TERMS AND NOTICES.

The Religious Intelligencer is published weekly, at the Office of Messrs. Barnes & Co., St. John, N. B. Terms-$2.00 per annum.

PAYMENT IN ALL CASES IN ADVANCE. JOSEPH McLEOD, EDITOR. All Communications for insertion should be addressed, Joseph McLeod, Fredericton. Remittances may be sent to either Messrs. BARNES & Co., St. John, N. B., or to the Editor, at Fredericton.

Religious Intelligencer.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 23, 1871.

THIRD DISTRICT MEETING.

Rain-Temperance-Presentation-Conference-Mistake of Residents—Reports—Joy—Sadness—Speeches—Additions—Laborers Wanted—Encourage them—Buildings—Missions—Preaching—Difficulties—Licentiate—

Friday (16th inst.) was blessed with a fine shower. Farmers, and all interested in their success, (and who are not?) hailed it with joy as a desirable supplement to the rains of the previous days. The good was sure to accrue from it.

A TEMPERANCE MEETING tour of York county, under the direction of the Executive of the Grand Lodge of British Templars. He ought to have had a larger audience. His ad- was passed. Their manner of entertaining all reasoned calmly, clearly and forcibly with them. No one could listen without being profited-with- with the church in Upper Caverhill. out being more thoroughly convinced that the war against intemperance is righteous. Mr. Foster is a thorough temperance man. He has been largely ance sentiment throughout the county.

At 10 a. m. on Saturday the SOCIAL CONFERENCE of the District meeting was held. The number our drive. It is almost useless, I think, that I present was not very large. It was continued for should devote much space to a description of the for the interference of some foreign friends, who There are two Bible depots, and a quiet and steady their experience of Christ as the Saviour. We | versing the river's bank, and surrounded on all | would never have got back to his beloved, but re- of tracts are circulated." difficulty in these Conferences is the backwardness our view by immerging into some deep wood, to keep a foreign army of paid soldiers in his The reigning scandal of the day is the affair of periment would soon convince all as to the good to monopolize the time. This is probably done seemed to laden the air with sweetness. out of compliment to the visitors, but it is unwise nevertheless. It is one reason why no more benefit | in this part of the country is quite advanced, yet | ness, drew his sword and amputated the ear of a | until the investigations of justice shall be com- | and their planting; and that would not be much, | If they would participate in the blessing of Chris- grass and grain are craving it, and unless it soon tian communion, it is important that they partici- comes in greater quantities than that of Tuesday pate in the social religious exercises.

At 2 p. m. the

BUSINESS MEETING was organized. Present: Elders Gunter, Kinghorn,

Many suggestions were thrown out, which, if civilized. acted upon, will be useful. All were exhorted In due time we reach the to look to the Lord, to remember His promises the year was reported as is also worthy of consideration. Frequently we have urged this. We fear it is too often forgotten; and in some cases thought to be unnecessary or formerly owned by Tibbits. even improper.

ONE HUNDRED.

NEW BUILDINGS. of construction. Its size is 22x34 feet. There are Hundreds and hundreds of acres, we believe, are but few to help in the work, hence it proceeds but laid waste, and for long distances along the road slowly, but the brethren are of the class that will are we then to reach persevere till it is completed.

In Upper Caverhill the church is erecting a house of worship 28x42 feet. It is nearer completion wrapped in smoke and gloom. Not long are we who had always been his obedient child. But the visible, while the three old women were all of them than the other. Workmen are now engaged upon it. Thus far it has been carried on without any outside assistance. To add to the building fund of these, this pen of mine must yield an admission ed pastor intimated to his friends in England that admitted, when first questioned, that the three they purpose having a Tea Meeting on Thursday, deur of the scene is too great for me to describe. say to him that an English frigate was lying off the years, in an atmosphere of stifling heat throughout July 6th. It is hoped there will be a large attend- As you are aware, the fall at low water is about 75 | coast and he could run away in it whenever he | the summer, and half frozen with cold throughout course of building. It is built on the lot adjoining the church, is two and a half stories in height, size its maddening leaps, precipitating huge logs over give him no succor unless he would abjure wine, even supposing them to have been admitted, the-25x33 feet, besides the outbuildings. It is to be the rocks; as we gaze on the foam below, and take half a dozen wives, and become a Mussulman. place where they were found was not a fit dwelling ready for occupancy by August 1st. The members peering down into the depths of the mighty clouds Thus abandoned by his former subjects, his own place for a dog. A key was discovered among her of the church and congregation have evidenced a we listen to the deafening roar of the cataract, we their king, and snubbed by all his foreign friends, where this great vault may be has not yet been commendable zeal in this undertaking.

reported.

A MISSIONARY MEETING was held Saturday evening, addressed by Messrs.

missionary work was created. THE SABBATH, as were the other days of the meeting, was a de-

Postage. To prevent any misunderstanding or by Rev. J. Gunter, at 3 by Rev. J. McLeod, and at the basin above the Falls by teams, and this affords ministered. It was a peculiarly precious and cheering season. At 8 a. m. on > the business was again entered upon. Three churches requested help to settle difficulties. Brethren were appointed to visit and labor with them. May God give them wisdom, and the parties to the difficulties humility, and then all may easily Southampton church, made application for, and large success. It was voted to procure blank forms for the First District, and worthy of adoption by the others. It secures uniformity of reports.

Bro. D. P. Harris, a licentiate from the Upper

GENERAL CONFERENCE AGENT. A resolution was passed recommending Conference to appoint a General Agent, whose duty it shall be to visit the churches, presenting the claims of mission and other societies, looking after interests of Sabbath-schools, administering ordinances in churches without ministers, and having a general oversight of denominational interests. The other change in the looks of the country, wrought in a | District Meetings are to be requested to consider, few days, strikes one as almost marvellous. All and, if they deem it advisable, to make similar the crops are looking up ambitiously; the grass recommendations. It was argued that an agency of the kind indicated is a real necessity, and that especially having been benefitted. Driving in the | it could be made in a great measure, if not wholly, midst of the pouring rain was not considered a self-sustaining. We hope the District Meetings yet very great inconvenience since so much general to be held will give the matter careful, and if they ean, favorable consideration.

The business of the session was concluded at noon. Harmony prevailed throughout. Let all in Bristol (Kingsclear) was held in the evening by | pray that good may come of the meeting of so Mr. Geo. E. Foster, A. B., who is now making the | many Christians, and that their deliberations and resolutions may tend to the glory of God in the building of His cause.

A vote of thanks to the people of the community dress was not of the "funny" sort. He did not | comers was most hospitable. May God bless them, aim to excite the risibilities of his hearers; but he especially with "all spiritual blessings in Christ

The next meeting of the District is to be held

UP-RIVER CORRESPONDENCE.

DEAR EDITOR, -Another week has past and I instrumental in sustaining and making successful seat myself to write you, for the last time, at present. versary of his settlement over that charge. He was crowded with persons apparently of various the Lodge of British Templars in Fredericton, a This week has passed away both quickly and was called to it quite as much to his own surprise ranks and standings. The Gospel was well and fact which the members attested last week by pre- pleasant. What, with travelling around, revisiting as to that of his friends and the public; but he carnestly preached by one of the evangelists. On Government would deserve the present the property treated, continue to lay golden eggs. senting him with a very flattering address, accom- | familiar scenes and old acquaintances, and making panied with a handsomely bound copy of the Bible. inroads into places hitherto unexplored by me, the church, with energy and devotion unexcelled by on a visit, preached to large and attentive congre-The G. L. Executive could not have made a more days have seemed to pass very rapidly. On Mon- any of his predecessors. His pastorate cannot be gations. The feeling manifested, especially by the judicious selection, and we have no doubt he will day morning, in company with a friend, I left do much to strengthen and increase the Temper- Tracy's Mills for a trip to the Grand Falls. Provided with a good conveyance, and feasting upon the beauties so peculiar in this section of the country through which we passed, we much enjoyed about two hours, during which many spoke of country. At times we would find ourselves tra- have now suffered terribly for their kindness, he sale of the Scriptures goes on, and a large number have been in meetings where there was less activisides by scenes calculated to charm the lover of ity, and also where there was more. One chief | Nature; then suddenly we would be shut out from of the resident Christians. They allow the visitors | which gave forth such richness of perfume, and | parish, to defend him with bayonets and bullets, | the Convent of Picpus. So highly roused has pub- | results likely to accrue. The cost would be small

> THE FARMING may be very light. As we pass up the river we

TOBIQUE VILLAGE,

ley, Garraty, Sherwood and Harris. Elder King- impresses us much with the beauty of its situation. | them who take the sword. horn was appointed to the chair. Reports were The "Flats," below the village, are very beautiful received from thirteen churches. Last year there we think. The approach to the village by river were fifteen reports, which were few enough, since reminds us very much of that of Fredericton. encouraging. Souls had been converted. Over | notice as we pass along, and away up in the forests, these the angels had rejoiced, and certainly Chris- on both sides, as far as the eye can reach, we to preside, that "Ignorance is the mother of devo- Guards—we, however, being admitted inside the tians ought also to have joy. But while all were see lofty columns of smoke curling up to the tion." So many blunders did he make, that he door under cover of the official pass and signatures. glad because of sinners saved, there were many sky and proclaiming, in convincing language, determined to be considered incapable of making a In the court-yard, under the shade of some fine things to make the heart sad. "The cause is low that fire is at work. We are informed that -the love of many has waxed cold," or language it is raging to an alarming extent. Here to this effect, was embodied in the majority of too we notice an Indian Village, composed of power; but when he made them say he could not business, and begged permission to see what was reports; and of course those churches which did | houses, many of which are superior to those occunot report at all were naturally considered equally | pied by more cultivated whites. A Roman Catholic | Church, too, is here erected, and thus in their zeal Remarks were made by Messrs. Kinghorn, Yerxa, to propagate their peculiar tenets, the inhabitants the religion of the Pope of Rome, and all the ings communicated one with the other, by means Carlisle, Gunter, McLeod, Currie and Foster. afford an example to many who claim to be more soldiers that stood round about the Pope with of an old door which still exists at the back of concerning His work, and to take encouragement | and soon find ourselves about to cross the noble | have him to be their ruler, for he was their minister, | acres, laid out with care and furnished with fruit therefrom. The whole number of additions during | bridge which spans its waters gliding over their rocky bed. But what is this that warns us not to proceed? "$3.00 fine for driving over this bridge," is done was very poor preaching, but they did not forcing pits and hot-houses, and long alleys with This is less than last year, when one hundred and pasted up before us. What a dilemma truly we want a minister to lord it over the State. So they vines trained over them. Through the old door twenty-three were returned. The amount of labor | are in. No other means of crossing, and not having | upset his throne, shut up his house, and called | above mentioned we passed into the Sisters' garexpended was about the same as last year, which so much money at our command that we thus cared was very small. The cry is for laborers. The field to dispense with it, we are truly in an unenviable in every section is represented as being ready to position. However, we carefully consider the matharvest, but laborers to gather in are not forthcom- | ter, and after investigation, find evidence that a ing. We can only commend the direction of our part of the board containing an all-important Lord to the attention of Christians—"Pray ye the | clause has been broken off; and taking advantage Lord of the harvest that He will send forth more of what we supposed was on that part, pass over, and he went. He kept an Inquisition-a nicely ad- forty-nine;" "Rochefoucauld," "De Noailles," laborers." The suggestion of a brother in the and find our conjectures to be right. In this stream justed machine to make all men think alike—and "Montmorency," "the great Lafavette," the whole meeting that ministers and others take some pains there is considerable lumber. Some on rocks and when one of his people differed from him, he put family of the Talleyrand-Perigords, and legions of shoals, and some on the shore, having been left him into this machine and shortened or stretched Princes and Princesses. Some of the vaults have to discover and encourage those who may have there in vast "jams" when the water fell. Just as him, as the case required, until he was adjusted to been opened, and many lead coffins, half covered even the faintest leanings toward the sacred calling, we cross over the bridge, we notice in the Little the regular standard of faith. Sometimes the with rotting velvet and gold-lace, lie exposed to that has visited this part for years has been and is At Upper Queensbury a meeting-house is in course now raging along the Grand Falls Portage. nothing but blackness meets the eye. Right glad lightful day, neither too warm nor too cold. The scene. Here, at the base of the him, and at the loot of the Narrows, is a large cove, in which extensive Feretti's pastorate was the longest as it is the last, French midwifery, and in cases of violent delirium: scene. Here, at the base of the hill, and at the foot | never pastor there it is quite as true to say that Dr. | accounted for ; I have seen such things used in by Rev. S. E. Currie. The congregations were a considerable branch of industry to the inhabitants. large. May we not confidently hope that the word The river here forms two grand curves, and its spoken was not in vain? May God grant it to be waters, having assumed their accustomed stillness, and those who never savingly knew Christ. At present a magnificent contrast to the deep green of Bear Island and Prince William there was also the dark woods, which cover the mountains on preaching by Brethren Kinghorn, Currie, Shaw, both sides. In the village are a Grammar School, Gunter and Garraty. At the close of the afternoon | two Temperance societies, several stores, and, we | were plain talk: service the ordinance of the Lord's Supper was ad- regret to say, several rumshops. On our return HOMEWARD.

THE GREATEST FIRE

GRAND FALLS,

> we pass up the Aroostook, cross the boundary line, indicated by an iron post bearing the names of Lieut. Col. Estcourt and Albert Smith, Commisits Falls, which, in themselves, are of no striking perate strain, the one to make some faint approxibeauty, is a fine stream of water flowing through a plendid tract of country.

FORT FAIRFIELD,

received, license from the District. Bro. H. is a boundary line, is a very neat and flourishing vil- for the house of God, where, theoretically, we all past seventy. The other two have been removed. pious and worthy brother, and we hope may have lage. Cleanliness and order are everywhere, and go to be reminded of our common origin and des- as they were rendered violent by the crowd and the country all the way down to Alva is really fine. all the chignons, and all the looked up—a soft, pale face, with sunken eyes correspondent of the Boston Journal says that Dr. church reports. A good idea, already adopted by | Extensive farms, evidences of the thrift and enter- feathers and furbelows in one's wardrobe. The shaded by the frills of a great cap. She looked at | Bliss has returned from Indiana, where he found prise of their owners, are on every hand. Large wearer is to carry all this piled agony to the sanc- me dazedly, without taking any notice, and stoop- that Mrs. Matthews, the mother of Vice-President duced among our people, and that was, that no her neighbor. cattle were allowed to graze thereon. The whole | Shall we ever get back to the standards of good | find it no easy matter to clear themselves of blame, | County of Aroostook is, generally speaking, a fine taste and unobtrusive piety in this? Will not good for though there are doubtless many suspicious cirfarming country. As we passed down we noticed Christian people, especially those whose wealth and cumstances that may be explained away, there are tent brought from San Francisco, and the preaching is in a maintain tent tent brought from San Francisco, and the preachers old Mars Hill to the left of us, covered to a great refinement, make them the proper and only efficient also hard facts which will remain hard facts in spite are dealing heavy blows upon the Mormon practices. extent with dense forests. In good time we reach- leaders in such a reform, will not the pulpit in of the most elaborate attempts at refutation. ed the place of our departure, not only pleased but every church, and of every sect, unite in the effort Paris Correspondent of the London Times. benefitted, we believe, with our short trip.

Centreville, C. Co., June 10, 1871. The above was mailed on the 10th, but did not reach our office till the 19th. Why ten days are required for the transmission of a letter so short a distance it is hard to understand. - [ED. INTEL.]

____ DR. FERETTI'S JUBILEE.

A SILVER WEDDING IN ROME. The twenty-fifth anniversary of the rule of Pope Pius Ninth was celebrated on the 16th inst. The ing crowded with simple working men and work-New York Observer, of the 15th, facetiously refers | ing women (this, too, at a time when fetes and holito the fact, giving rather a humorous though true days were particularly rife), all earnestly listening synopsis of the history of "his holiness" since his and pious Spanish evangelist, and joined with accession to the Papal chair. How are the mighty heartiness in many hymns adapted from some of

The Rev. Dr. Mastai Feretti, pastor of the first | pilgrim and a stranger," and other similar ones. church of Rome, Italy, commonly called Pope of On Sunday evening, the patio, or inner court, or Rome, celebrates, to-morrow, the twenty-fifth anni- quadrangle, of the mission house Calle Zaragoza given a quarter of a century to the service of the and fair, eminent preachers from Madrid, who were onsidered successful. He had hardly become ac- strangers who had come into Seville first from mere hepherd, and in 1848 he was compelled to throw does, at all events (meaning the preacher)-he side his pastoral garments, to put on the attire of spoke of Jesus Christ all the time," This man and uctant flock. From that time onward, his pastorate has been marked with discontent among his people, and blunders on his part. He has been obliged hould confine his attentions to the spiritual. want to do. His temporalities were his living. their cemetery, a lovely spot, where, under the heretic put in never came out. This was the case the light of the day, awaiting an examination at longing to Whittier. In connection therewith is a of Bishop Reese, of Michigan, who was sent for to the hands of the Minister of Justice. large tract of land, containing about 2,000 acres, Rome by one of Dr. Feretti's predecessors. The bishop was put in to be reformed into necessary uniformity, but his people never heard of him again. At the extreme end of the garden, however, are Now it came to pass, when the new king V. E. the three little buts, side by side, resembling white to the Dr. unless he could enliven it with the secu- man, inclosed in a wooden cage, like a chicken's after having traversed several miles of country | power to help him, he sent to the man of Austria, | with a slate roof, through which day-light was in the village till, with an old friend as guide and Austrian replied that it was just as much as he hopeless idnots. The Lady Superior has kept her instructor, we make our way to the "Falls." But | could do to look out for himself. Then the frighten- | lips resolutely closed up to the present time, but of its incapacity to give a description. The gran- he wanted aid, and Mr. Odo Russell was told to sufferers had lived in their hideous prisor for nine feet, and the Narrows about three-quarters of a liked. In his despair he sent an appeal to the the winter, "but" she added "they were idiots when mile long. We find our way out on a projecting Grand Turk and begged his kind interference. But they came." The conductor of the inquiry replied edge, and take a seat thereon. As we gaze at the the follower of Mahomet had no bowels of com- that if such were the case, it was illegal to have rushing cascade, pouring down in its fury and in passion for his old enemy in distress, and could admitted them to the Convent at all, and that

Just below the village there is another very fine | the charge so long since Peter, and as Peter was | The mattrasses and straps struck me as being easily were interesting. There was preaching at 10 o'clock logs and shingles. The shingles are conveyed from Rome prophet, priest and king.

THE FASHIONS.

the means of awakening both His professed children and covered to a great extent with white foam, Henry Ward Beecher. To such lengths has the tity of potatoes was stored, as well as barrels full of even the sick, persist in seeing their friends laid in dressing mania gone threatening to become worse > the wealthiest were distinguished for their cons- whole time for money to buy broken victuals for score mourners. picuous absence of personal adornment, and sar- | their pensioners!" Arrived at the entrance gate torial display was a mark of vulgarity, at such times our guide nudged me, telling me in whispers to look and the other to demonstrate to the one the utter | "one of the three prisoners of the wooden cages. speak well for the inhabitants. Below the village, tiny, were an agglomeration of all the jewelry, and change of scene." I passed close to her and she barns, signs, we presume, of the fertility of the soil tury as to a fair—as if her errand were not so much | ing, again filled her hands with refuse coffee- | Colfax, has been so nearly cured of cancer by the and care of the cultivators, abound in plenty. We to praise as to be appraised—and there employ the grounds, which she put into her mouth until pre- use of cundurango, the new South American remedy noticed one feature in relation to the regulations of sacred time in envious comparison of her own moun- vented by her companion. Without showing the for that terrible disease, that her complete recovery their highways, which we should like to see intro- tain of millinery with the Himalayan triumphs of least prejudice in the matter, I think I can safely is certain. Other remarkable cures are reported.

to effect it?

THE GOSPEL IN SPAIN.

We continue to receive cheering intelligence from Spain, showing that the work of God is going on among the people. A daughter of the late Archbishop Whately, who has been travelling in Spain, wrote, on the 19th of April a letter, which is published in the Dublin Evening Mail:

"It was deeply interesting to me to see the schoolhouse of San Bernardo on a Saturday evenour own favorites, such as "Just as I am," "I'm a upon his work with great zeal, and has two or three occasions during the Easter festival ustomed to the use of the shepherd's crook before | curiosity, was very striking. "They always told is flock became very unruly; and, for sheep, me," said one man from the country, "that Protesngularly rebellious. They turned upon the tants did not believe in Jesus Christ; but this man footman, and to take himself off out of the city others came next day to the mission house and f which he was the chief minister and ruler. But gratefully received books, and portions of Scripture.

THE SCANDAL OF THE DAY IN PARIS

from the attacks of his own church members. Such lie indignation been by the supposed discovery of —there being many large tracts so cleared by rein this country amounted to more than fifteen mila state of things is unheard of in the annals of the atrocities committed within those jealous walls peated fires that there is now nothing left to burn. Christian religion. When the apostle, in his rash- that the people have been peremptorily excluded The expense would only be the cost of the plants is received by the church entertaining the meeting. the country generally demands rain now. The man who was thought to be the enemy of Jesus, plete. I managed however, to penetrate within the for the seed could be sown in a cleared spot near to the Lord told him to put up his sword, for those precincts by attaching myself to the cortege of an where the plants would be set out. The whole arwho used it would perish by it. Dr. Feretti, the English friend, who was journeying thither under rangements would, of course, require to be planned the Saviour, but his own precious self. And in an establishment of the Jesuits; the other the statesmen of the present day. against all such things, believing the maxim, long manded instant permission to enter, and who were 086,387. conored in the Church over which he has the honor as persistently swept back by a group of National blunder; and calling his people together told them | trees, a few Guards were playing bowls in Jesuits' to pass a resolution that he was infallible. They alley, and making up to one of them, whose cap University: did as they were told, for the Doctor had now the displayed tokens of authority, we mentioned our make a blunder, he made the greatest blunder of to be seen. Our friend was very civil, accepted a his ministry. The day following this foolish decla- | cigar, and marched us off to go the rounds. He ration, his "eldest son" made another declaration, pointed out to us the fact, of which there certainly even of war against a mighty power unfriendly to could exist no kind of doubt, that the two build drawn swords were sent for, to come and fight the the stable, as well as by other apertures in the foes of the "eldest son." As soon as these hireling garden wall, which show signs of having been soldiers were gone, the members of Dr. Feretti's recently closed up. The Jesuits' garden is a most church rose up in arms and said they would not beautiful one, occupying a space of some twelve their servant, and not king at all, at all. They were | trees of every description, pruned and trained after willing that he should be their pastor, though he the latest horticultural designs. There are wondhad done very little preaching, and what he had rously ingenious plans too, for irrigating the beds; Victor Emmanuel, a great king, to come and rule | den, equally large and beautiful, though not kept over them in temporal things, while the Doctor with the same care. In the centre stands a gymnasium, I suppose for the use of the children This, however, was just what the old Dr. did not | brought up under the Sisters' care, and further on | Besides, he loves power as well as other people. heavy shade of ancient cypresses, lie bearers of some And while he was king as well as priest, he could of the most ancient names in France-" Prince of say to this man come and he came, to another go | Salm-kyrbourg, immolated under the Terror, aged

came to reign over Rome, that this power to inflict | ants' nests, which have been the prime cause of so pains and penalties was taken away from the head | much excitement and judicial inquiry. When the of the Church, and he was required to mind his convent was occupied by the National Guards, own business, which business was very disagreeable these little huts were tenanted each by an old wolar pleasure that had hitherto engrossed the most | pen, the three buildings being similar in size and of his attention. As his "eldest son" had lost construction, six feet square by seven in height, spray, notice there a magnificent rainbow; as | Church members no longer willing to have him for | papers, labelled "key of the great vault;" but No other buildings than those mentioned were great works of the Creator. When thus I look his twenty-fifth anniversary anything but a "silver uniform and persistent silence upon the point upon these things, "I love not man the LESS, but | wedding." The marriage bells that rung in the excavations have been made at different points in Nature MORE." But we are not permitted to main- morn of nupitals, when he was married to the the garden, and under the high altar of the chapel, tain our position long, for the spray compels us to | Church of Rome as her head, now toll the requiem | but hitherto without effect. At one end of the retire to a more remote one. Now and then, we of his power and the climax of his sufferings. From nuns' garden stands an isolated building, in which Gunter, Kinghorn, McLeod, Sherwood and Currie. see a mighty jet of water rising to the height of 40 | the windows of the Vatican he will look out over a | were found mattrasses furnished with straps and The cash receipts were over $30. We hope that in or 50 feet, and then falling in drops all sparkling city that is no longer his own, upon a world where buckles, also two iron corsets, an iron skull-cap, addition to this a deeper sympathy with the great in the sunshine. A suspension bridge crosses the he has not one to do him reverence as a king, and a species of rack turned by a cogwheel, evistream just below the Falls, from which a good | How art thou fallen, O Lucifer, never to rise again. | dently intended for bending back the body with view may be had, both of the Falls above and the To-morrow is the anniversary of his settlement force. The Superior explained that these were in Rome. It is said that no pastor in Rome has held orthopædic instruments—a superficial falsehood.

say that the ladies now shut up at St. Lazare will

OUR TIMBER RICHES.

The News says:—A gentleman well acquainted with the character and value of our timber lands, speaks as follows of the rapid destruction of Canadian timber, and of the necessity there is for some plan of obviating the injurious result of the reckless waste of one chief item of our national wealth. He says :-

trees cut will average about twenty inches in on a more enormous scale than heretofore. - Ex. diameter, the increase in size will therefore be sum lost by over-production, an idea of the foolishness of such a policy may be had. It ir quite certain that as timber gets cut away and becomes scarce, prices will rise; and that the present generation are actually killing the hen that would, if originate a scheme for re-planting with young timber trees the immense wastes of the Province of has been removed.—Methodist. Quebec. Such an investment would certainly not DAY OF THANKSGIVING.—The General Assembly pay a dividend to this generation, but it would of the Canada Presbyterian church, now sitting in trees are all cut; and would be a mine of wealth November to be held as a Day of Thanksgiving to those who possess it when the timber becomes throughout the Dominion, and have authorised and comparatively nothing grows up to supply its secure a national recognition of the Divine mercy north of the Ottawa is not fit for farming, and needs.—Montreal Witness. never can be properly made fit for grain-growing or for pasturage. But it is admirably suited for the growth of timber; and even a very limited ex-

UNIVERSITY PRIZES.

The following is the list of scholarships, prizes, the officers of the State Church. etc., awarded at the late examinations in the Successful Competitor for Microscope-O. J. Mc-

Juliy, Sussex. The French prize was divided between Messrs.

bilip Cox, Sunbury.

The Scholarship in English Literature, to Alonzo IcCully, Sussex.

The Scholarship in Classical Literature, to Chas.

Honor certificates in the different departments

empetitor, Mr. Harry G. Donald, of St. John, was

were awarded to the following students: SENIOR CLASS. Philip Cox, Mathematics and Natural Science. W. B. Chandler, English and Natural Science.

L. E. Wortman, English, A. B. Connell, English. JUNIOR CLASS.

A. McKully, Natural Science and English. O. McCully, Natural Science. D. Forsyth, Natural Science. C. W. Treadwell, Natural Sience and French. - Daniel, French.

- Lee, Natural Science, French and Classics.

FRESHMAN CLASS. S. H. Parsons, Mathematics. E. M. Kierstead, Mathematics and French. H. G. Donald, Classics and French. E. A. Everitt, Fnglish and Naturul Science.

R. W. Grover, Natural Science. W. Wilson, English. C. J. Ketchum, Classics. George Herbert Lee, of Fredericton, a member of the Junior class, has won the Alumni Gold Medal, given for the best Latin essay.

Pen and Scissors.

Pius IX., amounted to $30,000.

persons have been baptized in his college in Lon-are almost lost to ourselves in admiration of the including the Turk himself, the poor old man finds found out. The Superior and her nuns keep a true light is shining in that dark city. The follow- ings of the Union Pacific R. R., were $71,000 week ing item comes to us:

More than two hundred murders have been com-I grave suspicion, for they imply a use of brutal I vada, and only two murderers have been hanged. I and adjoining towns, on Sunday last, destroying force which no disease at present known would | Funeral Tents .- Exposure of mourners to injustify. On our way back through the gardens, clement weather when attending the burial of their The following plain remarks on the prevailing our guide made a detour in order to show us a great relatives has often resulted in fatal disease; for fashions are from the Christian Union, edited by subterranean warehouse where an enormous quan- often those worn out with watching and grief, and salt pork; while in a yard hard by lay grunting a the grave. To obviate this difficulty the managers fat pig. "Look at this!" cried our National of one of the Philadelphia cemeteries are making and worse—if possible—that it is high time there Guard indignantly. "Look at these stores, which arrangements to have a large portable tent conmight have helped the starving poor of the arron- structed, which may serve as a protection from "There was a time when good taste demanded dissement during six months' siege, and think that both heat and storms. It can be erected over the the use of the plainest clothes in the sanctuary, when | these people were begging from door to door the grave, and will accommodate something like four-

The Pope refused to see Father Hyacinthe. The sioners of the Washington Treaty of 1842, and find and places. But now-a-days, in the congregations, at the old woman who was wandering about folourselves on "Yankee" soil. The Aroostook above on the Sabbath, rich and poor alike seem on a desmation to the other, in point of extravagant display, and gravel. "That is Sœur Bernardine," he said, "Once the Good Shepherd ran after the lost sheep, hopelessness of the attempt. It would appear as if, She is the most sane in her mind of the three, and and bore him tenderly back on his shoulders. Now whatever might be thought of the propriety of a | we keep her here under the care of one of our wives | the lost sheep seeks the Good Shepherd—or him situated on the river, about three miles from the modest garb in other places, the proper costume to cheer her up. She is only fifty, though she looks you regard as such—and is driven away. What a distance between the Gospel and the Vatican!"

ALLEGED CURE FOR CANCER.—The Washington

MORMONS AND METHODISTS.—A great Methodist camp meeting is in full blast in the heart of Great Salt Lake City. The preaching is in a mammoth A British steam tug was recently wrecked in the Straits of Magellan, and all the crew but one were either killed or made prisoners by the savages of Patagonia. Captain Hall has sailed from New York in the Polaris on his voyage of Polar discovery, determined this time to overcome all obstacles and attain the object for which many brave men have unsuccessully struggled or perished amid the icebergs.

THE HARVEST prospects in France and Prussia are discouraging, much of the seed having perished. n Eastern Europe an abundant yield is anticipated. To obtain an idea of the regular increase in In England the excessive cold has greatly damaged the value of growing timber, it may be supposed the crops, and the season is almost too late for them that it grows one quarter of an inch in diameter to recuperate. From all this we may presume that yearly, which is not over the mark; and as the the emigration to this continent next year will be about seven and a half feet per log, B. M., or over has reformed its execrable divorce legislation. By We see it stated in the Revolution that Indiana 3½ per cent. If to this 3½ per cent. be added the the amended law a bona-fide residence of three years is necessary before a divorce for any cause can be had, and if the acts complained of were committed in another State, they must be such as would constitute a ground of divorce there. This latter provision effectually takes away all reason Government would deserve the praise of the for going to the courts of Indiana from other States. It is a gratification to us to announce one of the greatest scandals of American legislation atilize what will only be a wilderness when the Quebec, have appointed the third Thursday of large enough to be merchantable. By maintaining communication with the other religious bodies a judiciously matured system of planting, the sup- with a view to secure, as far as possible, its general ply might be prolonged indefinitely; as it is, the observance-or, if more convenient, some other day forests are denuded of all their valuable timber, in the same week. It is to be hoped this effort to place. A very large proportion of the country and goodness will meet the success it so much

How it Looks.—Not quite eight millions were expended last year in the United States for church buildings, ministerial education, the publication of Bibles and religious books, and home and foreign missions, while the consumption of artificial flowers lions. Comment is unnecessary. When will the people of the United States pay as much to convert this world to Jesus Christ as they do for artificial

Russia has a new sect, whose stronghold is the Pope, was so addicted to the custom of imitating special official orders to investigate the case of an by a practical man, and properly carried out; and district of Orenburgh. It owes its orgin to Feodor night, serious are the apprehensions that the crops | Peter, that he fancied himself his successor and | English sister named Garrett. In the Rue de | such being the case, there need be no fear of the | Kayniki, who claims direct communication with surrounded himself with a guard of men with Picpus, near Mazas prison, stand two large build- result. What is above suggested can be done, and the Deity, and announces that his mission is to prodrawn swords, who should slice off, not the ears, ings, each surrounded by high walls, above which may yet be accomplished; and he who does it will vide an earthly paradise for those who follow him. but the heads, of any and all who attacked, not may be seen green trees at intervals. The one is be a greater benefactor to Canada than any of the The spiritual basis of the new body has not as yet been clearly defined, but one of the seculiar condi-Currie, Shaw and McLeod, with Licentiates Hart- situated on the right bank of the river, and which him was fulfilled the words of the Lord respecting Convent of the White Nuns. The Jesuit brothers How increasingly dependent the States are upon tions is the payment of 5,000 rubles to its founder, escaped at the first sign of approaching danger, Canada for the supply of lumber, may be seen from after which the candidate has to pass through sev-The Doctor was very much opposed to the pro- but the sisters held their own until forced into the fact, that last year, out of 289,315,329 feet im- eral ranks before attaining the privileges of full gress of learning, and feared, with much truth, cabs and conveyed to the cells of St. Lazare, there ported into Oswego, only 4,190,888 feet were from membership. Every subsequent promotion is made hat the reading of the Bible and other good books, to await the results of a judicial inquiry into cer- other parts of the States. All the rest was Cana- under a similar purchase system, so that the sect the establishment of schools and newspapers, &c., tain matters that are deemed suspicious. Arrived dian; while the quantity imported during the last consists almost entirely of opulent men. The fund there are twenty-three churches in the District. It Business does not appear to be very brisk here at | would be bad for his business, which was to keep at the gate of the Convent, we were obliged to force | 24 years into the same city, showed 1,407,564,056 | thus accumulated is, according to the statutes of the is true there were many things reported which were present. The mouth of the Tobique river we his place as Pope of Rome, and he set his face our way through a crowd of angry people who detinople, which the founder predicts will take place on the Emperor's birthday (the 29th of April) in the year 1873. This political clause may possibly be efficaious in preventing an annoying inquiry by

>  An attempt has been made by some of the Douglas Gold Medalist-L. E. Wortman, Salis- King's County Justices, to grant Tavern Licenses, and with this object in view, a special Session was called on Monday last. The attempt was a failure however, the Sessions confirming their former de-Vortman and Chandler, their marks being equal. cision, to grant none, by a vote of 23 to 10. Good The Mathematical Scholarship was awarded to for King's! Stick to that resolution, and the great evil will be at least measurably cured.

> Correction.—Last week, the printers made us Ketchum, St. Andrews. The competition for say, that "Rev. Aaron King is now on a visit to cholarship was close, the maximum of marks at- Miramichi." A Rev. gentleman of that name may ained by Mr. Ketchum being 742, and that of his be there for aught we know, but Rev. Aaron Kin-714. A book prize was accordingly awarded to the ney was the brother to whom we referred.

> > * The Carleton Sentinel of last week, published an extract from a correspondence to the Intelli-GENCER, but by mistake, gave the credit to the  We have received a specimen of Card Print> > ing, from the office of Mr. Geo. W. Day, which is very neatly done. Mr. Day guarantees to do all work well and promptly. ACKNOWLEDGMENT of money for the Missions, received at Third District Meeting and through > > other channels, had to be held over till next week Some of our Exchanges are addressed to St John. The Editor's Office is in Fredericton, and Publishers will confer a favor by addressing papers intended for him to FREDERICTON.

The News and the Press.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 23, 1871.

Brevities.—The body of the young man Friel, drowned several weeks since, was found opposite Fredericton last week .- A young man named Ur-The collections in the Roman Catholic churches | quhart, was killed on the Intercolonial Railroad, in New York, on Sunday, 11th inst., in aid of Pope near Newcastle, a few days ago.—Hon. Messrs. Tilley and Tupper are in St. Andrews.—Brigham Mr. Spurgeon claims that over eleven thousand Young celebrated his 70th birthday by a dinner don, and that forty Baptist churches have been party, at which 87 of his wives and children and erected in that city since the commencement of his grandchildren were present.—Besides the 46,000 Germans killed in France, 4,900 officers, and 112,-ROME.—The truth, as it is in Jesus, is spreading | 038 non-commissioned officers and men have been in Rome. Bibles and tracts are circulated and rendered permanently invalids,-The "passenger read, and though some of them are gathered by movement" between California and the East may the priests, and burned, others will be read. The be judged from the fact, that the passenger earnbefore last .- A recent remarkable tornado, in The Waldenses now worship publicly in the city Illinois, had a forward movement of but six miles of Rome! Oh! how the world has changed and per hour, but its rotary movement was such that is changing! The noble protest of Father Hya- the very earth was ploughed up in its track. This were sold in a few days. One of the daily newspapers published in Rome publishes an editorial, an American company have offered to restore withfrom which the following is an extract: "Italy has in five years, all the public buildings lately destroya worse enemy in the pope than France has in ed in Paris.—The seventeen-year locusts have made Prussia. The papacy is not religion. It denies religion. It created Catholicism, but it kills Christimillions, and are rapidly spreading over the whole State. Their last ravages before were in 1854.—

Sabbath-school met in the morning. The exercises operations are being carried on in the rafting of and will be the last of those who claim to be in but the rack and its adjuncts are justly objects of mitted within ten years in a single county of Ne- A terrible tornado swept through Paxton, Mass.