

THE RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCER.

* We hope our friends will not cease their efforts to increase the circulation of the INTELLIGENCER. That effort in this direction does meet with success we know; hence the reason why it should be continued. All those friends who have interested themselves have our thanks. There is yet room for more subscribers. Keep the offer to new subscribers (see first column) in mind, and mention it to your friends who do not take the INTELLIGENCER.

ADVERTISE!—The following from the Union and Journal (Biddeford Maine) will give an idea of the value of the INTELLIGENCER as an advertising medium.

To those persons who think advertisements are not read, we have a case in point. As publisher of a book last year we advertised it in many newspapers, among which was a paper in St. John, New Brunswick—the farthest east of the continent. Last week we received an order from Sacramento, California, the westernmost of the continental—Religious INTELLIGENCER of St. John, N. B., of a commentary of the New Testament, you will please forward," &c.

* The Annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the United States and British Provinces was held in Washington city commencing on the 24th ult. The Annual Convention of the Associations of the Lower Provinces will be held in this city, on the 6th of July.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—Mrs. M. G.: In the INTELLIGENCER of March 31st, you will find the money acknowledged.—D. P. P.: We have instituted inquiries concerning your paper. If the irregularity continues please notify us immediately.—Rev. G. W. M.: Come by all means!—"Printz" next week.

Mr. GEO. STEWART, JR., having completed the various improvements in his Drug Store, 24 King street, certainly merits the gratitude of the public for the accommodation afforded them in this particular line. The store is finely situated and well arranged for the business, and the stock of useful, as well as ornamental, articles is equally of superior quality and extensive variety. Mr. Stewart requires no recommendation from us. He has had the advantage of a long experience in a well known establishment, while his genial nature and ready wit have won him hosts of friends far and near. We wish our friend every success.
