquity in these ened, and a number of souls professed faith in lower wards of the city, he was snatched as a brand from the burning, and made the subject of renewothers united with the Church. Our meetings are ing grace. In his case, grace triumphed over the still interesting, and we are hoping for an increase powers of darkness. It has given him a good po- able contribution towards the preservation of the of strength on the return of many of the brethren sition in the church and in society, and has placed who are absent, engaged in lumbering at this sea- him in the field of usefulness where he may witness son of the year. I expect soon to make some special a good confession of his faith in Christ. He was converted in connection with the services of the The third Saturday in January, I had the privi- Fulton street prayer meeting. He led the exercises ege of attending the Houlton Q. meeting, F. W. B. | to-day with great acceptance. He is a tall, grace-It was a profitable season to me, listening to the re- ful, and intelligent looking man, and no one, in ports of different Churches, and the account of the looking at him now, would believe that three or labors of the ministers given verbally by each in four years ago, he was a leader of some of those others of revival interest, and other manifestations | throw of this meeting. We have heard him tell of God's power and love, but all expressing their his experience more than once. He often attends determination "to go forward," alleging that the and speaks or prays in these meetings. No one disadvantages of life: this together with the cordial | without the experience of the great change which christian greeting extended to me by each and all our Saviour taught as the prime necessity of our being-"Ye must be born again."

If the establishment and maintenance of the Fulton Street prayer-meeting had resulted in the conversion of this one man only, it would have paid ten thousand more than all its cost.

means of many conversions. One says that prayer is asked by a woman, whose life has been threatened by her husband, that God hearted, liberal people, who sympathise with the will protect her and prevent murder, and open the mboldens me to trust Him for the future. I am A voice from Meriden, N. H., says: God is pourstriving to keep humble that I may be useful, ing down his holy spirit upon this place and upon ment have set themselves to improve the state of knowing that "our sufficiency is of Him." Will the school where my son is, and numbers of his the many readers of the Intelligencer, with whom | schoolmates are giving their hearts to Christ. Pray

Christ, remember at the throne of grace your One from Long Island says: We are like a thirsty waited long. But the Lord is awakening his peo- speaker. Having returned thither, Dr. Vail, one places on my way where there are no Christians,

A pastor says: Just at this time, when everything seems most discouraging to this church, looking The cause of delay is not known. Others of our from a human standpoint, the spirit of the Lord is The House, with their Speaker at their head, then was frequently stopped on the road that I might brethren have as yet received none. Probably the moving upon the hearts of a few. Pray that our misfortunes may be turned to richest blessings. One pastor says that they have 35 conversions in their church since the commencement of the week of prayer; another, that, as a result of continual > thrist. One, that a great awaking has followed from the prayers for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in this meeting. A speaker in the meeting said he had come in to again retired to their own Chamber, and proceeded day, and almost every half hour in the day, pee ask continual and earnest prayer for a union prayermeeting in Brooklyn. A Baptist and Reformed Dutch church have held daily meetings together, and a glorious revival has followed. They believe about one hundred and twenty-five have passed from death unto life. This is God's way of answering prayer. God hears united prayer. God pours out his holy spirit on these united services. God prayer, 60 have made profession of their faith in knows no distinction between these churches. He answers the prayers of all his people alike. These churches sit together in heavenly places in Christ Can they tell where the distinction begins by which one church may come to the Lord's table, and the other cannot.

Street prayer-meeting, but individual hearts will Can these two churches, blessed with such abounding grace of God, through our common Lord and Master, come together at the table of our common Lord at the next communion? Outside the door of this blessed place of prayer we know that this perplexing question is asked.

The week of prayer has been followed by a month of prayer, and may they not be followed by a year year of juilbee to the whole church of God ?-Bap-

14. Let nothing keep you from the Saviour. adorn the religion they profess, that they preach kindness to him and family, after which all left for pecially by his Church, St. Andrew's (Presbyterian) leadership of another onset, and has given notice poned—cause not known.—The young ladies of REPORT OF THE YARMOUTH AND SHELBURNE sively known, and universally beloved. For more graph of the address, implying a want of confidence relief of the poor: will others go and do likewise. The first meeting, at 2 p. m., was for business; to his rest, and his eternal reward. Blessed are the members an opportunity of expressing their interest in Fredericton, on Monday evening last. Subject,-

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

the Session to-day with the following speech: Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council: Gentlemen of the House of Assembly :

I have greet pleasure in again meeting you in Legislative Session. I congratulate you upon the the prosperous con-tile marine, the increased demand for our agricultural products and the remunerative prices received forded the most conslusive evidence of the fertility portion of the Province. The land subsidy authorized by the Legislature construction of the proposed Railway from Fredebility that this highly important commercial line tee that our unquestionable legal rights thereto will for an adequate consideration. The negotiations with the Federal Government for the adjustment of certain ciaims referred to at the opening of the last session have not yet been brought to a satisfactory conclusion.

An immigration Convention was held at Ottawa in September last at which a member of Governport of the proceedings will be laid before you. You will be pleased to learn that under recent egislations the settlement of the Public Lands is proceeding favorably. Gentlemen of the House of Assembly: The appropriations for the public service of the Hon. Gentlemen of the Legislative Council:

Gentlemen of the House of Assembly: deliberations are of secondary importance. It is the first duty of the governing power to make provis- that His Excellency had called upon Mr. Hatheway, to schools where they can receive at least the first honied speech, the sharp satire, the burning invecreaders would be better pleased with our reports if tokens of His favour, and he thinks his prospects rudiments of an education which will qualify them must come, or the wrath of God will abide on us for more helpers to gather in the ripening harvest. they contained the pleasing intelligence that we are improving. May he prove a blessing to many for an intelligent performance of their duties as attention to this matter.

Your attention will be called to a measure for rcgulating the mode of procedure in certain actions n the Supreme Court, to provisions for relieving per management of Provincial affairs.

It is of great importance that the question as to he existence of valuable underlying seams of coal the vicinity of the Grand Lake should be finally During the past six months a terrible war has spread ruin and desolation over a large portion of one of the most prominent nations of Europe, and your consideration the expediency and propriety of of the many; though, if the rumor be true, the The dark clouds portentous of national conflict are now passing away and while we have great | the contest were slight, and they have shown much cause for thankfulness for our national blessings

I teel well assured that our position as an integral portion of the British Empire is so highly valued by pricelesss heritage of British Institutions and British

FREDERICTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Fredericton, February 22, 1871.

men on whom the cares of age and office sit weightily, and men on whom care seems scarcely to sit at all, schoolboys, maids and matrons, were hurrying all to the low, dingy buildings, in which our laws | chances of political change. are forged, and our polity is moulded; for be it of our leal, little Province were convened, to attend | speech: upon the representative of Her Majesty, hear re- Mr. President and Hon. Gentlemen of the Legislative His manner of leading the meeting was very spectfully the speech from the throne, and retire Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly: modest, but also very impressive. He has been the thereafter to the despatch of our country's business. The usual throng crowded the halls, the usual the opening of the Legislature, the resignation of military display deployed before the entrance, the the Executive Council, and the consequent vacausual number of cannon were discharged in the advisable to postpone your deliberations on public minister in his work, and willingly contribute to- eyes of those who would injure her, to see their usual manner, and the usual bustling about of matters until a future day. officers with rods, and officers without rods, took place within. The members of the Lower House Hall, after the Governor had taken his seat, and take courage: were directed by the President of the Council, according to the pleasure of His Excellency, to retire motion of Mr. White, a contingent Committee, conted as Chaplain. The Address in reply to the Address be printed, and Monday, at 12 o'clock, was ors 'stand still and see the salvation of God.'" the time fixed for going into consideration of the These questions are never raised in the Fulton Address. On Friday morning, numbers of Local The Aews and the Press. Bills were pressed in with great rapidity, giving promise of abundant work for the Clerk. The report of the contingent Committee recommended that all stationery required by the Clerk and as- BREVITIES .- A fund for the French sufferers, is sistants, be furnished only on the written order of being raised in this City.-Ninety-eight gas lamps of stationery—that the franking privilege be con- Board of Trade in Chicago, gives $5,000 for the reof prayer, and a year of blessed showers of grace fined strictly to the legitimate business of the House, lief of the French sufferers.—Two men, John Hodd and heavenly blessing? Why may not this be a and that all contingent accounts be handed in for and Wm. Armstrong, were committed for theft, by The Rev. Dr. Donald, who has been for House. Already the opposition seems to be taking the cause.—The store of Wm. H. Pomroy, of Annasome time failing, died at his residence, Pagan definite form, and their strength is variously re- polis Co., N. S. was burned: in goods, books and of this city. The Reverend gentleman was exten- that he will move an amendment to the first para- Mrs. Hunt's school of this city, raised $19.52 for the resolution for their printing being negatived by a FREDERICTON, Feb. 16.—His Excellency opened large majority. On Saturday, besides the usua. bringing in of Bills and Petitions by various members, the Report of Committee appointed to ascertain cost of printing Journals of the House was submitted, and a long discussion took place in reference to the question of preference to be given to dition of the Province as exhibited in the rapid | the Queen's Printer, although the tenders from outgrowth of our manufacturing interests, the exten- side parties were in all cases at a lower figure. sion of our commerce, the expansion of our mercan- After two or three had spoken it seemed as if all that could be said, was exhausted properly, but not so thought the wisdom of New Brunswick. Each The Provincial Exhibition of the past year af- must needs show his quantum of patriotism and economy, although to do so he must perforce repeat of our soil, both as regards cereals and root crops, all who had preceded, and end by repeating himself. After a wordy discussion, and amendments made difficulties existing I did not see that amount of then taken, and it appeared as though all were usual draught which prevailed over the greater and withdrawn, it was decided to print 500 copies of Journals, and entrust the arrangements for publishing to a Committee; which afterwards reported that the 500 copies would be printed by Mr. ricton and Woodstock to the Rivere du Loup has Fenety, Queen's Printer, at $1.25 per copy. Monbeen supplemented by the Legislature of Quebec day, 12 o'clock, had been set apart as the period in a like liberal spirit, so that there is every proba- for moving the Address in reply to the Speech, and notice had also been given by Mr. Gough, of his The efficient protection of our valuable fisheries amendment, implying want of confidence in the during the past year affords a satisfactory guaran- present Government. Great then was the disappointment of many eager aspirants for fame and office, when, owing to the illness of the Provincial Secretary, the Government asked for a suspension of time of one day, a request which the House could not in courtesy refuse. However what could not be cured must be endured, and the warlike Three were forced to cool down their ardour and reserve ment attended on behalf of the Province. A re- their powder for the next day. The only thing now to be done was to adjourn for dinner and fill up the afternoon in minor business. A bill which Mr. Wedderburn had in charge, and which authorizes the Rector, Wardens, &c., of St. Paul's Church, St. John, to receive and hold gifts and bequests for charitable purposes, passed a third reading tailed accounts of the income and expenditure for and was ordered to be engrossed, so you see the new members mean work. To-day the House enjoyed a sensation in the shape of Hon. Wm. McDougall, ex-Governor of Manitobah, who was introduced on the floor of the House by the Hon. Mr King. On Tues-The all-important subject of Common Schools day, at 12 o'clock, the Opposition was treated to will be brought under your consideration. In com- another surprise, when the Hon. Mr. King anparison with this all other questions for Legislative nounced that the Government had resigned, and ion for the education of every child. The children from York, to form a new Government. Alas! alas! of the poorest in our land should have free access | The eloquence that has been lost to the world, the tive, that must remain shut up in its very concepcitizens. Accordingly I invite your most serious | tion! Alas, too, for vanity of human expectation. Messrs. Hibbard, Gough and Babbitt, who have blown the Opposition trumpet for so many years, and so valiantly, to be left out in the cold, and the he Legislature from the undue pressure of private newly elected man from York, who has been poegislation, and to other measures affecting the pro- litically dead for just so long, to be requested to take the leadership of a party! And on the head of this, the rumor obtains that an arrangement entered into, will allow Messrs. King, Beckwith and ettled and your attention will be called to the sub- | Kelley, to co-operate with Messrs. Hatheway and Stevenson, and Young, of the Legislative Council, in the new formation. This will still leave a number, who wished to profit by the overturn of the while rejoicing at the prospect of peace I submit to present administration, out in the cheerless ranks showing your practical christian sympathy towards Government so formed would, I think, be tolerably strong. It seems probable, from the step taken by which a short time since lowered upon the horizon | the Government in resigning, that their chances in good sense in thus saving the people's money. We can hardly understand how certain members, who he people of this Province that should a stern never before sat in the House, and who were supnecessity require it they would now, as in days past, posed by their constituents to have been favorable count all their available resources as only a reason- to the late government, could, before any trial, pronounce decidedly against it, except on the supposition that the step was fashionable, or that hopes were held out by the leaders of the opposition which were deemed sufficient to quiet all scruples. The composition of the House is diver-On Thursday, 16th inst., at or near the hour of sified as usual-a large proportion of new men. 3 P. M., your correspondent looked upon a goodly and many young, who, as affairs pass on, will sight in the fair city of Fredericton. Crowds of receive short notices at our hand. In the Upper sturdy citizens, and crowds who were not sturdy, House, Hon. Mr. Minchin has resigned, thus creating a vacancy, to fill which will, no doubt, be an object of desire to some member of the Commons who wishes to secure himself against the cruel known, that there and then, the assembled wisdom | the Governor till 5th of April, with the following

The House of Assembly has been prorogued by

The resignation of the late Government, since

tion of seats in the Assembly, have rendered it

Those praying for the spread of Gospel truth, were ushered with stately tread into the Upper after reading the following will thank God and The Evangelical Magazine, of London, contains a letter from Rev. C. Jukes, who has been travelling field that needs water to refresh it. We have to their own Hall, and proceed to the choice of a religious inquiry which I found prevailing in many in Madagascar, in which he says: "the spirit of of the representatives of the County of Kings, was was most remarkable and interesting. I was asked unanimously elected first Commoner, on the nomination of Mr. Hatheway, seconded by Mr. Caie. questions about the 'praying.' My palanquin, too, learn to read, and had to answer innumerable proceeded to the Council Chamber, announced their reply to some inquiry about the 'custom of the choice, which was of course approved, demanded praying followed by the Christians.' I was asked and obtained the guarantee of their accustomed did he do?' And often I was requested to 'tell rights; after which, the speech, which appears about the good man who died to substitute the elsewhere in these columns, was read in a full, reso- guilty.' The furore for reading lessons was most lute tone by his Excellency, and apparently received extraordinary. Old and young, of all classes, with many marks of approbation. The Commoners sought to possess a 'paper, that they might, as they said, learn to read the word of God.' Every to business with the Speaker in the Chair. On applied for 'lessons,' and when I walked in the street they gathered round me with the same resisting of Messrs. White, McQueen, Otty, Gough, that all I had left were for other congregations, and Willis, was appointed by the Speaker. Mr. J. who were expecting my arrival; they would take Richards was selected by the Clerk of the House as | no denial.' The Chronicle, speaking of the progress assistant Clerk, and the Rev. Dr. Spurden was elec- of Christianity in this island, containing 5,000,000 of souls, says: 'No such growth-no such rapid extension of the church-no such earnest grasp of Speech was moved by Mr. Crawford of Kings, and the gospel, has been seen in any nation since the seconded by Mr. Philips of Restigouche. It was days of the Apostles. And it is with adoring wonalso ordered, that 200 copies of the Speech and der and gratitude that the missionaries and direct-the Clerk; that $6 be granted each member in lieu | were reported out on Saturday night last .- The sanction of the Chairman of contingent Committee, the Portland Police Magistrate, and will be tried at least one week prior to the adjournment of the in the County Court. The latter plead poverty as than twenty years he presided over the same church, in the advisers of His Excellency. A discussion on The Governor called on G. L. Hatheway, Esq., to and administered to the spiritual wants of the same | the propriety of publishing official debates, took form the new Government. Mr. Hatheway, is not people. Sadly will he be missed; but he has gone up most of the afternoon of this day, and gave most a novice in politics.—Hon. Mr. McDougall, lectured in our bye-roads and bridges, and ended by the 'Manitoba.

ST. JOHN, N. B., FEBRUARY 24, 1871.

The following Government:-Hon. T. R. Council. Hon. G. L. H Hon. George Hon. W. M. Hon. B. R. St Hon. Messrs. Executive Coun The only elec Messrs. Hather and Kelly had

offices and the the latter were DROWNED .-9 o'clock the b kins, who resid ed in the Lo laboring man, day in work ab that he was in Street between ing.—News. STREET RA pany have dec Messrs. John V appointed Dir Barker and Ja ADMITTED 7 O. Stockton, E McMonagle, first-class certi Barry Plant, o of Woodstock and were swo

A UNION P of the Evang tenary church of praying for city. Rev. M was very large Daniel, Mr. V Wm. Welsh, tleman whos H. Ring made strated the e pressed faith disease in a Appropriate l At the sug announced th sider during the services n

DEATH OF ful duty this this worthy a universally 1 among whor deceased ger to a compara devote himse duties of his however, he although the ment in the and on Frid he breathed where he fe "Father Joh members of bered with the pleasure his death w Protestants funeral will Freeman, 18 SMALL PO House has n now infected exception of siderable d Brussels St yesterday w ents should Hospital, al cannot be r child of Mr. Erin Streets cases .- Glob Several a reported six now in full as possible FATAL A nesday, Mr ground from

be put to the

ing way of back. He children. ceased was the village. — Telegrap THE AL dent says: Every th immediate the Albert expected h build the r Harvey. so extensiv pass any o

bert, Esq.,

Fredericto

WESTMO

Allen why bribery an ington by cury, rece graph from known Li had just a from Sava mast had way of be of 694 ton ed there h mand of ( > wrecked Vessel and THE S small pox circular fr Council t this it is the main ease, and must be nation in bered tha of disease neglect o case of s centre of

> > in order

the isola

intected

the 4th J

the citize

especially In repl Battalion ed on 1s will be k Free gra will be others fr The P pondence the past Governm

the head For this to Engl Commiss to deter on the r powers o the settl Questi answer were to Hinck question

Sir Jo amount

out no but had