

What though before me it is dark, Too dark for me to see ? I ask but light for one step more, 'Tis quite enough for me.

Each little humble step I take, The gloom clears from the next; So, though 'tis very dark beyond, I never am perplexed.

And if sometimes the mist hangs close, So close I fear to stray, Patient I wait a little while, And soon it clears away.

I would not see my further path, For mercy veils it so, My present steps might harder be Did I the future know.

Thorpy, and hard, and steep ; And, knowing this, my strength might fail, Through fear and terror deep.

It may be that it winds along A smooth and flowery way; But seeing this I might despise The journey of to-day.

Perhaps my path is very short, My journey nearly done, And I might tremble at the thought Of ending it so soon.

Or, if I saw a weary length Of road that I must wend, Fainting, I'd think, "My feeble powers Will fail me ere the end."

And so I do not wish to see My journey or its length, Assured that, through my Father's love, Each step will bring its strength.

Thus, step by step, I onward go, Not looking far before; Trusting that I shall always have Light for " just one step more."
